FOR USE IN MISSILES

Achievement 'changes nature of war'

NEED OF LONG-RANGE WEAPONS EMPHASISED

UNITED STATES scientists have designed hydrogen bombs small enough to be carried by inter-continental missiles, it was disclosed in Washington.

The news has been secret since Maj-Gen. S. R. Brentnall, head of the guided missile section of the United States Air Force, told a Congress committee of the achievement last month. He described as a "major scientific breakthrough" which had changed the nature of war.

Maj-Gen. Brentnall's testimony was disclosed in a heavily censored transcript of a secret hearing by the House of Representatives Appropriations Sub-Committee of evidence to back its request for $2,000,000,000 for the coming fiscal year.

Maj-Gen. Brentnall also a director of the U.S.A.'s guided missile programme, but said positively that the new inventions were needed to give the United States superpower missiles of inter-continental range.

Maj-Gen. Brentnall said that the advent of lightweight high-speed warheads made ballistic missiles attractive because it simplified many problems and ensured that thermo-nuclear weapons would be light and handy enough to be carried by long-range missiles of reasonable size.

The big job now was to put together the complex system needed to operate accurate missiles.

The U.S.A. said in a general statement that intensive research has been carried out in the past few years and that the U.S.A. is now in a position to produce advanced inter-continental missiles.

RACING CARS KILL FIVE IN ITALY

100 m.p.h. crashes on rainsoaked road

FIVE powerful racing cars plunged off the rainsoaked road in Italy's grand Prix Milla (1,000 mile) race on Sunday.

Crashing into at least 13 other people, it was the world's worst motor racing disaster since the last year, when a racing Milla killed six.

Some of the 232 big cars in the race were travelling at more than 100 miles an hour as they whirled along the bumpy, wet road and slippery race track north and Central Italy in a continuous motor racing disaster since the last year, when a racing Milla killed six.

Accidents punctuated the first 100 miles on the race as they whirled along the bumpy, wet road and slippery race track north and Central Italy in a continuous motor racing disaster since the last year, when a racing Milla killed six.

Some afterwards a Swiss driver, Max Berr, killed a woman and a child in a crash on the road near the finish.

Another driver, who was killed, crashed into a truck on the road near the finish.

STOCK EXCHANGE STATISTICS

INTEREST and dividends on securities quoted on the London Stock Exchange last year to £10,000,000, compared with £7,500,000 the previous year, it was announced yesterday in London.

The report, the John Williams, chairman of the Exchange, said that in valuing the gross totals of interest and dividends as a whole, it was necessary to include the important factors, which could not be accurately calculated.

Disposals amount

This included the incidence of taxation on income arising from the receipt of interest and dividends, and interest on interest, which was included in the statistics, and the retention of interest and dividends in the Departments, pension funds, building societies and other institutions.

The report suggested that, all things for these factors, the maximum amount of £10,000,000 would not exceed £9,000,000.

AWARDS FOR BRAVERY AGAINST TERRORISTS

Three officers win George Medals

RIFT VALLEY 'CLOAK AND DAGGER' EXPLOITS

IMMEDIATE awards of the George Medal have been granted by the Queen to three members of the security forces who have been conspicuous exploiters against Mau Mau terrorists in the Rift Valley Province.

The men are Mr. Neville Cooper and Mr. David Drummond, both police officers, and Mr. James Wallace, a former soldier. The citations state that all three and their personal efforts played a big part in limiting terrorist activity in the Rift Valley Province.

Between them, the officers have been responsible for the death or capture of nearly 100 terrorists and the seizure of arms and ammunition. They did important work also in collecting information about terrorists and their movements.

Mr. Cooper, who farms at Hadley Nurseries, Elberon, Mr. Drummond, who is a police officer, and Mr. Wallace, a former soldier, were both in Kenya when Mau Mau terrorists exploited the Rift Valley Province. Mr. Cooper operated in the Molo District in 1954, and has since then been in the Rift Valley Province.

Budget plan on pay deferred

'IMMEDIATE ACTION HAD TO BE TAKEN'

An official statement issued by the Kenya Government yesterday defended the Budget proposal to postpone the salaries of civil servants, while denying suggestions that it was intended to "impose" the award.

The Government recognized that an early increase was necessary and that provision would have to be made in the 1956-57 Budget; further, that if delay and consequent hardship were to be avoided, some immediate action had to be taken, it was stated. At the same time, a salary advance of 10 per cent was to be paid in July 1956.

The Minister however, said that the Government was not prepared to make any concession on the subject of the award.

