

ECONOMIC LINK FOR RHODESIA
Extensive talks to find formula

Members of the Rhodesia Federation now favour an economic link with Britain's Prime Minister, Mr. Butler, said in a general way on his return from Salisbury after a two-week tour of the Federation for talks with civil and political leaders.

He told reporters at London Airport: "There is a general view on both sides that a new form of association would be preferable to the present one."

Talking about the new form of association between Southern Rhodesia, Northern Rhodesia and Nyasaland, Mr. Butler said: "There is a wide agreement on the basis of an economic association, but it is not clear whether people I met want to have some other type of association, that is what we have to agree about."

Ties brought great benefit

Mr. Butler said his new constitutional conference on the Federation's future would be called "until there had been extensive preliminary talks."

He said the Government of the Federation were all forward-looking and that "there is a great deal of criticism of the present Federation, but what is encouraging is that people realize that the time which has passed has been a great benefit."

Mr. Butler said the new form of association would be a "new form of association, that is what we have to agree about."

HOTEL MANAGER TOLD TO GO Settlers show they still apply

Threats after incident of locked gates

THREATS that he would be thrown out of Kenya as soon as independence was achieved were heaped last night by the manager of the hotel on Mr. R. Duffy. The threats were from an incident at the hotel on Saturday. Mr. Duffy said last night: "They were mad because I was a Kikuyu supporter and they had just got out from Kenya."

The threats were contained in a joint statement issued by the general secretary of Kenya, Mr. T. J. Mboya, and the union's executive officer, Mr. M. Kibuka, after a party led by the Kenya president, Mr. Kenyatta, had allegedly been locked out of the hotel's grounds.

Commenting at the time they remained unshaken on board on arrival after a political meeting on Saturday afternoon.

COMPLAINED TO POLICE

Mr. Mboya soon afterwards complained to the police at Kisumu about the entanglement which the party had had with the hotel. He said that Kibuka would not accept responsibility for the breaking of the agreement.

After Mr. Mboya had spoken to the police, he and Mr. Kibuka issued the statement that Mr. Duffy would not wait till independence to tell them they had been locked out of the hotel grounds on Friday but had been told they were not to be allowed in.

Commenting on this last night, the hotel manager said the hotel was not open on Friday. He said that the Commission of Enquiry into the Kikuyu case was also not open on Friday. Dr. Nyerere warns of second scramble for Africa

DANGER OF NEW IMPERIALISM

Afro-Asian partners must not intrigue

Standard Staff Reporter

Dr. Nyerere of Tanganyika yesterday told the Afro-Asian Conference that the new imperialism in Africa should not be a by-product of the cold war.

"It is too easy to attack the imperialists and leave it all that to every child at school can do. We must not develop a fixation about imperialism as some of us seem to be doing."

"The first safeguard for the maintenance of unity was that an Afro-Asian States' Agency, ignored this and was justly angry at the imperialists of doing. The moment any of them began to interfere in the internal affairs of another free country or to intrigue with disintegrating groups or to set off the instigation of a puppet government, the second safeguard against the new imperialism was the greatest safeguard against it."

Each country should respect the right of the people of other countries to have the government they wanted, and do not try to interfere to interfere in their internal affairs. For instance, allow ourselves to be party to any of them.

Mr. Nyerere did not care a whit whether the United States started a brother government on the grounds that it was an "imperialist scourge" or on the grounds that it was a "Communist scourge."

CHINA ATTACKED AT MOSHI

Applause for India from delegates

Standard Staff Reporter, Mombasa.
WHILE African delegates clapped and applauded, Chinese at the Afro-Asian solidarity conference at Mombasa yesterday when the leader of the Indian representatives spoke out against Chinese action in the border dispute.

Dewan Charan Lal told the conference: "Words must not be twisted to mean something entirely different from their accepted connotation. Peace is peace. War is war. Aggression is aggression."

In spite of India's strict adherence to the principle of general non-alignment, this grew colder has been shown by the principles of non-alignment and world peace.

Threat to walk out
 It is understood that the Chinese delegation had threatened to walk out of the conference if the Indians strongly attacked their over the border dispute between China and India.

Nevertheless, India instead of using the matter up strongly during previous committee sessions, the Indian speech was obviously critical of China or rather of the Chinese Government.

It had been a warning to the Chinese Government that its attitude might be seen to be a policy of peaceful co-existence.

Song and dance
 An official announcement of a planned entertainment programme for the Afro-Asian conference has been made.

Thuru without wealth means nothing — Minister

SITE WORK ON MAIROBI'S NEW £200,000 HOTEL

Nairobi bus workers go back today

WHATEVER party came into power after the election in Kenya would have to grapple with hard realities of life and wealth that political stability and economic resurgence were essential, the Minister for Commerce and Industry, Mr. Malina, said yesterday.

