GLOOMY VIEWS OF EVENTS IN CHINA

WAR THOUGHT TO BE ALMOST INEVITABLE.

Japanese Demands

FEAR THAT HOSTILITIES WILL NOT BE CONFINED TO THE NORTH

The situation in China underwent a change for the worse yesterday and war between China and Japan is considered almost inevitable.

It is regarded as unlikely that there will be any formal declaration of war.

Anglo-American Co-operation

According to a Japanese news agency message from Peking, Japanese troops evacuated the neighbourhood of Wuying at 2.37 p.m. today.

The Chinese military authorities are making preparations at other centres and numbers of Chinese troops are concentrated around Shanghai and Tientsin.

According to Japanese sources in Tientsin, the Japanese garrison is being evacuated.

The Japanese troops will be sent to the front in the near future.

The War Office has received news that the Japanese military attaches in London are being recalled.

The British Government has announced that it will send a large force to the front.

TENNIS STAR TO SEEK DIVORCE
Accuses Husband of "Mental Cruelty"

Reno Suit
SAYS SHE HOPES TO MARRY AGAIN

Mrs. Helen Willis ("Polaris") Moody, former world tennis champion, has taken up residence in Nevada so that she can apply for a Reno divorce.

She will charge her stockbroker husband, Fred R. Moody, with mental cruelty.

The wedding was in 1922.

"Yes, it's true. I am going to divorce my husband," she said in an interview. "Yes, Fred and I haven't got on well for some time."

"He has insisted my playing tennis means almost that it is the money my husband," she said in an interview. "Yes, Fred and I haven't got on well for some time."

"But it made no difference what my dad's name, so I am seeking my divorce on the grounds of mental cruelty."

"My divorce will not be through for a month or more as I shall not be able to play in the British near Cup match against Fred's team in New York in August."

To Play at Wimbledon

"When you are going to live in the United States," she was asked.

"I'm going to live in San Francisco, but next winter I'll go to the States to see my father and then return to England to play in tournaments, including Wimbledon. Those are my present plans."

"That do you intend to marry again?"

"Yes," she answered. "I hope so."

But to whom Mrs. Moody is going to marry is not known.

Mrs. Moody has gone holiday-making in the California mountains. Their marriage was celebrated in the French Riviera in 1920, when three times her age at the time, the tennis star was 19 years old.

London squash racket players, who are asking for the recognition of a tax on their racket, have been refused by the Inland Revenue.

Ball manufacturers have told the players that they will not issue a statement on each ball of balls that it is made in England.

"I do not see why I should be forced to make a statement on each ball of balls that it is made in England," said one player.

"I've written to the Inland Revenue asking for a refund of the tax on my racket," said another player.

Yesterday the four ladies comprising the South African tennis team now visiting Kenya were entertained to luncheon in the New Stanley Hotel by the members of the South African Society of East Africa. Members of the Kenya Lawn Tennis Association, and the ladies of the visiting players were also among the invited guests.

Mr. W. H. Hooper, President of the Kenya Lawn Tennis Association, presided at the luncheon, and in the course of a short and humorous speech, he welcomed the ladies to the country, and in return, on behalf of the society, at the same time expressed regret at the absence of Mrs. Everett, who was unable to attend.

Sir, May I be allowed to write a few lines on competitive golf in Kenya from the point of view of the just player? It is almost surprising to find that in the majority of cases, the player who is most certain to develop his game is the one who is most certain to be organized. The Kenya Golf Association has organized all over the country, and it is almost certain to develop his game. KENYA REGIMENT TO HAVE THREE COMPANIES

SOME DEGREE OF RE-ARMAMENT ESSENTIAL, SAYS GOVERNOR

Echo of Ethiopian War

THOUSANDS OF REFUGEES INTERRED IN THE COLONY

"As adversity was faced with courage, so prosperity must be couried with prudence."

This is a sentence from His Excellency's first address to the Legislative Council in the course of which he reviewed some of the country's problems and referred to plans for the future.

