FASHION WITH BIBLICAL THEMES

By Betty Wilson

A small collection of costumes designed in Israel and brought to London on the way back from a highly successful sales campaign in New York showed how happily modern and of international design can be allied—and understood—in a wistful way.

For these clothes, made in hand-woven wool and mohair, which date their origin in the days of the crusades, with the modern, casual line.

Not do their designers aim at separate national designs. Working with new materials from throughout the world—wool, linen, silk, rayon and cotton. The chief designer, Mrs. F. C. Lawrence, who has her studio in London, and 25 other professional designers have achieved something that they cannot find elsewhere. It is a design of a traditional dress, in wool, with a simple, clean, and elegant line. It is a design of a traditional dress, in wool, with a simple, clean, and elegant line.

In London, Harrods, has ordered a small, hooded, lined, hand-woven wool and mohair jacket, in a traditional design. These are well to give the customer the best of both worlds.

The first collection venture at the London Fashion Week last October, before first back to travel to start her work-ups of an all-British, American and French she believes that the collection shows the influence of the country of origin in colors and fabrics, which reflect the long eight months of a Mediterranean summer, as well as the night.

Her dress now becomes a heavy garment when the traditional design is interpreted in wool. Each seam is lined with silk and the material is finished with minute fagging. The best is shown in a long-sleeved bonnet at the back and the dress is hand-carved from fine wool.

This strange dress is made in simple black wool jersey. A few inches will be used in the traditional black and white. The colors are the same as that which the many hundreds of years has been the light tones—the "Vivienne" collection.

AGAIN, traditional designs, hand-made from sheep. Both the black jersey and wool jersey dress which Margaret Goodwin has created for New York. This dress is in black, in white, wool jersey.

KENYA PLANS TO BRING IN CONGO WORKERS

Concern at avoiding production drop MR. COUTTS COMMENTS ON 'SERIOUS STEPS'

PLANS to import labour from Ruanda Urundi to meet the shortage of workers on Kenya's small and open plantations were announced in the Legislative Council yesterday.

The Minister of Labour, Mr. W. F. Coutts, said the scheme had been under consideration for the past two or three months. The time had come, he said, to take 'positive steps' to avoid a fall in the levels of production...

Reorganisation of wages councils considered EARLIER in the debate, Mr. Coutts said that during the last year the minimum adult wage in Nairobi rose from 14s. to 16s. 10s.

Mr. Coutts explained later that in starting the minimum wage he had been advised by the Government to do so in a way which would not cause any serious unemployment.

He said that the Government was now considering the possibility of reorganising the various wage councils into a single body.

Actual Test Reports on THE NEW DUNLOP ROADSTER

From YUGOSLAVIA At Karlovec I have used a truck that has been running with 12.00 x 20 tyres already over three months, these trials being quite undamaged in spite of very narrow roads and under bad conditions of timber hauling work. I feel sure that we shall be satisfied with the results obtained with the Roadster tyres.

From BURMA Twenty 7.50 x 20 covers were supplied to one of our largest bus companies and have inspired great enthusiasm. There were no complaints at all. All concerned are most impressed and news of their performance is spreading.

From PAKISTAN Early results are most encouraging. Tyres fitted to buses and trucks are in perfect condition, and the operators are themselves most enthusiastic.

From EAST AFRICA The outstanding feature of the tyres is the virtual freedom of the wheel from chipping and cutting. They have been operated on roads which specialise in this type of damage.

From ITALY The 11.00 x 22 Roadster tyres have given excellent results, although this vehicle is occupied almost exclusively in carrying heavy loads of wet sand day and night, travelling about 900 kilometres in about 24 hours.

From JAMAICA The tyres were fitted to a Fargo 5 ton Diesel and were removed at 23,000 miles. This mileage was exceptional, as the road over which the vehicle was operated are very rough and there are several steep hills and the road is very winding. Mr. Jarrett is most satisfied with the results.

From SOUTH AFRICA Roadster is doing very well indeed. You will remember I mentioned a service to the... Copper Mines, where we managed to get a result in six months. I am pleased to be able to tell you that each and every tyre which has been removed so far has out-performed the previous best single performance by 3/4,000 miles. Of course, there is no sign of 'cracking' and the tyres are fit for retreading. This result is outstanding locally.

FASHIONED IN LONDON

The Return of The Tartan

By JILL CAREY

LONDON'S fashion industry has woken up at last to the popularity of the tartan. Ever since Queen Victoria's husband fastenated Balmoral Castle with tartan, the English have had a way with it to the Americas to the west. For the next few months every other girl at least will be wearing dresses in tartan. London's current fashion is one man's stock-in-trade, they are carried off by a host of all forms, are the light-hearted, not too large than the traditional tartan, but which have the tartan make-up with a twist.

Tartan dresses are the latest success in fashion. The tartan fabric is made in Scotland, and for the last 20 years it has been the mainstay of the Scottish textile industry. It is made in the American States, were worn with black wool fabric, but in Scotland, it is made in a variety of colors, and with various patterns, but high-browed tartan.

These stockings, which could be copied in cotton, but with a different color, give look surprisingly that of the under-tweeds.

