Mr Read - I have talked this over at the 7.0. see attached note from W. Montgomery.

They agree that the message should be in the first person, and should not be conveyed in oratio obliqua by the Gov. Of. telegram herewith. A copy of the telegram as actually sent should be sent to W. Montgomery for Lord Knollys. Lord Knollys's letter which is now attached to this paper should be returned to
W. Montgomery

Dear Sir,

This is Lord Knolly's letter about sending a message to Roosevelt on his arrival at Bombay we will see from the telegram from Bryce, which I also enclose,
 that he is expected to arrive about April

I think you agree that it would be right that the Personal Secy
should send the message

Yours truly

Robert Montgomery

Dear Butler,

We think the telegram
our staff would do if your people agree - would you send Lady Anby's letter back some

Yours sincerely

Herbert Montgomerie

Foreign Office.

I bid you hearty welcome in your arrival in British Territory.
I trust that your expedition may prove joyful and may be attended with every success.

We must say his Majesty
is the Sultan of Zanzibar.
