Leading Professionals at Variance

["STANDARD" CORRESPONDENT.]
Washington, Dec. 23.

A message from Miami states that a dispute among members of the American Professional Golfers' Association, following that body's decision to refuse to give the services of Robert B. Harlow as tournament manager, may result in his withdrawal from the organization.

The members of the last American Ryder Cup team are supporting Harlow, and they should be permitted to do so. It is to be expected that the American players will support Harlow's election in the 1924 tournament. Harlow's election as tournament manager is not in violation of the rules of the U.S.G.A. Harlow is a member of the U.S.G.A. and is a resident of the United States. He is a member of the U.S.G.A. and is a resident of the United States.

Record Partnership

AUSTRALIA TAKE FULLEST ADVANTAGE OF BATSMAN'S WICKET

On a batsman's wicket at Melbourne yesterday a personality that has been missing from Test cricket for some years re-appeared. It was the Bradman of old and once again records fell to his lot.

Able aided by England, whose stout support was, however, overshadowed by the brilliance of his partner, the Australian captain set up a new partnership record and a personal record in addition.

The pair scored 346 runs for the sixth wicket, breaking first the record for an Australian sixth wicket partnership and finally the record set up by Hobbs and Rhodes 25 years ago for any Test partnership in Australia. Bradman's own record was the completion of at least a century in every one of his four Test appearances at Melbourne against the M.C.C.

Stumps were drawn with the score at 500 for six, Australia being in an impregnable position 624 runs ahead with four of their best wickets still in hand.

Leave Conditions of Kenya Service

LONGER PERIOD FOR RECRUITS FROM OVERSEAS

Colonial Office Decision

Important changes have been made in the leave conditions of the Kenya Civil Service. The Secretary of State in removing anomalies arising from the Plymouth report has decided that in future leave will be calculated as follows:

Senior officers (more than 10 years' continuous service) 45 days a month.

Junior officers (under 10 years' continuous service) 4 days a month.

The effect of this change is to add 30 days to the leave of senior officers and 45 days to that of junior officers which have a longer tour.

The changes do not apply generally to that branch which is known as the Local Civil Service, but only to a few posts.

It is also laid down that travel by Imperial Airways is now approved as a normal route but permission must be sought in each case. If granted it will mean 12 days extra leave in respect of each air journey.

Air Travel Restrictions

The Secretary of State has approved certain alterations in the terms of certain regulations in relation to the Kenya Civil Service, which are in force on terms of service in the Kenya Civil Service. These regulations relate to the terms of service in the Kenya Civil Service, which are in force on terms of service in the Kenya Civil Service. REARDER'S CORRESPONDENCE

The following letter by Mr. L. Amery has appeared in "The Times":

"It is really helpful that Colonel Hametzel, Editor-in-Chief of the London Standard, should have taken on the question whether the German colonial question before the War justified the best things said about it by the Allies at the time? He would not state the question who framed the Versailles Treaty, but would suggest that the appalling struggle which had just ended in the spirit of a new detachment. In this connection it is often said that the German colonial question was a matter of expediency. All the more so if the subject were put to the test of a referendum. It is not in this justification, very different from Colonel Hametzel's, which I find myself agreeing. No More American Arms for Spain

BUT A BIG CONSIGNMENT IS ON ITS WAY

An Irish Brigade

GENERAL ODUFFY'S MEN READY FOR THE FRONT LINE

It is now illegal for anyone in the United States of America to export arms to Spain.

The new measure which corrects a flaw in the law was not passed, however, in time to prevent half a million dollars worth of aeroplane and aeroplane parts being shipped for the use of the Spanish Government Forces.

An Irish Brigade recruited by General O'Duffy to assist the Insurgents is likely to take its place in the fighting line very soon.

An Amended Law

NEW YORK, January 7. (Associated Press.)—The Spanish Insurgents' military forces, which were to be supplied by the United States, were to be supplied by the United States.

Legal and Moral Duty Not to Waste Water

FIRST PROSECUTION STRESSES GRAVITY OF POSITION

Big Penalties Threatened

CITIZENS MUST SEE THAT THEIR SERVANTS DO NOT JEOPARDISE DECREASING SUPPLY

In the course of the first prosecution for water waste yesterday it was estimated that convictions in future would carry a very severe penalty.

The Town Clerk who prosecuted again stressed the gravity of the present position and urged it was the duty of every citizen to prevent the misuse of water at this time.