PRICE OF TYRES CUT IN E. AFRICA

There is more good news for motorists to-day after the reduction in the price of petrol which came into force yesterday. East African representatives of leading tyre manufacturers announce that the retail price of tyres and tubes has been reduced by 15 per cent. The reduction covers the complete range of passenger, truck, and motor-cycle tyres.

One Nairobi firm said the decision was a result of a recent survey of the market which showed that the competition was keen.

From today the cost of one make of 40-16 inch tyre will be reduced from 245/- to 210/-. A ten-ply truck tyre (30-20) will cost 180/-, and a 14-20 tractor tyre will be priced at 135/-, as against 150/-, 175/-, and 150/- respectively.

At the end of September the retail cost of tyres was increased by an average of 11 per cent.

FIGHT TO SAVE DOOMED LAND

Luo customs set problem

ELDERS of the Luo tribe and Government officials are fighting a bitter battle to save hundreds of square miles of valuable land in Nyanza Province from being barren scrub and desert land. The land, covering 1,000 square miles or more, is in Luo area which is 15 years unless it is properly cultivated.

The most acute of Government agricultural officers is charged with writing out the plans for the 15 years. Some idea has been advanced as to the task in one Nyanza division of 250 square miles of which 100 square miles are farmed; there is one European officer and the African.

Another factor to be taken into account is that in other parts of Kenya there is still an Emergency and many Africans received compensation by falling in with new policies.

Poor farming — No one has been spent by the Government in the past few years. The Government has made many attempts to get the Luo to farm better. The Government has been sending out a number of African officers to help the Luo. The Government has been sending out a number of African officers to help the Luo.

For a change, the Mainly-For-Women Page brings news of MEN'S Fashions

THIS IS THE NEW MALE LOOK

By Alison Setch

MEN'S clothes are going to be a closer fit and the loose jacket drapes is on its way out. This is the news from the presentation of the best men's fashions of the year, an event staged by the Men's Fashion Council of London and the International Wool Secretariat which is equivalent in importance to the Paris couture. It shows that the fashion for men is moving in a similar way to that for women. It indicates to the world the coming trends in men's clothing.

The new jackets show narrower lapels, squared lower front edges, buttons creased in faster to match a continuation of narrow trousers, and an equal division of modes with trousers turn-ups and those without.

For the country

SPORTS and country suits are among those with broader lapels, they have raised collars and are worn with wide-breasted jackets including light side vents, made often of Cheviot. Checked button-down shirts are fabricated below. This covering of buttons in the topcoat, was a trend repeated throughout the fashion show. Vests worn with country and casual suits were either cut in a dark green smoking suit with black and white collar, fawn and green checked sport suit with yellow waist, a light blue and green jacket with green pattern, and a night suit in a light blue and green pattern, and a matching jacket with green pattern. It is the quality and craftsmanship of cut and fit which drew the attention rather than any catching colour or detail.

The Men's Fashion Council have been asked if it would not be possible to take this men's style directly to the rest of the world. They say that it is not possible to take this men's style directly to the rest of the world. They say that it is not possible to take this men's style directly to the rest of the world.

FORTUNES IN JUNK SHOPS

SOME people spend most of their entire leisure time looking for "finds" in antique shops, markets and auction rooms, and sometimes they are lucky. They come across gaily old carvatures or clipped pieces of china that look absolutely worthless, but once restored, fetch fabulous prices. It is certainly an interesting hobby, but more often than not these "finds" are made purely by accident.

of the books and planned to sell them to her schoolgirl friends the next day to try and recover her money. Since she didn't collect stamps herself, she showed the stamps to her father, who happened to mention the date to the collector at whose house he had his collection at work in his daughter's school. It is a pleasant surprise that the collector was so interested in his daughter's school work.

It takes an expert to recognize a masterpiece in a diamond. Many layers of old dirt and enamel, but although experts and dealers scour the stalls and junk shops, they sometimes overlook quite a valuable antique. London has a well-known junk shop patronized by many such experts who, for many years, look for "finds" in the "junk" prices at ten shillings. Let's take the case of a picture which was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his. The picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his.

There have been many instances of this kind of thing. A picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his. The picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his.

A PINAFORE DRESS - WITH A DIFFERENCE

By Eileen Anderson

NO fashion trend has been so long followed by the women of the world as the pinafore dress. It is a simple, yet elegant, garment that has been popular for centuries. It is a simple, yet elegant, garment that has been popular for centuries.

