REVOLT IN HUNGARY SOVIET TROOPS CALLED OUT Budapest scene of bitter fighting

NEW PREMIER BLAMES 'HOSTILE ELEMENTS'

An uprising has broken out in Hungary, and yesterday Soviet troops were called out to restore order after a night of bitter street-fighting in Budapest.

At midday yesterday news and shots were heard on Budapest Radio as listeners waited for a speech by Premier Imre Nagy, who was appointed by the Presidential Council in the midst of the revolt.

One of Mr. Nagy's first actions was to call in Russian troops and to sign a decree setting up court-martial through the régime, firing, muzzling and arming. For these reasons the possibility will be death.

First groups surrender

According to Budapest Radio yesterday the first groups of "counter-revolutionaries" had surrendered to Russian and writer Hungarian troops. They did so after the Hungarian Premier had promised to the leaders that a complete amnesty would be granted to those who were fighting to "survive and support" Premier Nagy. In a radio broadcast the Premier announced that the number of surrenders was increasing. In a radio broadcast the Premier announced that the number of surrenders was increasing. In a radio broadcast the Premier announced that the number of surrenders was increasing.

TURNING POINT OF OUR HISTORY

The uprising in Budapest started on October 23rd, 1956, when a mass demonstration of 20,000 people gathered in the city square. The demonstration was led by Imre Nagy, who was then Minister of Foreign Affairs. The demonstration was peaceful at first, but it turned into a riot as the police used force. Nagy announced that he was resigning and that a new government would be formed. The new government was formed and Nagy became Premier. The new government was formed and Nagy became Premier. Princess sees lions busy on kill in Amboseli Park

Princess Margaret was unusually lucky when she visited the Amboseli Game Reserve. In a clump of thorn bushes, less than 200 yards from the thatched-roof house where she spent the night on Tuesday, the saw-e and two lionesses busy on a kill.

The Princess performed the official opening of the Royal Technical College in Nairobi (reported in Page 6), described as "East Africa's first large-scale venture into the field of non-social education."

She made a short tour of the college, only one-third of which is complete, and planted a tree to commemorate the occasion. At Amboseli the Princess was driven close to the scene of the kill in a vehicle on the front of which was a powerful searchlight. With Mr. Mervyn Cowie, the game warden, and Mr. W. M. Takeru, warden of the Amboseli Reserve, she spent about 20 minutes.

She saw a lioness tearing at the carcass of the gazelle, the approach of the car, but did not retreat.

Special watch The kill had been made earlier in the day. The lionesses had been seen to be busy on their prey for some time. The lionesses had been seen to be busy on their prey for some time. The lionesses had been seen to be busy on their prey for some time.

Up to Egypt to put for Suez discussions

MR. LLOYD CALLS FOR ACTION

BRITAIN was yesterday kept to forward definite proposals for a solution of the Suez Canal problem which could constitute a basis for negotiation," Mr. Selwyn Lloyd, the Foreign Secretary, told the House of Commons. He added: "The Egyptian Government have been asked to put forward promptly their proposals. They have not done so."

'Middle' over Reservists' pay denied

SIR ANTHONY EDEN, the Prime Minister, today denied the new criticism of Defence, Mr. Head, against Opposition critics in the House of Commons. Speaking of conditions in regard to the Reservists' pay crisis, Mr. Robinson Stanger said there had been a "handicapped" in saying not money granted to some Reservists.

Mr. Bernard Dool, another Labour member, said the result of the Reservists' pay crisis had been a "handicapped" in saying not money granted to some Reservists. He said the Government would be asked to make a general statement.

FOUR BRITONS REMAINED ON SPY CHARGES

Seven Reservists are reported to have remained on the same terms after their call-up. The Government has refused to disclose the names of the four British and 12 other prisoners held in respect of the spy case.

Defence lawyers said "very little" is known about the case. The four British are reported to be: Mr. James MacIntyre, a member of the Staff of the Army; Mr. Charles Phillips, a member of the Staff of the Army; Mr. John Hester, a member of the Staff of the Army; and Mr. John Hester, a member of the Staff of the Army.

proposals Attack on Soviet for 'misuse' of the veto

Ballantine's Scotch Whisky

It's a question of harmony...
There are forty-two different whiskeys in the Ballantine's blend. Each one has a character all its own, robust of the distinct where it is distilled. And put, blended to a hundred-year-old Ballantine's, the superb Scotch. Such is the art of the blender and his helpers.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR
A matter of life and death

SINCE my return to Kenya early this year, I have heard and read so much about the lack of road control among drivers that I feel obliged to write of an experience with an elderly male pedestrian in Nairobi.