There are signs that people generally are taking heed of the warning and are doing everything possible to conserve the existing low supplies.

Magistrate's Warning

The big topic of the moment in Nairobi is "Water". Some of the "to the position as serious as it is made out." One answer to this is that of one of Kenya's ablest residents, Mr. R. H. Bladen, Town Clerk who has lived above and below the beginning of the rain.

"A Definite Duty"

Amused said he was not present at the time, but he had perceived that the water was being used in a wasteful manner. The Town Clerk (presenting evidence) stated that the duty on the part of every citizen was to use the water sparingly.

January 16: Entries close for Muthaiga Golf Club Tennis Tournament. 1931 season of the Muthaiga Golf Club begins. January 19: M.C.C. vs. Australia (4th Test), begins at Adelaide.

Australia Wins by 365 Runs SPARKLING STAND BY LEYLAND AND ROBINS Two Runs a Minute

By 365 runs Australia won the third Test. Only a cricket miracle could have given the M.C.C. the game and the rubber, and the marvellous did not happen.

Nevertheless, the sixth day of the match was far from being without incident. It was conspicuous for a brilliant and thrilling stand by Robins and Leyland who set about the Australian bowling in a style which suggested the irresponsibility of Saturday afternoon cricket, and which resulted in the scoring of 100 runs in 20 minutes.

After Robins had gone, however, the end quickly came and Leyland, after putting the score up from 195 to 300 for the seventh wicket, were all out for 323. Leyland was substituted for 111—a magnificent performance that must rank high among the Yorkshiremen's finest brilliant feats of batsmanship.

Yorkshiremen Unbeaten

With the result a foregone conclusion, there was complete indifference to the play of the third Test, and only 2,500 people were present when Leyland and Robins scored the English second innings in wet and cold weather. It was noticed that Bradman was feeling sick, having apparently recovered from his touch of influenza, and it was learned that three of M.C.C.'s batsmen were in need of the doctor's attention. Allen had knee trouble. Robins had a shoulder, and Leyland had a shoulder. All three intended to stay in Melbourne for medical treatment until January 20.

The seventh wicket partnership of Leyland and Robins had already put on 41, and despite Leyland's strained shoulder they continued to score at the rate of about two runs a minute. The first 50 for the partnership was reached in 20 minutes, and the hundred in 59. Leyland was being magnificently by leg and Robins was driving hard, fast and often. The century was the last of the century. Leyland's hundred took him 168 minutes. Robins reached his 50 in 47.

It was an exhilarating exhibition, all the more enjoyable because it came at a time in the game when patient play might have been expected. It could not last for ever, unfortunately, and at 206, when the total for the stand was 111, tested in 74 minutes and was bowled playing forward to O'Kelly. The century was made at 61, including seven boundaries.

Verity joined his Yorkshire partner, but after scoring 11 he was caught in the deep by McCabe from a hit off O'Kelly's bowling. That was the end, for Sims went on to hit a few wood-slashes and Verity went next ball, caught by Bradman at mid-on. Leyland, not out, had scored 111 of which 44 came from boundaries.

The innings was over in 278 minutes and at the end the English captain's comment was: "What more can I say than that I heartily congratulate the M.C.C. and their batsmen." Fleetwood-Smith was the most successful Australian bowler, his five wickets costing him 124.

PERRY'S FIRST "PRO" MATCH Ellsworth Vines Well Beaten New York Crowds

GEN EXCELLENT DISPLAY BY EX-GRANDSON [Theodore Noyes's Agency.] New York, Jan. 7. Perry beat Vines 7-5, 9-6, 6-3, 6-4 in Perry's first professional match. The match was described as the professional championship of the world and was watched by 17,833 people, who paid $5.111 admission, a record for professional tennis.

Throughout Perry showed superior play and a fine stroke of power. He found the unyielding coverd floor a little tricky at first, but he soon had his stride going, bringing his famous side in the first set, but progress his tempo was most sparkling.

In the second set Vines led three times, but Perry won the set three times. It was noticeable that Vines came up to the net much more frequently than Perry.

To the last stage of the game, Perry was tireless and he completely mastered.

Mr. de Valera

By L. S. Fleming

(Literary Editor of the "Irish Times")

That time, and the new law cannot add anything to its real importance by providing that purely technical matters shall be examined by some other person than the King.

THE fact is that recent events in the history of the British Empire have been so full of interest that the King's functions are being re-examined.

OUTSIDE Ireland, the whole of the world is looking at the King's functions.

