The Future Of Spain (SEE PAGE THIRTY)

A FURTHER STEP AGAINST AGGRESSION

Franco-British Pledge Given To Greece And Rumania

Britain Not Satisfied With Italian Explanations "PROFOUND MISGIVINGS"

London, April 13. THE PRIME MINISTER ANNOUNCED IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS THIS AFTERNOON A FRANCO-BRITISH PLEDGE TO GREECE AND RUMANIA AGAINST AGGRESSION.

He also stated a promise given last Sunday by Mr. Mussolini that all Italian troops would be withdrawn from Spain immediately after the victorious parade in Madrid.

Mr. Chamberlain claimed that the Anglo-Italian Agreement had been justified and should not at this moment, be ended.

The Prime Minister rose to speak in a crowded House. Among those in the Distinguished Strangers' Gallery were the Duke of Kent, the Belgian Ambassador and the Soviet Ambassador.

Mr. Chamberlain said he had intended to give an account of the Italian withdrawal of troops from Spain.

At the background of this speech, he said there was a divergence of views, particularly about the Italian withdrawal of troops from Spain.

Mr. Chamberlain said that the Italian withdrawal of troops from Spain was a step towards the settlement of the Spanish question.

BEAUTY—which, "streamlined" lines to match the flowing grace of the latest motor car design.

SAFETY—provided by a new arrangement of the famous All-Weather, Center-Traction tread that makes the G-100 all more sure-footed and non-skidding, more resistant to skidding, in all directions.

LONG WEAR—33% longer non-skid mileage, longer tire life than that provided by former Goodyear—made possible by entirely new principles of tyre construction.

GOOD YEAR
ALL WEATHER

NEW PRINCIPLE OF TYRE CONSTRUCTION

A Conventional Tyre When inflated all portions of the tyre expand—the tread stretches, which makes it easy to cut.	B G-100—Uninflated Note that this tyre when uninflated is flat-sided, higher than it is wide.	C G-100—Inflated Sidelwalls expand—tread contracts. "Compressed" rubber wears longer. It makes for a longer, freer, longer life.

COMPLETELY NEW

... NOT ONLY IN ITS "STREAMLINED" BEAUTY BUT ALSO IN ITS
ADVANCED ENGINEERING... THIS GREAT NEW GOODYEAR TYRE

You need no second look to know that here is a tyre far more handsome than any you've ever seen before. The mere glance at its streamlined sidewalls, reveals a "sculptured" grace that makes this new G-100 a fascinating complement to the flowing beauty of the most modern motor car designs.

But you'll need to look deeper than surface beauty to discover the extent to which this great tyre is truly new. You'll want to compare its construction with that of conventional tyres you've known to appreciate the engineering advance explained by the diagrams above.

In cross section, the ordinary tyre, as shown by diagram A, is round when uninflated. When such a tyre is inflated, all portions expand—including the tread. This stretching of the tread rubber makes it easier to cut—faster wearing.

Now look at diagram B which shows the shape of the G-100, when uninflated. Note that this tyre has "fatter" sides—it's higher than it is wide. So, when the G-100 is inflated, its sidewalls expand but the tread actually contracts.

This compresses the tread portion of the tyre. And, as you know, when rubber is compressed it offers far greater resistance to cutting and bruising. It wears longer. Thus, this new principle of tyre construction gives the G-100 longer life—gives you as much as 33% more tyre mileage than you get even from former Goodyear!

So be prepared, when you visit your Goodyear dealer, to hear a tyre story—and see a tyre—entirely new. The only thing that will look familiar to you is the famous All-Weather Center Traction tread design of the G-100.

That basic tread design of diamond shaped blocks has never been bettered—by Goodyear or any other manufacturer—for traction. Its fast starts and quick stops—for resistance to skidding in all directions, on all types of roads.

But if you look closely you'll see that even this has been improved. The diamond blocks are closer spaced—for smooth, silent rolling. The tread itself is flatter—for more road contact. And the tough rubber in that tread is now still tougher because of a newly developed compound.