Mr. Malina, who was opening the annual meeting of the Royal Agricultural Society of Kenya, stressed that independence without wealth meant worth nothing — a reality that was dawdling daily on various stages as they emerged from colonial status into independence.

Kenya was bound to suffer, temporarily, from economic instability, but he was sure that after the situation through world return to normal, he said that the society's contribution to the development of the agricultural industry in Kenya was vital.

UNIQUE ATMOSPHERE

What was of equal importance to him as Minister for Commerce was that society's contribution to trade and industry in their widest sense. Through the medium of the society's shows, trade and agriculture were brought together and their common interests were highlighted and promoted.

It was interesting to say that the Royal Show, the climax of the agricultural year, was merely a trade show with some agricultural displays. The unique atmosphere of the show was basically agricultural and should always stay that way.

The Royal Show, which was held in Nairobi, was a unique atmosphere. It was a trade show with some agricultural displays. The unique atmosphere of the show was basically agricultural and should always stay that way.

M.C.C. ROBBED OF DOUBLE

State tail-enders stave off defeat

VICTORIA'S last pair of batsmen stayed for 16 minutes to force a draw with the M.C.C. at Melbourne yesterday and prevented them from completing a double.

The possibility of victory which developed for the tourists was a surprise. The pitch was playing easily when Victoria were in for their second innings 386 runs behind and the eighth wicket pair for 82 with minimum time to go. The M.C.C. could only come under it.

The terms of the proposed adjustment strike has been advised at Nairobi airport on February 14th of the Communist Party of Kenya. The party's members and labourers at the airport will be required to return to work under the terms of the settlement, which is a 'suspension' of the strike. It is stated that the settlement will be on a 'without prejudice' basis. The K.F.L. has a right to refuse to accept the settlement if it is not to the satisfaction of the K.F.L. members and labourers at the airport. Peak services normal as busmen go back

BUS services in Nairobi returned to their normal yesterday, and peak-period services were scheduled. Of the 100 buses which will take most days to get back to normal.

The general manager of Kenya Bus Services, Mr. F. Brick, said that after a week there was having found all other ways to keep the bus services running. Only time would tell how many passengers the bus companies had lost.

SECRETARY COMPLAINS

The general secretary of the Kenya Federation of Labour, Mr. F. Kibaki, complained bitterly yesterday about the part the Ministry for Labour, Mr. J. M. Mwangi, played in an earlier agreement.

The new agreement was between the drivers and federation officials, he said.

Speaking of the failure of the strikers to return after an earlier agreement arranged by the K.F.L., he said that the general secretary of the Transport and Allied Workers' Union, Mr. W. R. Kariuki, had sought Mr. Mwangi's touch and he was not only a party to it but also instrumental to it.

Mr. Kibaki said that the Ministry for Labour had allowed the strikers to return to work on the condition that they should be paid for the time they were out of work.

He said that the strikers were not only paid for the time they were out of work but also for the time they were out of work.

NO THREATS

Kenya's Labour Minister, Mr. J. M. Mwangi, yesterday said that he had no intention of using the threat of a general election to force the strikers to return to work.

He said that the strikers were not only paid for the time they were out of work but also for the time they were out of work.

PRESIDENT CLUIDES INVESTORS

No excuse for wait and see attitude

The Governments of Tanganyika and Uganda, and also all the prominent politicians of Kenya, had declared many times that their policy was to favour their countries and that in doing so they needed private investment but they must have abroad, Dr. Nyereere added.

Opening the annual meeting of the Association of Chambers of Commerce of East Africa, the President said that the Tanganyika Government had given more credit to their country than they had given to any other country. He said that the Government had given more credit to their country than they had given to any other country.

'We cannot sit back'

There is a great deal to be done in Tanganyika. The combined resources of the Government and private investors are inadequate to do all the things which must be done in this country. It is therefore, the Government wishes to work with private investors for the development of Tanganyika. But the Government cannot and will not sit back and do nothing in order to reassure investors.

Tanganyika wants capital investment simply and mainly to improve the lives of the people. This implied a limitation on the purposes and practices of private investment. Private capital could not just "take it and run". It must be used to improve the lives of the people. It must be used to improve the lives of the people.

Bachelor boy sings to the Starehe boys

CLUB HALL TO BEAR CLIFF RICHARD'S NAME

CLIFF RICHARD sang a welcome to boys at the Starehe Boys' Centre in Nairobi yesterday. He had just been told that the new dining hall — part of a £12,000 extension programme — was to be named after him.

Wearing a black suit and black tie, he appeared round to the warmth of the boys' welcome and the excitement of an occasion for one of the young men at Starehe, Mr. Geoffrey Gathoni. It was noted that a ball named after the singer and 1-1000000 is a great honor indeed.