It is not only in Ireland that the King's functions are being re-examined. . .

kind "low-key" analogy. Mr. de Valera did not want to leave the British Empire. . .

Mr. Coigrave
On December 11th, King Edward VIII signed his act of abdication, and on the following day Mr. de Valera introduced a Bill in the Dail which was described as one of his opponents as "an attempt to defy as far as possible any order our colleagues within the Commonwealth of Nations, to do as far as they could to assist in the meantime by the hand while they waved the republican flag with the right."

REPUBLIC The Anglo-Irish treaty was signed. Mr. de Valera put forward an alternative which has become known as the "De Valera Bill."

THE latter point, indeed, arose in the course of the debate.

A New Year Tale for the Children—George and the Dragon

(By Joan Bois)

THE little, green dragon roared and opened his eyes. He was round for his mouth but he couldn't see his own tail. He was all alone, sitting under a man tree, in the middle of Aftab, and the sun was very hot indeed. He got up, and wandered about, and he met a little boy. "Where is my mother, do you know?" he asked, politely, but the little boy sneered and then he told George Dragon where his mother was. He met an elephant and he asked, "Do you know where my mother is?" but the elephant sneered and shook his head.

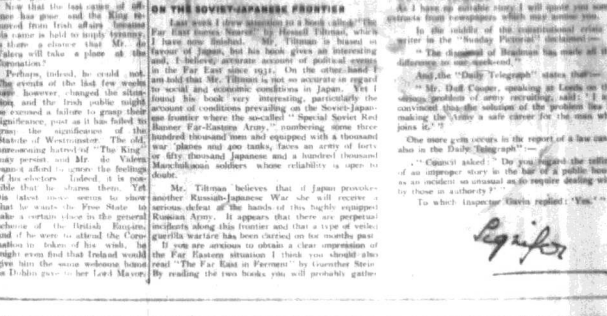

Dragon didn't know that. He asked the eagle, "Have you seen my mother anywhere?" but the eagle only sneered and turned away. He asked the dragon for some one to take the luggage, or running away as fast as he could, because the very end of the dragon was a dragon on the plain.

George Dragon walked out of the station and down the street his long red tail making a slithering noise on the pavement. He came to Turf's Hotel. He had his mother there, but she wasn't all the people who were sitting at the table. He saw a little boy and he asked, "Do you know where my mother is?" but the little boy sneered and then he told George Dragon where his mother was.

YOU CAN COLOUR THIS PICTURE OF THE TOY TOWN TRAIN.

George Dragon sneezed three times and then he sneezed out of his nose. The people and the tables who had seen him, peeped their heads back again, but they were too late. He had sneezed and he was gone. "Have you seen my mother?" he asked, but the little boy sneered and then he told George Dragon where his mother was.

GRAND NEW YEAR'S EVE BALL

The New Year was celebrated with customary high spirits last night during the course of the Grand Ball on New Year's Eve at the N.A.S.B. Club. The ball was a most successful affair and the Grand Ball was the most successful yet held in the club's programme since Mr. Taylor's own ball.

At a few minutes to midnight the dancing was interrupted by the arrival of the K.A.K. band, at the conclusion of which all the lights went out and twelve minutes later the lights were again turned on and the dancing resumed. During the fall of the attraction an old man, aged very near a century, sat in the front row of the orchestra, and on the last night of the year he was seen in a glowing white suit, tall and thin, and wearing the legend "1937" on his chest. The dancing was interrupted by the door. The dancing was interrupted by the door.

Cricket

England's success against the "Tiger" Test match has drawn attention to cricket. You have heard nearly all about it, but you have not heard of the "Tiger" Test match. It was a great game, and it was played at Wembley on the 26th of December. The result was a draw.

Practical Agriculture

It is the object of a series of articles by Mr. J. Byng Hall, dealing with the practical problems of dairying in Kenya. The primary object of these articles is to help the farmer who is considering the possibilities of dairying, or who has already started dairying but has little or no practical knowledge.

UNDoubtedly the biggest problem facing most dairy farmers in Kenya is the maintenance of the cows during the dry weather and the dry spells. There are many ways in which this may be done, but the most effective is the use of some form of artificial feed.

MAIZE is the greatest of all fodder crops. It is the most easily grown, and it yields the most food for the cow. It is also the most profitable, and it is the most reliable. It is the best of all crops for the dairy farmer.