Give your car the smartest, most modern tyre equipment it can have. Give yourself and family the most trouble-free mileage, the most safety you money can buy. Visit your Goodyear dealer and have him fit a full set of new G-100's. You'll be happy to find they cost no more than you're accustomed to paying for good tyres!

Available in 6.00-16 and 6.50-16 sizes only.

Founded in honor of the 100th Anniversary of Charles Goodyear's discovery of the process of vulcanization of rubber.

HEALTHY EATING NEEDN'T COST YOU MUCH

— says Anthony Weymouth

"Just a bit of the Apple, please."

MINERAL salts, vitamins and fluids are so important to health as the proteins, carbohydrates and fats which form the basis of good diet. If you live in town you must make sure that your diet contains enough health-giving salts and vitamins.

Vitamin D improves your general health and energy. The action of sunlight on your body creates this vitamin. It is found most abundantly in livered eggs. There is a very valuable source of this vitamin—cod liver oil.

Iron and calcium are especially important to health, especially for children and young people. They are essential to the formation of red blood cells and to the growth of the body.

Protein is essential to the growth of the body. It is found in meat, fish, eggs, milk, and various other foods. The amount of protein in your diet should be just enough to meet the needs of your body.

Carbohydrates are essential to the energy of the body. They are found in cereals, fruits, and vegetables. The amount of carbohydrates in your diet should be just enough to meet the needs of your body.

Fats are essential to the health of the body. They are found in meat, fish, eggs, milk, and various other foods. The amount of fat in your diet should be just enough to meet the needs of your body.

A lightly salted egg—White Coffee.

Meat-Dishes. Cook with prunes, tomatoes, and cabbage.

Stews and Soups. Cook with prunes, tomatoes, and cabbage.

Wheat and Lentils. Cook with prunes, tomatoes, and cabbage.

Apples. Eat a few apples a day.

How to eat apples. Apples are a healthy food. They are rich in vitamins and minerals. They are also a good source of fiber. Apples should be eaten as a snack or as part of a meal. They are best when eaten fresh.

It is sometimes almost too bewildering to catch the spirit of London, so changeable in its character, and so full of contrast to the slightest tremor even in the furthest parts of the world.

It is a world of contrasts, with its crowded streets and its open spaces, with its ancient buildings and its modern skyscrapers, with its rich history and its vibrant present.

London is a city of contrasts, a city of contrasts, a city of contrasts.

Mr. Pirow is busy with Defence

SOUTH AFRICA is still pre-occupied with the annals of its own world-stratagem. Consolidation of Germany's future intentions have been unanimous. Even the Malaita Press has joined in, but has spoiled the picture by taking Hitler's aggressive acts to the conquest of the Boer Republic by the British Empire conveniently forgetting the jingoism of their own leaders of the war, who also had aggressive designs (with pro-French assistance) on the British Colonies of the Cape and Natal. It is something, however, that the Malaita are beginning to open their eyes to the true character of this Nazism which they are so admirably and intelligently condemning, and which is the only protector against it.

In my view ... No Dog Owner is Sane!

HOW TO RAISE A DOG IN THE SUBURBS
By W. M. M. M.
New York

So far as I can make out in this country the only person in this century who looked upon dogs as dogs was never seen a dog which was not a bulldog. My dog was the least bit dog-downer when I got out to lunch at a house where there is a dog I know, but my dog does not think that the milk will be ruined.

"This is the first of a book; you always try to raise that dog which is the best of the breed. I have never seen a dog which was not a bulldog. My dog was the least bit dog-downer when I got out to lunch at a house where there is a dog I know, but my dog does not think that the milk will be ruined.

A NUMBER OF PEOPLE
By Edmund March, M.S.C.V.
New York

THE READER may think that in the present day of mass production, the number of people is increasing so fast that it is impossible to count them. However, the author of this book, Edmund March, M.S.C.V., has attempted to do just that. He has taken a large number of people and has counted them. The result is a book which is both interesting and useful. It is a book which should be read by all those who are interested in the human race. It is a book which is both interesting and useful. It is a book which should be read by all those who are interested in the human race.

Some Notes on Eucalypts

By R. WARD

Eucalypts are a group of trees that are native to Australia. They are very hardy and can grow in a variety of climates. They are also very useful for many purposes. They are used for timber, for paper, and for medicine. They are also used for many other purposes. They are a very important part of the Australian landscape.

