THEATRE ROYAL

AN UNPARALLELED SCENIC, SPECTACULAR DRAMA

HERE is a gripping love drama of the South Sea Islands, throbbing with the romance and love of a wild, free land; a narrative of reckless traders of the sea, fighting men and beautiful women; a story of action and thrills that will delight the audiences of Kenya. Don't miss this photo-play treat, the first great moving picture to be filmed in the South Sea Islands!

PHOTOGRAPHICALLY the film is magnificent. One is transported to the mystically beautiful isles of the South Sea. Amid the waving coconut palms one lives the life of the wild islanders to the accompaniment of the throbbing tom-toms and the diapason of the reef beyond the blue lagoon. Realism, thrilling poignant realism is the keynote of this giant production. One is taken right out of ones-self. Along the golden strand under the palm fronds by the sapphire sea one walks with Lorna, the beautiful heroine of this intense story. One sits in stricken horror with her lover, the wandering painter who had come to transfer the glorious beauty of these South Sea emerald gems to his canvas, as he is slowly being driven insane with the exquisite torture of the throbbing, booming drums. One feels the tang of primitive manhood grip one's very vitals as the legions of opposing warriors close in a welter of mortal combat. One itches to join Capt. Blackbird in his titanic struggle with the primordial brute who had ruined his happiness and almost destroyed his soul. And to be revenged upon the crafty, licentious pirate Waki is the dominating feeling one has as the beautiful Lorna seems to become irrevocably the hapless victim of his bestial nature.

LOYD THE ARTIST.

To penetrate the sacred lands of the Deep tribes meant death to any white man. But to the painter Lloyd came the troubleless call of South Sea life and he loved a thousand deaths.

Why did Captain Blackbird sail the Southern Sea with a crew of out-throats? Why did he harbor a black hound for all vengeance, except the little girl who craved with him on the mysterious ship "The Wave" fared by blacks and whites through all the hidden islands of the South Sea?

Her eyes made men mad with the joy of living. Eyes that sent a shiver down a throng of rebellion. Eyes that served righteousness in pain and riddle for the man she loved.

THEATRE ROYAL

AN UNPARALLELED SCENIC, SPECTACULAR DRAMA

HERE is a gripping love drama of the South Sea Islands, throbbing with the romance and love of a wild, free land; a narrative of reckless traders of the sea, fighting men and beautiful women; a story of action and thrills that will delight the audiences of Kenya. Don't miss this photo-play treat, the first great moving picture to be filmed in the South Sea Islands!

PHOTOGRAPHICALLY the film is magnificent. One is transported to the mystically beautiful isles of the South Sea. Amid the waving coconut palms one lives the life of the wild islanders to the accompaniment of the throbbing tom-toms and the diapason of the reef beyond the blue lagoon. Realism, thrilling poignant realism is the keynote of this giant production. One is taken right out of oneself. Along the golden strand under the palm fronds by the sapphire sea one walks with Lorna, the beautiful heroine of this intense story. One sits in stricken horror with her lover, the wandering painter who had come to transfer the glorious beauty of these South Sea emerald gems to this canvas, as he is slowly being driven insane with the exquisite torture of the throbbing, booming drums. One feels the tang of primitive manhood grip one's very vitals as the legions of opposing warriors close in a welter of mortal combat. One itches to join Capt. Blackbird in his titanic struggle with the primordial brute who had ruined his happiness and almost destroyed his soul. And to be revenged upon the crafty, licentious pirate Walki is the dominating feeling one has as the beautiful Lorna seems to become irrevocably the hapless victim of his bestial nature.

LLOYD THE ARTIST

To penetrate the sacred lands of the Fringe tribes meant death to any white man. But to the painter Lloyd came the treasure of all South Sea love and he braved a thousand dangers....

Why did Captain Blackbird sail the Southern Sea with a crew of all devils? Why did he harbor a black hound for all vengeance, except the little girl who drifted with him on the mysterious ship "The Hope" fabled by blacks and whites through all the loveliest islands of the South Sea?

Her eyes made men mad with the joy of living. Eyes that sent a shudder into a frenzy of rebellion. Eyes that scorned riches in pearls and robes for the man she loved.

Have You Seen THE NEW BUICK

Balloon Tyres

All Buick models are equipped with Goodyear Balloon Tyres.

