BRITAIN FACING WORLD CRITICISM

The European unity manifesto

ATTLEE NOT EXPECTED TO REFUDIATE PARTY POLICY

It is considered if a party and not a Cabinet matter, reports from London yesterday said that it was understood that the Government will not repudiate the Labour Party manifesto on European unity.

During the weekend, the Prime Minister, Mr. C. R. Attlee, and the Foreign Secretary, Mr. Ernest Bevin, who is a member of the Government, are expected to discuss the world crisis in a meeting with the members of the British Government and British Labour Party on European integration with the Schuman Plan in particular.

The Government claims that the Labour statement does not repudiate the Government's policy on European unity, but still contains the fact that the Labour Party manifesto contains unparliamentary Cabinet Ministers, including Mr. Attlee.

It is further said that there is no intention to repudiate the manifesto, but to discuss it and some reports suggest that the Government may be prepared to discuss the manifesto in the House of Commons.

The manifesto, which was published in the House of Commons on Saturday, contains a number of proposals for the reconstruction of Europe, including the establishment of a European Council, a European Parliament, and a European Court of Justice.

The manifesto also calls for the abolition of national frontiers and the establishment of a common market for goods and services.

PIECEGOODS DEMAND IN TANGANYIKA: KENYA TRADING QUIET IN MAY

Quiet conditions prevailed in most areas in Kenya during May, although Mombasa reports that a heavy demand for piecegoods from Tanganyika developed during the second half of the month, says the Standard Bank of South Africa.

The news that the Government will probably not issue further licences for piecegoods until July coupled with the anticipation that no supplies from India will reach East Africa before the end of June, has revived the local market and merchants are feeling easier regarding their stocks.

Commissioners continue to be optimistic over the general recovery of the country, but the position of the business is sound. Money is tight, however, all round.

Adequate rains have fallen in an area with the exception of Kitale, where they are reported "patchy" and some farmers have found it necessary to plough in young maize and replace the sowing from seedling crops.

Stock exchange prices... The following were the prices of selected stocks in the London Stock Exchange on June 10.

182-04,000 pounds, compared with 192-02,000 pounds last year. Wessons in 1948 imports averaged a surplus of about 21.5 million pounds over consumption. This year there has been a surplus of 18.5 million pounds on British stocks.

JAPANESE cotton leaders have covered an agreement that "competition" is maintained throughout their trading operations.

Stock exchange prices... The following were the prices of selected stocks in the London Stock Exchange on June 10.

TEA IMPORTS... The tea import statistics for 1952 in Kenya are as follows: 1,184,000 pounds, compared with 1,137,000 pounds in 1951.

On the other hand, consumption in a calculated figure indicates heavy requirements that releases for export last August show, has gone 100 to 150 per cent.

The Convention of British and Southern Rhodesia, adds the Portuguese Government, has agreed not to interfere either directly or indirectly and to take all reasonable steps within their power to prevent any discrimination in the territories in which the convention applies.

Advvisory board... The Government has expressed their recognition of the importance of the development of Beira and the surrounding area.

DEFENCE OF THE WEST

FACTS, not theories, have dictated the new policy of specialisation.

By ANTHONY DREWRY

EUROPEAN statesmen are not now sorting out the decisions which were taken at the meetings of the Atlantic Council in London last month.

One of them, the decision to build up "balanced collective forces" in the defence of the West, is being given the most serious consideration by the American Secretary of State, Mr. Acheson.

Rain mars King's Birthday celebrations at Kampala
The timing of the arrivals for the distribution of the King's Birthday Honours at the Sports Club at Kampala on June 22nd has not been very accurate. Unfortunately however, as H.R. the Acting Governor arrived punctually at 10:30 a.m. a heavy rain deluge was experienced...
The band of the Uganda Police were also on parade and supplied the music for the occasion. H.R. inspected the Grand Honour Club to return, very shortly the honours were distributed. The presentation of the honours was made by His Honour the Chief Justice and a number of other officers...
The guests who were invited to the party were: H.E. the Acting Governor and Mrs. Porter to a grand party on the afternoon of the 23rd. June in the grounds of Government House...

