PROSPEROUS BRITAIN

Optimistic Review by Chair Chairman

In the annual address to the shareholders of Lloyds Bank, London, the Chairman, Lord Warburton, the Chairman of the Board, has said that the present outlook for commerce and industry is encouraging.

He said, however, when he looked over the depressed areas, property was visible, and all signs, such as the figures of employment, showed a steady improvement.

There was also the satisfactory feature that the fundamental basis of good international trade was present.

The higher prices of primary commodities were followed by their export to the countries of primary products, and were pointing to a more active position in being able to place orders in industrial countries for the secondary products which they needed.

Another warning was given by the fact that the balance of trade was still in a deficit.

The Editor does not accept responsibility for the views expressed by correspondents in their columns and in all cases the names and addresses of the writers must accompany a letter, not necessarily for publication but as a guarantee of good faith. Brevity is also essential to ensure consideration.

THE "COMPROMISE" To the Editor, "E. A. Standard." Sir—I have read with interest your report of Major Gordon's speech in the Playhouse on the subject of the Income Tax controversy, and whether we agree with him or not, it must be conceded his address is a masterpiece of eloquence, and his views, which he expressed so deftly and diffidly in rebuttal, are now for the points of my reply.

(1) The number for Nairobi South Carolina School, has not been consulted or publicly addressed, his participation in the election of 1922 is in time he did so, show, if this is possible, how a Major Gordon's wife and policy is so badly and incidentally, enable us to get a little more of "thanks" for his services on the Executive and Legislative Council.

(2) Major Gordon, who is one of our oldest pioneers here, in the year, devoted a great deal of his time and money to the welfare of the settlers, who now occupy the land, and in doing so, it would indeed be singular if he did not get out a fair share of the benefit. In fact, some little for money, and has not probably his all back in investment in the country, or in any way in his life, time, and effort for the welfare of the country, and in doing so, it would indeed be singular if he did not get out a fair share of the benefit.

(3) Major Gordon, who is one of our oldest pioneers here, in the year, devoted a great deal of his time and money to the welfare of the settlers, who now occupy the land, and in doing so, it would indeed be singular if he did not get out a fair share of the benefit.

THE MAYOR OF NAIROBI To the Editor, "E. A. Standard." Sir—In your issue of today you make the statement that Mr. T. Wood's year of office as Mayor of Nairobi does not terminate after the next municipal elections are finished.

"NOTE OF THE APPEALED." Nairobi, Jan. 29, 1927.

COMMANDER SECCOMBE Well-known Resident of Dar es Salaam

MUNICIPAL APPOINTMENTS To the Editor, "E. A. Standard." Sir—The statement in the Nairobi Municipal Council last Tuesday and recorded in your last Thursday's issue, that the Council has decided to indicate its intention to appoint some new members, is a very interesting one, and appears to find favour with the majority.

Progress Reported at Annual Meeting

POPULAR BROCHURE

There was a representative attendance at the annual general meeting of the Sotik Settlers' Association held at the Sports Club, on Thursday, January 26.

The Chairman, Mr. K. de E. Beaton, in reviewing the work of the Association for the past year, said that he felt that it had proved very well and had fully justified its existence. The Committee had taken the question of Coffee Pasture and Land Taxes, and Delegates to both the Coffee and Stock Congresses, and been instrumental in arranging a visit of a Government Agricultural Commission last August.

Another accomplishment had been the issuing of a brochure of the District by the Publicity Committee. In 1925 £25 was raised for this purpose by a fancy dress dance which with advertisement, secured by the courtesy of Mr. J. D. Ryan, covered the entire cost of production. Some 2,000 copies had been sent to London and the Johannesburg Exhibition.

Mr. Beaton's opening of the meeting was met with a very warm reception, and the Agricultural Department did not receive its collection satisfactorily, as so far no satisfactory number of American had been put on the market. Meanwhile the Department was trying to obtain funds from the Colonial Development Fund for further research.

Chromophyl was suggested as a purely experimental crop, and several packets of seed were distributed.

An appeal was made by the Chairman of the Publicity Committee for funds for the publication of the brochure, to assist in the work of the Sotik Settlers' Association.

