THE CONTROL OF FORESTS

Being Entrusted to Natives Tanganyika Experiment

CERTAIN DUTIES ALREADY HANDLED OVER

Part of certain of the functions of the Tanganyika Territory were handed over to the Native authorities. They were entrusted with the pay, equipment and maintenance of the forest guards and the licensing of forest exploitation...

The Economic Depression

The economic depression continued to affect the work of the Forest Department, says the annual report for 1933. A curtailed staff worked with reduced allocations, but on the whole the year was successful. Plantations have been maintained and extracted timber resources have been protected...

Bivalent

Financial stringency reduced the Territory's allocation for activities to be carried out in 1934. Planting was abandoned as an effect of the stringency. The little work undertaken being almost entirely direct work at the forest sites. It is certain that the success of these workings was only partial. In 1933, there were 190 acres, maintenance work 2,000 acres and preparatory work 88 acres.

Drought and Fire

The work of surveying and demarcation devoted almost entirely upon the forest since the services of a surveyor were lacking. Good results were reported. The drought and fire measures were great, but protective measures were not sufficient. One case of insecticide, in which a major effort was made to keep the forest above the fire line, was reported. In the north, the drought had been less. On the other hand considerable help had been received from the British Government...

Forest Squatters

Labor recruitment presented no difficulty, the supply at all times being voluntary and in excess of requirements. The number of natives employed to reside on forest reserves in 1933 was 1,000 and granted 3,234 tons of cattle. The 1934 figures for the forest reserves fall into three categories: namely genuine and bona fide squatters, and forest villages. The number of bona fide squatters in the Forest Department during 1933 was 22,212, while in 1934 was 22,212, which was 21,233 less than the previous year.

THE DESTRUCTION OF LOCUSTS

Operation Expected in January AN OFFICIAL REPORT Importance of Giving Early Information

The Department of Agriculture has forwarded to the East African Standard for publication a memorandum on the destruction of locusts. The memorandum states that the specimens of locusts recently examined by officers of the Department of Agriculture show that the position of eggs may be anticipated during the early part of 1935 and that another generation of locusts is expected to appear in the month of February in the proposed Order before it is issued in order that an opportunity may be given to the Government to give effect to the Commission's recommendations...

Forest Planting Experiment

The possibility of floating timber down the Wami River was untried, but was tried by the Department with a few acres of 50 Mangro trees was made to a residual by the banks of the river on the condition that the work should be done in 1934. This experiment was being watched with interest in the United Kingdom. It is considered likely to be of considerable value to the country's timber resources. The Mangrove trees, Mahogany and Moringa on the south coast of Tanganyika are well known to be of great value. The Mangrove trees are so remote from the ports that they can be worked to a profit both by road and rail that they are not worked to a profit except for a purely local market. It is certain that the success of this experiment will be of great value to the country's timber resources. The Mangrove trees are well known to be of great value. The Mangrove trees are so remote from the ports that they can be worked to a profit both by road and rail that they are not worked to a profit except for a purely local market.

A Successful Method

Occupiers are also reminded that they are required by law to use the best method available for the destruction of locusts. The best method is the use of the 'panga'. This method of attack has been adopted in Tanganyika Territory with marked success. The effectiveness of campaigns conducted during the past six years has depended largely upon the goodwill and efforts of individual farmers in carrying out the offensive action taken by districts. Contributions to the cost of the campaign are essential for success in 1935. As far as can be ascertained it is improbable that infestation will be heavy in 1935, but it is possible that persons of every race should continue in operations to the extent possible in every way possible in the destruction of this scourge.

The writer has no intention of writing or editing or publishing anything of the kind. He is not a member of any of the various committees or sub-committees which are now being set up to consider the various proposals which are being put forward.

East Africa and Colonial Credit

MAJOR E. S. GROGAN'S ARTICLE IN "THE TIMES"

In the Wake of Deflation

An article by Major E. S. Grogan on "Colonial Credit" was given considerable prominence in a recent issue of "The Times." This article is reprinted in full below.