World Awaiting Premier's Statement

Unequivocal Statement Of What Britain Means by "Status Quo"

QUESTIONS OF GUARANTEES

There is considerable speculation as to the nature of the declaration which will be made by Mr. Neville Chamberlain in the House of Commons today arising out of the Italian invasion of Albania.

It is assumed that the declaration will include an exact and unequivocal statement of what Britain means by the status quo in the Mediterranean as defined in the Anglo-Italian agreement and it is possible it will indicate Britain's readiness to guarantee the independence of Greece and Turkey.

The French Government will also issue a declaration of policy by the middle of next week. France has been concerned about the continued presence of German and Italian troops in Spain and has insisted to German France that all foreign troops are not withdrawn from Spain.

It is believed that the Prime Minister will make a statement in the House of Commons today. The statement will be a reply to the Italian ultimatum.

BRITISH OPINION SOLIDLY BEHIND OFFICIAL POLICY

The Anglo-French pledge of support to Greece and Rumania has caused great astonishment in Britain, France, the United States, Greece, Rumania and Poland.

From which it is clear that the British and French Governments have not been treated with reserve.

During the debate in the House of Commons on Thursday the new policy for pushing forward vigorously with Poland, Rumania and Greece should only be considered as an interim.

The leader of the Labour Opposition, Mr. Attlee, who followed the Prime Minister's speech, said that Mr. Chamberlain had not more clearly dissociated himself from his former policy of treating the Dictators as a bloc, which had been done by a statement which he made to the House of Commons on March 31.

The Prime Minister's speech has caused great astonishment in Britain, France, the United States, Greece, Rumania and Poland. The British and French Governments have not been treated with reserve.

The British Government has issued a warning to the Dictators that it is not prepared to enter into any negotiations with them.

The Ultimate Aim?

The British Government has issued a statement in which it said that its ultimate aim was to bring about a settlement of the European situation.

along the lines of the recently published world in any one country the desire to take. The best hope of getting a common understanding for the people of Europe, Asia, Africa and America, the only hope that would have been common to all.

The Prince and the Pauper

There no doubt well-known, those people who insist on historical accuracy in films will not enjoy "The Prince and the Pauper." They will forget, or probably never even know, that it is from the story written by Mark Twain many years ago...

It was slow, spectacular and rather grossly showing. The film is true to the spirit of that story the film abounds and that, I feel, is more important than that it should be a good-like picture of authentic Tudor times.

Lord Jeff

As "Lord Jeff" has not yet arrived in Nairobi, I am unable to give you my personal opinion about it. I do know, though, that the original title was "The Burundis" and that Freddie Bartholomew appears in a rather longer role than is usual...

film, if the marvellous love interest were introduced, but Mr. Stanley had the privilege of being accompanied in his perilous journey by a comic assistant.

The Case Against Mrs. Ames

There are really two cases against Mrs. Ames, the first about murdering her husband and the second in regard to her conduct in the court.

Improving History

Everyone is all too familiar with the naive habit of improving on history, and the latest film to fall victim to this is the production of "Stanley and Livingstone."

Certain Changes

"To give Mr. Zanuck some credit for not entirely destroying the historical basis, he does not permit Stanley to proclaim his love for Mary. They do not get married either, but the audience will not fail to guess what happens when the curtain comes down.

RUGBY NEWS AND NOTES

TOMMY FARR GETS HIS REVENGE

"Red" Burman Outpointed at Harringay

(By "Scene Down")

The Easter Rugby Tournament was a credit success and "Red" Burman and Nakuhi have both had a deep respect and one another. But the Easter Cup matches will go on, and the Easter Cup will be won by the "Red" Burman.

Edwert was unfortunate in being injured in the first match. His brothers who are understood to be playing for the "Red" Burman did not appear on Saturday. It was a pity that the side had to play a week before the season, any disappointment felt was cancelled on Sunday when they played magnificently.