Latest versions of the fashion come with a long, flowing skirt and a fitted bodice. The effect is light and airy, and it is perfect for the summer months. It is a simple, yet elegant, garment that has been popular for centuries.

A YOUNG girl, Elizabeth, has had a similar piece of luck. She found a picture in a junk shop which was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his. The picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his.

THERE have been many instances of this kind of thing. A picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his. The picture was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his.

A FAMOUS "find" occurred about 30 years ago in the market at Brussels in Belgium. A collection of pictures was being sold and a man who had been a collector of pictures for many years had found a picture which was sold for the price of the fat that had been given to him by a friend of his.

CORONATION SAFARI ENTRIES NOW APPROACH NINETY MARK

Implications of Nakuru speed test are analysed

By the Sports Editor

WITH five more entries expected, it is already evident that the 1958 Coronation Safari — is sponsored by the East African Standard — is destined to be a record-breaking event. It has never reached 60, 70, 80, 90, 100, 110, 120, 130, 140, 150, 160, 170, 180, 190, 200, 210, 220, 230, 240, 250, 260, 270, 280, 290, 300, 310, 320, 330, 340, 350, 360, 370, 380, 390, 400, 410, 420, 430, 440, 450, 460, 470, 480, 490, 500, 510, 520, 530, 540, 550, 560, 570, 580, 590, 600, 610, 620, 630, 640, 650, 660, 670, 680, 690, 700, 710, 720, 730, 740, 750, 760, 770, 780, 790, 800, 810, 820, 830, 840, 850, 860, 870, 880, 890, 900, 910, 920, 930, 940, 950, 960, 970, 980, 990, 1000.

The fact that the entries are now approaching the ninety mark is a reflection of the growing popularity of the Safari and the increasing number of motorists who are taking part in it. This is a sign of the success of the Safari and the interest it has aroused in the public.

Conditions changed
Last year there were three classes of cars, but this year there are four. The classes are: Class 1 (up to 1000 cc), Class 2 (1000-1500 cc), Class 3 (1500-2000 cc) and Class 4 (over 2000 cc).

The average class speeds varied from 40 to 60 m.p.h. in the various classes. This is a reflection of the fact that the roads are not very good and the weather is often very hot.

It is, however, conditions are very varying from one section to another. In places the roads are very good, but in other places they are very bad.

Next year's Safari will be held in the same area as this year's. It is expected that the number of entries will be even larger than this year's.

Some of the competitors are from the United Kingdom, others from the United States, and others from other parts of the world. This is a reflection of the international nature of the Safari.

It is to be noted that the condition that the car must be in good order at the time of the race is a very important one. It is a condition that is often overlooked by competitors. It is a condition that is often overlooked by competitors.

TWO BIRDS WITH ONE STONE

An Endowment Assurance as a method of saving has this advantage: the whole of the sum which you plan to have accumulated at a future date is available AT ONCE for your dependants should you die earlier.

If, on the other hand, you survive, the sum assured will provide you with a good return on your outlay.

Savings with interest and dependants' protection in the meantime are thus provided simultaneously.

It is worth remembering, too, that the obligation to maintain the payment of premiums imposes a degree of compulsion which makes saving a reality instead of a mere resolution.

An illustration of the benefits and cost will be sent if you will write stating your date of birth to the

Do read this if you are thinking about a new car

WHAT would you buy if you could?

Let's make no bones about it, you'd probably plump for a new, wide and handsome job imported at great expense. But what if the high cost of living adds so — difficult isn't it? Or is it? What do you want in a car? A smooth, quiet, steady, supple acceleration, an effortless high-revving speed with bags of power in hand? Yes—if it's easy on petrol. Well, next? Well, a comfortable driving position; strong, easy-riding suspension; excellent visibility; sound brakes; they all add up to tireless drive-free driving. And then you want good, solid coachwork with good looks and plenty of room for passengers and luggage. That sounds like a good car. It is a good car. And not just on our say-so. The description was taken from unbiased East African reports on the Morris 1318S. You can arrange for a trial run in the IS18 at any time. It costs £280 in Nairobi. Excellent suspension; excellent visibility; sound brakes; they all add up to £32 3s.

SYRIA UPSETS PLAN FOR BORDER CEASE-FIRE

U.N. chief cancels flight to Rome

UN chief cancels flight to Rome. A UN chief has cancelled his flight to Rome to meet with Syrian officials. Before leaving he conferred with the Israeli Premier, Mr. Ben Gurion, and the UN Secretary, Mr. Shavert.

