VARYING RATIO OF SEATS TO VOTES

IN a recent session the composition of the various political parties were revealed and it was clear that the varying ratio of seats to votes was a significant factor in the political process.

Letters to the Editor

Political parties
In the recent session the composition of the various political parties were revealed and it was clear that the varying ratio of seats to votes was a significant factor in the political process. This was particularly evident in the case of the United African Party (UAP) and the Kenya African National Union (KANU). The UAP, which has a large number of seats, has a relatively small number of votes, while KANU, which has a smaller number of seats, has a larger number of votes. This is a clear indication of the varying ratio of seats to votes, which is a significant factor in the political process.

Youthium may get boost in Lords

MR. JAMES GARDNER, the Conservative member of the House of Lords, is likely to get a boost in the number of his constituents when the Government introduces a Bill to increase the number of members of the House of Lords. Mr. Gardner is one of the few members of the House of Lords who are not members of the House of Commons. He is a member of the House of Lords by virtue of his position as a member of the House of Commons. He is a member of the House of Lords by virtue of his position as a member of the House of Commons.

MORE WORM DRENCH ARRIVES

MR. JAMES GARDNER, the Conservative member of the House of Lords, is likely to get a boost in the number of his constituents when the Government introduces a Bill to increase the number of members of the House of Lords. ## HARD FACTS ON KENYA

THE first anniversary of Kenya's independence is being celebrated in a spirit of optimism and confidence. The country has made a remarkable record in the first year of its freedom. It has established a reputation for honesty and integrity in its dealings with the world. It has shown a capacity for self-government and a determination to build a better future for its people.

The Government has taken a number of steps to improve the country's economy and social conditions. It has introduced a number of reforms in the education system, the health services, and the legal system. It has also taken steps to improve the country's infrastructure, including the roads, the ports, and the telecommunications system.

The people of Kenya have shown a great capacity for self-government and a determination to build a better future for their country. They have shown a willingness to work together and to overcome the difficulties of their new independence. They have shown a capacity for self-government and a determination to build a better future for their country.

Reconstruction before development

THE first step in the reconstruction of Kenya is the improvement of the country's infrastructure. This includes the roads, the ports, and the telecommunications system. The Government has taken a number of steps to improve these services, including the construction of new roads, the expansion of the port facilities, and the improvement of the telecommunications system.

The second step is the improvement of the country's economy. This includes the development of the agriculture, the industry, and the services sectors. The Government has taken a number of steps to improve these sectors, including the introduction of new technologies, the expansion of the credit facilities, and the improvement of the legal system.

The third step is the improvement of the country's social conditions. This includes the development of the education system, the health services, and the housing services. The Government has taken a number of steps to improve these services, including the construction of new schools, the expansion of the health services, and the improvement of the housing services.

WELL ENDOVED

THE people of Kenya are well endowed with natural resources. They have a rich supply of minerals, including the copper, the iron, and the uranium. They also have a rich supply of agricultural products, including the coffee, the tea, and the sisal. The Government has taken a number of steps to improve the country's natural resources, including the construction of new mines, the expansion of the agricultural services, and the improvement of the legal system.

N.C.C. TO TOUR

Cavaliers in Nairobi game next month

THE celebration of months of hard committee work and a voluminous correspondence was resumed yesterday when the final meeting of the Kenya and Uganda by an N.C.C. side were completed.

This will take place in October but a more immediate treat for Kenya cricketers will be a one-day match against the Commonwealth Cavaliers XI at the Sixth United ground in Nairobi next month.

The offer of Mr. R. A. Babin, for a friendly match against the Commonwealth Cavaliers on Wednesday, April 3, is conditional upon the team's consisting both of Kenyan and Ugandan cricketers and of England captain.

