Inter-Territorial Petrol Permits

Reciprocal arrangements have been agreed upon between Kenya, Uganda and Tanganyika, whereby sufficient permits may be obtained by local authorities in one territory to enable travellers to take their destination in a neighbouring territory. Such permits will be marked "30 use outside" the territory for which they are valid.

Details of them may only accept Tanganyika and Uganda permits if these are marked as being for use outside Tanganyika Kenya permits which are marked "For use outside" should not be accepted by retailers in Kenya.

NATIVE REGISTRATION

When a native loses his registration certificate ("Passport") he is issued with what is called a "Temporary" permit which is valid for a period of 42 days only. This temporary permit certificate states that the holder must apply for a specific status on or before a certain date. It is permissible to employ such a native on his temporary renewal certificate which is not entered in the usual way. It is however an offence to employ any native in possession of a time-expired certificate. Employers are requested to examine temporary renewal certificates before engaging natives, and if times expired, refuse to engage them.

When witness took his car on the morning of January 24 accused was in pyjamas. He was seen to walk before he had morning tea...

Answering the Judge, witness said Sir Deives went out on the afternoon of January 24...

Mr. Morris: Including that Friday, have you ever seen a single garment belonging to your master, except his boots and upper, bloodstained?

Witness gave a little atchase case belonging to accused, but had never examined it.

After the laundry adjustment witness said he could remember seeing Sir Deives in the garden...

When witness was about to strike the match, it became extinguished...

Mr. Morris: The Attorney General, Abdullah, said he remembered accused entering his shop...

The case was then adjourned until Monday morning.

Mr. Morris: It is a large estate... Mr. Morris: Yes, I have. It is 22 acres...

After further questioning Mr. Morris denied him to have been doing his work in an injustice...

Mr. Morris: Where did you start your search? From where had placed them.

The American Scene

SWELLING FLOOD OF ANTI-AXIS FEELING

(By Arthur Costello)
New York, May 31.—With Germany's recent withdrawal from the American-Allies Italy on the 14th, the largest crisis in its history, there can be very few Americans who do not realize that their destiny, too, is at stake. In the Battle of Britain the tone of the Press, also, is unambiguously that of a nation at war.

We have reached the end of defence in any sense; there is only defence by posture, good intention, and victory, the end of one policy of passivity and abstentionism, and the new New York Herald Tribune the day of the fight. "War is a business and we are getting ready for it," says a famous American writer in American history who has failed to follow wartime preparation.

While the factories and shipyards thrub with the beat of machinery, the million of letters, more-over five million long letters of new shipping, at present under way, to the United States, and eleven Latin American countries are at present in Washington conference with U.S. Navy Secretary Knox. This coordination of war effort is developing in a way that makes Hitler's recent Fifth Column Government in Europe look silly. The co-ordination of democratic nations is increasing, and is being treated as a new emergency measure which is being treated in the new general plan in that it is being treated as a new matter (if possible) and compared with the new general plan in Spain from W.P.A. institutions.

In the meantime, there are significant signs that Americans are beginning to think in terms not merely of preventing further German conquests, but of getting ready for the offensive.

MUNICIPAL BREVITIES

It was reported at this week's meeting of the Nairobi Municipal Council that at a meeting of the Public Planning Committee on May 6 members were advised that the East African Institute of Architects had been asked if it would be willing to act as the Council and its technical officers in the preparation of a scheme for housing African workers.

So far the Council had not received a reply but was understood to be the matter was under consideration. Municipal engineers have been made of extensive surveys regarding traffic in various parts of the town.

The Native Affairs Committee has decided to grant Government if necessary in the extent of removing any legal disabilities to employment of two hundred natives for service in the forward area, to be provided out of classified Native Trust Funds. It being agreed that during the past year an extra profit of £1500 had been made from the sale of beer of Native military forces and refusal to allow local expenditure to be created create disappointment among local natives, whose suggestions had to be rejected, more cautious for the time being.

because it is prepared under hygienic conditions from ingredients which are carefully chosen for their exceptional purity.

Nivea contains EUCERITE which endows it with its well-known beneficial properties. Eucerite closely resembles the natural nourishing oils of the skin and replaces their deficiency. It gives Nivea the ability to penetrate below the surface so that Nivea Creme is almost entirely absorbed and does its good work in the underlying tissues.