ITALIANS CHEER CREW ON ARRIVAL AT GENOA

(STANDARD SPECIAL AGENT.)

Genoa, Feb. 9.

The Union Castle line "Llangibby Castle" arrived here two days behind schedule.

This was the result of going to the assistance of the motor ship "Olympia" which went out an 8.0.3. in the Bay of Biscay.

The captain of the "Llangibby Castle" despite heavy seas directed the ship to where the "Olympia" had signalled and found it after a few hours searching.

TOW ROPES BROKEN

For two days efforts were made to bring her down from the "Olympia" but the tow ropes were broken by the huge waves.

A brave attempt by one of the crew of the "Llangibby Castle" to swim to the "Olympia" with a rope failed.

The "Olympia" was finally taken to tow on January 23 but a few hours later her rudder was repaired and she was then ordered to Corunna by the "Llangibby Castle."

The Italians heartily cheered the crew of the "Llangibby Castle" when they heard of the achievement.

JUDGMENTS BY E. A. COURT OF APPEAL

Case of Cannibalism Found Proved

GRUBBONS STORY

In the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa... Their Honours Chief Justice, Mr. Joseph Mwangi (President), Mr. Justice Hill (Judge) and Mr. Justice Dhill (Judge) delivered judgements in eight criminal appeals, three of which had previously been heard.

The appeal of Phungo v. Oluwara, convicted of kidnapping, transferring and subsequently detaining a two-month-old child from the village, Lamu, North Province of Uganda, was dismissed. Appellant had confessed to the District Officer, Lamu, that he had used the child in the jungle being carried by another child and later and carried in his bag.

The appeal of Mawro v. Mawro

The appeal of Mawro v. Mawro, which concerned the culpability in a murder that took place at Fort Hill last year was also dismissed, as was that of Kanyomo v. Kanyomo, the conviction of an elderly woman, Kanyomo, in the Nakhla district of Uganda in May. The woman's body was found in a pool of water which bore signs of a struggle and it was evident that she had died a violent death as a result of a particularly brutal assault.

To be Set Free

Holding that sufficient evidence of a corroborative nature had not been produced to warrant the upholding of the conviction, the Court allowed the appeal of Mwangi v. Wamburi, convicted of complicity in the murder of Mwangi in the Fort Hill district in June last. At the trial a confession had been made by the appellant, but the Court held that the matter, which had been corroborative evidence contained in the confession, did not involve any question of material fact.

was also dismissed as not being strong enough. Mwangi had been convicted of a murder which was alleged to have been committed in the first accused at the trial to kill Mwangi because he was endeavouring to obtain the return of his child, whose bride price had not been paid in full. Mwangi's conviction was quashed and he will, accordingly, be set free.

Believed Wife was Witch

The conviction of Mwangi v. Mwangi for the murder of his wife was upheld and the appeal dismissed. The Court said that "although we regret that the appellant was not proved to be a witch, we will be adequately satisfied by the Government's evidence that Mwangi had admitted to killing his wife with a pang of a kind that would have attempted to take her life by both poison and witchcraft. The charges between the two were long-standing and Mwangi alleged that the woman had tried to poison him on several occasions and had, in fact, caused his death. This ill feeling was the cause of the tragic collision on the day of the murder. When Mwangi took some poison made by the wife and intended to kill her, she was the cause of the collision. He had placed a number of articles in a circle round the wife and had told his wife to stand and had told him to hand some articles back to her, after which the spell would be removed. The woman, however, refused to do so and Mwangi, in a fit of anger, threw the articles at her and she was killed. The Court held that the appellant was guilty of the murder and that the conviction should be upheld.

No Proof

The appeals of Kalandu v. Ndaga and Kalandu v. Ndaga, for the murder of Ndaga, were also dismissed. The Court held that there was no proof of the charges against the appellants and that the convictions should be quashed.

paper's purpose is to provide the disinterested opinion of a Zulu in the town of Nairobi.

That apart from the danger of those wild animals roaming from the cages and the attendant danger to the population of Nairobi, it is even more dangerous to have a zoo in the middle of the city.

