THE NEW BILL.

The draft of the new Railway Bill. which Bill is to consolidate the law governing the construction and orking of Railways in British East Africa, has been made public: It will incite very considerable interest.

The tenour of the Bill is remark. The tenour of the Bull is remarkable—to East Africans. Its class of the state of th -to East Africans. Its clause

We prefer to regard this new spirit as one which has come to stay and one which will eventually pervade throughout the length and breadth of the country, sweeping away all the older fashioned (to be polite) uppSitionists in its progress. The first important principle disclosed in the Bill is the establish.

ment of a Railway Board (Railway Commission is the term used in the text). Those of us, who have urged in season and out of season, for an independant. Board, a Board apart from the Railway management proper, cannot fail to be gratified at the prospect of obtaining this end. In the Bill the Board's power are limited to questions of fact but there is every reason to look Newland, Tarlton & Go NAIROBI.

forward to the extension of these powers in the very near future.

To secure strict impartiality the Safari Outfitters chairman of the commission must be one or another of His Majesty's and Porters supplied at short not Trophies packed and forwarded High Court Judges. The other two members are selected by the Govrnor in Council, one of whom must have some railway experience. The other, no doubt, although it is not specifically stipulated in the draft, will be selected from among our Colonists; a man of large local ex-erience of the country's needs.

Later on in the Bill there, appears the title, 'Rort Commissioners.' The words are only mentioned in one lace, and merely incidentally, but we do not think the Public will go far astray if they deduct from the ernment has in view the setting up of Harbour Boards to assist in governing our chief Harbours. The necessity of establishing a Harbour Board at Kilindini is well known to our merchants and shipping agents

We also note with pleasure that the interests of the lowest classes of Railway travellers have been care; fully considered The Bill when it becomes law will prevent the present over crowding of natives --males and female in a heap.

It will also allow for decency with regard to domestic arrang ments, and, we trust, when amended it will forbid the locking of any third

Mass carriage doors during a journey

Subject to certain newled amend elsewhere, the Bill should go through at one sitting of the Council and should be promulgated as a Law of the Protectorate at the earliest possible date.

Continental Correspondence.

Despite the interest excited by the Aviation Week, no topic has been more to the fore for the last few days than the strange case

" PETTICOATS " AND THE Wineson Churchill as the Open Letter to the Secretary of State for War.

How long, we should like to ask you, sir, is such a state of things to be permitted to continue. Is the Army to be confroiled by soldiers, or are the perturned petucoats of Beigravia and Mayfair to reign supreme? What kind of an Army oan we possibly expect to have if its strings are to be pulled from the drawing-rooms and boudoirs of from the drawing-rooms and country or Society. Probably there has never been a time when familiate influence in the Army was so familiate influence in the Army was so that a dozen ladies, all well known in Society, who, as you must be aware, openly boast of their ability to do well for their friends, and correspondingly ill for those who displease them. And they are as good as their word. For this reason it is ardenly to be hoped
