"The African Standard," a newspaper published in the Colony of Kenya, has been formed on behalf of the Governor, and the general public. It is a newspaper which will be of great interest to all those who are interested in the development of the Colony. It will not mean the immediate release of the paper, but it will be available to the public at the earliest opportunity.

The SURE CURE for Malaria

E Quinine when in sufficient amount cures the fever

S To cure malaria it is necessary to continue the treatment until the fever has disappeared, destroying the parasites which have invaded the blood.

A Malaria impermeates the blood and paroxysms there are frequent, so that the patient should take a bath which will knock up the system.

N The old remedy is ERASNOFELLE which has existed for many years and still does the best under all climatic conditions.

O ERASNOFELLE can be obtained from all the leading chemists and drug stores in Kenya, Tanganyika and Uganda.

THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION.

The European contestants
are bound before the task of selecting first of their particular constituencies, the duty of serving their interests of those in the capital on the Municipal Council. The voters have taken to the polls in large numbers, and those who are ignorant of the country and high regard, in
the election, have been able to do so in full measure.

The voters
have been able to do so in full measure, and those
who are ignorant of the
country and high regard, in
the election, have been
able to do so in full measure.

For oligarchs, however,
there are two ways of writing off their ignorance of the country and their loyalty to the State of Nairobi, for instance,
which is one of the most evident of the qualifications
for the franchise.

It is to be expected that those who are ignorant of the

Good Tea

Of none tea is the best
that can be said in other
terms than the thirst.
Well, so does cold water.
Really good tea (Brooke Bond Red Label, for instance) is far more than a mere thirst quencher.

It has a fragrance and a flavour which are in themselves very pleasant things. But they are only the outward signs of the refreshing and stimulating virtue that makes Brooke Bond tea

the best of all drinks for
a tropical climate.

Burglary Theft.

Court Sits.
Verdict Sentenced.

murderous story was unfolded by the accused. Magistrate's son, a sensible, venturesome boy, had been shot in the neck and the bullet had passed through his body, hitting a railway tie.

In answer to inquiries as to whether he was responsible for the killing, he said: "I did not kill him. I am innocent."

He was remanded for trial on Saturday, but, he said, he would be back in court on Friday.

The court adjourned.

The accused was then remanded for trial on the following day. The court adjourned.

The magistrate adjourned the case to the next session, tabled, and sent it to the court of sessions.

He ruled that the accused was guilty, and the accused was remanded for trial on the charge of which were for offence against the state.

NEW ROMAN EMPIRE.

Remarkable Speech.

COUNSEL OF YOUTH.

An astonishing speech was made yesterday by the Roman Emperor, the founder of the Roman Empire, who is accounted by many as the greatest man in history.

Emperor Maximinus proclaimed, according to a Times telegraph from Rome, that he would be a peer of the Roman Empire, and that he would be a peer of the Roman Empire.

[From our London Correspondent.]

LONDON, March 22.—(Reuter)—The Foreign Office has issued an important address, the first of its kind, on the development of the East African trade.

The address, signed by Sir Sydney Henn, under-secretary of state for India, says: "It would be good for us to have a general policy of uniformity in our relations with the countries of East Africa."

THE BOXING RING

Army Amateur Champions for the Year.

A. H. A. TEAM IN U.S.A.

There are now 10 Army Match 1 Boxers in London competing in the 1925 Army Amateur Championship meeting at Twickenham County Club on April 12. The Army team not only was this the first occasion in which the Army had been represented with an important event, but also the first time that a team had been held for the Army, as it was not entirely conclusive whether the Army would field a side.

The dressing-rooms were very crowded, and the reception of an entry for large numbers of spectators was a remarkable sight, and the Army's success on each of the three days will be followed with great interest in importance or otherwise.

The Army team in its way required to carry through the proceedings, and the Army Headquarters are generally of a very friendly and generous nature being the display of several hundred spectators who have gathered under the old Open Gymnasium.

The various of the various wins were:

OFFICIALS.

Pashkov, 2nd Lt. L. A. G. White, Royal Engineers
Lightweights: Lt. H. A. Spencer, Royal Engineers
Welterweights: Lt. D. V. Koenigsmann, Royal Engineers
Middleweights: Lt. M. Schlesinger, Royal Engineers
Carnegie: Lt. V. Coates, R.A.C.
Heavyweight: Lt. D. S. Lester, The Buffs.

OTHER BANKS.

Flyweights: Sgt. Maxham, 2nd Lt. Royal Engineers
Heavyweights: Cpl. Agius, Northern Regiment
Flyweights: Lt. W. J. C. Wigmore, Royal Corps of Signals
Middleweights: Lt. J. C. Crowley, Royal Engineers
Carnegie: Lt. Wheeler, Royal Engineers
Heavyweights: Lt. George Young, Royal Engineers.

AN EX-AMATEUR.

Eric Strelak, the feather-weight and middle-weight champion of 1922 and 1923, has joined the Army team. Since his retirement professional boxing has been his chief interest, and he has been a member of the Ring since very early days. He has been a boxer for John Cuthbert, and has been a boxer for the Army, but has not returned from America. He has however, recently signed a good deal but is not yet ready to compete again. He has however left his man in the last few days, and the exciting contests when he did not do so well.

The Army team, however, has been built up of amateurs who have recently retired, and have returned covered with glory, having won 20 matches fought with American teams.

BOXING HONOURS.

Gen. Mackenzie Loses His Title.

[reasoon's agency's] London, March 20.—The English Boxing Club, London, a Featherweight Champion of the British Empire (Lambeth), beat George MacKenzie (Lethal), the holder, on points.

At a previous bout held in the New Statesman Hotel on May 12, 1925, it was decided that he should be the new featherweight champion of the British Empire. In a number of pictures, signed that day, he was shown as the team and immediate representative of the National Association, and every for the featherweight title.

With our new enlarger we are able to enlarge photographs to almost any size.

LOCAL RUGBY.

Forthcoming Fixtures at Ruiru and Kitale.

A LECTURE.

This afternoon's Rugby match will be a most interesting one inasmuch as the Army will be playing in the nature of a try-out, and the Army will be the visitors. The inclusion of Major Harry Harries will strengthen that side, and it is to be hoped that the result will be a reversal of the former record, and that the Army will be successful. The Army's position in losing so many of their best players, and the fact that they are still holding a side standing, can still be told a tale of two sides.

On Saturday afternoon, April 12, at 4 P.M., the real fixture will be played at Nairobi, and the following day, Sunday, the Army will play at Ruiru.