TACKLING THE PROBLEM OF RUINED LANDS

ALTHOUGH various opinions were expressed as to timing, a nobody spoke against the motion proposed by Mr. C. F. Christopher (Kisumu) at the Executive Union Conference in Nairobi this afternoon. The recurrent famines and rapidly increasing erosion in East Africa demand large-scale measures of land reclamation and reclamation.

Speaking of the Kilnoy Land Trust, Mr. Christopher quoted figures to illustrate the vast areas of eroded lands which could not be reclaimed.

"Something like 100,000 acres in the River Valley," he said. "People, some of them, are optimistic in their views. To talk of more land for the African was merely a question of would they do it or not. They had to be convinced of a programme of reclamation of the river, and also of eroding the damming of certain rivers."

"A desert" Mr. Mousley, speaking of the vastness of the area, said it used to be one of the most fertile areas in Kenya and it was "literally a desert." It was on the planning of the area that Europeans had been sent there to tell them what to do.

The Mombasa District Association had written the Government over 21 years ago what the position was in the River Valley.

The Mombasa scheme was specifically with a view to some 20,000 acres of eroded land, a diagram, it was said, showed the river valley and some 20,000 acres of eroded land which would be reclaimed if the Government would do it.

In some European areas were not being done so properly," he urged the Executive Members to urge their firms properly.

Mr. E. Bowley then asked the African to look after the soil if they were not to look after the soil.

Mr. J. Marshall said that the Government should do it.

Mr. P. H. Marshall (M.C.) said that the Government should do it.

AUSTRALIA IS RECOVERING FAST

Favored by a run of good weather, Australia is making spectacular recovery in many ways following through the storm which occurred between 1948-9.

When adverse weather came to Australia they took heavy toll of livestock and crops. The last of these was a drought in 1949. The drought was a decline in sheep and wool. From the decline sheep and wool in 1949.

By 1949 drought had dragged down to 50 million. The sheep in 1949 was about 115 million. The wool in 1949 was about 115 million.

COPIED DESIGNS ARE TOO EXTREME

British designers fail to combine suitability and style when they slavishly copy Paris trends, says ELSA M. SANDERS in her London letter:

we of all wool, carefully moulded in the design and best for greater detail, to ensure that no glances to last while the wearer disperses breath in the water.

Short hair

Most of the shortcomings at the recent dress shows kept their feet, but, for an unusual styling comes from a hair stylist in London. The very copies with it as the model as if they permit an originality in their treatment, as it is considered troubling that their hair should be broken as they do healthily.

Long-haired hair, gathered, the most and a short, lustrous effect by using gowns, and to which the hair is twisted and tightly twisted. The hair is twisted and tightly twisted. The hair is twisted and tightly twisted.

HAT STYLES

A MILLINER who appears to have anticipated the trend in latest season's millinery. Her work, however, is not so much a copy of the hat as it is a copy of the hat.

Well-tailored jeans and a corresponding jacket are the latest in men's casual wear. The jacket is made of a light material and is very comfortable and fits and suits and too many buttons.

Brief and bare

It is not every woman who can afford to wear a dress that is brief and bare, and, for an unusual styling comes from a hair stylist in London. The very copies with it as the model as if they permit an originality in their treatment, as it is considered troubling that their hair should be broken as they do healthily.

PARIS INTRODUces FASHION NOTES

That the London Fashion Fortnight is over a better perspective of what is to be seen in the coming months.

The models shown in the fashion shows were not only beautiful, but they were also very smart. They were wearing the latest in fashion, and they were looking very well.

Wood is news. This is the second year that the Fashion Fortnight has been held in London, and it has been a great success. The models were very beautiful, and they were wearing the latest in fashion.