Major Grogan bases his article on a Colonial Office publication "An Economic Survey of the Colonial Empire," and develops his theme so as to show the effect of England's post-war monetary policy upon the inhabitants of that Empire.

The Debtor's Grievance

Major Grogan's article was as follows:— An admirable summary entitled "An Economic Survey of the Colonial Empire (1931)" has recently been issued by the Colonial Office. Its price, instead of 41 s., should have been 2s. 6d., so that every schoolboy and housewife in the world might have at hand this timely reminder of the real political economy behind the statistics which England may still call her "imperial statistics." It is necessary to show its effect upon 57,000,000 whose affairs, involved the whole area in complete financial paralysis.

The New System
This violent internal deflation was represented on the area by law, prescribing that the terms of payment be extended for three months beyond for every item 25 per cent. instead of 10 s. d. sterling. Thus all debts were extended for three months and other money obligations were extended for six months. The local Treasury by virtue of its note issue was wrecked. The weekly currency system started with a deficit of £100,000,000. The deficit was swept up and enormous quantities of £100,000,000 in the scheduled portion of the Kenya Six per Cent. Loan of 1921, issued at 55 and borrowed 1946-56. Thus, out of the available amount of £5,000,000,000 borrowed only £3,000,000,000 was available for purposes of development; and to meet the services of this loan the Colony has to find £200,000 per annum for 25 years. In the operative sense it is a 9 per cent. loan.

In such manner was the "restoration of normal conditions" imposed. It is clear that the steps made this one-third part of the Colonial Empire to face the 14 years of deflation of the sterling. The result of that deflation and the doubled value of the £ the present day is that the value of the £ has been increased to the equivalent of 100 per cent. of the time of issue.

Price-Level
The economic price level fell about from 30.75 in 1921 to 10.00 in 1931. The real value of the £ in 1931 is about 1/3 of its value in 1921. The burden of debt on all primary producing countries has been increased to that extent. The burden of debt on the individual primary producer has been increased to that extent. The burden of the Empire has in many cases been multiplied by 10, since all the inter-colonial factors, shipping lines, railways, Civil Services, and so on, have had to be revalued. The result of this is that the Empire has been increased in its obligations to those who provide the economic foundation of the State.

The authority that controls sovereign power over all parties within the legal tender range of the money unit in terms of which contracts such a supreme obligation should be left at the mercy of the law and flow of a useless and featureless commodity which can be sold consistently at an arbitrary price.

Function of the £
For as the British money unit, the £, has only one function, namely, to serve as a measure of value and give physical precision to the monetary contract. The physical content in the economic unit is a government monopoly which can be sold at any price. The £ is a commodity which maintains its value as long as it is a government monopoly. It is a commodity which maintains its value as long as it is a government monopoly. It is a commodity which maintains its value as long as it is a government monopoly.

the whole report is absorbed by the sterling requirements of their financial obligations. The local Treasury is wrecked. The weekly currency system started with a deficit of £100,000,000. The deficit was swept up and enormous quantities of £100,000,000 in the scheduled portion of the Kenya Six per Cent. Loan of 1921, issued at 55 and borrowed 1946-56. Thus, out of the available amount of £5,000,000,000 borrowed only £3,000,000,000 was available for purposes of development; and to meet the services of this loan the Colony has to find £200,000 per annum for 25 years. In the operative sense it is a 9 per cent. loan.

"Over-indebtedness"
Every item we have respect of every item of our obligations, in the form of a debt, is increased in value. The result of that deflation and the doubled value of the £ the present day is that the value of the £ has been increased to the equivalent of 100 per cent. of the time of issue.

There are, of course, technical difficulties in the way of the money unit and the failure to provide an "over-indebtedness" but, complete relief so that the price level is not to be maintained. The result of that deflation and the doubled value of the £ the present day is that the value of the £ has been increased to the equivalent of 100 per cent. of the time of issue.