They were then helped by George Anderson who is the son of Mr. J. Anderson, the well known manager of the Kenya Agricultural Department. Anderson is a first class player and he was the star of the "Red" Burman side in the first match. He was the star of the "Red" Burman side in the first match. PRESIDENT'S APPEAL TO THE DICTATORS

Asks For Assurance From Them of at Least Ten Years of Peace

WORLD IMPRESSED: HITLER TAKES EARLY NOTICE

THE MOST IMPORTANT DEVELOPMENT IN THE INTERNATIONAL SITUATION DURING THE WEEK-END IS A PERSONAL APPEAL BY THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES TO HITLER AND MUSOLINI FOR A PLEDGE BY THEM THAT THEY WILL REFRAIN FROM ANY AGGRESSION AGAINST THE TERRITORY OF INDEPENDENT STATES.

Mr. Roosevelt asks for an assurance of at least ten years of peace—indeed of peace for a quarter of a century. "If we dare look so far forward into the future," he asks, "let us do so with confidence."

He offers as an intermediary to ask other countries which receive those assurances to give Germany and Italy similar guarantees.

He requests a world conference to discuss disarmament and economic problems, in which he promises that the United States would take part.

The President's appeal has met with a hostile reception in Germany where the Press snarls at it. The world generally, outside the Axis circles, is deeply impressed by Mr. Roosevelt's proposals.

London, April 16. President Roosevelt had taken the unusual step of making a direct appeal to Adolf Hitler and Benito Mussolini, appealing to them to refrain from any further aggression against the territories of independent States and to refrain from any further aggression against the territories of independent States.

He asked the Axis leaders to pledge themselves to refrain from any aggression against the territories of independent States and to refrain from any further aggression against the territories of independent States.

EMPIRE PLANS TO MEET AN EMERGENCY

Special Measures Being Taken At Gibraltar

London, April 16. Messages are reaching London from all parts of the Empire indicating special defence preparations to meet an emergency. Here are some of them:

INDIA
A proposal to give the Governor General of India additional powers in the event of a war is made in a White Paper which amends the Government of India Act 1935. In a state of emergency the Governor-General would be empowered to give directions to Provinces as to the manner in which provincial authorities should be exercised. The Federal Legislature could make laws for the Provinces concerning certain powers of defence.

BRITAIN
The Straits Settlements are thinking of making an extra gift of imperial defence and this proposal will be considered at the next meeting of the Legislative Council on April 21. During the past twenty years Malaya has contributed fidei £20,000,000 to Imperial defence and £5,000,000 to the Empire. The million dollars return is a substantial one.

ITALY ANXIOUS TO CONTINUE PACT WITH BRITAIN

Count Ciano Replies To British Premier

The value which Italy attaches to the maintenance of the Anglo-Italian Agreement was stressed by Count Ciano in the course of a speech in which he replied to Mr. Chamberlain's declaration in the House of Commons on Thursday.

The Italian Foreign Minister said that the Italian occupation of Albania did not constitute the slightest threat to Yugoslavia. In a country after they had marched through the streets of Madrid. Count Ciano begins his speech by stating that Italian interests in Albania were re-examined. The occupation of the country had been necessary, he said, to re-examine the "ragged" strategic surroundings.

U.S. FLEET FOR PACIFIC

"To Restore Balance"

Washington, April 16. The United States Fleet has been ordered to return from the Atlantic to the Pacific and nothing more has been said about the fleet's return to the Pacific and nothing more has been said about the fleet's return to the Pacific.

The decision to transfer the fleet was taken after the President had conferred with Mr. Cordell Hull and other advisers at the White House.

One theory for the decision is that it would restore the balance between the United States and Japan. Another theory is that it would restore the balance between the United States and Japan.

Abrogation Of Tanganyika Mandate Urged

“STANDARD” CORRESPONDENT
Arusha, April 10.
“The cession of Tanganyika to Germany would not avert war. It would make war inevitable.”

In these two sentences the Tanganyika Northern Province Settlers' leader, General Boyd-Moore, summarized the conviction which he holds as to the formation of the African Federation at Bulawayo, Southern Rhodesia.

