THE COMPETITION

We have now 21 entries, the latest being our old friend McDonald, who writes from Dar-es-Salaam, which seems to our notice and hopes to come to Nairobi shortly. He tells the news, by the R.M.S. Khambatta which would indeed be a good name for a ship carrying chess players, but I think he means the B.T. Khambatta. His solution seems for another day to No. 2. It consists, really the fourth algebraic that has been made at this remarkable little problem, as instead of scoring 4-6 he gets 4-1, which indicates he can perhaps afford! We shall see.

BRITISH SOLDIERS MURDERED

MACHINE GUN FIRED INTO A CROWD

Irish Outrage.

BRITISH SOLDIERS MURDERED IN COLD BLOOD.

£10,000 Reward.

HANDGUNS NOT ATTRIBUTED TO MURDER IN DOUBT.

The first serious sign of the revival of Civil War in Ireland is an unprecedented attack upon British troops sitting at Quinners in Kerry. A number of men in a motor car targeted a machine gun across a crowd on Quinners Park, firing on British soldiers and wounding four men seriously. President O'Connell has ordered the British Government that everything will be done to trace the motor car and a reward of £10,000 has been offered.

London, March 23. Four Free State soldiers attacked with a machine-gun British post the landing at Quinners on last night. Twelve were killed or injured. Shots were also sent to M.M. Doyle from a motor car, the news papers reporting "Up To Us." Later one soldier was killed at Quinners and another person was wounded, none of whom were Irish.

London, March 23. President O'Connell has telegraphed to Mr. Henry MacMahon saying he is anxious to meet that British leader, but has been told that British troops have been ordered not to meet him. Whether the article was misquoting the Free State men is not clear.

What a difference!

HERE is the tea that will make you say that.

Blended in the Brooke Bond way which can only be appraised by tasting the result. Preserved in perfection by the vacuumised tin which retains no stagnant tea-destructive tropical air to spoil the flavour.

A little extra goodness in the tea; a little extra care in preserving that goodness. Just the difference between ordinary care and extraordinary care that makes this necessary—a luxury!