Four Suggestions
1. It might be wiser to suggest that the issue of currency should be left to the local authorities. 2. A correspondent in a special issue of "The Times" replying to Major Grogan's article in the issue of 12th December 1931, writes out that it is little more than a statement of the facts of the case, and that it is not a statement of the facts of the case, and that it is not a statement of the facts of the case.

CO-OPERATION NEEDED

The Monthly Bulletin of the Coffee Board of Kenya contains the following statement on the organization of the Kenya coffee industry. The report of the Merchants' Conference, and which, on Dec. 1st, 1931, was held in Nairobi, was presented at the Nairobi Conference, and which, on Dec. 1st, 1931, was held in Nairobi, was presented at the Nairobi Conference, and which, on Dec. 1st, 1931, was held in Nairobi, was presented at the Nairobi Conference.

It is suggested that this report is based upon two entirely wrong assumptions, namely that the Board desire to eliminate the Merchants and that the Board propose that the sale of Kenya coffee should be undertaken by the Board. The Merchants have no objection to the Board's proposal, but they are not prepared to accept it as a condition of their membership of the Board.

Having stated these two basic points, the Board has asked the Merchants to revert to first principles. The Merchants and the Board are prepared to cooperate in the marketing of Kenya coffee and are willing to combine their funds and efforts to form one united organization for the handling, distribution and sale of the coffee crop. At its 14th Meeting the Board approved a form of the Board's proposal, and this has been sent to the Merchants for their consideration.

On November 14, the Executive of the Board met in Nairobi, in reference to the report of the London Merchants' Association. The Board's proposal was that the Board should be empowered to handle the coffee crop, and that the Board should be empowered to handle the coffee crop, and that the Board should be empowered to handle the coffee crop.

It is suggested that this report is based upon two entirely wrong assumptions, namely that the Board desire to eliminate the Merchants and that the Board propose that the sale of Kenya coffee should be undertaken by the Board.

THE 1935 BUDGET - LAND REVENUE

Sir/Lord Francis Scott, in his reply to my letter of the 10th inst., put it very nicely indeed, when he said: 'We settlers would be happy, if we only had from 5 per cent. to 10 per cent. reduction in our incomes.'

I know quite a number, who have had cuts from 10 to 50 per cent. Their incomes are not so high as those of the natives, but I give you an instance of my own case.

One farm of 1,100 acres maize and what, for two years has not returned sufficient to pay the Government rent... I have been compelled to pay rent and insurance on the buildings.

If these things are not put in the one year insurance policy it is cancelled and in the other, Government insurance companies you have to Court proceedings with demurrage and Court costs, added to the bill.

If Government would publicly notify all settlers that they would allow them a moratorium for two years they would be saving some real good money. They were trying to help the small business man.

NOW! A SMOKER'S TOOTH PASTE

If you want to smoke comfortably and still keep your teeth white you must brush them every day with this tooth paste... It is a new discovery in the history of dentistry.

While the Society is organized in the whole of Kenya should in time be put under forest, it is, however, disappointing the planting of blue gum, which, owing to its rapid growth, is very soon such all the available land on the ground in which they grow.

The Society also hopes, in time, to have a large tract of land in the Colony, for there are said to be many tracts of land which are not being used for agriculture, and which are being used for other purposes.

Kenya Arab Society

In connection with the Society's programme, an interesting exhibit was staged at the show illustrating how various species of exotic trees would fit into the landscape, and the most advice available to the young trees was shown growing in shallow wooden soil form.

State Departments at the Show

In cases containing the exhibits, ranging from the way down the Department at its various points on Tuesday. Fortunately, however, very few of the Department exhibits were damaged, and only those glass jars with their contents could not be displayed.

