STRUGGLE FOR SUPREMACY BECOMES FIERCER

Three sides level at top of Division I

THE new struggle for supremacy in Division I of the English League has become even fiercer as a result of Saturday's matches, which left the top seven sides separated by two points only.

Top-of-the-table Newcastle
 Darnley, the only unbeaten side in Division I, were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions. Although they took advantage of this slip to draw level on points with the Tyne-side, Newcastle were not without their own problems. In their second game, they were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions. Although they took advantage of this slip to draw level on points with the Tyne-side, Newcastle were not without their own problems. Great recovery
 Manchester City, however, were drawn through enough points to leave the latter to win and win in fact. In their second game, they were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions. Although they took advantage of this slip to draw level on points with the Tyne-side, Newcastle were not without their own problems. In their second game, they were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions.

Up the ladder

Size-adjusted Blackpool also moved up the ladder. In their second game, they were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions. Although they took advantage of this slip to draw level on points with the Tyne-side, Newcastle were not without their own problems. In their second game, they were held to a draw at Burnley on both occasions.

CHINA AND LAKE SUCCESS

WHERE DO we now stand regarding the admission of Communist China to the United Nations?

During the month when Mr. Malik, the Russian ambassador, presided at the Security Council meeting of the United Nations directed towards the United Nations?

It is a pity to see how the Kremlin gave this issue far more importance than it really has. In fact, the United Nations has not yet decided on the admission of Communist China to the United Nations.

Discredit
On the other hand it may be argued, the Chinese, since they are not yet admitted to the United Nations, are in a position to do nothing to help the United Nations.

A glance at their work will show that they are not only doing their best but also doing it with a certain amount of skill...

Another has held the show in his own hands and has been able to learn a trade thoroughly, and to build into his own craft.

So many Africans consider that the achievement of learning to read and write is the end of their education and that they are not to be troubled with any other subjects...

It would be interesting to know the number of students who are attending the school at the present time.

It is unfortunate that such good work is being done but that the results are not being made known to the public.

THOUSANDS OF AFRICANS ATTEND KIAMBU SHOW

Interest in latest farming methods

It was a field day for many thousands of Africans at the Kiambu Agricultural Show held at Kiambu on Saturday. Most of them had never seen the various classes of exhibits before.

There were many stalls where they were to observe the various classes of exhibits. The show was held on the grounds of the Kiambu Agricultural Show.

KOREA GAP CUT TO 25 MILES

Red rout on southern front

HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING IN CENTRE OF SEOUL

ALL American and Soviet Communists were yesterday in the heart of Seoul, Communist resistance against the United States driving from the south and was crumbling. Fighting was reported in the north and south to opening the trap on the Korean front, long held there by the Japanese.

It is reported that the Communists are now driving from the north and south to opening the trap on the Korean front, long held there by the Japanese.

As the Communists are being driven from the north and south to opening the trap on the Korean front, long held there by the Japanese.

Specular fest

The 1944-45 season of the 'Specular fest' is now under way. The festival is a series of events held in the city of Nanyuki, Kenya, and is a major attraction for the local population.

LABOUR PARTY HEADING FOR POLICY DISPUTE

Leftists want to see more Socialism

A MAJOR controversy is developing in the Labour Party in Great Britain over future policy. Pressure is building up on the left for a strong Socialist programme to be introduced in the King's speech at the opening of the new Parliament on October 31st. Such a programme would provide an ideological Parliamentary conflict, which it is urged should be taken to the country in a November election.

Mr. Amrita Bener, Minister of Labour, is understood to have taken the lead in the matter. He has written to the Prime Minister, Mr. Churchill, suggesting that the Labour Party should adopt a more Socialist policy.

Capital levy

At the bottom of the conflict are heavy differences on the issue of a capital levy. The Government programme for the next year is expected to include a capital levy of 10 per cent on the net assets of individuals with a net worth of more than £10,000.

Death duties changed will

Because British death duties are so high, it is expected that the Government will introduce a change in the law. The new law is expected to be introduced in the next few months.

Opinions diverge

There is a wide divergence of opinion in the Pacific area regarding the future of the region. The United States and the United Kingdom have different views on the matter.

FEARS that the price of clothing will rise again this year are being expressed by clothiers. They predict that the price of wool will increase by 10 per cent in the next few months.

NEW LONDON TO NAIROBI AIR LINK

Announces moments before Hermes lands

THE crew and 22 passengers of the new Hermes aircraft went through 18 anxious minutes when it arrived over Heathrow airport yesterday evening on the first flight of a 4,000-mile service which will replace the former flying-boat service to and from East Africa.

Most realistic mock air-war of the atom age

BRITAIN'S air divisions will get their first severe peacetime test in a manoeuvre exercise beginning on Saturday and continuing for four days. The exercise is being conducted by the Royal Air Force and the Royal Navy.

'Last-ditch' tactics

British fighter and bomber squadrons will be ordered to use 'last-ditch' tactics in the event of a surprise attack. This is a last resort tactic where the aircraft is used as a flying bomb.

Five short stops

The five short stops in the new air service will be London, Paris, Brussels, Amsterdam, and London. The service is expected to start in the next few weeks.

Forewell to Solents

The crew of the last Solent flying boat will be ordered to use 'forewell' tactics in the event of a surprise attack. This is a last resort tactic where the aircraft is used as a flying bomb.

Italian peasants draw for land

Italian peasants are drawing for land. The Government has announced that it will distribute land to the peasants in the next few weeks.

Taught to use tanks instead of tractors

Men are being taught to use tanks instead of tractors. This is a new tactic in the event of a surprise attack.

Still in politics

Mr. William Morris is still in politics. He is expected to announce his plans in the next few weeks.

EXPANSION OF UTILITIES REVIEWED

High Commission report issued

WITH two-and-a-half million people living in the United Kingdom, the High Commission has issued a report on the expansion of utilities. The report is expected to be published in the next few weeks.

Public opinion

Public opinion is expected to be a major factor in the next few weeks. The Government is expected to take into account public opinion in its policy decisions.
