ITALY AND RUSSIA

SENATOR SCHINZER ON TERMS OF CO-OPERATION

Politics in Trade Agreements

FROM ROMA TO THE MARE

(CONTRIBUTOR OF THE ROMA TELEGRAM COLUMN)

Roma, June 19.—Senator Schinzer, of the Foreign Affairs Committee, made a statement during the Conference on the International Convention on the Law of the Sea, which opened in Rome on June 17. He said that Italy had long been interested in the Convention, and that it had been one of the first to sign it. He said that Italy was now ready to sign it, and that it was doing so as a gesture of goodwill towards the other countries which had signed it. He said that Italy was also ready to discuss the Convention with the other countries which had not signed it, and that it was doing so as a gesture of goodwill towards them. He said that Italy was also ready to discuss the Convention with the other countries which had not signed it, and that it was doing so as a gesture of goodwill towards them.

Agreement not 'firmest'

It is stated, however, that the Committee of the United Nations is still working on the Convention, and that it is not yet ready to sign it. It is also stated that the Convention is not yet ready to be signed, and that it is not yet ready to be signed. It is also stated that the Convention is not yet ready to be signed, and that it is not yet ready to be signed.

General views of Italian press

The general views of the Italian press on the Convention are mixed. Some are in favour of it, while others are against it. Some are in favour of it, while others are against it. Some are in favour of it, while others are against it.