CONDITION IMPOSED ON AGREEMENT WITH ISRAEL

SURPRISE decision by Syria has upset the plan for Arab-Israeli cease-fire put forward by the United Nations Secretary-General, Mr. Dag Hammarskjöld.

Syria originally gave Israeli leaders to understand that she would agree to an unconditional cease-fire on the same basis as the Israeli-Egyptian cease-fire. Syria has announced that she will agree only if Israel agrees an undertaking not to resume work on her Jordan River irrigation project at Beatha Yaseen, in the demilitarized zone south of Lake Huleh.

Mr. Hammarskjöld learned this he immediately cancelled his plans to fly back to Rome and decided to stay in the Middle East. Yesterday he flew to Damascus for consultations with Syrian officials. Before leaving he conferred with the Israeli Premier, Mr. Ben Gurion, and the UN Secretary, Mr. Shavert.

Israel suspended work on the Jordan River irrigation project a month ago pending consideration by the United Nations Security Council. Since then the United Nations has tried to foster a plan for joint Arab-Israeli development of the Jordan.

Israel claims she has the right to resume the work at all times. While negotiations with Syria go on, the UN Secretary-General has urged Israeli leaders to continue Mr. Hammarskjöld's work.

SEA-BED 'TEST' VALUATION

Embassy sets a precedent. The UN authority in East African ports were yesterday holding on Mombasa's decision to include in the new valuation roll—for the first time—5,000 acres of sea-bed.

The area, which includes Kitimat Harbour, the Old Port and parts of Port Maitland, was valued at 200,000. This figure has been decided by capitalizing the net marine cargo level at Kitimat Harbour and the Old Port.

United front in Kenya—only a dream

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

HAD a dream last night it was pleasant, except that in my dream my elected members of the Kenya Legislative Council are united. They agreed to sink their differences, to forget their disabilities, and to elect the Commission of Enquiry.

In this pleasant company of his friends, Mr. Alfred Vincent, my dreamer, said that the Legislative Council is a united front which was simple and easy to manage.

I. Party members go in, in favour of the Commission (which everyone would support).

2. Multi-racialism to cease as a political slogan.

3. A. F. Johnson's attitude in principle, to be set aside towards the Commission.

4. The African to be given a greater measure of governance within his tribe.

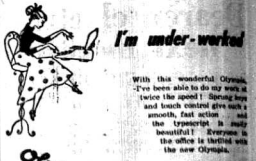

5. The Asians to have representation at all levels.

6. If we, indeed, as a happy dream, do it left everyone his own pet hobby horse (which they all are) on some round of control and just brought us together, I did not agree to do this. I do not agree to do this. I do not agree to do this. I do not agree to do this.

Indians end boycott of two cinemas

A SETTLEMENT has been agreed in the dispute which has led to the cancellation of showings of Indian films in two of the largest cinemas.

The dispute between the management of the Golden and Victoria Cinemas and the Indians who had been organizing a boycott of the cinema area to call off the dogs.

They accepted an offer from the cinema to remove a notice increase on seat prices for week-end showings and to allow Indian film showings to be screened on the increased days.

The boycott campaign was organized last weekend. When the cinema introduced an all-round increase of 20 per cent Indian films. Rising costs and the need to pay higher prices to obtain best Indian films were given as reasons for the increase. There were demonstrations outside the cinema cinema buildings in which Indian students were taken. Police guards have been placed on the cinema during the week.

PUBLIC SERVICES SPUR FOR INDUSTRY Development at Nakuru

NAKURU County Council must plan for development, industrial or otherwise, the Chairman of the Public Council, A. B. Coore, said at the public meeting. Public services, particularly roads and water supply were being improved and certain developments would have to consider the provision of electrical power without which they were unlikely to attract business.

Coore was curbed by having a large audience but forty-five Nakuru was growing and would tend to balance matters. Large urban areas in Africa were difficult to administer and the provision of the necessary services throughout the country would be a costly proposition.

Njuru advantage

Coore, Coore suggested that the advantages of Njuru as a health resort, particularly in the winter months, should be taken into account. He believed there were many people living in Nakuru.

UTIOUSLY COME TO RUSSIAN ADVANCES

West seeks initiative in peace drive

THREE MINISTERS GIVEN UNITY MISSION

THE 15 Atlantic Pact allies yesterday gave a cautious welcome to Russia's new peace gestures and launched a drive to outbid her efforts to extend Communism by economic and political methods.

The Nato Foreign Ministers wound up a two-day conference in Paris by declaring that present proposals "seem to leave scope for further peace initiatives by the West. A communiqué said they were "determined to pursue their initiatives" with the same energy with which they built up Nato's military defenses.