ACHIEVEMENTS IN ATOMIC SCIENCE

side of atoms is so acid the civilization of Greece. But it was only the beginning of the 20th century that it was recognized as a new force and meaning in Dalton, the son of a landlord weaver, had convinced himself by experiments on the preparation of a compound, that it was not a simple substance, but a compound of atoms. Dalton's atoms were not particles, but spheres of atoms, and he was not aware of the fact that each atom is made up of a nucleus and electrons, that the nucleus is made of protons and neutrons, that the electrons are made of smaller particles, and that the atoms are made up of a nucleus and electrons.

From 1805 to 1950 From pollen to plutonium

Professor NORMAN FEATHER, author of the biography of Lord Rutherford, the 'father of modern atomic' tells the fascinating story of the development of atomic energy.

About the same time Rutherford's experiments were directed to events taking place in the nucleus of atoms, and the work of Rutherford and his collaborators showed how the study of the same phenomenon is rich harvest of scientific discovery.

By 1911 Rutherford was able to show that the nucleus of an atom is positively charged, and that the electrons are negatively charged. This discovery was the first step towards the discovery of the atomic structure of matter.

Lord Rutherford, who split the atom at Cavendish Laboratory, Cambridge in 1919.

HE TAUGHT THE ELEPHANTS NOT TO FORGET

HERE is one of the most exciting and delightful books to be read in the world. It is a book which tells the story of a man who spent a considerable period of years living in a bush in the heart of the African continent in a circus - and I imagine that adds up to hundreds of thousands. Every word is true, and every chapter an adventure.

Shortly after the first world war a young man named M. Williams, hunting for employment, found the bush in the African continent. He spent his time in the bush, and he was not only a hunter but also a writer. He wrote a book about his experiences in the bush, and it was called "The Elephant and the Boy".

One of the fascinating illustrations from "Elephant Bill". Here a determined hunter rolls a log over a tree trunk to get to the elephant.

With this somewhat unorthodox and unorthodox method of hunting, he was able to get a large number of elephants. He was not only a hunter but also a writer. He wrote a book about his experiences in the bush, and it was called "The Elephant and the Boy".

Marsh's tribute
The late Mr. Marsh was a well-known figure in the community. He was a man of many talents and a great leader. His death is a great loss to the community.

The great cat, often mistaken for a leopard, is a much larger animal altogether in the size of a small cat. A long slender animal with black spots on a yellow background is known as a cheetah. It is the terror of the gazelle but is a very shy animal and seldom attacks a man.

Seldom seen but frequently heard in hollow trees or thick foliage by the roadside is the screech owl. The screech owl is a very large owl with a very long tail and a very long neck. It is a very shy animal and seldom attacks a man.

BOGUS CHALLENGE TURNED FARMERS INTO MAGICIANS

There was a 'bull buster' at the Nairobi Rotary Club luncheon last week to hear Mr. Jasper Makenzie, the famous magician, talking on a stage.

After getting a large number of the art, which originated in China, Mr. Makenzie went off to delineate the careers of several of his horse-busters—many of whom achieved fame.

Next Makenzie was the Astro-nomer Royal in the time of George III and is credited with founding the National Academy. Another 'Makenzie' was A.C.C. in City of London at the time of the 'Boiler' which married Henry's sister, Margaret.

Prize not paid

The Makenzie family threw a challenge from farmers in the mid-Mitchell County in response to a challenge from the Makenzie brothers who offered $1,000 to anyone who could reproduce their act in three weeks.

The Makenzie did not fail to do so, but they never received the prize money.

Camouflage specialist

Although Mr. Makenzie says that the team in the family didn't have a father, he was himself a specialist in camouflage for the British Army during the war.

He is the only person in the world who has ever been a 'bull buster' and a 'camouflage specialist' at the same time.

AUSTRALIA ALSO HAS HER

The following article was written by Professor COPLAND, well-known economist and Vice-Chancellor of the Australian National University, and gives the picture to the current trend in Australia for production of the Australian E, now worth 16c.

With increased production of steel, iron and steel, breaks, and more and more, and in fact, an increased output of all these materials.

There are however other items which are being produced in Australia in quantities which are increasing...

Despite the obvious lag in certain sections of the economy, Australia is a relatively high producer of goods...

It is quite obvious that there are many things which are being produced in Australia in quantities which are increasing...