ENGLAND SAIL TO TEST VICTORY

ENGLAND are sailing through their short cricket tour of New Zealand without anything to halt their easy progress. Their three successive days at Wellington yesterday were their best since they were second Test three days ago, when they were bowled out for 100 runs. On Friday they made a three-day test of their Otago side, and on the following day they beat the Canterbury side by 100 runs. The tour is expected to be completed by the end of the month. ## Jugoslavs not satisfied with T.T. seedings

THE Yugoslav Table Tennis Association has protested over the seedings for the men's World Cup team event in the world table tennis championships to be held in Prague from April 5-14. It was reported in Belgrade.

The official Yugoslav news agency, Titus, said the protest had been sent to Mr. Ivor Montagu, British president of the International Table Tennis Federation (ITTF). Jugoslavs are seeded No. 2 behind China, the holders in one of the four groups for the team event. The top seeds in each group filled the first four places of the last championships in Peking in 1951.

The Yugoslavs, who finished 10th in 1951, are disappointed that it is customary to assign the top seeds to the same group. They are particularly annoyed because they were seeded No. 2 behind China, the holders in one of the four groups for the team event. The top seeds in each group filled the first four places of the last championships in Peking in 1951.

K.O.S.A. DO WELL AT MOMBASA
 K.O.S.A. (Kenya Open Sports Association) party which visited Mombasa at the weekend generally got the better of their Coast Group opponents, winning five of the seven matches, but losing at soccer.

Mr. SANDYS IN TALKS ON N.F.D. SUDANESE SYSTEM PRAISED

K. decision before Kenya self-rule

RIVAL GROUPS SPEAK

Mr. Sandys will decide the Northern Frontier District issue before Kenya achieves self-government. The Government has announced that it will not discuss the N.F.D. issue until Kenya has attained self-government. This decision has been met with mixed feelings in the N.F.D. area. Some feel that the Government is being fair, while others believe that the N.F.D. people should have their say before any decision is made.

STAND-BY DENIED

Mr. Sandys has denied reports that he would stand by the Government's decision on the N.F.D. issue. He stated that he would continue to work for a fair and equitable solution to the problem. He also mentioned that he would be in touch with the N.F.D. people and their representatives to ensure that their views are fully considered.

All four members of the N.F.D. Executive Council have expressed their support for Mr. Sandys's approach. They believe that a negotiated settlement is the best way forward. However, some N.F.D. leaders are still skeptical and demand more concrete guarantees before they can accept any proposal.

Mr. Sandys has also mentioned that he would be in touch with the N.F.D. people and their representatives to ensure that their views are fully considered. He stated that he would continue to work for a fair and equitable solution to the problem.

Britain wants to get out quickly

Mr. Sandys has expressed his desire for a quick and peaceful settlement of the N.F.D. issue. He stated that the British Government is committed to a policy of non-interference and will support any arrangement that brings about a stable and independent Kenya.

Threat of strike is dropped

The N.F.D. people have decided to drop their threat of a strike. They have agreed to continue their negotiations with the Government. This decision has been welcomed by both sides, as it shows a willingness to reach a peaceful resolution.

Mr. Sandys has expressed his appreciation for the N.F.D. people's decision. He stated that he would continue to work for a fair and equitable solution to the problem. He also mentioned that he would be in touch with the N.F.D. people and their representatives to ensure that their views are fully considered.

FORCES MUST STAY CALL

The Government has called for the N.F.D. forces to remain in their current positions. It stated that the N.F.D. people should continue to work for a peaceful settlement of their problem. The Government also mentioned that it would continue to support any arrangement that brings about a stable and independent Kenya.

udent plea

The N.F.D. students have expressed their support for the Government's approach to the N.F.D. issue. They stated that they would continue their studies and would not be involved in any political activities. This decision has been welcomed by both sides, as it shows a willingness to reach a peaceful resolution.

THE SUDANESE SYSTEM PRAISED

The Sudanese system of government has been praised by many observers. It is seen as a model of stability and progress in a developing country. The system is based on a strong central government and a decentralized local administration. This has allowed the Sudan to maintain a high level of political and economic stability.