The use of Nivea Creme is not limited to one purpose; it may be described as a complete complexion treatment and a valuable protective ointment blend of together.

It is recommended and used extensively by medical men and women who realize its value for the care of delicate skins.

You may have every confidence in Nivea as an all-purpose creme.

GUARD YOUR BEAUTY

A lovely complexion is usually the result of keeping the body free of poisons - of keeping internally clean by daily elimination of food wastes.

Common skin troubles, doctors say, are usually caused by one thing only - sluggish intestines. If you have a bad breath and suffer from a dull, bristly, pimply skin and a ruined complexion - then you need a mild and gentle laxative to expel the poisonous food waste from the intestines.

Germany we shall put them. As France last year and in Crete our men have left the battle field with the strong conviction that man for man they are superior to the German soldier. Once again the importance of machines in modern warfare has been demonstrated and Crete should provide further incentive to the increased and rapid production of the tools which, once we have them in sufficient quantity, will vastly change the war outlook.

In his weekly commentary (captioned below the actual picture) from Crete, Mr. G. A. G. says that the battle for the island illustrates the fact that under certain conditions the air force can enable an enemy to bypass the obstacle of enemy superiority by sea. It was certainly a remarkable feat: he adds that the British Navy, with its air arm through the impracticability of using aircraft carriers in confined waters, was able to prevent the substantial landing of troops from the sea. But a new factor has entered. The use of magnetic and disregard for losses have enabled them to demonstrate that if the opponent is short of fuel, the air force can be broken a substantial body of troops can leap over the naval obstacle and enter the operations in territory that was previously inaccessible. Furthermore, the use of the air force as a power reinforcement to air superiority is evidently quicker and easier than reinforcement by sea on the part of a power possessing maritime superiority. . . . British Empire and Greek troops have been pushed on a march to fight in the hell on earth which unimpeded dive bombers can create, but there is a limit to human endurance. At 14,000 feet and for a period of 12 minutes and for a period of 12 minutes and for a period of 12 minutes. . . .

THE NIGHT Bomber Problem

BRITISH PILOTS CONFIDENT OF A SOLUTION

By Wing-Commander L. V. Fraser
After the London May 20 raid, when the fighter pilots of the British Empire, in the light of the Battle of Britain, looked on the Battle of the Night Bombers. The British night fighter pilots are confident of a solution to the problem of the night bomber. They are confident that they will be able to locate and destroy the night bomber. They are confident that they will be able to locate and destroy the night bomber. They are confident that they will be able to locate and destroy the night bomber.

In January, fifteen night raiders were brought down. In February, 16; in March, 18; in April, 12. The first three of the May raid were destroyed. In March, 18; in April, 12. The first three of the May raid were destroyed. In March, 18; in April, 12. The first three of the May raid were destroyed.

Confidence in the final achievement of these aims is based on no secret weapon, but on the superior training and performance of the night fighter pilots. The night fighter pilots are confident of a solution to the problem of the night bomber. They are confident that they will be able to locate and destroy the night bomber. They are confident that they will be able to locate and destroy the night bomber.

1940 AND THE E. A. W. L.
Co-operation To Benefit Women Of Kenya

In her address from the chair, the President of the East African Women's League said the meeting at which she had presided over that the past year had been a difficult and strenuous one for the League. She said that war had necessitated the suspension of the League's main work, and that many members of the K.W.E.O. had been called upon to do the useful work for their homes. In this consideration, therefore, had been offered the services of the League in co-operation with other organizations, and representatives have worked on the K.W.E.O., the Comrades Depot, the Red Cross, the League of Service and the Lady Durbury Home, committees, while throughout the country the district vice-presidents have done their utmost support in their districts to members of other organizations.

Hospitality
In every district of Kenya, according to the trading and service work along the K.W.E.O. have opened their homes, offering their support to vast numbers of soldiers; they have assisted, in the collection and forwarding of contributions for the troops in their own districts. They have given gifts for distribution through the Central K.W.E.O. Com. Deps.

Forward to League
"One far removed" mentioned in the Kenya War Soldiers' Welfare Fund for maternity grants for certain commended cases of widows. The Chairman, the Chief Secretary, carefully considering each case on its merits, these were sent through the E.A.W.L.H.Q. office. Two hundred maternity cases have also been assisted this year.