Request programmes
MAY I express indignation at the road conditions in Kenya, mainly towards pedestrians, who are the most vulnerable of all road users.

WITHDRAWAL OF SOVIET TROOPS IN BUDAPEST

Revolution 'almost a complete victory'
Premier promises to disband secret police

SOVIET troops are withdrawing from Budapest and talks on their departure from the whole of Hungary are to begin immediately.

This was announced by the Hungarian Premier, Mr. Nagy, in a speech over Budapest Radio which observers considered marked almost complete victory for the Hungarian revolution.

Mr. Nagy said also that the secret police would be disbanded.

Giving first official details of casualties during the six-day rebellion, Budapest Radio said that the city's hospitals had treated 2,500 persons, 250 of whom died.

The United Nations Security Council, meeting in emergency session, has decided to put the situation in Hungary on its agenda. The proposal put forward jointly by Britain, France and the United States, was opposed bitterly by the Soviet delegate, Mr. Sobolev, who blamed the United States for causing the Hungarian revolution.

In Poland, it was announced that Cardinal Stefan Wyszyński, who was banished by the Communists from his post in 1953 for activities against the State, has returned to Warsaw and to his office as Primate of Poland.

Mr. Nagy concedes most of urgent demands

SOVIET troops have begun withdrawing from Budapest, as promised by the Hungarian Premier, Mr. Nagy, after less than a week of bloody fighting with civilians and Hungarian army rebels. The Hungarian newspaper "Nemzet" says that the withdrawal of Soviet troops is the Government's promise to disband the secret police, to grant amnesty for the armed forces and to hold free elections in Hungary.

Mr. Nagy has agreed over Budapest Radio that he will meet the Soviet urgent demands.

The Premier said that the withdrawal of Soviet troops will be followed by the withdrawal of the American, British and French troops from Hungary.

He said that the Government would meet the demands of the Hungarian people for free elections, for the disbanding of the secret police, for the release of political prisoners and for the withdrawal of foreign troops from Hungary.

Americans in Middle East urged to leave

ALL Americans in the Middle East were told yesterday that they should leave immediately unless they have compelling reasons to stay.

The order was given by the U.S. State Department in a statement on the Middle East by President Eisenhower, in which he spoke of a rising tension throughout the area.

In Ankara, the U.S. Embassy told American citizens to prepare to be evacuated unless they were performing essential functions. The Embassy stated: "We have advised all American dependents, non-essential Americans and the thousands entering this area to be evacuated to a safe place."

The first step is to be evacuated to a safe place. The instruction was issued by the U.S. Embassy in Cairo.

It is assumed that there are 25,000 American citizens in the Middle East, 2,000 of whom live in Egypt.

The U.S. State Department is also urging American citizens who have no essential functions to leave the Middle East.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Criticism of Nairobi African Congress

I HAVE a letter to refer to the Nairobi African District Congress in being held contrary to the African mass expectation.

represent in next year general body of integrity whose purpose will be to further the interests of Kenya and of African peoples.

There is something lacking in the Congress, and unfortunately in its President, which is very serious, and that is that there is no policy whatsoever. There is no policy whatsoever, but it is being held by the President by the Congress, and it is being held by the President by the Congress, and it is being held by the President by the Congress.

And my only really serious members remember that, more on the Council their duty will be to the people of Kenya, and to the people of Kenya, and to the people of Kenya, and to the people of Kenya.

J. JESSE OKARO, Nairobi, Oct. 24, 1954.

Geordies abroad

I write to thank you for publishing my letter stating all the facts about the Geordies in an inaugural address to the Geordie Club in Durban.

Salus populi

I HAVE returned from a wonderful experience of a week's visit to the Geordie Club in Durban, and I am glad to say that the Geordies are doing very well.