Referring to defence His Excellency indicated the need for a bigger expenditure under this head. Over 500 refugees have been crisscrossed since the beginning of recruiting for the Kenya Regiment and three companies instead of the two originally contemplated will be formed.

The Governor revealed that during the last few weeks large numbers of refugees have crossed into Kenya from Abyssinia. The total number now interred in the Colony is about 3,300.

Dealing with civil aviation His Excellency indicated that Government was considering sending an officer to South Africa to study what is being done there to meet the problem.

Roads Programme Promised

A new session of the Legislative Council opened in the Municipal Hall, Nairobi yesterday. His Excellency the Governor presided. All European, elected Members and Indian Elected Members (with the exception of Dr. the Hon. S. B. Kapur) were present. His Excellency addressed the Council on the occasion of the opening of the session.

Contingent on the day of His Majesty's Coronation. As you are aware, the Contingent led the Procession on the journey from Worcester, Shrewsbury, Birmmham Palace, and its fine and military bearing won the admiration of all spectators and was the subject of most favorable comment in the Press. The Contingent had the honor of providing the King's Colonial Escort which, in company with Honors from the Dominions and Colonies and the Indian Army, took attendance upon His Majesty during the journey to and from each Abbey.

"On the 14th May my officers and other ranks of the Contingent were presented by His Majesty with the Coronation Medal at Buckingham Palace, and the Contingent subsequently proceeded to the Royal Albert Hall, London, to assist in the ceremony of laying wreaths. "I am glad to find that the military forces of the Colonial Empire have been represented in the Coronation by so fine a body of men."

The Colonial Secretary is in with and plans that if I know you will join me to the "Kenya Standard" which has been planned in a particularly happy way. It should have received the direction of the Colonial Secretary.

I am sorry that the other members of the assembly who have been named by His Majesty—Lord Francis Boscawen—will have to return the Supreme Court Bench Bill to them with instructions to look a subsidy which has been dealing only with the Lower Colony. This seems thus virtually agree, the abandonment of the reform.

The year 1956 closed with a surplus of revenue over expenditure of £145,000 for the year, and at the same time the Government's account of assets over liabilities stood at the figure of £245,000. This figure does not represent the available surplus, since, as Honorable Members are aware, a large proportion of this balance is immobilized in the form of Government securities for a working capital of £250,000 to cover both local and foreign liabilities. The total surplus of £195,000 for the year is therefore exceeded by the amount of £145,000 which is available for the year.

The estimate of Customs revenue for the whole year is £770,000. This is an increase of £87,000 over the estimate for the year 1956, which is very little less than half of the total for the year.

Reports continue to be maintained that a satisfactory trade picture is being built up. The first few months of the year of the value of Kenya's domestic exports were £1,802,197, representing an increase of £283,824 over the corresponding period of 1956. This increase is based on a higher price level than that which was made by the Government in 1956.

U.S. SUPREME COURT

Abandonment of Reform Plan?

The Senate Judiciary Committee has returned the Supreme Court Bench Bill to them with instructions to look a subsidy which has been dealing only with the Lower Colony. This seems thus virtually agree, the abandonment of the reform.

The only support available to the Government is the fact that the Government has been dealing only with the Lower Colony. This seems thus virtually agree, the abandonment of the reform.

Repercussions in Singapore of the North China trouble have been the attacking and stripping of a Japanese submarine by a crew of Chinese, and the manhandling of Japanese schoolgirls by Chinese youths. ## NON-INTERVENTION DEADLOCK PERSISTS

BRITAIN'S PLAIN HINT TO ITALY

Unnecessary Delay

FURTHER DISCUSSIONS WITH FRENCH AND GERMAN REPRESENTATIVES

A hint that Britain may adopt a new attitude to non-intervention in Spain unless Italy withdraws or modifies her objections to procedure in discussion by the Committee is contained in messages received during the week-end. It is expected that the Chairman's Sub-Committee will meet this week to discuss the new method of dealing with the Italian plan.