FOURTH TEST MATCH AT ADELAIDE

AUSTRALIA'S STRONG POSITION AT END OF YESTERDAY'S PLAY

Bradman Again

England's collapse in their first innings looks like costing them the fourth Test match at Adelaide. After appearing set for a big score they failed eventually finishing only 42 runs ahead on the first innings.

Yesterday Australia made hay while the sun shone. Bradman and McCabe together mastered the bowling, and with the latter's dismissal Gregory came to the rescue, and by plodding batsmanship took part with his famous countryman in a notable stand.

The chances of the tourists winning the fourth trial of strength are now slim, so that before the tennis meet at Melbourne the tally is likely to be two all.

Australia's Strong Position

Bradman's batting was the main feature of the match. He scored 100 in the first innings and 100 in the second. McCabe also scored 100 in the first innings. Gregory scored 100 in the second innings.

100 in 104 Minutes

Bradman completed his 100 in 104 minutes. Gregory appeared in the first innings, but was dismissed in the first over. McCabe scored 100 in the first innings.

Score Board

The following are the scores: Australia—1st Innings: Bradman 100, McCabe 100, Gregory 100.

Australia—2nd Innings

Bradman's 1000 runs. Bradman reached his 1000 runs in first class matches for the first time. McCabe scored 100 in the first innings.

McCabe's Final Third-Try

The crowd had increased to well over 30,000 when play was resumed. McCabe finished with 100 in the first innings.

DEVELOPMENT OF STRIKE POSITION IN THE U.S.

Effect of Court Order

[UNIONIST ASSOCIATION'S AGENT.]

New York, February 2. It is feared that the relations between Government, employers and labour in the United States may be aggravated by the result of the appeal to the Courts by General Motors for power to eject the sit-down strikers from their factories.

The Magistrate at Flint, Michigan, this afternoon granted the Corporation an injunction ordering the men to leave the factories within 24 hours and prohibiting picketing.

STREETS CLEARED BY BAYONETS

Mr. John Lewis the strike leader left at once for Detroit, another of the big American centres of the motor industry where he intends to intensify the strike.

Shortly after the Court's decision National Guards broke up the pickets, ejected the workers and arrested four men.

The streets of Flint were cleared at the point of the bayonet and sentries were placed in the Chevrolet factories where machine guns were established in position.

Dunkirk to Switzerland

EXPENDITURE OF £140,000,000 APPROVED FOR THREE YEARS PLAN

The French reply to Herr Hitler's speech is an announcement that the frontier defences are to be strengthened and are now to extend from the English Channel to the Swiss border.

At the same time the French Air Minister stated that Russia is the only country that has at present an air force superior to that of France.

Britain's £137,500,000

The only nation in the world with an Air Force inferior superior to that of France is Soviet Russia, said the Minister of Air, Mr. Pierre Cot in the course of a speech in the Chamber today.

German munition works with France's bombing force are said to be equal in output to that of Germany.

In the past six months France's front line defences have been strengthened by 75 per cent, munitions by 50 per cent and armaments by 25 per cent.

Mr. Dailleur, the War Minister, announced the Chamber that the French Government has decided to spend £137,500,000 on the defence of France.

The Chamber by 400 votes to 100 has approved the plan.

THE DOMINIONS AND THE REGENCY BILL

LEGISLATION MATTER FOR INDIVIDUAL GOVERNMENTS

A Constitutional Point

An interesting point arose in the House of Commons in connexion with the Regency Bill. It concerned the powers of the Dominions in relation to the appointment of a Regent.

The Home Secretary confirmed an earlier statement by General Hertzog that it had been decided to leave the introduction of such legislation to the Dominion Governments themselves if and when the necessity arose.

Question Raised in Union

[UNIONIST ASSOCIATION'S AGENT.]

In the House of Commons last night, moving the second reading of the Regency Bill, Sir John Simon, the Home Secretary, said that Government in drafting the Bill had not overlooked the principle governing relations between the Dominion Legislatures.

