THE BOMBING MAY TEAR A LEG.
 Some thirty years ago, if you were on a steamer, you would look out to the north-east coast of New Britain, where on the Caroline River, where there would still be some of the most beautiful scenery which made this region and the whole of New Guinea so famous, where Mr. Charles Fryer is the only man who has been known to have survived the explosion of a bomb which fell on the river.
 The bomb which fell on the river was a large one, and it was supposed to be a bomb which had been exploded to destroy the river, and to destroy the river, and to destroy the river.

Pediculus!

No wonder poor Square Tin looks so dejected as he sits on the shelf, he realises that it is all up with him—the Doctors can hold out no hope.

For see that the X-Rays reveal in his hair "pediculus" with a vengeance! Tyroglyphus longus (you can see what he looks like under the microscope), and all the other troubles which Square-Tin Tea is heir to.

The only way to make sure that your tea is free from this unpleasant condition is to insist upon Brooke Bond tea in the patent vacuum-packed tin. Then you get fine, pure, crisp tea, and fresh as the day it left the garden.

Brooke Bond vacuum packed tea in the vacuum-packed tin.

It costs no more than ordinary tea.