These big new tyres improve riding qualities to a degree that must be experienced to be appreciated.

Wet, stone and rough roads are transformed into a pavement-like smoothness. Wear on all parts of the car is reduced. Tyre mileage is increased. What spring movement there is on bumpy, undeveloped roads is slow and negligible.

Four-Wheel Brakes

All models are equipped with the tried and proven Buick four-wheel brakes.

They are simple in construction, positive in action, and effective to a remarkable degree. They act quickly, smoothly and evenly.

They wear less than ordinary two-wheel brakes, they require less adjustment, and they increase driving safety.

Drive one of the new demonstration Buicks and test them yourself.

High-Efficiency Engine

Under the trim, high and narrow bonnet is the famous Buick valve-in-head engine. This silent, vibrationless motor provides a relentless flow of power for all occasions.

The velvety governor enables the car to operate with perfect smoothness from 2 to 3 miles an hour up to 70.

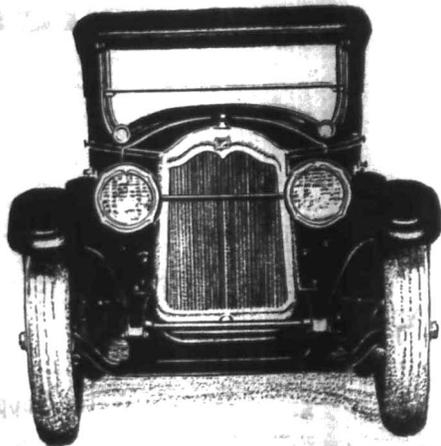

To appreciate the performance of the New Buick engine you should ask for a demonstration. Drive the car yourself and feel the magnificent acceleration which is yours to command.

Duco Finish

One of the important features of the new Buick is the wonderful Duco satin finish on the exterior bodywork.

Duco is not an oil paint, enamel or varnish. It is a recently developed nitro cellulose compound unaffected by ammonia, petrol, sunlight, heat, cold or moisture. It has a glass-like hardness, yet is flexible and will not crack or chip.

Duco finishes on the new Buicks have a beautiful dull lustre that actually improves with age.

Do you see a better build in this country than the new Buicks. They are exceptionally strong construction, and the chassis is equipped with extra large axles, and are fitted by a spare parts and present service system to meet all needs.

If Buick thought they will not look out of place in 1920, and still hold for many years.

When better Automobiles are built, Buick will build them

THE DISBOD OF ZANBAR.

We read with very great interest the sudden death, reported by our correspondent in Kampi of the Right Honourable the Duke of Zanzibar.

The Duke's place in East Africa affairs will be difficult to fill. His ability of thought and his active interest in the welfare of the native race make him a man whose loss to the continent will be a serious one.

The Duke of Zanzibar will be remembered by all who have seen anything of him in the course of his long and distinguished career.

There are three candidates for the office to which the Duke has been appointed in London and it is not known which of the two Mr. Wilson and Senator La Follette.

The only man who can carry out the immediate future and they have to be larger made a political act against the Duke's death.

The Duke's death is a serious loss to the continent in the person of the Duke of Zanzibar.

There are some very thoughtful men who will be glad to see the Duke's place filled by a man who will be able to carry out the Duke's policy.

The Duke's death is a serious loss to the continent in the person of the Duke of Zanzibar.

follow the failure of the Electoral College to act, the Democrats have the support of the South but the other States have changed their position so frequently that it seems hidden in uncertainty. The chief interest surrounds the independent candidacy of Senator La Follette and the United States will be between the Progressive, La Follette and the Republicans.

Colgate, but La Follette has all the favor of Conservation agencies. His banker, the Commercial Union, and it is doubtful whether his great influence in the agricultural area and along the Pacific Coast will continue the personal strength of Mr. Colgate, supported by the votes of the United States.

To penetrate the sacred lands of the Fringe takes more death to any white man. But to the painter Lloyd came the beautiful girl of South Sea, love and he braved a thousand dangers.

Why did Captain Blackbird sail the Southern Seas with a crew of outcasts? Why did he harbor a black hater for all concerned, except the little girl who crossed with him on the mysterious ship "The Ship" (ruled by blacks and whites through all the lawless Islands of the South Sea?)

Her eyes made men mad with the joy of living. How that soul a kingdom into a frenzy of rebellion. How that soul raised in parts and raised for the man she loved.