Among the exhibits of interest to farmers in the Nakuru district was one showing the various forms of Rift Valley disease, which is equally communicable to man, as well as to cattle and sheep, while the important display was arranged by the Veterinary Sub-department which showed the life cycles of the various disease-bearing ticks, common to the district, the sheep louse, which is a fairly common pest of the country. The new worm fly mite quite recently considered to be comparatively new was also shown in the various stages of its life history.

A study of poisonous plants is also one of the subjects dealt with by the Veterinary Department, and a collection of these, many of which are very common, and which look quite harmless, showed that stock farmers cannot be too careful in feeding their animals on hay cut from fields in which these poisonous varieties of plants grow.

Milking Trials

For the first time in the history of the Agricultural Show in Kenya, milking trials took place under the auspices of this Department, which every now and then in the past has been held in the open field. The cows were milked in the evening before the Show and the following morning the milk of each cow was taken and bacterial tests were carried out. Mr. Evans of the Veterinary Research Laboratory, Nairobi, is in the process of securing a method of producing milk each cow. This method of testing indicates to the exhibitor that by the personal opinion of the judge, which was one of the most practical concerns of the jury.

MEDICAL DEPARTMENT

A display arranged on similar lines was that shown by the Medical Department, which attracted a great deal of interest, chiefly among the exhibitors.

The first table was set out with various kinds of foods, demonstrating the value of each as a source of human consumption. Next to these were tanks in which various and poisonous mosquitoes were breeding, while the most useful methods of exterminating these pests were also indicated. Various mites were likewise recommended.

The plague exhibit occupied the adjoining table. There were shown cases containing the specimens, plague rat and enlarged models of plague rats, while there was also the latest taken from a person who had died from the effects of epidemic plague. Then followed a collection of the means to be used for preventing rats from making their dens in houses and stores.

An extensive display was that showing the danger caused by flies, and how to solve the problem of having effective fly repellents. A new exhibit that was considered of a great deal of interest to the exhibitors was that showing the life cycles of the various insects which are the cause of the disease. The life cycle of the tapeworm also formed an interesting exhibit.

Trade Exhibits at Nakuru Show

To the Agricultural Editor, Sir—Mr. Pollen has shown to me a copy of the statement contained in his letter under the heading, "There appear to be many things in the show, and each one of them is a disappointment to me." It appears that he may have visited at 10, and then some 100 miles of mine who called my attention to his letter in my week-end paper. I am sure that you are prepared to assist him in his quest for a "cure" for the "disease".

Anyway, I accept his challenge, and agree to visit his farm here in the country. On examining my own notes, and those of my neighbours, he finds that I have exaggerated in any way. On the other hand, if he finds that everything I wrote is correct, I will be glad to accept the challenge with the facts. I will expect him to pay the bills, and to publish an apology and an admission of the truthfulness of my statements.

My rainfall data is only 16 inches for the year. My annual rainfall is less than the 28 in. which he has put in his letter. I am sure that he had not also had a crop of 100 bushels of maize. The fact that he has not got a crop of 100 bushels of maize, and that he has not got a crop of 100 bushels of maize, is no more than a fact. It is not a matter of opinion, and it is not a matter of opinion.

My own farm has done well and I have had a very good crop of 100 bushels of maize. I have had a very good crop of 100 bushels of maize, and I have had a very good crop of 100 bushels of maize. I have had a very good crop of 100 bushels of maize, and I have had a very good crop of 100 bushels of maize.

South African Stall

From the Union of South Africa was represented at the show by a stall organized by Col. B. F. Turner, Commissioner for South Africa. There was to be found paddock master dealing with the many necessities of the Union from the point of view of, and the right way to spend a holiday there. The walk, draped in black, and decorated with flowers, was the Union's national colour, were being with large pictures showing many of the magnificent beauty spots in that country; while large numbers of maps, and a list of the best of the display as a whole.

exhibits staged by the Kenya Farmers' Association (Co-operative), under the heading "The Future of the Colony's main cereal crops and the uses to which they are put." Several of the exhibits were arranged about the various types of cereals to be found in this country. Between the various exhibits were shown other exhibits of interest to the exhibitors, such as a representative collection of the various types of cereals to be found in this country.