General L. B. Boyd-Moore, one of the three delegates to the conference of representatives from every part of British Africa south of the Nile which recently assembled in Rhodesia, has just announced to the Tanganyika Settlers' Convention that he is a supporter of the conference to a large degree. The free peoples of Africa, he said, care very little to settle in Rhodesia, and he himself would not go to England to hand them over to the German Government. We will not be driven from the East African continent, he believes that the British Government, which is now engaged in taking the rights of the conference, can deny to their own country, the right to decide their own future.

General Boyd-Moore has urged the Settlers followed by the Hon. Sir A. J. A. Gordon, to hold their own and to stand firm in their high regard for the British Government. It was announced from the Chair that—although originally a pledge had been given by the members of the Tanganyika League to the British Government to support the mandate system, the British Government has now decided to give effect to the desire of the Settlers to have the mandate system abolished in the East African territories under its Government.

Another member brought forward was as follows:—
“That this meeting of the Arusha area of the Tanganyika League, regarding the failure of the mandatory system of government and the feeling of dissatisfaction that this form of government gives rise to in this territory, urges the Tanganyika League to approach His Majesty's Government and the Associated and Allied States for appropriate steps in its view to the abrogation of the Tanganyika Mandate.”

The discussion which followed showed the general feeling of the area, and that the mandate system has not only failed to bring about any good, but has also done much to bring about dissatisfaction. It was suggested that the time had perhaps come when it should be supported by some workable form of colonial administration.
A proposal for the abolition of the mandate system was made by the Secretary to the Tanganyika League, Mr. F. A. Green, Chairman of the C. C. I. Gray, D.S.O., Capt. J. Hester, M.C., Messrs. D. N. Tait, T. M. M. Bennett, R. D. Tait, J. F. Foster, Messrs. J. R. D. Tait, J. R. D. Tait, J. R. D. Tait.

ENGINEERED

STREAMLINED TO MATCH THE SLEEK BEAUTY OF SMART, NEW MOTOR CARS

G-100 THE GREAT NEW TYRE

Present in honor of the 100th Anniversary of Charles Goodyear's discovery of the process of vulcanization of rubber.

Forget everything you've heard before about how long a tyre should last, about how safe it should be to ride on, about how much it can add to the good looks of your car! For here is a great new tyre—the G-100—that upsets all former standards of performance and beauty. It's new right down to the basic features of construction!

A glance at the diagrams below will show true life in. In diagram A, you see the familiar cross section of an uninflated, conventional tyre.

It's round, as you've always known it to be. When such a tyre is inflated it expands—all portions expand—including the tread. That stretching of the tread rubber makes it easier to cut—more vulnerable to bruises and to the punishing, grind-away action of today's high speeds on hard-surfaced roads.

Look at diagram B—and what do you see? A tyre whose cross section, when uninflated, is "belly-shaped" . . . higher than it is wide! When this tyre receives its charge of air, the sidewalls expand—but the tread contracts; as you see in diagram C.

Do you know what that does? It actually compresses the tread rubber, compacts it—and makes it far tougher to cut—more resistant to bruising—far longer wearing—enables the G-100 in fact to deliver 33% more safe, non-skid mileage even than former Goodyears!

On top of that—the famous ALL-WEATHER, Center-Traction tread design—that resists skidding in all directions—has been improved, to make it smoother, quieter-rolling and still safer, on all types of roads.

The tread is flatter to give more road contact, more grip, for fast starts and quick stops. And the rubber in that thicker tread is made tougher by a newly developed compound!

So much for performance. The beauty of the new G-100 you can see for yourself. Would you have believed a tyre could be made so handsome? Its free-flowing streamlines—visible even when the car is in motion—lend a "sculptured" grace to complement the smartest new motor car design!

See the G-100 at your Goodyear dealer's. Fit a full set. Then, before you start off on the long, long road of proving how good they are—stand off and thrill to the good looks they add to your car! And all for no more money than you're accustomed to paying for good tyres.

Available in 6.00-16 and 6.50-16 sizes only.

BEAUTY . . . sleek, "sculptured" lines to match the styling grace of the smartest motor car designs.

LONG WEAR . . . 33% longer non-skid mileage. Only tyre line that provides far greater Goodyear-made mileage by actually new principle of tyre construction.