President
The League also obtained from Government positions for certain sources were unable to stand the strain of the rising cost of living under wartime conditions, and have been up to the case of the Government, and have provided very inadequate allowances made to them. You will also find the position as still far from satisfactory, they who are unable to pay for more generous pensions.

Once again the members organized the collection for the East African War Soldiers' Welfare Fund. The report, being the record sent over £2,000. "I cannot speak too highly of the Nairobi Branch of the E.A.W.L.," said Lady Durbury, who did such splendid work from the temporary depot here in the Town, "and we have already written Her Majesty, saying we will undertake the organization again this year and have placed our order for the Flinders Poppy."

Clothing Appeal for Air Raid Victims
During the past few months the Nairobi Committee, together with D.V.P. have been collecting and forwarding to the British Empire Society in London, clothing and other articles for the distribution among the victims of the British German bombing raids on England. Lady Durbury, Chairman of the Women's Section, Nairobi, has undertaken this through Mrs. Lev. D.V.P., Nairobi, who has received a personal letter of the subject.

King George VI's Appeal
The appeal for war widows for the King and Queen has been successful. The material (blankets) for the King and Queen has been supplied by Lady Moore and the pattern by Mrs. Durbury. In addition to this our country branches have been continuing to buy raising money for war funds and charities of all descriptions and in organizing sewing parties in conjunction with the local Red Cross representatives.

In Nairobi and other centres the representatives continue their good work of visiting hospitals, both military and civilian, hospitals and nurseries. They also visit the mental hospitals, and have been successful in organizing sewing classes for native women.

Children Act
During the year a sub-committee of our Council has been sitting on a committee constituted by the Director of the Department of Education.

TENSION IN SYRIA INCREASING

Significant Moves By Vichy Authorities

NAZI "TOURISTS" IN ALEPPO

UNCOMFORTING

Departments from a variety of sources all point to a state of increasing tension in Syria and further that infiltration into the "neutral" region.

The Vichy authorities, it is stated, are endeavoring to grant Syrian citizenship to other Palestinians or Iraqis, who have recently been expelled from their own countries and are being housed in the Syrian desert.

State of Siege

An earlier message broadcast by the Vichy authorities, the High Commissioner, had indicated that "States of Siege" in Eastern Syria.

Labor is Solid For Victory

No Part In Any "Accommodation" Policy

Mr. C. R. Atter, General President of the Labour Party, today addressed the Labour Party Conference in London.

He said that the Labour Party would not support any "accommodation" policy which would lead to the signing of a peace treaty with Hitler.

ARMISTICE TERMS CAUSE SATISFACTION

Approval of Armistice

In Iraq the situation in Baghdad is quiet and the population is returning to normal. A message received in Vichy from the Iraqi capital says that the Regent has charged Amal at Madras, a former Premier, with the formation of a new government.

The news report says that the Committee of Internal Security has issued a proclamation that the Regent of Iraq is the only authority in the country and the Government of the Royal Army.

because it is prepared under hygienic conditions from ingredients which are carefully chosen for their exceptional purity.

Nivea contains ECLETHIC which endows it with its well-known beneficial properties. Eclectric closely resembles the natural nourishing oils of the skin and replaces them in deficiency. It gives Nivea the ability to penetrate below the skin so that Nivea Creme is almost entirely absorbed and does its good work in the underlying tissues.

The use of Nivea Creme is not limited to one purpose; it may be described as a complete cosmetic treatment and a valuable protective ointment blend together.

It is recommended and used extensively by medical men and women who realize its value for the care of delicate skins.

You may have every confidence in Nivea as an all-purpose creme.

Nairobi Municipal Elections

Several hundred voters in the Nairobi municipal area will have the privilege and duty in three weeks' time of electing representatives to the Town Council. There will be contests in three wards—two European and the Indian—and it is usually only when something appears to have gone seriously wrong, when for instance the public health is seriously threatened by malaria or some other disease that this apathy gives way to something almost as bad, querulous complaints that the local authority is not doing all that it should in the public interest. Local government is obviously a matter which concerns all the inhabitants of Nairobi and it is to be hoped that from many points of view the ratepayers should have the best possible representation on the local governing body. It is therefore not surprising that the candidates who are offering themselves for election on June 28, to ponder which are likely to serve the public efficiently and in the way honourably. To decide this very important matter it will be necessary for intending voters to review the records of the candidates with the object of seeing whether what they have done in the past fits them for the honourable position to which they are aspiring. Eloquence or suavity are not of themselves sufficient qualifications because the few undesirable people are frequently both good speakers and possessed of outwardly 'prepossessing' ingratiating manners. What the Town Council needs are people who are beyond any suspicion of being likely to serve the best interests of their private ends, people who are animated by a real desire to do the best interests of the whole community; who will do everything in their power to effect improvements in local government and make Nairobi as nearly as possible a model municipality.