So I missed seeing the collection of dogs which would have given me much pleasure to write about; but I was just lucky enough to come across the good specimens brought up from near Nairobi by Mr. and Mrs. J. ELECTED MEMBERS' PROPOSALS FOR LARGE SCALE ECONOMIES

Maximum of £150,000

£110,000 DECREASES SUGGESTED IN REVENUE FROM TAXATION AND CUSTOMS

The report of the Standing Finance Committee on the 1952 Budget income on Saturday shows that the fundamental difference of opinion disclosed in the debate still exists.

The net result of the Majority Report recommendations, signed by the three Official Members and by the Indian member and the representative of Native interests, is a proposed increase in the revenue of £18,000 and a reduction in expenditure of £282.

On the other hand, the European Elected Members contend that a reduction in expenditure of at least £150,000, and probably as much as £180,000, is necessary to meet the requirements of the European Elected Members of revenue of £1,109,723 including cuts in Customs, Native taxes and the abolition of the Non-Native Graduated Poll Tax.

They place the net expenditure which the country can afford at £2,000,000.

Official Savings: £282

As a revised scale of cotton tax is being introduced, it is recommended that the maximum of £2,000 be increased to £4,000.

There were two divergent views on the way an official salary of £48,500 Lord Francis Scott considered this should not appear on the revenue side but on the expenditure side as a saving department.

When the Committee dealt with revenue from houses, duties, taxes etc., it was decided to recommend that the estimated revenue be increased from £53,000 to £45,000 in the light of several 1951 receipts and the probability of an amendment to the Ordinance.

As far as Native tax and Poll Tax was concerned the Committee considered the present time inopportune for any all-round reduction which would entail the reduction of native services.

TANANI GOLD MINING SYNDICATE

UGANDA CHAMBER

Millings in Transit Rate for Coffee

MEMBERS' CORRESPONDENCE

Nairobi

At the last meeting of the Uganda Chamber of Commerce a letter was read from the Board stating that, as the milling in transit rate for coffee between Bukhaka and Port Bell and other places used since its introduction over a year ago it was proposed to cancel it but the Chamber's views were sought on this point.

It was remarked that the Masaka District native coffee industry was as yet in its infancy and, in addition, the Agricultural Department would be unable to say more coffee curing houses until the existing factories were working to their full capacity. As it was noted that the rate on the Tariff and it might be used at any time when production increased the Chamber asked that it should not be removed.

Office Marks

The Agricultural Department wrote for the opinion of the Chamber on the question of marks on Uganda coffee for export. It was discussed in connection with the Mombasa Chamber of Commerce and those exporters in Uganda interested in the question were invited to the office before sending a reply to the letter.

As regards the representation of the Chamber on the Executive Council of the East African Board it was decided to ask Mr. Higgin who represents the Eastern Province Chamber to act for the Chamber. It is well for the time being and to inform the Board that the question of an association of public bodies in Uganda, and the Government's view on the whole question of representation would be reviewed at a later date.

Sub-Committees were formed to investigate the International Conventions on Stamp Laws in regard to the desirability of seeking such a Convention in Uganda, and to examine the Excise Amendment Ordinance.

Holidays at Malindi

Anyone desirous of spending a portion of their holiday should consider the claims of Malindi. The Palm Beach Hotel and Country Club offers a welcome. These establishments are wonderful and the Hotel is up to date, and has its own fishing boats complete with crew if you want to indulge in sport on the coast of East Africa. The Hotel has its own cold storage and electric light; its own water supply.

Large number of the settlers in Kenya are interested in its features.

