With reference to Your Lordship's despatch No. 785 of December 31st, relating to a suggestion made by His Majesty's Agent and Consul General at Zanzibar that a Swahili lecturer should be appointed to give instruction in England to persons about to proceed to East Africa, I have the honour to state that so long as it is considered necessary for officials to attend the Tropical African Services Course at the Imperial Institute I should be glad to see Swahili added to the list of subjects taught.

I have the honour to be,

Your Lordship's most obedient,
humble servant,

GOVERNOR.

THE RIGHT HONOURABLE

THE EARL OF CREWE, K.G.,

SECRETARY OF STATE FOR THE COLONIES,

DOWNING STREET,

LONDON, S. W.
