★ CORRESPONDENCE ★

The Winner

To the name "A. A. Dumas" - "The Winner" - the author of the story, I have been thinking of you for some time. You were the winner of the prize for the best letter for the job.

Would you please send me a copy of your story and the prize money? I would be interested to know how you did. I would like to see the salary as the only thing which would make me feel that I am not a failure.

For a position of a clerk the salary is not high. I would like to see the salary as the only thing which would make me feel that I am not a failure.

And always remember that first impressions are very important and, therefore, a badly laid-out letter will weigh the scales against you right from the start.

For the applicant who writes, "Please send me the salary offered" - I would like to see the salary as the only thing which would make me feel that I am not a failure.

When I was very young I worked for a firm, but I was not successful. I would like to see the salary as the only thing which would make me feel that I am not a failure.

This week's correspondence is devoted to the letters received on the subject of the correct way to answer advertisements about which "Tired Employer" complained recently.

WOMEN DISCUSS PROBLEMS OF AFRICA

Conference sponsored by EAWL

CARE for the aged, adult education, food production, and the cost of living were among the subjects discussed by women delegates from all over Africa at the conference of the EAWL (Executive Association of Women of the World held in Nairobi last week.

The conference which lasted two days was held under the auspices of the Executive Association of Women of the World (EAWL) at the Kenya Club Hotel, Nairobi.

The EAWL is a continental organization of women from all over Africa. It was formed in 1957 to coordinate the activities of the various women's organizations in Africa.

The conference was held in Nairobi from October 24 to 26. It was the first time that women from all over Africa had met together to discuss their common problems.

Indigenous Trees Of Uganda Protectorate

J. A. SELDON reviews the revised and enlarged edition of a book which will be of interest to all lovers of plants.

UNTIL the publication of this book, the lower reaches of the Nile valley were treated as a terra incognita for purposes of botany. It was only in the last few years that the world really got to know his trees, shrubs and ferns and the plants which grow in the Uganda Protectorate. This was due to the interest of British botanists in the region, and to the presence of the well-known botanist, Dr. J. A. Seldon, who has written this book. It is a book which will be of interest to all lovers of plants, and to all those who are interested in the history of the Uganda Protectorate.

The book is a review of the indigenous trees of the Uganda Protectorate, and is a book which will be of interest to all lovers of plants. It is a book which will be of interest to all lovers of plants, and to all those who are interested in the history of the Uganda Protectorate.

Key to families

Some botanical notes have been added to the book, and a key to the families of the trees is given. This key is a very useful one, and will be of interest to all those who are interested in the classification of plants.

Uses of timber

There is a chapter on the uses of timber, and this is a very interesting one. It tells us of the various uses of the different trees, and of the ways in which they are used. This is a very useful chapter, and will be of interest to all those who are interested in the uses of timber.

Getting The Most Out Of Your Pets

This is another in the series of monthly articles written by members of the Junior Branch of the East African Society for the Promotion of Kindness to Animals with a view to encouraging kindness to animals in the children of East Africa.

A LOT of people are too busy to take any notice of their pets. They are just looking at all the things that are going on around them and not seeing the little things that are going on in their own homes.

This is a very bad habit. If you should happen to be the owner of a pet, you should take some notice of it. There are many things that you can do to make your pet's life more enjoyable. You can give it a good name, you can give it a comfortable home, and you can give it a lot of love and attention.

SEVENTH heaven. Because that is just the name that is given to the state of mind that a person has when he is very happy. It is a state of mind that is very rare and very precious. It is a state of mind that is worth striving for.

THE only way. After all, you cannot enjoy anything unless you have it. You cannot enjoy life unless you have a good home, a good job, and a good family. You cannot enjoy life unless you have a good character and a good conscience.

Some Effect
A DOG did not do it all by itself. It was helped by the people who were kind to it. It was helped by the people who gave it a good home and a good name. It was helped by the people who gave it a lot of love and attention.

The Only Way
After all, you cannot enjoy anything unless you have it. You cannot enjoy life unless you have a good home, a good job, and a good family. You cannot enjoy life unless you have a good character and a good conscience.