Under the most extensive difficulties obtaining in a new country, far from the sea, and most of them without any knowledge of mining, these pioneers have succeeded in attracting attention to the possibilities of gold development in the Colony. I cannot help feeling that it was a handsome and well-merited gesture on the part of the Kenya Government to grant to the local company the reserved area applications for which were pouring in then from large and important mining locations outside the country. Passing from Pakhanet, I can only say we have other propositions in view, but it is too early yet for me to give you any details.

Increased Capital

An extra-ordinary general meeting was then held to consider increasing the capital from £20,000 to £100,000 by the issue of 1,000,000 shares of £1 each. It was decided to existing members at par in the proportion of four for every one share now held, and authorizing the directors to do up to any amount not taken up by shareholders.

lop a mining proposition on anything like a large scale.

The company is under sound direction and technical management.

The Directors are—Algermont Henry Moreing, Edward Amos Loring, G. J. S. Scovell, C.B.E., W. M. Kirkpatrick, M.F.

Capt. A. J. Mainwaring arrived by special air mail from South Africa and was met at Nairobi by Mr. Hugh Sandys the company's local representative. Capt. Moreing, was accompanied by his wife. He is proceeding to England after a week's stay at Lukomega as he wishes to be in London for the detention of the new Rosterman Company. He will return to Kenya early in the New Year.

Tanani Meeting

THE second annual general meeting of the Tanani Gold Mining Syndicate Ltd., was held in London in May. The Chair was taken by Mr. C. J. S. Scovell, C.B.E. in the absence of the Chairman.

Mr. Scovell said, "Since last year's meeting, eight months ago, much has been accomplished, as I think you will shortly agree, and I met say this remarkable progress is all due to the able and energetic work of our outstanding engineers and general managers and their staff at home and in Kenya. I wish specially to commend to you the excellent results rendered by the men on the spot in Africa—to wit, Mr. Hugh Sandys, Messrs. Bewick Moreing and Co.'s local representative, and his deputy, Mr. Kerr Cross, and all those working under him on the Rosterman property in Kenya. They have worked like Trojans under all the deplorable conditions of weather and terrain, while as for Mr. Sandys, he has, in addition, been instrumental in obtaining for this company participation in other valuable projects."

And may I say here that your Board intends to confine purely to the carrying out of great activity in Central Africa.

Remarkable Gold Discoveries

Now I come to the remarkable gold discoveries in Kenya and Tanganyika which have attracted the world-wide attention. Out of Africa there is always something new and startling. The gold discoveries round the range in the future with the most interesting and important of Africa's mineral resources have fallen in Tanganyika. The Tambora Leases Kakasi-Turbo-Malindi-Toror road has also been improved by a much-needed diversion. Although heavy rains have fallen in Tanganyika, the Tambora Leases Kakasi-Turbo-Malindi-Toror road has also been improved by a much-needed diversion. Although heavy rains have fallen in Tanganyika, the Tambora Leases Kakasi-Turbo-Malindi-Toror road has also been improved by a much-needed diversion.

Many of the gold reefs of Kenya are narrow and very rich, nature having concentrated the gold, so that the large equipment necessary for the gold work is not required over a great width is not required. At the same time there are also wide reefs of lower grade as in other goldfields.

As you know, the highlands of Kenya and Uganda have been settled by some of the very best elements of our nation, and we for the way in which they have, single-handed and with very little help from outside capital, discovered and developed these goldfields.

The Government Refers

Natal, we have secured a substantial interest in the Pakhanet Prospecting and Development Syndicate, Ltd., which has recently been granted an exclusive prospecting licence on an reserved area.

No. 2 containing the Government reef. This area, at the expense of the Kenya Government, has been developed under the management of our general managers, Messrs. Bewick Moreing and Co. The syndicate is a limited company formed in Nairobi, with Lord Francis Scott as chairman, and a

ROAD AND WEATHER REPORT

Mr. Galton-Tenny writes as follows:

In the first place I would like to wish all Members the compliments of the season and a very happy time during both the Christmas and the New Year Holidays.