The work of a town councillor viewed in the proper light should not be so onerous; it involves much sacrifice of private time and comfort and exposes the member to the possibility of severe public criticism if things go wrong. Even so it provides splendid opportunities for a citizen to give his municipality and that should be the only guiding motive both of the candidate and those who vote for them.

Further light on the naval patrol work of the British Navy will be given on Saturday by Rear Admiral Rodney S. Old, Chief of Staff of the Fleet-Base Administration, New Zealand, in a short talk on the subject of naval patrol and anti-air, in connection with the 10th Anniversary of the establishment of the Fleet-Base Administration.

America Is Determined

GERMANY WILL NOT AND CANNOT WIN WAR

Mr. Harry Hopkins, the chief economic adviser of the United States, has published a statement in which he has declared that Germany will not and cannot win the war.

Writing in the magazine "The American Review," Mr. Hopkins said that Germany will not and cannot win the war because of its economic resources which are being brought to bear against it.

Mr. Hopkins is chairman of the National Industrial Conference Board, which is a non-profit organization which has been set up to study the economic situation of the United States.

Mr. Hopkins said that Germany will not and cannot win the war because of its economic resources which are being brought to bear against it.

Operated from 6 Volt Car Battery this Electric "Prize" Wire Fencing saves Time and Labour and Patters with the Controller is connected to the Battery. Any number of Fences wire can be connected to the main lead wire from the Controller, making dozens of different patterns any number of times. As the earth acts as return circuit, no return wires are needed. One controller will take care of eight to fifteen miles of fencing. Any kind of posts can be used, wood, steel or cement. All posts must be insulated for best results. Any kind of wire can be used, smooth or barb, but four point, hog barb wire is recommended for best results, especially in training stock to know the Electric fence. Your old barb wire fence may be used if it is not rusty.

one anti-tank gun and five light tanks were brought to and only the hurried destruction of a bridge could have saved the Italians.

Sciassi Amanna itself was occupied by our forces on May 14 by the rebels which had advanced east of the Lakes down the main road and in the corridors covered by this story the total prisoners taken were 22 Italian officers, 43 Italian other ranks and 121 Italian troops. Material included 577 mm guns, two 37 mm guns, three 20 mm guns and altogether nine light tanks.

It was a fine captured action. The King's African Rifles held the road coming under heavy fire from the Italian forces on 20th December, and the Naitai unit carried out another of the most brilliant operations which have so demoralized the enemy troops, made a stubborn and gallant defence.

After a night march the South Africans crossed the Dabalo river at a point about three and a half miles from the main crossing and at dawn they went in with the tanks and the anti-tank gun and the anti-aircraft battery. The guns and the tanks were used to clear the enemy retreat route and the troops of the enemy forces, especially their native troops, made a stubborn and gallant defence.

There was no act of personal courage which must record. One British officer, Mr. W. Bennett, who had been an Italian tank, jumped on to the tank of the three "dandelions" with Mr. Hewitt as the tank got dawning. The "Dying Duck" with Mr. Hewitt as the tank got dawning. ## Kaiser's Death

It was announced in Germany today that the ex-Kaiser died this morning. He had expressed his wish to be buried at Doorn and the funeral will take place there. Wilhelm III, the third German Emperor, was born in Berlin on January 27, 1859. He was the eldest son of Frederick III of Prussia and Princess Victoria of Saxe-Coburg and Gotha. He was married in London exactly a year for his 40th birthday. He died at Doorn on the 5th of June, 1941.

The Kaiser Wilhelm stands forth as a unique figure in the world's history as the example par excellence of tragic delusion. Before the first impact of the world war, he was not only the mightiest monarch of the world but also the most commanding and admired ruler of his time. He was that last, but not the least, of the absolute monarchs of the world.