"I hope it will not be long before we come back again. I am usually glad to be back. I have my guitar here. I don't usually bring it to the club, but now I have my guitar with me."

Mr. Richard, who is the singer Bachelor Boy from the stage of the Starehe Boys' Centre, also presented the Starehe Boys' Centre with a number of records and a number of books. He was accompanied by the Starehe Boys' Centre, Mr. Geoffrey Gathoni, Mrs. Dorothy Hagan, and the Starehe Boys' Centre, Mr. Geoffrey Gathoni.

George Wainyo, one of the Starehe boys who went to England to study music, had also been there with him. Mr. Gathoni had the club ready to welcome him. The singer thanked for Cliff Richard's singing at Starehe. The children had to be back every day at 10 o'clock. At Starehe, singing and dancing had to be done for a month for each boy.

Cliff Richard had the money to buy the children on the way to Starehe. Mr. Gathoni's mother, Mrs. Gathoni, had told him that he would like to see his son. K.F.L. TO JOIN ELECTION FRAY

No. quarrel with trade unions, says Minister

The Kenya Federation of Labour will sponsor and support which is necessary any individual who wishes to contest a seat at the forthcoming elections, the federation's acting general secretary, Mr. P. Kibuka, said today.

Mr. Kibuka said that although the Minister for Labour, Mr. Moya, at Mombasa at the weekend that trade unionists should not quarrel with the Minister himself, but rather support him in his capacity as Minister for Labour, and that the Minister himself had gained personal popularity through the labour movement. He had been a trade unionist and a politician simultaneously for a long time.

The K.F.L. would consider contesting election at all levels and would give serious consideration, in urban areas there were against trade unions to be moved in Parliament, for the trade union vote to be secured in Parliament.

Suppression fear 'baseless'

Earlier yesterday, Mr. Moya had said that suggestions made by Mr. Kibuka and the secretary of the Dockworkers Union, Mr. D. Akumu, that they feared trade unions would be suppressed were without foundation. He added that he would not dispute between him as Minister for Labour and the trade union movement, and believed that any such thing should be done to preserve the labour movement in Kenya.

Trade unionists who wished to contest election could do so through their respective parties or as independent candidates but should not stand as trade union candidates. Any attempt to convert unions into political parties would be disapproved by the party.

The other Mr. Akumu and Mr. Akumu had said yesterday that they would not stand as independent candidates but would stand as trade union candidates. Mr. Akumu said that he would stand as a trade union candidate in the constituency of Mombasa.

Pitch at Sydney will be 'beauty'

DESPITE recent heavy rain, the pitch for Friday's fifth test at Sydney should be a beauty.

It should help the fast bowlers in the first hour or so of the match and then settle down into a perfect pitch.

That is the opinion of the umpire, Alfred Faulkner, who has been signalling the work for the last batsman.

It will be a pity that the weather will be a little better than the pitch.

PETER BURGE HITS 54

Peter Burge, who is the Australian 12 to meet England in the fifth test, scored an impressive 54 not out for Queensland in a match at Brisbane.

The batsman, who is a member of the Queensland cricket team, has only one other test match in his record.

QUEEN'S A MAJORITY OF TITLE

Queen's University, Belfast, has won the title of the English F.A. Cup for the 10th year in a row.

David Allen probable for final Test

THE opening but Geoff Fuller, who injured his leg 13 days ago, to inaugurate summer the 12 England players named yesterday for the 5th Test against Australia, but it is extremely doubtful that he will play. The vital wicket, which will decide the Ashes, begins at Sydney tomorrow.

If Fuller is unfit, then the team will show only one change from the side which drew the fourth Test at Adelaide. The newcomer would be David Allen, the Gloucestershire batsman of 16, bowler and right-handed bats, who has not played in the current series.

Favourite to spin in England tonight was David Shepherd in Colin Cowdrey, who began the team as opener led relinquishing the position which was occupied by him. Now the Kent batsman is going well, and is the best-equipped batsman to prosper in Australia. Alan Davidson, Australia's Alan Davidson, who played a final Test in England, is also a possibility.

England take all day to score 195 in Test BARRINGTON TO THE RESCUE Painstaking century averts disaster

RESCUED FROM threatened collapse by a Test Barrington century, England took all day to score 195 in the opening day of the decisive fifth Test match against Australia in Sydney yesterday.

Making allowances for early slacks—England lost their first two wickets in the first hour of a dreary partnership. But at least Barrington's resolute 100 rescued England from the shadow of disaster.

The pitch was perhaps too slow to encourage scoring. The aid of Colin Cowdrey in the last hours left the match hanging tight, and Australia looked slower than the circumstances warranted.
