European Vegetables at the Coast.

SUPPLY

We have received from Mr. Brand of the Sabaki-Syndicate, Lad., a parcel of splended Tomatore grown at Malindi. A letter secom-panying the parcel reads as follows:

The Sabaki Syndicate, Limited Malindi, August 12th 08.

The Edilor,
Dear Sir,
I am sending you a small but of tomatoes.
I am sending you a small but of tomatoes,

of Bornoam vegetables.

Mombasa residents to have a regular supply of European vegetables and aithough it is not in my line! I should be willing to back anybody sesting up a fruit and vegetable supply at Mombas by supplying many of the common vegetables for 6 months in the year if they fetched anybing like home prices to pay for labour, etc.

These bonelson are purnously save to the prices to pay for labour, etc.

These somatoes are purposely sent partially unripe but they will soon ripen in the sun.

They are from seed collected continuously for the third year from date of importation.

Yours faithfully. E. BRAND.

We, on our own Plantations, Meritini Estates, at mile 7 on the Uganda Railway are also cultivating European vegetables for our own use and we believe there is a good opening on the Mombass market for any plantate who carse to give attention to maket planter who cares to give attention to make garden produce. We find endive and common lettuce, tomatoes, leaks, venetab n lettuce, tomatoes, leaks, venetable rrows and cucumbers all thrive success-y in our local climate. We hear a neighbour is successfully cultivating ca

Trade of Zanzibar. CONSUL SINCLAIR'S REPORT

Trade in Zasnihar was an entidatory during 100° that ascording to a Consideration 100° that ascording to a Consideration of the Conside a record. It is estimated, however, that the crop for the present year will amount 40 med less than 200,000 bales. The total value of imports during the year was £1.353,000, or about £350,000 more than in 1300, while are ports were valued at £1,000,000, or as thereas ports were valued at £1,000,000, or as thereas a fact of £55,000. The future of the Sulmant to were bounded to seems to be very hopeful, as notes inhamaline, the loss of a counterable portion of the Iranahipunest trade, owing to the opening system of the mainly occumination between all the mainland procumination between all the mainlands, and inherent view of the mainlands. There appears further, every of the beautiful and the satisfactory maintenance of the distribution of the period of the period of the period of the period of the maintain resources of the country and the more direct out of the population, since the more direct out of the population, since the more direct out of the population in 1960, will cause a number of proposition in 1960, will cause a number of the period of the in commercial prosperity during the future.

A Public Undertaking.

We have been favoured with an advance copy of a Prospectus of the Mombasa Electric Lighting Company and it makes good reading The first Directors are men of long residence in East Africa and them selves successful in business which should be an important consideration to shareholders. Success is apt to follow success. Furthermore, the ELECTRIC LIGHT Directors are representative of the European, British Indian and Arab Communities, each of the Directors holding considerable interest in the Colony either in immovable Property or in business interests or in b feature in the promotion of the COMPANY, LIMITED Company and one which we regard favourably is that no cash is paid out of the Company's Funds to Promoters, as Promoters.

Whatever payments are made out of the Cash Funds by the Directors are made against assets with the exception of a sum estimated in the Prospectus not to exceed one hundred pounds which is to be paid against the cost of registration, advertising etc.

The Company has been very favourably treated by H. M. Government which is only right considering that the fulfilment of the object of the company are likely be prove a convenience if not an actual benefit to the Public of Mombasa, Many Electric Lighting Companies hav to face considerable expenditure in the beginning, in payments for Land sites, Rights of way, Parliamen tary Bills etc. all of which the Mon basa Company's capital has been kept down as low as will allow for the purchase of the adequate machinery and shareholders will have the satisfaction of knowing to within a few pounds exactly how much money will be spent by the Directors in purchasing and erecting the machinery for the commencement of business. The advantage Mombasa has over Zanzibar-where an Electric Company is prospering—is in the price of fuel. At Zanzibar fuel costs as much as fourteen rupees a ton or rearly the price of coal in Europe nearly the price of coast in Europe while for many years to come fuel should not exceed seven rupees a lon at Mombasa. This is important at the question of the cost of fuel plays that question of the cost of fuel plays a large part when the profits in dealing in electrical current are being reskoned. Indeed we see no reason why the Company should not be able to produce electricity at the same price, if not cheaper than in most Provincial Towns in Europe; salaries and wages in Mombasa are considerably lower and fuel is as cheap, in many cases cheaper, than in Europe. The average price Electricity is sold at in Provincial Towns is from five pence to six pence per unit and the cost of production averages from 21 annas to 41 annas per unit. The cost to the Mombasa Company should not exceed four and a half annas.

It may appear at first sight that the Company is beginning business on a very small scale but we are assured that the Directors have given close consideration to this point and have decided in favour of small beginnings with a view of extending by additional machinery from time to time. We admit we prefer a Company which in beginning its existence limits its capital to its necessities as we consider over anitalization is a common error made by many young companies.

Intending Shareholders in accept-ing the opportunity of becoming Founders as well as Original ordinary Shareholders will, we believe, in the not distant future congratulate themselves to the same extent as the original shareholders in the little Gr ocer's shop once owned by Thomas Lipton.

It would seem that every taste is catered for. There is excellent shooting the house commands a view of the sur-rounding country to satisfy the most fastidious. The cool clear air of the hills will appeal to all who seek respite from work in the nervating heat, and to those who are unable to content thereaeves, the content has been as about time, away from the attrac-tions of a club, one might mention that the house will accommodate a Bridge four.

Chinamen's Dodges.

Chiname are making constant attempts to defy the immigration laws and to enter Australia. The federal immigration searchers at Sylany recently discovered nine Chinames lying on top of the tollers of the German vessel. Prinz Waldmar. They were used cognisable at first owing to the dust and grease with which they were overed.

Jewish Territorialists

An Autonomous Colony.

The Jewish territorial organisation has held its anniversary meeting at Whilischapel. Mr. Israel Zangwill stated that a colonisa-tion expedition was being completed, but that the time of its going and its destination were the time or its goven, as secret.

The chairman, described the proposed colony as an extensive and healthy country where Jews would settle in large numbers and be allowed to work and be become the predominant people in that part of the world.