THROUGH MY HAT

By Kenneth Meadows

IF there is one thing that I find in my life, more than (a) any other thing or (b) combination of one or more of any other things, it is to receive an 11th-hour invitation to something that I have never done before.

Overfeeding
A N untrained animal will go on eating until it is sick. It will eat until it is sick. It will eat until it is sick. It will eat until it is sick.

Someone who was later introduced to me was a... I was very much interested in the... I was very much interested in the...

THE THINGS THEY SAY...

AS I see it, the happy... people are those who are in the centre of their lives. The unhappy... people are those who are on the outside and try to make part of their lives.

Food offence
A man from the hotel... food offence. It is a very common thing. It is a very common thing. It is a very common thing.

LIKELY INTERNATIONALS ON VIEW TODAY

Last-minute check-up by selectors

THIS is an important day in the life of 11 English team to play Wales at Wembley on November 12 will be announced. And the selectors will be out in force today making a last-minute check-up at Minin Park, both English and Welsh players will be under scrutiny.

Steve Cardiff, who has not played a home game since September 27, entertains last week's Lancashire skip, accordingly but their home re-partially through lack of experience. He must be wondering whether the posturing he has done in a good performance. G. Merrick, the English forward, will be staying in Birmingham for the day. Birmingham's forward line is disappointing at the moment. Merrick should go in. But they are short of a forward. A player of that name has been sent to him. Merrick will almost certainly go in. Merrick will almost certainly go in. Merrick will almost certainly go in.

THE ROYAL COMMISSION
The terms of reference of the Royal Commission which were announced were weeked show that at least practical consideration, is being given to the complex and interrelated problems that have developed in East Africa not only during the post-war years, but which are a natural corollary of the rapid development of the Colony and the consequent need to reconcile primitive methods of existence with those demanded by the growth of industrial and productive enterprises.

THE SIGNALLERS HAVE PROVED THEIR WORTH
As soldiers they seldom handle guns; even when they fire they are not to be taken seriously. But the Signalers have proved beyond doubt that the men of the Army are not only good at their job, but also good at their work. The Signalers have proved their worth in many ways, and their work is essential to the Army. They are the men who keep the Army in touch with the world, and they are the men who make sure that the Army is always ready for action. They are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of health, and they are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of spirits. They are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of luck, and they are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of fortune. They are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of everything, and they are the men who make sure that the Army is always in the best of all.

Applications are invited for a number of vacant posts for men of 18 and over, who are graduates of the University of Kenya or who have obtained a diploma in a relevant subject from a recognized university.

Kenya has a great part to play in the future history of Africa, the Commonwealth and the world and if that part is to be a significant one, it must be recognized from the beginning of the process and reorganization of all the inhabitants of the Colony. At present it is evident that the Government is making every effort to ensure that the Colony is in the best of health and that the people are in the best of spirits.

And so have the police patrol cars
You can reasonably expect a police patrol car to reach the road in minutes after you dial 990. It is equipped with the latest and most sophisticated equipment and is manned by a highly trained and experienced crew who are ready to respond to any situation that may arise. The police patrol cars are an essential part of the police force and they are the men who make sure that the law is always in the best of health and that the people are always in the best of spirits. They are the men who make sure that the law is always in the best of luck and that the people are always in the best of fortune. FETE A SPUR FOR ST. MARK'S NEW CHURCH

The £10,000 building fund of St. Mark's Church, Nairobi, had a good start on Saturday. The first part of the fund was raised at a fete given at the club house of the Nairobi Club.

The fete was held in the evening and was attended by a large number of people. The proceeds of the fete were used towards the building fund of the church.

The church is a new building and is being built on a site in Nairobi. The building is being designed by a local architect and is expected to be completed in a few months.

600-YEAR-OLD COURT DECIDES CORONATION WHO-WILL-DO-WHAT

NINE judges of one of Britain's oldest courts has agreed to meet in London to decide who will do what at the Coronation of the Queen in Westminster Abbey next June. The 600-year-old Court of Chancery heard 23 petitions from people who tried to prove their right to ancient functions which would be performed at the coronation.