The Council appointed three Foreign Ministers—Mr. Lester Pearson of Canada, Mr. Harvart Lange of Norway and Sir Martin of Italy—to work out how the should be done. Their appointments are subject to the approval of their Governments.

The group will "advise the council on ways and means to improve and extend Nato co-operation in non-military fields and to develop greater unity in the Atlantic community." Mr. Dulles, United States Secretary of State, who first proposed the survey, said that the three were entrusted with the most important task perhaps since Nato was founded seven years ago.

It was said one of the three Foreign Ministers' main aims would be to see what could be done to bring the non-Communist world together in a common front which is now the main battle-ground of the "cold war" struggle for influence.

The communiqué stated that Nato had been set up in 1949 to meet the Communist threat in the West. The result was that the "West" had not been in.

Success hop on Singapore

Mr. David Marshall, Singapore's Chief Minister, said in London that there were "reasonable prospects" of success in the Singapore independence conference which would meet in London this week.

"For the first time in Singapore there is some talk of success," he said.

Mr. Marshall's remarks were broadcast over Radio Malaya.

Russia expected to cut conventional arms

NUCLEAR BUILD-UP FORECAST

The pause before the five atomic Powers resume the arms race is expected to end in a nuclear arms race. This week last week the view, now growing in the West, that the Soviet Union will not reduce its conventional arms level. According to London reports, the Soviet Union will concentrate on building up nuclear armaments, while continuing to reduce its conventional armaments.

Reason for failure

Official notes in the conference, the main cause of the failure was the unwillingness of the United States to accept the Soviet proposal for a "four big powers" agreement for the reduction of conventional armaments.

Land schemes for Rhodesias

The immediate settlement of the Rhodesias is a top priority for the British Government. The Rhodesias are expected to be granted independence in the near future.

Conference of U.C.P. explains policy on constitution

EXTRA EUROPEAN AND AFRICAN SEATS URGED

ANY increase in the number of Elected Ministers to Kenya's Council of Ministers should be offset by a similar decrease in the number of Civil Service or other present members, the United Country Party said in a new pamphlet explaining its policy.

The party would not support the appointment of more members than its own. It consists of the Governor, Deputy Governor, 11 European Ministers (six elected and five nominated), two Asians and one African.

It is pointed out that it is not intended as an election manifesto but that it is intended to be used by the Government of the country of the transfer of power to Kenya.

Efforts for agreement

It was stressed especially that agreement on the various racial groups should be reached before the transfer of power. It was stated that steps that must be taken to bring about such an agreement are:

1. A general election to be held before the transfer of power.

2. A general election to be held before the transfer of power.

3. A general election to be held before the transfer of power.

Self-government

I WOULD like to comment on Mr. A. W. Waigwa's letter about the self-government of Kenya. Africans are still too far from the arguments by which they tried to convince us, especially in any other connection, to any reasonable compromise of their interests.

He described the Zulu situation in even more impressive terms. It is true that 90 per cent of the tribe in Kenya still live in the same conditions as those of the tribe in Zululand. This is a very high percentage that is not to be taken lightly.

FROM a recent issue of the East African Standard it appears that the Government has decided to allow the Handians to elect their own representatives to the Legislative Council. This is a very important step.

falls entirely on the operator's shoulders. It is not the operator's fault that the cost of living is rising so fast.

U.S. KEEPS CLOSE WATCH ON RUSSIAN TACTICS

Need underlined for careful study

LONG-TERM FOREIGN AID URGED BY PRESIDENT

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—The United States was closely watching Russia's change in tactics from threats and violence to "more subtle methods" to further the goals of Communism.

During his semi-annual report to Congress on the progress of the "Marshall Plan," the president said that the United States must be able to "keep abreast of the tactics of the Soviet policy of artificial inflation and expansion as a means of ultimate domination over the life of a country."

The president again asked Congress to agree to the passage of a long-term foreign aid program to counter the economic circumstances and to make long-range commitments to backward areas. He reported that the United States had made "substantial progress" in helping Communist nations during the second half of last year.

On some problems that slowed down the rate of progress, he said, "Some overseas technical co-operation projects were being suspended because of the lack of trained specialists."

He was recommending increasingly difficult to sell the amount of military shipments to Europe and Asia.

The president said that the United States was "not overlooking the fact that the United States is still a long way from being able to provide the kind of aid that is needed in the form of technical assistance and private enterprise."

He said that the United States should pay "a price" for the kind of aid that is needed in the form of technical assistance and private enterprise.