When I Emperor George V and King of Prussia, whose army of 1,000,000 men, was defeated by the British and French forces in the Battle of the Marne in 1914. He was captured by the British and taken to England. He lived in the Netherlands during the war.

He was a great patron of the arts and the sciences. He was a great collector of books and manuscripts. He was a great lover of nature and sports. He was a great friend of the people.

He was a great patriot. He was a great defender of his country. He was a great lover of his people. He was a great friend of the world.

He was a great leader. He was a great visionary. He was a great dreamer. He was a great idealist.

He was a great man. He was a great soul. He was a great spirit. He was a great light.

You will like NIVEA CREME

Nivea contains EUCERIN which endows it with its well-known beneficial properties.

Eucerin closely resembles the natural nourishing oils of the skin and replaces them in deficiency. It gives Nivea the ability to generate better skin so that Nivea Creme is almost entirely absorbed and does its good work in the underlying tissues.

The use of Nivea Creme is not limited to one purpose; it may be described as a complete cosmetic treatment and a valuable protective ointment blended together.

It is recommended and used extensively by medical men and women who realize its value for the care of delicate skins.

You may have your confidence in Nivea as an all-purpose creme.

Implementing U.S. Promise To Deliver Goods

It was learned in Washington June 3, following that Mr. J. G. Winant, the United States Ambassador in London, would meet President Roosevelt tomorrow yesterday with Mr. J. G. Winant's mission being to deliver to the President a report on the progress of the U.S. promise to deliver goods to the United States Atlantic Fleet. Admiral King is the other officer concerned in the matter.

President Roosevelt has been assured that the U.S. promise to deliver goods to the United States Atlantic Fleet is being carried out as rapidly as possible.

Confident Of His Conclusion
OLD FRIEND OF ACCUSED GIVES EVIDENCE

A settlement witness, who has given evidence in the Nairobi murder trial for nearly seven hours, reported his confidence yesterday, after further detailed cross-examination, in his recollection regarding the identity of certain bullets which are exhibited in the case against Sir Deves Broughton.

Other witnesses called before the Chief Justice and jury were Mrs. Burke, an identification of someone who was in his company earlier on the night of the tragedy, and Lieut.-Colonel Soman, of Nairobi, an old friend of Sir Deves Broughton.

On resumption of the case his Lordship asked Mr. Morris whether the defence had had an opportunity to cross-examine the exhibits.

Mr. Morris: There has been limited opportunity. The only photographs of the bullets to which I have seen are those which I brought to Mr. Harwich. I must confess that they convey absolutely nothing to me.

His Lordship: Have you had an opportunity of photographing the bullets under a view to putting them in the background? Mr. Morris informed that there are no facilities here for taking photographs similar to those taken by the British Technical Witness.

Mr. Morris: I am, Mr. Harwich was further cross-examined by Mr. Ainslie about the technical aspects of the bullets in the case. He gave in detail the points of similarity he found in the main bullet and the four test bullets—those alleged to have been fired by the Police on the three witnesses accused of the revolver shooting.

Mr. Ainslie: It is not possible to find on every bullet ever fired from a rifle—except in the case of loose bullets which do not make contact with the target, a certain mark which is worn. The bullet, however, which is fired by the Police on the witnesses, does not make the lands. The wearing of the bore to the extent that no striations would be left on the bullet if exceedingly rapid—yes, it is impossible to occur however, in every firearm after use, and of course, it must be done deliberately.

You might fire 20,000 or 30,000 rounds before getting a smooth bore—yes.

The wear would not be uniform—it would be uniform in some places.

Answering Mr. Morris, witness said that it was impossible that one hand would wear a longer life than another, though it was possible.

Mr. Morris: With the use of lead bullets the life of the bore is longer than when nickel-jacketed bullets are used. I think you are correct.

Which is the harder bullet of the two—the nickel-jacketed or the lead? The lead bullet he found no marks on three sides of the bullet, on account of the fact of the damage to the fragment. He examined, he continues, the four bullets (the date before starting any comparison between a series of test bullets and the crime bullet), he examined the test bullets, but themselves in order to ascertain any peculiarity or series of marks which might be present on all of them. This Major him made to work from and has established that he was commonly known as "the thumb print" bullet, that particular bullet. He then looked for that "thumb print" on the crime bullet.