A New Attitude?

London, July 23.

As the non-intervention deadlock regarding procedure remains abate, British circles here seem to be agitated that the question of procedure should be made the focus of delay. They desire Italy to advance more substantial reasons for her attitude or to suggest a compromise procedure.

If Italy does nothing there would be grounds for concluding that she does not share the British desire to proceed in making non-intervention effective and Britain may feel obliged to abandon the present attitude and to adopt a new attitude.

Further Discussion.

July 24.

There have been further discussions with the French and German diplomatic representatives in London regarding the deadlock.

This report has now been forwarded to the Works and Public Health Committee, and it is to the effect that trial holes have been made prior to the commencement of the trial holes but that the ground level has been sunk at intervals than on the corners of the original foundation.

As the average depth of the ground is about 18 feet below what is the depth of the rock, that the ground level is not so firm as it appears to be and that the site is unsuitable for the purpose.

The Committee expressed their opinion with the Report.

Cyril Maude as a South African President

Big puns for Onions and Potatoes

One of London's most famous actors, Mr. Cyril Maude, appears in "Hank Wain," a light comedy musical comedy of a revolution in South America. Albert Harker plays Albert Harker, a very popular comedian, leading to an able introduction in the vegetable world in the Republic and so on. (Cyril Maude) and General da Costa. (Harker) finally offering fabulous sums for his actions and puns. My friend, I'm delighted to see the best for a small feature, but both the President and the General are played so well that the stage is set for a very good one. (Cyril Maude) and General da Costa. Review of Film Fanz in London

(By Alf Mall)
The new film is not very interesting. One of the most interesting is "The Good Old Soap." It represents an amusing and sparkling comedy which has a good working wife, spoiled son who steals his mother's money, and a father who is a bit of a blunderer. The acting and direction are all right but the play is not original. There is also a rather fine play called "The Good Old Soap" and the "Wagon" which is just another backstage picture with unimportant cast except for the light it throws on the progress of country and the resulting ruin in which a whole lot of people are ruined.

CICELY COURTNEIDGE

Welcome return of "Soldiers of the King"

The best film that Cicely Courtneidge ever made, "Soldiers of the King" is returning to the Empire Theatre tonight. It is also shown at the Regent Theatre through the dual roles of Jeanie and Mavis, mother and daughter, the two outstanding parts providing good scope for her talents in portraying widely differing characters. She plays a dear, bent up, white haired old lady with a queer in her voice and then she is the sly and strong girl and gambler in a noble's uniform. The story is bright and cheerful, with the singing talents of Cicely Courtneidge dominating the scene. The director, John Gilling, has done a very nice job in making an old story look like a new one.

her hand in running both the General and by the President. In the meantime, he discovered that his "independents" are expected to be sent and a severe punishment, leading to an able introduction. It is all very light and funny, with Cyril Maude in his best form more than ably assisted by the other members of the cast.

Both Claude Hulbert and Gordon Harker extract the last bit of comedy from a film they both apparently enjoyed making. The supporting cast is well chosen, and George Greenham does a lot of work as the Royal Balmoral, the strong but not silent head of the second army. Lill Palmer is charming as the mistress of the house.

Wherever Gordon Harker is a film star, there you are certain to find his most complete comedienne as Aberdeen and a wife-hater in the "Hank Wain" film. In the box, and a more look from his eyes. Mac the Abolitionist, in place. These two boys had an ever-present legend during the course of "Wolf's Clothing."

the woman both credible and convincing. Beverly Roberts plays the first of the two leading parts in the play in a very convincing manner. The other two leading parts are played by Robert Barraklae, Alan Hale, and Barton Maclean. They are good support.

WILL HE MAKE IT?