I wish I could forecast the weather conditions during the next few days, but I think it can be ten days, but although we may have local showers in various parts of the country, taken as a whole the weather should be sunny and in fair condition. I would advise members however, to be very careful about starting out to take their chains as one never knows what the weather will be. Practically all the hotels are putting up a special programme for both Christmas and the New Year which will ensure a very happy time in whatever part of the country one travels.

As regards this week's report, the Highlands of Kenya have had some very heavy storms, the Coast being dry and hot. Rain has also been fairly general in Tanganyika and Uganda. All roads, however, are in abnormal condition in a good condition. In Kenya the worst place this week has been Keru with 24 inches followed by Keru with 24 inches, Keru with 24 inches, Keru with 24 inches, Keru with 24 inches.

The programme concludes with a grand finale, after which Lady Ryne will give away the prizes.

Machines Taking Part

Imperial Airways are very likely to be leading a "Hercules" three-engined biplane, with a seating capacity for ten passengers, but the afternoon, in order to give joy rides to people. This type of machine has been doing extraordinarily good service over a number of years on both the African and Indian air routes.

The other types of machines to be seen on Wednesday afternoon on the Aerodrome will include a seven seater de Havilland "Dragon" biplane, a "Hercules" three-engined biplane, with a seating capacity for ten passengers, but the afternoon, in order to give joy rides to people. This type of machine has been doing extraordinarily good service over a number of years on both the African and Indian air routes.

During the afternoon there will be joy rides and in the evening a sundowner dance. If weather permits, there will also be night flying.

The Aero Club of East Africa

AIR RALLY ARRANGED FOR BOXING DAY

Twenty Machines Expected

ENCOURAGING THE GROWTH OF PRIVATE FLYING IN KENYA

On Boxing Day the Aero Club of East Africa are holding an Air Rally, the third of its kind to be held in Kenya.

The Rally will probably be attended by some 20 machines and it is expected that this year the Rally will be even more successful than in previous years.

Interesting Programme

One of the biggest attractions in Kenya during the Christmas holidays will be the Air Rally taking place on Boxing Day, at the Nairobi Aerodrome, under the auspices of the Aero Club of East Africa. Invitations to attend have been sent to all Companies and Clubs interested in aircraft south of the Equator, as well as to many private owners, and it is anticipated that 20 machines will be able to take part, which is six more than last year.

This year's rally will be of the first of its kind, the first being held in the old and now deserted Nyoro Road Aerodrome in 1927 during the visit of Sir Alan Cobden to Kenya. Such was the success of the second Air Rally held in September 1933, that, immediately upon its conclusion it was decided to make it, if possible, an annual event and this year's rally was held on December 26, and judging by all accounts the extension of time has met with general approval.

Objects of the Rally

There are two main reasons for holding these Air Rallies. The first is with a view to giving an enjoyable afternoon's entertainment to the public, and at the same time inculcating a general spirit of air-enthusiasm, as well as to demonstrate the latest types of aircraft to those who are interested in aviation.

The second reason is to obtain funds for the Club's expansion in order that it may progress towards the fulfilment of the chief objects for which it was formed, and the hope of its taking a more and more active interest in the growth of private flying may eventually be achieved by bringing down the cost of tuition, and ownership, by the means of an individual subsidy.

The Programme

The programme which has been arranged is both interesting and instructive. The events, of which there are nine, will commence at 2 p.m. with a contest of competitors over Nairobi Flight and District estimating in a flight over the Club House, each machine flying low in front of the members' enclosure. A few minutes before the half hour, the "Fidelity Green" Cup competition for an "A" Licence Pilot trained in Kenya, who are members of the Aero Club, will start. It will be judged on the general handling of aircraft during take-off, figure of eight, and landing, on a given route, with the engine out and at an altitude of