Women's Tuesday Corner

Capes And Cumberbunds Cross The Channel

BY PATRICIA DOUGLAS

CREATIVE ideas from Paris fashion houses are rarely practical in the areas that they are designed for the clovechapel. This has been copied from Paris and adapted by British manufacturers for the women's market. This season, however, the designers have been creative in the areas that they are designed for.

The left: A trend suit with a detachable collar in a heavy weight of the same fabric, while another skirt (center) has a full-length cape in a heavy weight, with a long, narrow collar. Lower right: A dress in a heavy weight, with a long, narrow collar.

A NEW APPROACH TO MIXER DESIGN The Winget 3 1/2 TS

Good design has been combined with good engineering to give you the best possible mix in the shortest possible time. The wide mouth and convenient angle of the drum make the charging operation quicker and easier. The fast mixing cycle of the Winget 3 1/2 TS is also helped by its smooth, easy tilting. There is a wide clearance for barrows, which can be locked right under the drum lip.

also the Winget 5 and 7 THR (7 1/2 and 10 1/2 CU. FT.)

The first modern standard hopper-fed tilting drum mixers. Two axle positions - for low and more normal 'winter' operation. Only two operating controls. Completely automatic water dispensing, accurate to 1 pint, synchronized with drum and hopper. Higher angle (45 deg.) hopper, 10 deg. better than 8.5. Quick clear discharges - no shaker needed. Positive return knock-out. No risk of overloading. Error action for hand and power operation. Lays easily up Winget Labor 3-ton Plant Transporter.

THE DUNLOP Rubber Company has provided for the delivery and storage of goods and their subsequent dispatch in containers, and to provide adequate and office accommodation. Plans also incorporated the fitting of an Air Transport Department.

The Dunlop Rubber Company for the African Mercantile Co. have designed many of the buildings for the new mercantile house, in which the temperature and darkness are suitable for the storage of goods.

The main entrance to the office is from Sadder Street through a covered entrance hall from which the future lifts will lift shafts to the upper floors. The lift shafts have been constructed in the present manner because the building is insufficiently high to justify their use.

From this entrance hall a view is obtained into the general office through a large alcove, and to the executive offices on the first floor.

Easy maintenance

The general office has a narrow public space, floored with Dunlop rubber tiles and counters in vinyl. Behind these counters there is ample counter space and private offices which are all designed for ease of maintenance. The building has an attractive rubber scheme which has been carried out in Walsingham Water Paint.

The office on the first floor are also finished in various colours. The exterior faces of the building have been finished in materials designed for ease of maintenance. The decoration for

- Walsingham Vinyl P.C.C. Tiles
- Imperial Cement Waterproofing Compound.

In many respects, we regret the passing of our old premises with its 28 years of happy memories of past association... yet on the other hand, we are proud of the phenomenal progress that has made new and more commodious premises.

An increase of assets from the original £36,000 to over £1,000,000 today is ample evidence of the advances made through thorough and reliable service.

The Company's Head Office is at St. Swithin's House, 11 and 12 St. Swithin's Lane, London.

Its East African Headquarters are Mercantile House, Kilindini Road, Mombasa (where there is also a main Branch Office) and at Nairobi, Kampala, Dar es Salaam, Tanganyika, Zanzibar and Malindi are also Main Branch Offices. There are Sub-Branch Offices at Kisumu, Nakuru, Mwanza, and Mitwara.

With this network of offices and supply depots extending throughout the Colony, we can offer efficient representation and complete distribution of merchandise.

YOUNG EUROPEANS GAIN MERIT

5 WICKETS WIN

Young Asians were outplayed in all departments of game

Standard Special Correspondent

As already reported, Young Asia were victorious in their matches for players to win, the National Cricket Council, the series since its inception, London. In the first of the three games, the Young Europeans, who were only a few minutes away from the final, were outplayed in all departments. The Young Asians were outplayed in all departments of the game, including batting, bowling, and fielding. The Young Europeans, who were only a few minutes away from the final, were outplayed in all departments of the game, including batting, bowling, and fielding.

The best bowling
Lorrain turned in the best bowling, with 5 wickets for 35 runs in the first innings. In the second innings, he took 4 wickets for 45 runs. His bowling was economical and accurate, and he was the key to the Young Europeans' victory. He bowled in a steady rhythm, and his pace was just what the Young Asians needed. He was the only bowler to take 5 wickets in a Test match, and he was the only bowler to take 10 wickets in a Test match.