He explained that the Bill would be effective in the United Kingdom and Ireland but as far as the Dominions were concerned it would be for each Dominion to decide whether any legislation was necessary.

The Home Secretary told the House that the Bill had been discussed with Dominion Premiers at the time of the Jubilee. He recalled that His Majesty had in his recent message to the House mentioned the same Bill.

Domestic Premiers had found the provisions of the draft bill then in existence to be generally acceptable and the Government had followed the same line in the Bill now before the House.

The Dominion Premiers had been invited to the British House of Commons to discuss the Bill and had agreed to deal with the question of the Bill at the time of the Jubilee.

Cuticura Talcum is more than a dusting powder—it is a cooling and refreshing remedy, because of the special, medicated way in which it is prepared.

It immediately cools and soothes those parts where chafing has occurred, it soothes persistent eruptions, itching feet and gives a feeling of softness to the whole body. It is especially recommended by doctors for baby eruptions and for every member of the family because of its exceptional purity and its wonderfully soothing effect.

The perfume of Cuticura Talcum is quite unique. Women say this is the reason why they first used it. Think of the fresh, sweet scent of the "Dust of Roses" after they have used it, when their faces—and you have no idea of it. It imparts a delightful feeling of freshness for hours after use.

Remember for yourself what an added joy this powder is to your daily toilet—try it to-day. Men also find Cuticura Talcum comforting after shaving—it takes away stings without giving a chemical burn.

THE PRODUCE MARKET

Weekly Report by the K.F.A.

Following is the weekly market report, dated February 3, issued by the Kenya Farmers' Association (K.F.A.), through their agents Messrs. Mitchell, Oats—

Mato

We have to report a decline of 1½ to 2 quarters in Mato. This weakness is evident on account of the favourable report regarding the new crop, and falling off in demand from the United States of America. However, shipments continue to be heavy, and this week amounted to 1,100,000 quarters from the Argentine.

The premium which White Mato has enjoyed over Yellow Mato for the past three months has to some extent disappeared, owing to the very favourable report of the South African crop, which is likely to be one of the heaviest on record. Honduras also has had a heavy crop of White Mato.

Although quotations are at present weak, owing to the substantial crops, the additional position of Mato is satisfactory, and the world's position shows, even with the favourable report, no material improvement is not in excess of the demand for recent months.

To-day's rates are—

- Argentine — 29/0d.
- Albion — 29/0d.
- Forward position shows—
- Argentine — 22/0d.
- Africa — 22/0d.

Wheat

The market is weak, although Italy and Germany have been taking moderate quantities, the price has fallen. Manitoba (No. 3) today is worth 47½; Atlas (No. 4), with Kenya's wheat value at 41½ to 42½.

Barley

Mating qualities are still in demand, but the market is generally weak, and the price is at 41½ to 42½.

FOREIGN SECRETARY ON MANDATES POSITION

"NOTHING TO ADD" TO JULY STATEMENT

Reference to Hitler's Speech

TRANSFERENCE WILL NOT BE DISCUSSED BY RAW MATERIALS COMMITTEE

[THROUGH SECRETARY'S AGENCY.]

Mr. G. Mander, the Liberal Member for East Weymouth, asked Mr. Eden, in the House of Commons to-day, to state what action Government proposed to take in reference to the German demand for Colonies as reiterated in Hitler's speech of Saturday.

The Foreign Secretary referred Mr. Mander to his statement of July 27 last year, to which, he said, he had nothing to add.

Mr. W. A. Burke (Labour), Burnley, asked Mr. Eden if he could assure the House that there would be no question of transference of territory arising from questions relating to access of raw material.

Mr. Eden replied: "Oh yes, certainly."

Mr. Eden added that the Mandates question was not one for the Imperial Government alone but was an issue in which the Dominions were closely interested.

The Conference of Dominion Women

Held at Johannesburg in November, 1933

This is the first part of an address given recently by Mrs. Sogh Turner at the Annual General Meeting of the Natal Branch of the East Africa Women's League.

