AUSTRALIA LOOKS TO A NEW PROSPERITY

Optimism follows oil strike

THE optimism of the West Australian oil strike has been replaced by a new prosperity for Australia. The strike, which lasted for several months, has now ended, and the oil industry is expected to resume production. This is expected to lead to a significant increase in the country's economic activity, and to a new period of prosperity.

The suffering of refugees from Palestine

MORE than 200,000 men, women and children are suffering their sixth winter in Jordan in their tents. They are the wretched people who were driven out of their homes in Palestine during the Arab-British fighting of 1948 and their state now is little better than a vast open-air camp.

Most still have only the children they stand up in, ragged and shivering. Building has been done in Jordan, but it is not enough. There is little hope that the refugees will ever be able to return to their homes in Palestine.

There is a small strip of land in Jordan which is being used as a temporary home for the refugees. It is a strip of land which is being used as a temporary home for the refugees. It is a strip of land which is being used as a temporary home for the refugees.

ATHLETICS: KENYA AND THE EMPIRE GAMES

Preparations for Vancouver

SINCE the invitations were extended and accepted for Kenya to take part in the British Empire in Vancouver, British Columbia, last year, consequently 1914 has been the year of the Kenyan preparations. But these have been going forward steadily and conscientiously and with an ardor which is hardly in excess.

The Empire will be held in Vancouver, British Columbia, in July and August next and the Kenya teams will be expected to arrive there in early October. It is possible that Government will make a grant for the travelling expenses of the athletes in payment for the services rendered by the officials, including a travelling pass, and possibly some grant of transportation.

Grant may be made
The British Empire in Vancouver is the largest and most important of the series of Empire Games and it is possible that Government will make a grant for the travelling expenses of the athletes in payment for the services rendered by the officials, including a travelling pass, and possibly some grant of transportation.

Exhibition billiards and auxiliary matches

OPPOSITION BY MR. BLUNDELL

Kenya's Legislative Council yesterday opposed the extension of the Export Duty Ordinance to 1954. The Member for Nairobi, Mr. Blundell, stated that the Government's proposal to extend the duty would be a disaster for the country.

Mr. Blundell's opposition was based on the fact that the duty would be a burden on the country's export trade, which is already suffering from a decline in demand for its products. He argued that the Government should instead focus on improving the infrastructure and services that support the export trade.

Price increases

The Director of the Kenya Industrial Development Board (KIDB) has announced that prices for various commodities will be increased. This decision was made in response to rising costs for raw materials and transport.

The affected commodities include coffee, tea, and sisal. The KIDB director stated that the price increases were necessary to ensure that the industry remained viable in the face of these rising costs.

The Barradell Cup race at Naivasha

'SEAMANSHIP' AT KISUMU

'Standard' Sailing Correspondents

THE annual champagne race of the year for the Barradell Cup at Naivasha, won by Arrand, and the Commodore's Prize at Kisumu, won by Barston in Accra, were the primary sailing events held in Kenya. Both took place on Sunday and produced fierce keen racing and close and exciting finishes in each case.

A late start—caused by the late arrival of the Commodore from the States—did not detract from the excitement of the race.

But both Double (Charles) and Double (Charles) and Double (Charles) were the favorites at the start of the race. The Commodore's Prize was won by Barston in Accra, who was the favorite at the start of the race.

The draw for boats

The next evolution

The next evolution in the design of the Barradell Cup race is expected to be the introduction of a new class of boat, the 'Auster' class, which is expected to be introduced in the next few years.

Sufficient in hand

There is sufficient in hand to meet the requirements of the race, and the Commodore's Prize is expected to be a success.

NEW UGANDA MILL COULD DOUBLE SUGAR PRODUCTION IN EAST AFRICA

Governor turns gold wheel to start output

ONE of the biggest sugar mills in the world has been opened near Jinja in Uganda. Working to full capacity it could produce about 40,000 tons of sugar annually. It could supply the 40,000 tons a year now being imported and leave 20,000 tons for export.

The mill is the latest acquisition by the Jinja "industrial empire" of the Mafushamua Sugar Works, Ltd. This concern started in 1917 by plant cutler but turned over to sugar in 1921, the year of the first coffee crisis, and has since grown into an industrial giant.

Originally built for more than 10,000 tons an estate comprising factories producing such crops as tea, groundnuts and coffee.

Now the company wants to acquire a further 10,000 to 15,000 acres of land in order to grow enough sugar-cane to fill the capacity of the new mill to its full extent.