THE provision of extra food, then, is the first and most important step in the maintenance of the cow during the dry weather. This extra food should be of a high quality, and it should be given in a regular and systematic manner.

LUCKEN is a very valuable crop for the dairy farmer. It is a very nutritious and palatable food, and it is very easy to grow. It is also a very reliable crop, and it yields a large amount of food for the cow.

THERE are a number of other crops which are also valuable for the dairy farmer. These include sorghum, millet, and various types of legumes. Each of these crops has its own special characteristics, and the farmer should choose the one which is best suited to his own conditions.

It is essential that the farmer should have a good understanding of the causes of disease in plants. This knowledge is essential for the prevention and treatment of disease, and it is also essential for the selection of the most suitable varieties of plants.

THE most common cause of disease in plants is the action of fungi. These fungi are present in the soil, and they can enter the plant through the roots or the leaves. They then multiply and cause the plant to wither and die.

EXCLUDING insects, fungi and bacteria are the principal causes of disease in plants. These organisms are present in the soil, and they can enter the plant through the roots or the leaves. They then multiply and cause the plant to wither and die.

Practical Poultry

It is the object of a series of articles by Mr. J. Byng Hall, dealing with the practical problems of the poultry industry in Kenya. The primary object of these articles is to help the farmer who is considering the possibilities of poultry raising, or who has already started poultry raising but has little or no practical knowledge.

THE first step in the establishment of a poultry industry is the selection of the most suitable varieties of birds. This selection should be based on the local conditions, and it should be based on the requirements of the market.

THE most common cause of disease in poultry is the action of bacteria. These bacteria are present in the soil, and they can enter the bird through the feet or the beak. They then multiply and cause the bird to die.

Twenty Years Ago

The following extracts are taken from the "East African Standard" (number 104) for the week ending 18th 1917.

The first Allied reply to the German Note was which follows in strong indignation by the West African nations to the proposal for a formal "Treaty of Peace" was communicated today to the French Government in the name of the Ambassador in Paris. It offers it as a categorical refusal to accept proposals which are not only "unjust" and "unreasonable" but also with general approval by the West African States.

PETROL PRICES REDUCED

Benefit: Nearly £20,000 a Year

Members of the Oil Commission, who have been appointed to give Kenya motorists a new benefit, are expected to announce a reduction in the price of petrol...

The Acting Colonial Secretary, by moving the necessary Bill in the Legislative Council, said: "The Government on the part of the Oil Commission is very much gratified by the approval of the public."

From January 1 retail prices of petrol in the main Kenya centres are to be reduced to 2/10 per gallon. Nairobi, 2/10; Mombasa, 2/10; Eldoret, 2/10; Kisumu, 2/10; and Lamu, 2/10 per gallon.

A NEW TYPE OF SAFARI CAR

Test Trip from Nairobi to Lagos

A test run from East to West Africa of a new type of safari car produced by the famous Mercedes-Benz concern commenced on Christmas Day from Nairobi. Colonial tests of new models are no new thing. The Mercedes-Benz concern used several of their Safari II models to long range through desert country in North Africa...

It is an exceptional ground clearance and springing, as well as the transmission, however, that the Mercedes-Benz safari model—in its known as "Model 500"—differs principally from ordinary production cars. The rear and front wheels are sprung independently, the back axle being driven by rubber mounting to the frame...

Underbody Features. So much for the outside and the personnel of the expedition. The car itself, however, is an interesting product as it has been especially designed for the rough roads of the African continent. It is a car which is built to last and to give the most reliable service in any of the world's deserts...

THE R.E.A.A.A. "RAG"

A full report of the R.E.A.A.A. "Rag" already appeared in the Kenya columns of the daily news, but the event deserves further comment as a most interesting motor racing novelty—diffusing in several of its essentials from the "Frascati Hunt" type of event. Deep in the fact that every motorist who has driven from Nairobi during the holidays, the entry was a fairly good one and there were reasons to believe that further events of this, or a similar kind would prove to be extremely popular.

One-day events, or, better still, Saturday afternoon meetings, that will not take the town motorists too far from home, are well-being encouraged as they enable motoring to take on an added zest. Reliability trials have proved to be extremely popular, but their appeal is to the enthusiast rather than what may be termed the "rank and file" motorist.

But events such as the "Rag" serve a useful social purpose and, furthermore, enable the average motorist to meet the Association in touch with an organization that has done a very great deal for the motorist public during the last few years. And that is all to the good. Therefore, the "Rag" is well-being and suitable events that will give the average intelligent driver a good afternoon's fun and make a most welcome change from picnic and the afternoon run round the house.