Mr. Morris questioned the witness clearly about the markings he found on the various bullets.

Replying to the Attorney-General at witness said that there was sufficient marks on the bullet for him to make the necessary comparison.

Witness He is referring to rifling marks on the type of a nickel-jacketed bullet does not undergo the same process and chemically in its passage through the barrel, and the marks on the bullet is not affected by the chemical and mechanical changes.

"Experts"

You look evidence by being called as an expert. Why?—I rather look on your part, Mr. Harwich.

Mr. Morris: It was known that Sir Deves Broughton was a very good marksman, and he was therefore capable of giving expert evidence on the evidence of one's own rifle.

The Attorney-General: Why are you satisfied with the comparison of the evidence of one's own rifle? The marks which are made in the course of firing a rifle are not reproduced again by any other instrument of event by the same instrument originally used.

Other marks which are called striations are engraved in the groove and are permanent.

In addition, after firing of the firearm, certain marks appear that chemically and mechanically cause changes and these marks are reproduced themselves on the bullet however.

In further evidence Mr. Harwich stated that with regard to the firing of test rounds from revolvers that he would fire five and not more than six rounds for a bullet test, because the change occurred rapidly in the characteristics of the barrel and after five rounds the change would become perceptible. After the firing of a certain number of rounds the change in the fire characteristics would become complete.

The Judge: So complete as to delete the marks?—Yes.

In reply to the Attorney-General witness said that he was not prepared to find the same points of similarity and agreement as he found in the crime bullet alleged to have been fired by the Police, they had come from different guns.

Research Work

Mr. Harwich went on to say he had worked with Major Burnard in connection with firearms. On two occasions, while on duty, without the test bullets, but themselves in order to ascertain any peculiarity or series of marks which might be present on all of them. This Major

SPIRITUAL REGENERATION

Alvanus W. Latta, formerly Mayor of New York, at the meeting of the New York City Council on Wednesday, April 5...

That is recognizing the present importance of spiritual forces in the present struggle...

I need not stress the spiritual conditions of the world today...

Why did you answer me that? You did not say so. I am sure...

It is not a matter of faith. It is a matter of power and truth...

The greatest evidence that I have of spiritual force and regeneration is in my own life...

When the sun goes down, we in East Africa must make do with tall and orthodox bars torches...

You have given evidence about the Debes situation in the trial. We are sure that you will not be able to do so again...

What did his countenance register?—Mary Debes:—I was very nervous...

What did you do after the trial?—Mary Debes:—I went to my room and wrote a letter to my mother...

Did you ever see the man who was with you on the night of the murder?—Mary Debes:—No...

Did you draw the inference that the man who was with you on the night of the murder was the man who was with you on the night of the murder?

WHY CAN'T WE SIT ON OUR SHOULDER-BLADES!

It is a melancholy fact that even the most conscientious search of Kenya, Uganda or Tanganyika would hardly reward a single specimen of the long slender chair. You know the kind of chair, with special cubby-holes in the arms to accommodate glass and bottle. No magazine illustration of life in the Tropics is complete without them. They abound in the film. But out here we seek them in vain. When the sun goes down the bars stools which are do with tall and orthodox bar stools which are unthinkingly comfortable as a perch than the top of a flag-pole. But thank goodness that we get Rose's Lime Juice for our Gimbles and long drinks. For Rose's is the pure juice of fresh limes. It is squeezed out of the fruit, not poured out of a test tube, as they are. Rose's are quite pure about this, as they are. Rose's Lime Juice costs a little more than synthetic concoctions, but you do get the real thing.

PHYRETHUM

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
Sir—In case the Editor should be asked to issue a notice regarding the use of the word "phyrethum" in the advertisement for the product of 17th May, 1941. In view of the fact that the circular states: "The Board will not issue any notice of the above kind unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement." I think that it is reasonable to assume that the Board will not issue such a notice unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement.

I wish to draw your attention to the fact that although I am a registered phyrethum grower, I have not received your circular with a view to the fact that the circular states: "The Board will not issue any notice of the above kind unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement." I think that it is reasonable to assume that the Board will not issue such a notice unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement.

Further, every grower who does not vote against the above proposal will be taken to have voted in favour of it. I think that it is reasonable to assume that the Board will not issue such a notice unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement.