The court was asked to decide who should perform the various parts of the coronation ceremony. The court heard 23 petitions from people who claimed to have the right to perform certain parts of the ceremony.

SUNDERLAND IN GREAT FORM

Now joint leaders of Division I

A CRUSHING 3-2 away win over Manchester City on Saturday took Sunderland into joint Division I leadership with Wolverhampton, who lost at Liverpool. A hat-trick in the first half by Trevor Ford, Sunderland's Welsh international centre-forward, paved the way for the side's success over bottom of the table Manchester City who have not won a game for the past two months.

City however, were handicapped by the absence of their regular first team players, including Stanley Matthews and Stan Collier. Liverpool, the second-highest scorers in the league, were held to a 1-1 draw by Sunderland. The match was a tactical affair, with Sunderland's centre-forward, Trevor Ford, being particularly effective in the attack.

VOTING TODAY FOR NEXT US PRESIDENT

Narrow win for Governor Stevenson forecast

AMERICAN Presidential election campaign is in full swing. American citizens will go to the polls today to choose their choice. By tonight, or early tomorrow, the votes are believed to be counted. They have chosen Mr. Dwight D. Eisenhower as Republican Party's candidate, and Governor Stevenson of Illinois, the Democratic opponent. A Gallup radio survey by Reuters of election polls for Stevenson showed by a small margin over Eisenhower that he would win the election. The survey, however, does not take the President's popularity into account. It also does not take into account the fact that Stevenson has a lead in the polls of about 20 electoral votes.

Mr. Bevan makes his mind up

MR. ANTHONY BEVAN, Labour Party Minister, has today made his mind up to support the Government in the vote on the new Bill. He has done so, he said, because he believes in the Government's policy of maintaining the pound at its present level.

Highest yet for the pound

THE pound sterling has today reached its highest level since the outbreak of the war. It is now at 100 shillings and 10 pence, a record for the pound since 1945.

New factor

THE new factor in the election is the fact that the Government has a lead in the polls of about 20 electoral votes. This is a significant lead, and it is expected that Stevenson will win the election.

Indonesian Party

THE Indonesian Party has today announced that it will support the Government in the vote on the new Bill. This is a significant move, as the party has been one of the main opponents of the Government.

Renamed

THE main committee of the People's Front of the Republic of Indonesia has today announced that it will be renamed the People's Front of the Republic of Indonesia.

ESTIMATES UP BY £2,000,000

Nairobi City Council to consider them tomorrow

Nairobi City Council, in committee will tomorrow consider new draft estimates for the six years ending 1957 which amount to £2,000,000 and show an increase of £2,000,000 over the estimates for 1952. Individual committee members consider new estimates but because of the large increase, which has been brought about mainly by the cost of the new water supply, the Council will discuss the question, whether the estimates should be reduced to £2,000,000 or whether the estimates should be increased to £2,000,000.

30 detained after screening of 4,000 in Nanyuki swoop

Thirty persons were detained by police for screening at Nanyuki after three and a half hours of searching and screening of 4,000 persons. The operation was carried out by the Kenya Regiment, a company of which is stationed at Nanyuki, and the 5th Battalion of the King's African Rifles. The operation was carried out in the morning and the results were as follows:—

Bayonet number: 11 charged

Major J. M. O'Connell, commanding officer of the 5th Battalion, King's African Rifles, has reported that 11 persons have been charged with the murder of a British soldier. The incident occurred on the 15th of the month at Nanyuki. The victim was a British soldier who was killed by a bayonet. The 11 persons charged are:—

Running reports

Reports from the field indicate that the situation in the Nanyuki area is becoming more stable. Nairobi's six-year estimates show £2,000,000 rise

Nairobi City Council's draft capital estimates for the six years ending 1957 figure at £2,000,000, an increase of £200,000 on those prepared 12 months ago. The increase is due to the proposed water scheme, the Council in committee will be inferring them to the individual spending departments. Mr. M. J. C. Walker, Chairman of the Council, said that the estimates were prepared on the basis of a projected population of 100,000. The estimates include provision for the water scheme, which is estimated to cost £1,000,000. Other major items include provision for housing, education, and health services. The Council is expected to approve the estimates in the near future.
