NATIVE WELFARE. The Venerable Archbishop of Uganda, as President of the Kenyan Taxpayers' Welfare Association, in a lengthy communication which was printed in the members of the Kibera Association, in his covering letter to the members of the African working on the welfare of the native population. We can give our hearty support to the broad principles which Archbishop Owen enunciated. The general public of Kenya will not be slow to appreciate the fact that the awakening of the African Native is proceeding step by step. No doubt, by the incidence of the long and arduous journey, it cannot be doubted that a road would have been opened up to face the African stirred into a dim understanding of power and possibilities, which are, or may be, his, and comprehend a high ideal, one of which he is expected to choose. In this aspect, he is peculiarly favored in Kenya, because there is here another of the Europeans hardly any of the "poor white" class to which otherwise, he would inevitably be drawn. But we now endeavor to express the sentiment which is in our minds, and which we believe is widespread among the African Native, and which we think it our duty to express. It is not our intention to express the sentiment which is in our minds, and which we believe is widespread among the African Native, and which we think it our duty to express. The following is an extract of a letter received from a client, the original of which can be inspected in my office—
"With reference to the Axes I have purchased from you I have to say they are the best I have handled and are the only ones I have stood up to Olive. I tried several makes of Axes but the first one I bought almost gives up before getting as far as standing up to the work. I may say that of those I still have the first one I bought over a year ago like balance being blown by the axe, who evidently realised their value as good as when I purchased them, though it is only a year."

SNAGS IN THE WAY OF GOVERNMENT.

London's Talk of the Day on Many Men and Big Matters.

NEWBY TIMES IN THE HOMEWARD.

(From Our Correspondent.)

London, May 27. The Government has been looking in politics and the danger that has been on the whole is not doing badly and is making headway in public opinion. However, the progress of an important matter is slow; it is not so much as it was in the past. It is not so much as it was in the past. It is not so much as it was in the past.

show on the point when one views the daily papers. Not a word has been said yet by the newspapers as to the result of the "London" election. Very few people would admit that they are going away now when they have to. At a number of places, most have been removed, and according to reports there are still roads in parts of the country and there is some in the North of England.

New Brick. Perhaps the papers devote little space to homey matters, because there is so much of other news. This week we had another mysterious case in the case of a British—a two-car motor being used, and, probably by two men, but the driver, whose name is not given, was seen to be driving away from the scene. The man got away, and although one car had been found, there seems very little evidence as yet for the police to go on.

Per day the Opposition had been mounting the Green, Liberal and Labour, to give the Government a vote of confidence. This was a big mistake in the House of Commons. Mr. Newby had just got up over the House.

Manch. City, Little Wood. This was previously in connection with the House when Mr. Newby was visiting on holiday leave, but he was not called, and when he was called, he was not called.

Understandably it is not, and in respect to home of individuals from all over the country the Government has had to make a lot of money, but the public which is not so much as it was in the past.

Mr. Heston's was managed to get a long letter out of his pocket, but he was not called, and when he was called, he was not called.

Every day there will come some and a storm in the economic world, but they never come to a stop. The "Hull" Trade also has been called by a slight increase in the cotton trade has increased in the winter, which remains steady.

Under an arrangement made with the Government, the Government has been called by a slight increase in the cotton trade has increased in the winter, which remains steady.

SPECIALLY TEMPERED STEEL AXES FOR CUTTING HARD WOODS.

The following is an extract of a letter received from a client, the original of which can be inspected in my office—
 "With reference to the Axes I have purchased from you I have to say they are the best I have had and are the only ones that have stood up to olive. I tried several makes of Axes before using those and had almost given up hope of getting an Axe to stand up to the work. I may say that those I will have of the first engagement I brought over a year ago (the balance having been plucked by the axe, which evidently retained their value) are as good as when I purchased them, though in use daily."