A NOTE ABOUT THE HILL-CLIMB

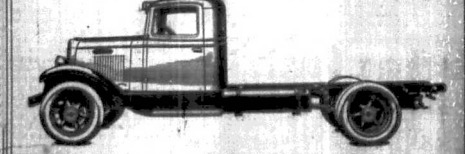

It has been decided by the Sports Committee of the R.E.A.A.A. to hold a hill-climb on January 23, a fortnight before the Christmas Cup meeting of the Association held at Mount Kenya to decide upon the terms of the climb, the formula to be adopted and other relevant matters. It is probable that in the time this happens in 1937 the motorist will have been informed that the hill-climb is a most interesting and profitable event.

There will be trade (open) and closed classes and results will be decided according to the weight of all open and on formula. Ladies' motor cycle classes will be included if the number of entries justifies their inclusion. It is to be hoped that motor cyclists will compete as well as in the past. Further details will be published later.

Built to Go Anywhere

The special features of this Mercedes-Benz should make it an excellent utility car. It is capable of taking a heavy load over most different roads at a good running speed and in comfort to the occupants and, as such, it fits a place between the more normal body car and the light lorry. The motor territory in the East and Central parts of Africa is primarily to fill a very real need and it is the general opinion of the motorist that a car of this kind is a most desirable one.

German and Italian Views on "Volunteers"

REPLIES TO THE NOTES FROM BRITAIN AND FRANCE

Conditional Co-operation

BERLIN INCLINED TO RESENT WAY IN WHICH QUESTION WAS RAISED

The replies of the German and Italian Governments to the Anglo-French proposals regarding the prohibition of foreign volunteers for Spain have been received.

The two Governments are willing to co-operate provided that other nations adopt the same attitude; that the question of indirect intervention is tackled immediately; and that every case concerned against an unconditional and effective control to be carried out in Spain.

The insurgent attack on Madrid is believed to be making headway and it is significant that the problem of evacuating the non-combatant population of the city is being considered as an urgent matter.

There was a tense atmosphere of the British when Mackay and Christian shot the last bullet for the Civil Service Club. Such a close finish has not been seen for some time.

Physician Chief a Prisoner in Rome

DOUGHTY RESISTANCE TO INVADERS RECALLED

Publicly Scolded

WILL PROBABLY BE BANISHED TO AN ITALIAN ISLAND

(PARIS LETTERS BY AGENT.)

Rome, January 8. RAO IRIU, the Abyssinian chief, who was brought to Rome by air, by order of Signor Mussolini, will probably be banished for some years to a small Mediterranean island.

CHECKED ITALIANS

Later in the campaign he checked the Italian progress round Aksum for many months.

When the Italians entered Addis Ababa, he attacked the capital, but found it too well defended. He then went to Harar and fought with his headquarters at Gera, and maintained the resistance.

About a month ago, together with 500 men, he was surrounded and captured by three Italian columns. When he was brought to Addis Ababa, he was confined to a hut; later, he was taken to the Italian camp for continuing a futile resistance. A large number of Abyssinian chiefs had been invited to witness the event, so that it might be convinced that Ras Iriu had indeed been captured.

FRANCE AND TURKEY MR. RUNCIMAN

Camp de Force Not Thought Likely

(PARIS LETTERS BY AGENT.)

Paris, Jan. 7. Well-known quarters here have received new revelations concerning the treatment of Turkish troops in the southern frontier.

A coup de force by Turkey is regarded as more unlikely now. It is hoped that an acceptable solution will be reached.

A Paris talk. Minister of Foreign Affairs had for Foreign Affairs had a conference with the Turkish Ambassador, Monsieur Bekir Sami Bey, in Alaisville.

It was decided to continue the talks, and if the Turkish Government agrees France will not force a compromise on the Turkish Government.

New Proposal. According to a dispatch from Geneva, it is believed that Turkey may submit to the League Council a new proposal providing for the creation of a confederation of self-governing states.

CONVENTION RESOLUTIONS

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard." Sir.—In your issue of 21st inst. a letter appears from Mr. F. P. Tala on the question of the mandate given to the Executive Members of the East African Convention. The resolution passed at the Convention, Mr. Tala states, is contrary to what both with my modification and with the resolution passed at that Convention, Mr. Tala states:—

It was not their duty to have any such resolution passed at that Convention.
