THINK announcement that there is to be no further award for civil servants is tantamount to saying that their organisation has withdrawn its support for the Legislature.

As the Executive Member of the Civil Service Commission, I am sure that the Government will be able to find a way of dealing with the problem of civil servants' pay.

What was the object of the Civil Service Commission? It was set up to deal with the pay of civil servants. It was not to be a body that would be able to grant pay increases to civil servants.

CIVIL SERVICE SALARIES

In the last paragraph of your leader, headed "Civil Service Salaries," you have been criticizing the Government for not increasing the salaries of civil servants. It is stated—

"The Government has not increased the salaries of civil servants in the past few years and it is not likely to do so in the future."

It is true that the Government has not increased the salaries of civil servants in the past few years. But it is also true that the Government has not increased the salaries of civil servants in the past few years because it has not had the money to do so.

Meat for Congo

MAY we please refer to the article in the Standard of the 21st March, 1950, headed "Meat for Congo." The article states that the Government has agreed to supply meat to the Congo for the next five years. This is a very generous offer, especially in view of the fact that the Government has not had the money to do so in the past few years.

Uruu spoken — and understood

I reply to Mr. M. J. M. and Mrs. M. J. M. who would like to know more about the Uruu spoken in the Congo. The Uruu is a very important language in the Congo and it is being taught in the schools. This is a very good thing to do, especially in view of the fact that the Uruu is a very difficult language to learn.

First day of the show in pictures

LISTENING TO THE BANDS

A highlight of the first day of the Kenya Royal Show at Mitchell Park, Nairobi, was a display of matted hair, drums and pipes in the main arena.

Taking part were one of the Itumbukile Families, and the King's African Rites.

Above right is a herd with matted hair, and below is the Shaba Island Band which played the new tune in the show. Exhibited by Kiwara poultry farm, it won the Kenya Poultry Cup and the Langata trophy.

The two calves on the right, if asked for their piece of beef, would reply "The Royal Show Show". The first two were at Mitchell Park last year and are now with their grand owner, Mr. D. Macho of North Kiwango.

Waiting for the judges can be a nerve-wracking business as "Duke" Patten, of Kikuyu on hand (below right) to conduct the mother's routine, his sister, Diana, holds the baby's foot.

On the left is a section of the crowd listening to Lord Mountbatten's opening address which included a message of greeting from the Duke of Edinburgh.

Come now, don't be shy

Men of the Kenya Regiment. Below, thrilled youngsters of all ages in the crowd with this mock battle display. Above, Mr. G. Crowther gets down to the business of judging pigs. A reluctant entrant, A. J. Kar's "Lokkwa Vogo VI" stomps away

ITS THAT BIRD AGAIN

Naturally, the Hume Indiarivens' stand was subjected to keen scrutiny by women visitors such as on the left.

Finally, an "East African Standard" staff photographer could not resist taking a second "shot" of the champion bird of the show. Below he is rewarded with an impetuous stare, a part of "How dare you, Sir" look.

With ANGEL FACE there's just "show through" of freckles, pores, blemishes, and other natural blemishes, even in direct sunlight. No complexion is so beautiful as in the admiring—always—if you use the new blended blend of creamed compressed powder and foundation in one. With "stay fresh" ANGEL FACE, your make-up and forget.