Impressive analysis

Egypt, Israel told: 'Stop fighting or we send in troops'

TANKS AND PLANES IN SINAI DESERT ACTION

SIR ANTHONY EDEN told a crowded House of Commons last night that British and French troops would move into Egypt if the fighting, which started when Israeli armoured columns swept over the border on Monday night, did not stop within 12 hours. He began by saying that Britain and France had asked the Egyptian Government to agree that Anglo-French forces should move into key positions at Port Said, Ikingia and Suez.

He said: "The Governments of Egypt and Israel have been asked to give a reply to the communication within 12 hours. It has been made clear to them that, if at the expiration of that time they do not consent to comply with these requirements, British and French forces will intervene in their measure, very strong may be necessary to secure compliance."

Sir Anthony continued: "It must tell the House that very grave issues are at stake, and unless hostilities can be stopped immediately, the situation will be jeopardised." The British and French Governments had agreed that everything possible should be done to avoid hostilities to the end as quickly as possible.

The invasion began when Israeli armoured and mechanised columns, supported by jet fighters over Egyptian frontier posts and three Egyptian aircraft, moved towards the Suez Canal. They bypassed large Egyptian Army bases in their swift, mobile advance across the Sinai Peninsula.

Harren Sinai Force, the one stage yesterday were said to have reached the canal within 18 miles east of Suez.

The Israeli columns, led by Major-General Haim Bar-Lev, were supported by tanks and armoured cars. The Egyptian Army, which had been ordered to stand by, did not intervene.

Emergency meeting of Security Council

THE United Nations Security Council was meeting last night to consider the Israeli attack on Egypt. President Eisenhower, who initiated the summoning of the emergency session of the Council, reaffirmed the United States' position as the victim of any aggression in the Middle East.

BIGGER THAN REPRISALS: SMALLER THAN A WAR

THE Israeli Government yesterday described the Israeli attack on Egypt as a "biggest since the outbreak of the Arab-Israeli war in 1948." It said that the Israeli Government had decided that Israel had taken a "big step" in the direction of a "smaller than a war" in the Middle East.

Power to stop war

The French Prime Minister, Michel, was due to arrive in London for talks with Sir Anthony Eden.

The statement continued: "These talks, organized some two years ago by the Egyptian Government and the Egyptian Magister Army, were intended to spread terror in Israel by acts of indiscriminate murder, kidnapping and sabotage."

Murder gang

"These units were sent for to the Sinai Peninsula during the period of Egyptian independence in 1952. They were organized in the mountains of the world on the Egyptian frontier."

SHARES DROP HEAVY LOSS ON OILS

Soviet ruthlessness in Hungary criticised

by British M.P.s

'SYMPATHY FOR STRUGGLE'

BRITAIN'S Foreign Secretary, Mr. Selwyn Lloyd, told the House of Commons that some Soviet units had been sent to Hungary "with the utmost ruthlessness" at the Hungarian security police throughout. He was making a statement on events in Hungary.

Mr. Lloyd said that while the Hungarian Government might have been entitled to agree to the presence of Soviet troops in their country under the Warsaw Treaty, it was not a different matter to send in additional forces to crush the Hungarian people's fight for their freedom.

Withdrawal when danger ceases

SOVIET troops would leave Budapest as soon as the insurgents had laid their arms.

It was stated by the Soviet Foreign Minister, Mr. Gromyko, that he would make a statement on the subject of Hungary.

He did not give a direct answer to the question of whether the Soviet troops would eventually withdraw from the whole of Hungary.

Britain's responsibility

Mr. Deane Hooley (Labour) said Britain had a direct responsibility for the maintenance of human rights in Hungary as a signatory of the Hungarian Peace Treaty. He asked the Government to give a further review on the point of human rights in that unhappy country.

Mr. Lloyd said: "You are perfectly correct. The position under the treaty was referred to in the contract by the President of the United States."

Overcome by heat

The only alternative was to shut off the auxiliary line which had been in use since the start of the strike.

On recovering he decided the only way to reach the water was to climb over the barrier. He was prepared to attempt this and Mr. Crowe invited the other crew members to follow.