First I have the honour and pleasure of conveying to these members of the East Africa Women's League who are present, greetings from the National Council of Women of S.A. and from those attending the conference of Dominion Women which was held in connection with the Empire Exhibition at Johannesburg in November, and which I had the honour of attending on behalf of the E.A.W.A. Mrs. Kenneth Archer, the wife of the Conference in charge of the East African Pavilion, was also a delegate and we attended the sessions together. A number of the Dominion Branch committees was also present at the Conference, but owing to the illness of her son she was prevented.

Four hundred women from different parts of our Empire were present, but naturally owing to the distance of South Africa, and the being held under the auspices of the National Council of Women of South Africa, which has branches in every district of the Union, there was a preponderance of South African representatives. I should like to explain here that the National Council of Women of South Africa is a branch of the International Council of Women which embraces millions of women all over the world, with the Dominions of the British Empire as its members. The East Africa Women's League is linked to this international organization and works in touch with its activities through the British Colonies and Dependencies Committee of the National Council of Women of Great Britain, with which it is affiliated, and you will realize that these organizations are very closely woven together and each one is in a position to help the other.

Before the Conference opened all the delegates were entertained to Luncheon by the Goodwill Club of Johannesburg. Her Excellency Lady Clarendon, the wife of the Governor-General, was the guest and attended many of the sessions of the Conference, being a very keen supporter of the National Council of Women and all organizations working in the interests of the women and children of South Africa. When she thanked the Goodwill Club for their generous hospitality, Her Excellency said that the name of the Club had not been on the evening deliberations of the Conference and she commended the spirit in which every one would meet. It was a happy note to strike, and to say that this spirit shows all other aims and objectives of the Club had not been forgotten.

A Great Aim

Lady Aberdeen was personally represented by Miss Van Bogaert, the Secretary-General of the International Council of Women. The National Council of Women of Great Britain sent a strong contingent and the women of the South African Protectorate were represented by the wives of the respective Commanders-in-Chief. It was an encouraging and inspiring sight to see our representatives women assembled in Johannesburg to discuss the welfare of their country and to share their views with other women from all over the world.

At the Conference of the Empire, which was held in London by the Goodwill Club of Johannesburg, Her Excellency Lady Clarendon, the wife of the Governor-General, was the guest and attended many of the sessions of the Conference, being a very keen supporter of the National Council of Women and all organizations working in the interests of the women and children of South Africa. When she thanked the Goodwill Club for their generous hospitality, Her Excellency said that the name of the Club had not been on the evening deliberations of the Conference and she commended the spirit in which every one would meet. It was a happy note to strike, and to say that this spirit shows all other aims and objectives of the Club had not been forgotten.

My Favourite Poem

(Set in by "Dorset.")

This is the weather the cuckoo likes,
And so do I;
When showers betwixt the whitest spires
And hallow'd firs, and
And the little brown nightingale hills his best,
And they sit outside as "The Travellers' Rest,"
And make content their tiny-mettle dews,
And amidst a drear of the south and west.
And so do I.

This is the weather the shepherd likes,
And so do I;
When bushes drip in brooms and dews,
And hill-side flocks thrub, in three or three,
And meadow rivulets overflow,
And drops on grasses hang in a row,
And rye in furrows hangs in a row,
And so do I.

A Woman's Life in Malaya

(By One of Them)

Novelists and playwrights in these areas for material are never good publicity agents, since, of necessity, they incline to describe exceptional people, and to describe these are never less reflections of life as a whole. Somerset Maugham and Noel Coward have shown Malaya as the background for several of their publications and, however, admirable they may be from a literary point of view, the British community in Malaya has assuredly nothing for which to thank them. Particularly the women.

Even Mr. Bruce Lockhart, with more inside knowledge of the country and a fairer mind than either of his more literary colleagues, cannot resist the temptation that the presence of white women in large numbers is "prejudicial, at least to some extent, to the decline in the white man's prestige—without admitting any valid reason for this very debatable statement.

An Average Day

Like the virtuous female of the Scriptures the Malayan wife rises early, 6-8.30 A.M. to attend to her household and garden. If there are children the forenoon is usually devoted to them while their well-learned, neat, and apt, mother makes a meal and does the washing—very early, when children are changed three times a day. Otherwise, there is the household shopping to do or she may "look in" on Mr. Lockhart's departmental store, as a matter of fact this is a much greater matter than it seems, for the goods which can be done in a day to the reader.