One region

One region of the Sudan has been identified as a key area for development. This region is rich in natural resources and has a large population. The Government has announced that it will invest heavily in this region to improve its infrastructure and economic conditions.

The Commonwealth and Colonial Secretaries

The Commonwealth and Colonial Secretaries have met to discuss the N.F.D. issue. They have agreed to continue their negotiations and to work for a peaceful resolution of the problem. The Secretaries also mentioned that they would continue to support any arrangement that brings about a stable and independent Kenya.

Very happy

Mr. Sandys has expressed his satisfaction with the progress of the N.F.D. negotiations. He stated that he was very happy to see the N.F.D. people and their representatives working together to reach a peaceful resolution. He also mentioned that he would continue to work for a fair and equitable solution to the problem.

300 WOMEN PROTEST AT GIN RAIDS

A group of 300 women have protested against the Government's gin raids. They stated that the raids were unfair and that they were being used to suppress the N.F.D. people. The women demanded that the Government stop the raids and that they be allowed to continue their negotiations.

THE FORGOTTEN DICTATOR

The N.F.D. people have been referred to as 'the forgotten dictator'. This is because they have been ignored by the Government and the Commonwealth. They have been denied their right to self-determination and have been treated as a conquered people.

Three to be executed

Three N.F.D. leaders have been sentenced to execution. They were found guilty of treason and were executed by a military court. This decision has been widely condemned by the N.F.D. people and their supporters. They believe that the execution is a violation of human rights.

Prison strike

A strike has been called by the N.F.D. prisoners in the Kenyan prisons. The prisoners are protesting against their poor conditions and the lack of food. They demand that the Government improve their conditions and that they be allowed to continue their negotiations.

Pact aimed at wrecking talks - Mr. Nehru

Mr. Nehru has accused the Indian Prime Minister of trying to wreck the talks between India and Pakistan. He stated that the Indian Government is trying to force a settlement on the N.F.D. issue without the consent of the N.F.D. people. He also mentioned that he would continue to work for a fair and equitable solution to the problem.

7,000 U.N. TROOPS TO LEAVE

The United Nations has announced that 7,000 troops will be withdrawn from the N.F.D. area. This decision has been welcomed by both sides, as it shows a willingness to reach a peaceful resolution. The troops will be replaced by a smaller force to maintain stability in the region.

Kanu announces its candidates

The Kenya African National Union (KANU) has announced its candidates for the upcoming elections. The candidates include Mr. J. M. Oginga Odinga, Mr. J. K. Njoroge, and Mr. J. M. W. Njoroge. KANU has stated that it is committed to a policy of non-interference and will support any arrangement that brings about a stable and independent Kenya.

Remaining one

One N.F.D. leader remains in the Kenyan prisons. He is being held in solitary confinement and is being treated poorly. The N.F.D. people and their supporters are demanding that he be released and that he be allowed to continue his negotiations.

Support for Asha

There is widespread support for Asha in the N.F.D. area. She is seen as a symbol of resistance and a champion of the N.F.D. people's cause. Her arrest and the subsequent events have galvanized the N.F.D. people and their supporters.

Prison strike

A strike has been called by the N.F.D. prisoners in the Kenyan prisons. The prisoners are protesting against their poor conditions and the lack of food. They demand that the Government improve their conditions and that they be allowed to continue their negotiations.

Major problems still unresolved when Market talks ended

A REPORT by the European Common Market's Executive Commission on the negotiations on the European Community's tariff reduction to join the Market, ended in Brussels, showed that a number of major items remained to be solved when the talks were brought to an end last January.

The 15-page report was drawn up at the demand of the European Parliament by M. Jean Dauterive, French leader of the Commission's negotiating team at expert level.

It pointed out that the Commission's negotiating team had to be satisfied with the progress made during the negotiations, but that a number of major items remained to be solved when the talks were brought to an end last January.

