General Dept

Please see memo from C.A. attached.

When ^{draft} letters on his papers were written, it was overlooked that Mr Wilson's leave in his country had been extended for two more weeks up to the 15th of Dec.

I cannot help feeling that, in cases of this sort, it is desirable that some member of the Dept should be drafted before they actually leave the office. Unfortunately in the present case the balance of leave makes no difference to the amount of the pension.

? After the date of the commencement of payment in the letter to the Lt, and inform Mr Wilson of his mistake in that matter.

? might have detailed the

was mistake before I referred this paper to you in the first instance. But I agree with Mr. Batterbee that it would be better if the drafts on such papers could be sent through the Dept. It would not mean much delay.

I am very sorry for this mistake. But as I am usually careful about ascertaining whether extensions of leave prior to retirement have been given, & as the data on the superannuation forms are not reliable, I cannot help thinking that the papers previous to 32560 were not sent on, & that your mistake seems to bear this out.

I submit drafts to Mr. & Mrs. Watson.

No - but as a matter of fact only Julia's Colonial Pensions (computation) are to be referred to the General Dept. in future, so the number of such letters will be small. The revised "Recognition" tables, which show this was circulated to you on the 3rd of October. It is being revised & must speak with Julia but I think this is right.

Mr. Barber

With reference to the date mentioned from which Mr. Wilson's pension commences, his leave of absence as at present determined expires on the 15th December.

His original leave commenced on the 28th April & expired on the 15th October, and a two months' extension was granted (vide letter and minutes attached).

Will you please adjust the matter?