SHELL MOTOR OILS
Like every sensible motorist, you mentally check up on all possible dangers before starting on a long journey. Is there any pole ahead? Will that wire "stand up" in 37 miles? How about water in the radiator—and so on. In your list of questions, do you habitually forget the lubricating oil in your pump? It is not just a question of having enough oil—but of getting the lubrication that is really so essential to give you the greatest mileage for your petrol. It reflects on the painful results borne to engine if you don't give your car a really good oil. It isn't worth taking risks—for better or for evil—and they only the best.

TENSION INCREASES IN NORTH CHINA

CHINESE AND JAPANESE TROOPS CLASH AT LANGFANG... Former's Barracks Bombed... HEAVY FIRING AUDIBLE AT PEIPING

Amie tension in North China, due to the alleged recalcitrance of the Chinese 37th Division, has been increased by an actual conflict at Langfang, culminating in the aerial bombing of Chinese barracks by Japanese aircraft.

Fear and Panic at Shanghai

Shanghai, July 26. The Japanese ultimatum issued at Tientsin this morning set off a tremendous military, financial and political earthquake.

There is a realization at Peiping regarding the fact that the Japanese may try to force to open the northeastern Chinese ports, now commanded by the fierce and Japanese general, Hasegawa.

The attitude in North China has been dominated by the report of the arrival of three Japanese transporters in Taku and the landing of military supplies.

In the meantime General Chiang K'ai-shek has sent an express to ascertain who the Soviet Chinese Consul had agreed upon with the Japanese.

At Shanghai... At least 20,000 people are believed to have fled from the International Settlement last night after the appearance of Japanese planes at Chapei in connection with the proclamation of martial law.

At Langfang... Fighting between Chinese and Japanese troops is reported to have broken out midway between Peiping and Tientsin.

PROPOSED LABOUR LAW CAUSES ALARM SEEKING TO DEFINE A LABOURER'S TASK

Six Hours Per Day PROTEST MEETING BY MEMBERS OF THIKA ASSOCIATION

Members in the Thika district are very critical of a Bill to regulate the Employment of Servants published a few days ago for introduction to the present session of Legislative Council.

It was urged that any such regulation would have a bad psychological effect on labourers and that it was entirely opposed to what was necessary or desirable.

The Psychological Effect

Representations have been made to the local Elected Member with a view to the introduction of the Bill being deferred pending further consideration of its purpose. The Chairman pointed out that the Bill is not intended to deprive labourers of their rights but to define their duties and responsibilities.

How Hours

Mr. C. W. F. Harris quoted the Bill which sets out the hours of work for agricultural labourers and expressed his opinion that it was an attempt to regulate the hours of work of agricultural labourers.

Mr. T. F. Robinson pointed out that an agricultural task must vary according to the nature of the work, and expressed the opinion that if employers of labour had the power to say how long they should be required to work they might as well give up farming.

Mr. G. Beckett reminded the meeting that the hours of work for agricultural labourers were fixed by the Agricultural Committee of the Legislative Council in 1925.

Free Choice

The Chairman pointed out that the Bill was not intended to deprive labourers of their rights but to define their duties and responsibilities. He stated that the Bill was a necessary measure to regulate the employment of servants.

CRITICISM OF TRIBAL POLICE SYSTEM

DANGER OF DEVELOPING ALONG WRONG LINES

Question of Gratuities

Belief that the tribal police system of Kenya is in serious danger of being developed along wrong lines was expressed in Elected Members' speeches in Legislative Council yesterday when a Bill to amend the Tribal Police Ordinance passed its second reading.

Why Two Forces?

Major Cornwallis-Bentley (Manchester) asked the opportunity of making an amendment to the Bill to provide for the payment of gratuities to tribal police officers. The Attorney General explained that expenditure of public money is involved, and if the provisions of this Bill become law, will amount to approximately £120 per annum.

'Fencing People to be Impossible' Established Eight Years

The Chief Native Commissioner explained that the tribal police force was established in 1926 to maintain law and order in the tribal areas. He stated that the force was not intended to be a permanent one.
