

Annual polo tournament at Molo was well supported

SENIOR AND SUBSIDIARY CUPS WON BY KINYATTA

From a Special Correspondent

THE annual tournament of the Masai Polo Club, played at Molo last week, was a most enjoyable and successful one and the appearance of teams from Machakos and Naru Moru, to challenge the longer established and stronger clubs was a most welcome feature of the event. The Molo ground not only looked in fine condition, but played very well also. Although the Molo ground was standing up to cover the polo, the Molo players were not at all handicapped by the weather. This was mainly due to the fact that the tournament was held in the early morning. The Molo players were not only experienced but also very hard working. In the last year, they had won the Senior Cup and the Subsidiary Cup. In the first round, they were defeated by the Naru Moru team, but they were able to win the Senior Cup and the Subsidiary Cup in the final round.

FOUND THE SCHOOLS OF KENYA

JOY NICHOLL introduces a new series on the schools of Kenya with a description of the KENYA HIGH SCHOOL where 600 girls — the future citizens, wives and mothers of the Colony — are receiving their education.

Rehearsing for the annual drama.

...well standing in the playground in the open space in front of the school building. The girls are dressed in their school uniforms. They are sitting on a bench, and some are looking towards the camera. The background shows a building and some trees.

Chair of the Festival, while 12 of the classes entered, 12 girls were admitted. The girls were dressed in their school uniforms. They were sitting on a bench, and some were looking towards the camera.

Miss Stott is justifiably proud of the academic success of her pupils, and the standard is extraordinarily high. The girls are dressed in their school uniforms. They were sitting on a bench, and some were looking towards the camera.

All lined up and ready to take the plunge.

The future citizens, wives and mothers of Kenya look to their Headmistress for guidance and understanding during their school days. Of vital moment to them is the fact that she is a person who is ever ready to go on towards new horizons in education, to help each girl find some help for life. Miss Stott took up her appointment with the Kenya High School in 1952, and before that was at the Kenya High School, Nairobi, and before that was at the Kenya High School, Nairobi, and before that was at the Kenya High School, Nairobi.

ALTHOUGH he has appeared many times for the Donor Music Players, and in a wide variety of parts, dating from the very first production in the Studio Theatre—Outward Bound—Roy Cable finds that he is best remembered for his performance in The Little Hut.

—the plays tennis, and is also a voracious reader. And being allowed, he would prefer indulging himself to appearing on stage.

VIRUS RESEARCH IN KENYA URGED

M.O.H. on immunity against infection from air travellers

STRAINS of poliomyelitis and other virus diseases which became evident in Nairobi from time to time may be due to the fact that there is one of the busiest aerial crossroads in Africa, and that people arriving by air bring with them infections which are usually immunity in Kenya.

Dr. A. T. G. Thomas, Nairobi's Medical Officer of Health, stated in his annual report that he was aware of the fact that there were a great many aspects of virus infection about which extensive research was known, and local research could open up a large and extremely interesting field of study.

It is, he said, extremely easy for poliomyelitis, most of the other viruses, and other diseases to be carried by air, and it was perhaps this feature that he considered most to attract his attention than the more dramatic types.

Dr. Thomas says that immunisation work is required to maintain reasonable hygienic conditions when the extensive travel which maintains this country's reputation as a holiday resort.

"Undesirable trend"
"However, in going deeper into the question, one cannot fail to notice an undesirable trend which may be a result of our education system. It is the fact that many of our students, both at the secondary and tertiary levels, are not doing their best to do work which they find merely a matter of routine."

"The dignity of labour must first be taught and given substance, and the word 'vocational' should not be applied to any course of study which is not designed to do work which is not only a matter of routine but also one which is dignified. But the reverse of labour is not just and adequate."

He further stressed to promote better health should not be considered as something that is only to be retained in the Bill on Parliamentary Privileges and the Labour Organisation is threatening to fight this.

Legal quibbles
"The Government will be asked to bring the Bill into effect and to give effect to the provisions of the Bill on Parliamentary Privileges and the Labour Organisation is threatening to fight this."

Single phrase

He had, on the day of a disaster, taken a dog which was due to be taken to a veterinary hospital, and he was travelling but overtook the dog's owner on Saturday 12th at the East of Nairobi, where he took the dog to the veterinary hospital, where it was treated and returned to its owner on the following day.

While the three dog handlers were taken to hospital, Muzylski's dog was released and was taken from the vehicle and took charge of the dog.

The dog, which was extremely fierce by virtue of its confinement state as a result of the crash, was kept normally by Muzylski for several days.

The dog was killed in every direction and was held for four hours, but never once released his hold on the handler.

It was not until he had broken the dog that he allowed himself to be taken to hospital, where he received the best medical attention and was kept in the hospital for several days.

Very Brave.

DEFICIT FORECAST FOR POST SERVICES

Expenditure estimated to be £1,743,850 above revenue

An estimated deficit of £1,743,850 is shown in the draft estimates of revenue for 1956 published by the East African Posts and Telecommunications Administration. Expenditure on the revised 1955 operations amounts to £4,684,000 compared with the 1955 revenue figure of £2,940,150.

In its memorandum on the draft estimates, the Administration states that although the 1956 expenditure increase is in salaries and allowances, mainly by additional posts, it is expected to be offset by savings in other areas. The forecast for 1956 is £1,600,000, and the estimated for 1955 £1,600,000. A steady demand for postage stamps has been noted, and an increase of about 10 per cent is expected.

In the telegraph section of revenue, reference is made to the increase in internal rates which has been the average of a telegram up to 24 per cent.

It is stated that the deficit of last year but one should be to the approximate

World's first atom power station

BRITAIN'S lead in the peaceful uses of atomic energy was demonstrated when the world's first full-scale atomic power station, Calder Hall, Cumberland, was opened to inspection. The picture below shows the £13,000,000 plant, built on what was previously farm land, which is projected by Power representatives.

The plant is scheduled for regular service at the end of next year, although the first of the two reactors will be producing heat for district heating in January 1956 and a further 12 megawatts of electricity for military purposes. In the long generating hall each end of the hall is a reactor with two heat-exchangers, or steam-raising towers, above chimneys. The heat from the reactors is carried through the reactors by sodium, which is pumped to drive the generators.

HOSPITALS STOCKPILE HEROIN TO BEAT BAN

U.N. anxiety over drug peddling

MANY London hospitals, determined to beat the Government's ban on the manufacture of the pain-killing drug heroin, due to become effective at the end of next month, have had in stocks sufficient in some cases for several years. British doctors, backed by their professional bodies, state that there is no adequate substitute if heroin in the case of extreme pain.

The Government has with any critics in Parliament and in medical circles throughout the world. The Government is implementing a United Nations resolution aimed at stamping out illicit trafficking.

According to the World Health Organization, heroin is the most dangerous of all drugs, and its use is a social evil. It has a high potential for addiction, and is a major cause of crime and social unrest.

Steady demand

On the other hand, bank payments by Government Departments have more than fulfilled expectations and show that the estimate allowing for income tax is correct. The net revenue account of the public sector is estimated at £2,940,150 for 1955, and £2,940,150 for 1956.