From their circular, it is apparent that the Board appreciate the views of the growers. It is reasonable to assume that the Board will not issue such a notice unless it is satisfied that the use of the word is necessary for the purpose of the advertisement.

Rapid acceleration between each gear uses a lot of petrol. In the interests of economy, get the habit of pulling away gently from a standstill, by "feeling" the clutch in with the engine running quietly. Change to the next gear just as soon as the engine is pulling evenly. You will increase your miles per gallon by getting into top gear as soon as you can and with as little fuss as possible.

SILAGE

In filling a silo, the operation should be regulated to ensure proper packing and even temperature throughout the mass.

Partly full silos, say one-third full, will give the best results.

The most important thing to remember is that the silage should be packed in layers.

It is also important to ensure that the silage is well mixed.

The silage should be packed in layers, and each layer should be well mixed.

SPECIAL! Films & Footlights In London

At the first Press Conference of his career, Charlie Chaplin announced that he is returning to New York to start a new picture. "I shall be a European resident and will play most of the new-angled picture..."

Mr. Joseph M. Schenck, who recently filled a year as chairman of the Board of Twentieth Century Fox, has been elected to the position of president of the company.

On the occasion of her first appearance, Miss Helen Hayes, the distinguished actress of the Broadway Theatre, will appear in the play "The Sign of the Cross" at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane.

An altogether careful and more admirable English film, "The Power of Love" is being shown in London. The title is a good one, but the picture is a poor one.

CHILDREN'S MATINEE

A special matinee for children is being given at the Grand Theatre. The programme includes "The Story of the Little Prince" and "The Story of the Little Princess".

The Case of Vivien Leigh

AS for this week, so for that, "Gone with the Wind" still remains the number one picture—and about the finest we have had since "Pymathion." It isn't the finest ever, I personally don't find it any too long, though some of the audience seemed to get a little restless in the second half, and was only reluctant to watch the closing scene.

The outstanding character in the picture is the one who plays the book, it is hard to know more about Vivien Leigh who played the part. She was born in London on June 21, 1920, and the following paragraphs describe her life.

Her father was a young actor, who in making her first appearance in the West End stage, gave her the name of Vivien Leigh. She was born in London on June 21, 1920, and the following paragraphs describe her life.

She has been seen in several other films, including "The Sign of the Cross" and "The Power of Love". She is a very talented actress and is expected to have a long and successful career.

It is in such of the way places that man realises the great importance of his life, finding himself falling in love with his all over again.

The quest on this expedition was a general collection of the mammals and birds to be found in this part of the open of the unexplored world. Save for eleven natives, the isle was uninhabited and the mere thought of being the only white occupants was in itself thrilling.

Fashion Parade

It is quite pleasant to read in the home papers about women's fashions in those difficult war days, and to know that at least women are still taking an interest in their appearance. Hair-dressing is one of the major problems.

- ★ HAIR-RAISERS
- ★ TATTOO CRAZY
- ★ COLOUR COUNCILS

The hairdressers have had more of the same time in bringing out a cutting which is not an easy thing to give unless the hairdresser has a good eye for the woman's head and appearance after she has been used to the high top.

There are more than six months of experience for every kind of official in the world. For the W.A.A.F. girls in their own right, the girls in civilian life, the hair cut is not so much a matter of the head as it is a matter of the face. The hair cut is not so much a matter of the face as it is a matter of the head. The hair cut is not so much a matter of the head as it is a matter of the face.

the hairdresser per set. As you may know, the old style of raising hair from top of a set was supposed to be done by using a comb of steel. Hairdressers will have to return to the use of a comb of steel. The hairdresser will have to return to the use of a comb of steel. The hairdresser will have to return to the use of a comb of steel.

It is the hairdresser's job to make the hair look as if it were a part of the face. The hairdresser's job is to make the hair look as if it were a part of the face. The hairdresser's job is to make the hair look as if it were a part of the face.

Personally Speaking

PERSONALLY speaking, I think this week belongs to 'Good With The Wind'. For everywhere one hears people rearranging their engagements to fit it, and diners are now queuing up to get to the cinema by 9 o'clock.

I myself went for the second time (I shall be going again shortly) on Monday and was able to rejoice that the rain had not spoiled the fun. The rain had not spoiled the fun. The rain had not spoiled the fun.