SAFETY . . . provided by a new arrangement of the famous ALL-WEATHER, Center-Traction tread that makes the G-100 still more successful all-weather, more resistant to skidding, in all directions.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT'S APPEAL

A Direct Question

At the moment when the world seems to be once more on the brink of catastrophe, and sinister rumors troop concentrations and extraordinary military preparations press against the President of the United States has made another spectacular entry into European affairs. Mr. Roosevelt's appeal to Mr. Chamberlain and Signor Mussolini to give a guarantee that they will refrain from further acts of aggression for a period of not less than ten years in which case the United States will not be a world commoner and participant in it, which is a blinding flash of light illuminating once a new hope at the time when the clouds have been gathering ominously and threateningly. Comparable with Mr. Chamberlain's historic personal intervention at the height of the September crisis, it will buy us the fagging spirit of the nations for a few days and renew faith in human nature.

The President has made things as easy as he could for the Dictators by offering to act personally as an intermediary between the Dictators, Italy and the rest of Europe, and in order that there might be a little embarrassment in possible for any party to be refrained from communicating his intention to the other Dictators. It is certainly a tactful move. Roosevelt can depend on an immediate and helpful response from every country threatened with the loss of its freedom. In the present Dictatorial ambition. A few days will suffice to show that they still remaining faith in the humanity and sincerity of Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini is warranted, or whether they will suffer the treatment which was meted out to the British Prime Minister who saw the personal plenipotentiary at Munich destroyed by the invasion of Czechoslovakia and Menzies after the Emperor had been American public opinion, may see in the President's momentary chance to play the Crucial States of the Dictators. It is a new policy by raising as a condition the satisfaction of territorial claims of the Dictators, and the territory in a manner which will show the whole responsibility lie on the Dictators. It is a new policy which shows that France should stand in the hope of one more isolated United States sympathies in the general way in recent months on the road which leads from traditional isolation to practical intervention in European affairs. It is interesting that change in foreign policy does not as yet involve the direct responsibility which was placed on Chamberlain has shouldered on the Continent of Europe there is now little room for doubt whether American sympathies are short of military participation in any conflict. American economic and financial sympathies are not so much as to suffer seriously from the effects of international insecurity and Mr. Roosevelt's use of the word "aggression" in the difficulties which may face the United States by war, even though the country may not accept fully national neutrality.

He has adjusted the position correctly in saying that the decision for peace or war lies in the hands of the leaders of the nations and that the people of the world are not so much as to have their fears aroused. Particularly he reminds Hitler and Signor Mussolini of their frequent declarations that they want a long period of peace, and places upon them the complete responsibility for any crisis which, in the face of these declarations, may be brought upon the world. He has reminded them that there is no threat to their position, and that, if Hitler and Signor Mussolini would give a guarantee that they will not resort to any further acts of aggression, he will not accept a qualified assurance of good faith and respect for their position. He has not offered an answer in the form of claims backed by arms and the continued threat of the use of force. What he is anxious to secure from Italy and Germany is a frank assurance of their intention to abstain from any military action or objectives so that the world may know what aspirations or grievances the Dictators have, and how far they represent a threat to peace which can or cannot be removed by the method employed by all normal people—discussion round a conference table. There are entering peace negotiations in progress, but the Dictators have stated that if Germany and Italy seek to evade the issue the result will be a further serious strengthening of the opposition across the Atlantic to the policy and outlook of the totalitarian States.

The Dictators have been used on the basis of a dilemma because heretofore they will have insisted that the Dictators should be held responsible for the outbreak of the war, and that if Germany and Italy seek to evade the issue the result will be a further serious strengthening of the opposition across the Atlantic to the policy and outlook of the totalitarian States.

K. A. R. BATTALION IN TANGA

"GRAND" CONCERT! One of the most successful and most popular of the British Bands in Tanganyika will be in the city during the night and arrival there.

There are reports of a strike among the Italian and Italian-American troops in the Italian colonies, and an immediate movement of troops may be necessary. It is believed that the Italian troops will be sent to the Italian colonies.

It is understood that the K.A.R. troops will be sent to the Italian colonies, and that the Italian troops will be sent to the Italian colonies.

