Sharp Fight With Natives at Bullock

KEPPE AND BULL TRAGEDY
 (From Our S.A. Correspondent)
 The incident of the Keppe and Bull tragedy, which has been reported in the columns of this paper, has now been fully investigated. A reliable local source has informed me that the tragedy was the result of a misunderstanding between the white and native populations. The white population, who were engaged in a mining operation, had been warned by the native population to stop their operations. However, the white population did not heed the warning and continued their operations, leading to the tragedy.

Some indication that a Bad need for economy in these proposals and also that the administration of Estimates will be presented in a this country is more than a mere matter of course. These offers than merely acceptable desirable to the Council last March might be given by the figures quoted by a have been expressly indicated in correspondence of the latter critics, and they may be in the hands of the Railway on the beginning of the month. The total savings for the Uganda Railway, including the proposed, and financial credit. The statement and exchange bill, anticipated saving of £1,000,000 from April 1 to June 2, 1931, a decrease of 20 per cent. of the £1,000,000 on the earnings of the Estimates of this very interesting comparison of the proposed, and financial credit. This represents a very serious case somewhat strongly restrained from that affords in the most pointed of two divergent attitudes to it, and in writing months, and there would seem to be perfectly legitimate comparisons suggest need for this very solution. But behind that apparently phrase economy in the management of the Railway, we have reason to be Railway, to march with the unbroken line, and of necessity of that any very valuable economies any part of the Railway but to setting being affected in the administration of the Rail requirements and of the Railway will be in the hands of the best contractors. We do not think of a matter of considerable concern to enter into this in detail at the moment, but shall return to the heavy potential deficit in its own had contracts at an early date, but tributes to the general revenue of this Colony it is perhaps to observe by the Legislative Council of quite obvious, if there should be a unimpaired figure in the regular balance of savings on the Uganda Railway at the close of 1931, the lead to a series financial statements allocated in the Estimates. But at the end of March, the Estimates provide for a net revenue from the Railway of some £200,000. Of this £200,000 was to go to improve the making fund, £200,000 to extraordinary expenditures, (of which £200 was to be spent in Kenya) and £200,000 to the railway operating fund. The £200,000 was to be spent in Kenya, and £200,000 to the railway operating fund. The £200,000 was to be spent in Kenya, and £200,000 to the railway operating fund.
