CUP FINAL REPEAT IS PICK OF TODAY

Changes in both teams from Wembley

It is nearly six months since ten Arsenal men fought gallantly but vainly to hold Newcastle in the Cup final at Wembley. Today, at Highbury, they have a chance to get their revenge. But they will carry the scars of a Cup struggle. Weak international full-back, Watley Horton, will be absent from the side. He has been a ball since a knee injury forced him to withdraw from Wembley with it. Finally only 35 minutes old.

Barnes, captain of the Arsenal, besides being a leading scorer in the Arsenal, will face an equally able forward, the veteran, Fred Green, who played for Arsenal before the latter left to join the league which will be the first season when they are making a tremendous carry on the Cup and League. Green is a tremendous English forward. He has been a full-back in the Arsenal, was injured after the first round of the competition, and was replaced by Bertie Bond. ## But Wolves still top the table

PERHAPS the most staggering of the many shock results in a Saturday's English Football programme was Preston North End's victory at Portsmouth by five goals to two. A fortnight ago Preston conceded five goals to Chelsea and last week on their own ground they gave away another five to Manchester United.

Success story

Eighteen months back it seemed that London-based Tottenham might stop Tottenham again. He was suffering from a long-term injury.

Further in front

Manchester United increased their lead at the top of Division II last week by beating Tottenham United 2-0. Tottenham United had been their only rival in the league.

Grandstand finish

Waterford retained their title in the League Cup by beating Tottenham 2-0. Tottenham had been their only rival in the league.

'PROUD' Dundee keep League Cup

DUDDING was the Scottish League cup for the second season in succession at Dundee Park, Dundee, on Saturday. Dundee had given their opponents a good account of themselves in their last two matches. THE BIRMINGHAM POST (Continued) There is wisdom in the decision to declare a state of emergency in Kenya, and to send troops into the Colony to keep order...

THE BIRMINGHAM POST (Continued) Many so-called leaders of African opinion have not been true enough to their own consciences to stand up for their people...

THE BIRMINGHAM POST (Continued) The problem, therefore, is to ensure that the primitive and uneducated African population is brought up to modern standards of thought and action...

EUROPEAN FARMER IS MURDERED Slashed in Kinangop home by African gang

Kenya's Steve Swaine
 While killing two African servants in the kitchen of Mr. Eric T. T. Bower's North Kinangop home, Littlestone Farm, a gang of Africans entered the main part of the house where Mr. Bower was having a bath and tried to hit him in the stomach with a pang, killing him as they looted the farmhouse.

Kinaya scouts who work on the farm discovered a night murder about 6.30 yesterday morning when they went to investigate lights in the house. They reported the matter to a neighbouring farmer who telephoned the Kenya Police Reserve Staff Officer.

Regular police officers were on the scene within 15 minutes. Senior Superintendent L. Griffiths, in charge of the Nairobi and Province, flew to Kinangop from Nakuru and proceeded to the farm. C.I.D. Officers from police tracking logs arrived from Nairobi later in the day.

The house was found to be a chamber. Mr. Bower had been murdered many times. It is not known what is missing, nor if Mr. Bower, whether a British or African, was the victim. Mr. Bower had been in the house for about one month.

When the police on the farm were told that the house had been looted, they were told that the house had been looted by the "raiders" it knew.

The house is a small stone building with a thatched roof. It is situated on a hillside in the main North Kinangop forest area, and is about 100 miles from Nairobi. It is owned by Mr. Bower, who is a member of the Kenya Reserve Staff Officer.