GENERAL ELECTIONS IN KENYA
NORFOLK HOTEL
Kilimanjaro Road, Nairobi

KENYA GENERAL ELECTION MAY 18-26 Decisions on N.F.D., Coast and Kitale

General Election will be held between May 18 and 26.

No comment - Mr. Muliro

Mr. Muliro, Minister for Lands and Settlements, said today that he had no comment to make on the decision of the Cabinet to hold the general election between May 18 and 26. He said that the decision was a matter for the Government and that he was not in a position to comment on it. He said that the Government was determined to hold the election as soon as possible and that he was confident that the results would be a fair reflection of the views of the people.

The Commonwealth and Colonial Secretary, Mr. Sandhu, looking at the statement of last night's Press Conference of the Government of Kenya (left) Mr. Jomo Kenyatta and (right) Mr. Ronald Ngugi. Mr. Sandhu will leave Nairobi by air for London this morning.

Syrian army seizes power

Syrian army officers proclaimed today the formation of a new government. The army officers, led by General Hafez Assad, have taken control of Damascus and other parts of the country. They have declared that they are committed to a policy of national unity and economic development.

The end column

The end of the world as we know it is near, according to a new book. The book, 'The End of the World', by a group of scientists, predicts that the world will end within the next few years. The scientists say that the world is being destroyed by a combination of factors, including nuclear war and environmental damage.

More freedom

The report of the Commission on the Constitution has recommended that there should be more freedom of expression in Kenya. The Commission says that the Government should allow more freedom of the press and of public opinion. It also recommends that there should be more freedom of movement for people living in the rural areas.

Acute problem

The acute problem of housing in Kenya is being discussed by the Government. The Government says that it is aware of the problem and is taking steps to solve it. It has announced that it will build more houses and that it will provide more land for housing. It also says that it will provide more financial assistance to private builders.

Both sides satisfied

Both sides were satisfied with the results of the meeting. The meeting was held between the Government and the opposition parties. The Government says that it is satisfied with the results of the meeting and that it is committed to a policy of national unity. The opposition parties also say that they are satisfied with the results of the meeting and that they are committed to a policy of national unity.

ALL QUIET IN MOCANSHU

All quiet in Mochanhu. The situation in Mochanhu is stable and peaceful. There are no reports of any disturbances or violence. The Government says that it is committed to a policy of national unity and economic development in Mochanhu.

The weather

The weather is generally good today. There is a light breeze and the sun is shining. The temperature is in the mid-twenties. There are no reports of any rain or other weather conditions.

You give your baby the gift of LIFE

Now give health, strength, happiness

A new baby baby has a vital foundation of strength. Give it to him before he is born. Give him the gift of life. Give him the gift of health. Give him the gift of happiness. Give him the gift of life. Give him the gift of health. Give him the gift of happiness.

How can YOUR baby be sure of getting these vitamins?

Of course, and here all and every baby gets them. But how can you be sure that your baby gets them? The answer is HALIBORANGE. It is the only baby food that contains the vitamins A, D, and C in baby's proportions. It gives deliciously sweet and creamy orange juice, but with every drop of it, and babies and babies, children, children, children.

The first step to healthy childhood

O TAGO DISMISSED FOR 116

Trueman takes five 'without exertion'

THE M.C.C. continued to steam-roll their way through New Zealand yesterday when they crushed an Otago Invitational XI for 116 runs in Hamilton. In Dunedin, the tourists had to contend with a very fast and accurate play Steacie, before the close.

An hour and a half had also been lost at the start while the ground was being worked over. The Englishmen, most of whom thought they were back home, then all went at least two wickets apiece to keep out the biting cold wind.

It was not until 10.30 that the batsmen had to take from a ball which was bowled by the opening bowler, the fast bowler, who bowled the opening ball. Bowler.

Council Cup goes to Impala Club

IMPALA beat Parklands in the final of the Council City Hockey competition at Nairobi City last night by three goals to one after leading by 2-0 at half-time.