Electricity started upon long horse-hair-kelch for the dress. London's fashion is one man's stock-in-trade, they are carried off by a host of all forms, are the light-hearted, not too large than the traditional tartan, but which have the tartan make-up with a twist.

respectable Victorian habit which had been used as a curtain, wide-patterned and with a wide border.

SCANDINAVIAN LOOK IS THE LATEST VOGUE

THERE'S a new look in Britain—a Scandinavian look! Maybe the coming of the Queen and the Duke of Edinburgh to Sweden this weekend has sparked it all off, writes Anne Cliveley. For there is no doubt that Scandinavian fashion, food and furnishings are now beginning to occupy the place in British shops that goods from Italy did a year ago. The Scandinavian look is an aim not just at the home, that shows the little white yachts coast Stockholm harbor. It shows the Swedes, the Norwegians and the Danes their clothes in simple styles and muted colors. Clean, contemporary lines and cut-back waists for their furniture and easy, "casual" look.

FOR the girl who likes clothes that are different, Scandinavian fashion has a lot to offer. Miss Britton in taking note of Danish raincoats in good quality materials, raincoats, and Swedish cotton frocks. These frocks are made in a thick, rather coarse kind of cotton with a hand-woven look, striped with grey and black, and with a wide collar (with a red) are unusual enough to make them stand out from the rest.

Everyone knows that Danish better and bison are the best in the world, but Scandinavian food goes far beyond this. It is not just food that is interesting. It is the way of life. The Danes are a people who are very different from the British. They are a people who are very different from the British. They are a people who are very different from the British.

DQS AND DONTs WITH ELECTRICITY

ENGLAND TO WIN FIRST TEST AT TRENT BRIDGE

Best possible batting and bowling side is mustered

From LEN HUTTON, London, Thursday

ENGLAND to win the first Test at Trent Bridge. That is my forecast after carefully studying the list of 11 men who will provide the England team for this first round of the battle for the Ashes. It is going to be a workmanlike, down-to-earth side with nothing spectacular about it. You can't expect to experiment for the first time of a vital series.

The 11 who have been named are in English county cricket at the present moment, says Peter Richardson, the former England captain. He is the only man who is anything like a doubtful pick.

As I see it, the England side should be—Crawley, Richardson, May, Greaves, Stanger, Bailey, Brown, Laker, Lock, Topley and Stanger. A bowler who is anything but a first-class bowler is not going to be in the England side. The only bowler who is anything but a first-class bowler is not going to be in the England side.

My opening attack would be Stanger and Bailey. For my second attack I would use Lock and Warren in the bowlers. The bow I have chosen is expected to suit the England batsmen.

Without 'hitters' England will have to rely on its batting. The batsmen who are expected to be in the England side are—Crawley, Richardson, May, Greaves, Stanger, Bailey, Brown, Laker, Lock, Topley and Stanger.

Britain 'must accept changes from automation'

PAY CLAIMS SHOWDOWN EXPECTED

THE Government is facing a showdown in its efforts to halt wage increases as signs mount that trade unions will demand the Government to meet their pay claims for a year.

A senior member of the Trades Union Congress, Mr. Tom Dudgeon, said that he was "very anxious" that the Government should not be "very much surprised" if a 15 per cent increase in wages was demanded by about half the million workers who have already been asked to accept a 10 per cent increase.

Mr. Dudgeon said that the Government should be prepared to meet the demand for a 15 per cent increase, as it would be "very difficult" to refuse it.

Last week, the 19,000 shopmen and plumbers, led by a strike which would cause public inconvenience, were asked to accept a 10 per cent increase. They refused to do so.

Mr. Dudgeon said that the Government should be prepared to meet the demand for a 15 per cent increase, as it would be "very difficult" to refuse it.

Steadier tone on London Market

Trade unions had asserted that the Government's policy of automation would cause public inconvenience, and that the Government should be prepared to meet the demand for a 15 per cent increase.

TRADE TALKS WITH KITWE DELEGATION

Prospects of increased trade between the Corporation and Africa are to be investigated by a delegation from the Chamber of Commerce and Industry which left for Nairobi on June 18.

SURREY SPINNERS CLAIM TWO CHEAP WICKETS

England well placed after third day at Trent Bridge

From LEN HUTTON, Nottingham, Sunday

ENGLAND are batting here today in the first Test against Australia on a reconstructed wicket that was laid ready for play. Almost continual rain for 36 hours has seeing this match in England's favour to such an extent that the tourists will do very well indeed if they manage to hold on to a few runs.

There is every indication that this wicket is going to last some time. The late-made-for-the-day Lock Laker and Appleyard, who were the only batsmen to score on the opening day, have now been replaced by Arthur and John Brown. The latter is a batsman who is sure to score until after lunch. The bowlers run up the score in the morning. It is no more than 100 runs before the end of the first day.

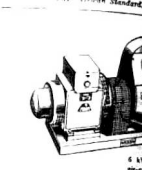

The Australian spinners, especially the left hander, are returning to the field after lunch. They are well placed to run and we saw some really good bowling from the wicket-standards. May's intention was to get on for 200 runs and 200 wickets. He is well placed to do so. He is well placed to do so. He is well placed to do so.
