WINDSOR CASTLE.Jan. 5 1905

Dear Sir Montagu Murray

I am greatly apologetic to you for your kindness in saying that you will see that my son's vacancy is not filled up until a reasonable time after his return home.
I shall be very glad to

Dear Sir,

I am directed by the Earl of Elgin to inform you that he understands that, after consideration, you have decided to not adhere to the suggestion of your ability as an Asst Collector in the East Africa Protectorate.

I am therefore glad that if his Lordship's opinion is correct you will communicate your decision in writing to me that it is necessary steps may be taken to which you will be invited to return.