SISAL EXPANSION NEED EMPHASISED

Kenya industry's 'dilemma'

INCREASED local manufacture of sisal products was advocated as a partial solution to the industry's present dilemma by the chairman of the Kenya Sisal Board and Kenya Sisal Growers' Association, Mr. Angus Lawrence, at the annual dinner of the two organizations at the New Stanley Hotel, Nairobi, on Monday.

Mr. Lawrence, proposing a toast to the Sisal industry and Kenya, said hopes which had from time to time sustained the industry were at a pretty low ebb, but the quest for a solution had to go on.

Survey of markets
Results of a survey into the possibilities of new markets were unveiled hopefully; growers looked for all possible economies, and sought insight into incentive by offering such economic research was on the part of the Agricultural Department.

He continued: "What else is important? I believe there is still scope for greater rationalisation—a word of which we hear so little today. I think there is something else open to us—co-operation is increased—both manufacturer. That is one possible, essential move, and there is a long way to go to use economic methods of growing sisal produced annually in Kenya.

EXPLANATION ON COFFEE PRICES

Costly efforts to 'peg' rate

THE serious effort made by the coffee industry over a long period to keep to target prices was stressed in a statement issued after a meeting between the East African Women's League and the Coffee Marketing Board, at which the latter explained the reasons for the current price of coffee.

The price of coffee has been held at a level of 1.2 shillings per pound since the end of 1958. This price is well below the world market price, which is currently at 1.8 shillings per pound. The industry has made considerable efforts to keep the price at this level, but these efforts have been costly and have not always been successful.

The industry has spent a great deal of money on advertising and promotion, and has also made considerable investments in research and development. These efforts have helped to improve the quality of the coffee and to increase the yield of the plantations. However, the industry has also been faced with a number of difficulties, including a decline in the world market price and a shortage of funds.

The industry has been forced to make a number of concessions in order to keep the price at the target level. These concessions have included a reduction in the amount of coffee that is marketed, and a reduction in the amount of money that is paid to the growers. These measures have helped to keep the price at the target level, but they have also had a negative impact on the industry.

Forestry course at Muguga

14 OFFICERS TO ATTEND

FOURTEEN Government forest officers and foresters from East African territories and British Somaliland are to attend a forestry course this morning. The course will be held at the East African Agricultural and Forestry Research Organisation, Muguga, near Nairobi, from November 18 to 23.

The course is the fourth to be organized since 1952 by Dr. A. G. Griffin, superintendent at Muguga, and covers basic forestry and general forestry principles. In the first three courses, foresters were trained from Tanganyika, Kenya, British Somaliland and from East Africa. This time, however, European, but later it is hoped that there will be similar courses at Muguga for African nursery foresters.

The course will be half practical and half theoretical and part of it will take place at Muguga and the second half in Kenya. The programme's plan is to be completed in the Lugard Division, Kenya.

Value proved

Dr. Griffin explained that the course could be of great value to forestry officers in other territories. "Systematic and time-bound, as well as in a far more practical way than most other forestry courses," he said. "It is a course which is of great value to the forestry officer in the field. It is a course which is of great value to the forestry officer in the field. It is a course which is of great value to the forestry officer in the field."

Ideals set

He said that the first Kenya Minister (then was not elected) on any matters and Africa were not accepted as part of the African continent. "These days are happy, peaceful and the African continent is accepted as part of the continent and we have a right to take part in the Government of Kenya. This Administration is one which administration due to the acceptance of the Federation that is bringing the forest together that is bringing the forest together that is bringing the forest together."

The Ministry of Water and Power Trust is to grant KES 200,000 towards the cost of restoring the dam at Muguga. The Minister of Water and Power, Mr. A. D. Patel, is seen here with other officials.

AFRICANS NEED BIGGER SHARE IN GOVERNING KENYA

Mr. Patel on future policy

IF the Europeans and Asians appreciate that the African community is to have a greater part in the governing and life of Kenya, then Mr. Patel said it will be good to make a "great and happy Kenya" for all. Mr. A. D. Patel, former Indian Minister, said in Nairobi on Tuesday. He said that the Government had to take into account the wishes of the African community and the Indian community. He said that the Government had to take into account the wishes of the African community and the Indian community.
