Mr. Montagu and Lord Curzon

BRITISH HISTORY OF PUBLICATION OF INDIAN SABRE

QUESTIONS IN HOUSE OF COMMONS.

CHARGES & COUNTER-CHARGES.

[TRENTON DEFENCE'S ANSWER.]

London, March 11. In a speech at Cambridge, Mr. Montagu said he had been told by Indian Government's telegrams among the members of the Cabinet on the 9th and 10th that Lord Curzon could not be present. Lord Curzon could, if he had desired, have remained in the Cabinet to give his full adherence to the policies of the party which was ample time to send a telegram stopping at Curzon, however, maintained silence, while Mr. Montagu the same evening, "one of those pliant, quivering, quibbling, butchering lawyers, who are so familiar to us all," requested that he should remain in the Cabinet; also adding that he should not allow publication of such documents in future without consulting him.

DEBATE IN THE HOUSE.

London, March 11. In the House of Commons a lively discussion took place on Mr. Montagu's speech of question time.

When you are told that Duncan (The Grocer) & Coopet & Cie. (The Grocer) have joined forces. It surprises you. And yet the amalgamation has been successful. What does it mean? It means success in finding new premises where they will continue to satisfy you as in the past. Their editors will tell you what they need, not tell you that they are confident of increasing their dividends.

A Perfect Dairy outfit, including:

Separate Curd, Butter Making Plant.
Also the House Furniture.

The sale will take place at Mrs. Colman-Brown's Kedowa Farm, between Lembwa and Kedowa.

A passenger train leaves Nairobi at 10 a.m. on Wednesday, March 26th, and arrives at Lamu Station at 11 a.m. Tuesday evening at 11.45 a.m. arrives at Kedowa at 10.45 a.m.

Persons attending the sale will be met at Lamu Station by the evening. They are advised to book accommodation on the train a week in advance.

Lunch will be served at the farm.

The Auctioneer would like to express his conviction that this is the greatest opportunity that has been given to those interested in stock to buy from a name from a noted strain, and are some of the best bred herds in the country.

The milking cows in particular are probably the best herd that has ever been offered for sale in East Africa.

The reason of this is that Mr. Colman-Brown is giving up the Kedowa Farm, and this is a chance for buyers which should not be missed.

KENYA TRADING CORPORATION, LTD.

P. O. Box 653. Mackinnon's Buildings, Nair. bl.

FOR SALE

ONE OF THE BEST LICENCED HOUSES IN THE COUNTRY.

THE KENYA TRADING CORPORATION, LTD., HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED TO SELL BY PRIVATE TREATY, THE LONDINI HOTEL.

The Hotel consists of large buildings which contain Dining Room, Lounge, Bar, Office, 14 Bedrooms, Kitchen, Stores, Etc.

The Grounds cover about 6 acres, and there are two tennis courts attached to the Hotel.

The whole property offers an opportunity which rarely comes to those who want a sound and remunerative investment.

The property will be sold as a going concern, including all furniture, cutlery, linen, crockery, etc., and the purchaser can walk straight in.

The reason for this sale, is on account of the lengthy illness of the proprietor, which necessitates him retiring from business.

Full particulars as to turnover, price, and any other information, can be obtained from the Kenya Trading Corporation, Ltd., Mackinnon's Buildings, Nairobi. P. O. Box 653.

Upline Notes

[From Our Own Correspondent.]

London, March 15.

By a slip of the pen "Nairobi" appeared last week in these notes where it was written in the brackets of the name of Nairobi. The person who complained that a name of fact had been in effect without his consent, and he had received a modest bill for 12/- damage, has now applied to the Nairobi school, where he presumably does not consult such trifles, upon whom it might be suggested that added "details" be carefully restricted to the terms of the Order of the day, and the general practice of Kenya, before the native inhabitants are reported to have recently come to terms of growing acceptance of the new name, as used in an era in which the original native inhabitants are yet unknown, so it is hardly the Bill of Rights that will find full effect out. Neither tribe can be accused of offering undue resistance to the temptation that small minded.

A cheque which I observed the other day is an interesting sign of the local times. It was held by a man whose name I could not learn, but he was a large local shambu had just married. It was for £100.00 dated 1920.

Mr. Lambert, at Lambs Court, has decided an employment case of far-reaching importance. He took up work, which would bring him £100.00 per month, but he did not receive a month's notice to leave; but he took French leave and did not return when he was missed. So the directors made a bad case of it and sued him for damages to cover unexpired time.

The Magistrate, however, accepted the company, on the ground of local custom. He said that it was not enforceable as between European and European because the notice was such that he had no legal cause to sue. But far better, he said, and deservedly so, such custom prevails in India, from whence it comes to this country. Neither was it asserted that the customs of Europe were not enforceable as between European and Indian, or as between Indian and Indian.

The field of battle is the five hundred bulls and hulks belonging to Mr. Oly Morgan, who had nine men with him, and the court sat without result. They disappeared a couple of nights ago.

The cattle-stealing prevalent just now may be due to the same affray which has just occurred between Lambs and Kikuyus. The latter, who had been on Cawood's land, so far as the details are to hand, it appears that the Kikuyus had driven the cattle into his five goats.

The Kikuyus retaliated with accusations of theft, and, according to Lambs, started to burn his property, set about the boy and gave him a rough house. He got the other side, and the Kikuyus were a hundred Lambs' game along armed with rungs. So far as the court sat without result. They would welcome such an appeal to make a lasting judgment for the colony.

The Auctioneer will be pleased to express his conviction that this is the greatest breeding stock ever given to these interested states, and some of the best animals, which come from a noted strain, and are some of the best head cows in the country.

The milking cows in particular, are probably the best herd that have ever been offered for sale in East Africa.

The name of this herd is that of Mrs. Colman-Brown is giving to the Kedore Farm, and this is a chance for buyers which should not be missed.

These cattle are for buyers for whom there should not be much to pay.

The Auctioneer will be pleased to answer any questions.
