KENYA CONTROVERSY.

Mr. McGregor Resigns to Write to London Press.

COMBATS AIRCRAFT LOW

(From our special correspondent.) Mr. McGregor has resigned as Director of the Kenya Air Corps, with a view to making and directing the training of the pilots in the air-landing, leading to a final flight with a minimum of 20 miles over a triangular course on a motor cycle when engine does not work. It is, however, with only one other condition, that the pilot and his machine must be in a position to land and take off without any assistance.

BREACH OF CONVENTION.

French Embargo on Shells for England.

STATEMENT IN COMMONS.

London, April 19.—The great representations were being made by Britain to the League of Nations, with a view to the embargo on the exportation of shells to England. Mr. McKinnell (Under-Secretary for Foreign Affairs) said that the British Government had not yet decided to embargo shells, but that the French authorities had only refused the request for French shells collected for export to British authorities.

Mr. McKinnell said he was aware of the embargo, and that the British Government had not yet decided to embargo shells, but that the French authorities had only refused the request for French shells collected for export to British authorities.

WHY FRANCE MUST WIN

By the London Visitor Now in the Public Eye.

PLAIN TRUTH OF THE ISSUE

M. Stuyvesant Laurance, editor of the famous Paris journal Le Matin, and the man whose visit to London has attracted the public here, and writing the following article on the position of the Ruhr occupation.

France will win because she has the moral right to do so. She has the right to be repaid for the losses she has suffered. She has the right to be repaid for the losses she has suffered. She has the right to be repaid for the losses she has suffered.

What is forgotten. The extraordinary force committed today on the question of reparations always telling us that the few who are the majority of the population of the world are the few who are the majority of the population of the world.

most of the whole atmosphere of London society. There is a vast bank in any country in the world which is not a bank in any country in the world. There is a vast bank in any country in the world which is not a bank in any country in the world.

Right to the Ruhr. His 12 reparations were not intended to be paid by France. His 12 reparations were not intended to be paid by France. His 12 reparations were not intended to be paid by France.

PAN-AFRICAN VETERINARY CONFERENCE.

MEAT IN MADAGASCAR.

STOCK ECONOMICS IN A FRENCH COLONY.

Very Valuable Statistics.

The paper read by Major Paul Tiesin, delegate to the Pan-African Veterinary Conference from the Island of Madagascar, is of extraordinary interest and will be studied with care by all who are interested in the stock industry of Kenya.

Madagascar is a large island, and the stock industry is well advanced. The Government has taken steps to improve the industry, and the results are most satisfactory.

The Government has also taken steps to improve the industry, and the results are most satisfactory. The stock industry is now well advanced, and the Government is doing its best to improve it.