The best hours of the afternoon are spent in interesting or, not until the arrival of tea and the husband. Tennis, badminton, golf, reading and walking are the evening amusements followed in an hour or so at the Club with friends until it is time to bath and change for dinner. After dinner it is time to bed.

Nothing domestic or trivial should touch an educated, active woman. As a matter of fact, she is a much greater matter than it seems, for the goods which can be done in a day to the reader.

A scientist once referred to the constant vigilance which is the lot of her contemporary in the sphere of household matters, the description is apt to "say her own word" before she is out of the tropics or elsewhere. In Malaya vigilance is a constant and a rather stern in the damp climate, air and shower in the house invariably mean either in a definite manner.

Prospects of the Elections for the Eleven Provincial Assemblies - Bengal, Punjab, Sind and Assam will have Coalition Governments - Which will strive to work Reform Constitution - Congress majorities are probable in the other seven Provinces - The Rt. Hon. V. S. Sastri talks about Indians in Kenya.

PHILIP Millions people in British India will exercise their franchise under the new constitution between now and the middle of 1930, and approximately 100 candidates will be elected to the eleven Provincial Assemblies.

Madras will have a Legislative Assembly of 215 seats, 50 for the Scheduled Castes, 20 for the Scheduled Tribes, 10 for the Scheduled Castees. The Province believes so strongly in local autonomy that the Congressmen have a little embarrassed self-acceptance. They have had some to expect success from their past record and from the fact that the Justice Party's take-off appears to have been strangely slow and uncertain and little of any consequence. The programme has been formulated.

Bihar has a Legislative Assembly of 192 seats, with 71 reserved for Mohammedans and 15 for Scheduled Castees. Most of the Government seats are held by the Congress and the party should secure a majority. The party has agreed that the six ministerial portfolios should be allocated to Mohammedans, two to Hindus and one to the Sikhs. The Congress is making great gains by a concentration of efforts. It is not unlikely that they will win a majority. The Unionist Government has in its appeal, should secure a majority to form the Government.

In the United Provinces there are 100 seats, of which 140 will represent "general" constituencies. The Congress has been captured by the Government. The Unionist Government has in its appeal, should secure a majority to form the Government.

wholeheartedly into the working of the reformed constitution.

Government majorities are probable in the remaining seven provinces, but even so in the majority of these provinces Congress opinion leans to the active side of office and the formation of Governments, even though on the subject Congress has not yet taken final position.

NOTE The Medals won in the 1926 Problem-solving Competition have arrived.

A good start has been made in the Nairobi Chess Club Championship tournament which is being run this year in six sections of ten competitors each.

A Halden put up an excellent fight against Davidson (second) who won after a long game. Spies noticed a Book which Spencer Palmer had carelessly left lying about and promptly snatched it winning easily.

most remarkable of Zalk discovered that Heikinham has very ingenious defenses with plenty of 'pep' in them, turning the tables in an apparently lost position and actually winning in the bitter end, for Zalk had to give up a won exchange.

Several games have gone by default. The rules, which are being more rigidly applied according to instructions given to the Committee by the Annual Meeting, say if there are non-attendance without excuse for 90 minutes the game is to be played.

NOTE The Medals won in the 1926 Problem-solving Competition have arrived.

A good start has been made in the Nairobi Chess Club Championship tournament which is being run this year in six sections of ten competitors each.

A Halden put up an excellent fight against Davidson (second) who won after a long game. Spies noticed a Book which Spencer Palmer had carelessly left lying about and promptly snatched it winning easily.

most remarkable of Zalk discovered that Heikinham has very ingenious defenses with plenty of 'pep' in them, turning the tables in an apparently lost position and actually winning in the bitter end, for Zalk had to give up a won exchange.

Several games have gone by default. The rules, which are being more rigidly applied according to instructions given to the Committee by the Annual Meeting, say if there are non-attendance without excuse for 90 minutes the game is to be played.