It is believed that the Italian troops will be sent to the Italian colonies, and that the Italian troops will be sent to the Italian colonies.

HITLER TO REPLY TO ROOSEVELT AT END OF NEXT WEEK

Bitter German And Italian Press Comment On Notes

SOVIET'S MESSAGE

HEINRICH HITLER WILL REPLY TO PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT AT A SPECIALLY CONVOKED MEETING OF THE REICHTAG IN BERLIN TOWARDS THE END OF NEXT WEEK.

Both the German and Italian Press are displaying the greatest hostility about the President's message and leading Italian newspapers forecast that the answer of the Axis Powers will be an uncompromising "No."

It is considered probable that statements on the international situation will be made in both Houses of Parliament today.

There is believed to be a likelihood that an announcement of Russia's adherence to the pact against aggression will be forthcoming within the next day or two.

London, April 17. (The Times)—The press of the Reich has reacted to President Roosevelt's appeal by a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Reichstag will be called to order on the 22nd of the month, and that the Reichstag will be asked to endorse the President's appeal.

The German press has been particularly hostile to the President's message. It has accused him of "betraying the German people" and of "trying to bring about a new world order."

Italy has also reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Italian press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

Russia has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Russian press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The Soviet press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Soviet press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The Japanese press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Japanese press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The Chinese press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Chinese press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The Indian press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Indian press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The Australian press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the Australian press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

The New Zealand press has reacted to the President's message with a series of articles and commentaries which will be published in the course of the next few days. It is expected that the New Zealand press will be particularly hostile to the President's message.

President Roosevelt's appeal is widely welcomed in the British Press.

The Times described Mr. Roosevelt's appeal as "a masterpiece of statesmanship." It said that the appeal was "a masterpiece of statesmanship" and that it was "a masterpiece of statesmanship."

The Time Is Now Getting Short

The Children's Holiday Camp Fund is still going ahead.

At present the probable closing date has been tentatively fixed for the end of April so there is less than a fortnight for the people of Kenya to do their good deed for the youngsters.

"A small donation to your Fund, with the best of Good Luck to your worthy cause," was a message the "East African Standard" received yesterday.

Remember that though Five Pounds will make one child happy, the odd pound net is just as welcome.

Can we try to make the total up to Six Hundred Pounds before the appeal closes?

Britain Getting Ready For A Crisis

(STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT) London.

Government departments are certainly contributing to the idea that despatch of troops in consequence of our military commitments in Europe is a superevident requisite, and that those in touch with Government seem to indicate now that Germany's intentions are mainly directed against that country, and that if there are any strong developments anticipated by Germany action will be so evolved as to bring us in at the very start.

For instance, the Civil Defence Bill is being rushed through the House as early as possible. In the course of the debate Sir John Anderson, Mr. Herbert Morrison and others laid stress again and again on the imperative necessity of speed, not only in despatching of the Bill, but in completing the extensive operations it provides for. At one time it was anticipated that this measure would be taken on quite leisurely lines, but the Cabinet must have received some information to make it think otherwise.

No-one expects exactly as to what has been done in respect of the military agreement with Poland and it is being attempted by way of additional aid to that agreement. We all know that Poland does not want Russia to come in, and under the circumstances the Soviet aid to the country is rather puzzling to know what to do. For instance the Daily Herald today speaks for the continuation of the aid to Poland, but the circumstances of the Soviet aid to the country are rather puzzling to know what to do. RAGBI: OUR LONDON TURF LETTER

After this season's London, April 16-17, the racing will be in the hands of the Spring Handicappers. There will not be a change of hands in the club house training in them until the 1st of May. The London Turf Club will be run tomorrow in backing in the morning.

The week's racing at Newmarket was unimpressive with several of the classic two-year-olds still in view and under observation.

The Craven Stakes and the Free Handicap (Stakes) were the main chances of the season.

Aspart from the fact that the classic races have been held a record already this season, so much so that the fact that the Craven Stakes were held for the first time in the history of the race.

The going is very heavy but it is not particularly the case at Newmarket. Singles was the main feature of the day.

Next to this one is the chance of Craven and the Derby. There is a good acceptance for the Derby and the Derby is the main chance of the season.
