Ministry alleged to leak from REPEAL OF TOP OFFICERS MUST BE WELL QUALIFIED

AN allegation that a senior officer from the Ministry of Education, Health and Social Services had leaked information to the House of Representatives regarding the proposed repeal of the C.S.O. Act, has been investigated.

The Minister of Education, Health and Social Services, Mr. J. M. Njiru, has stated that the allegation is unfounded and that the Ministry has taken all necessary steps to ensure the security of its confidential information.

During a speech made in the House of Representatives on December 2nd, Mr. Njiru stated that the Ministry has a strict policy of confidentiality and that any leakage of information would be severely punished.

The House of Representatives is currently debating the proposed repeal of the C.S.O. Act, which would allow for the appointment of top officers based on their qualifications rather than their political affiliations.

Copyright Change Proposed

A COPYRIGHT Bill gives a Second Reading in the House of Representatives today.

The Bill, which is sponsored by the Attorney General, Mr. J. M. Njiru, provides for the amendment of the Copyright Act of 1912.

The proposed changes include the extension of the term of copyright protection from 28 years to 42 years, and the introduction of a system of compulsory licensing for certain types of music and literary works.

The Bill also provides for the establishment of a Copyright Commission to oversee the administration of the Act.

Public innocent

The British said the public should not be alarmed by the recent revelations regarding the activities of the Kenya African National Union (KANU).

The British High Commission in Nairobi has stated that the information disclosed in the press is largely unimportant and does not reflect the true nature of KANU's activities.

The High Commission also stated that the British Government has no intention of interfering in the internal affairs of Kenya.

Action promised

The Attorney General has promised to take action against any individuals who are found to have leaked confidential information from the Ministry of Education, Health and Social Services.

The Attorney General, Mr. J. M. Njiru, stated that the Ministry has a strict policy of confidentiality and that any leakage of information would be severely punished.

He also stated that the Ministry has taken all necessary steps to ensure the security of its confidential information.

Action Urged on Kashmir

It is urged bringing the Government to take action on Kashmir.

The House of Representatives has passed a resolution urging the Government to take immediate action to resolve the Kashmir issue.

The resolution states that the Government should support the aspirations of the people of Kashmir for self-determination.

TOP OFFICERS MUST BE WELL QUALIFIED

The highest standards of education and training should be required for the appointment of top officers in the public service.

It is essential that the Government should ensure that the highest standards of education and training are maintained for all public officers.

President's address praised

The President's address to the House of Representatives was widely praised for its clarity and vision.

The address outlined the Government's policy on the independence of Kenya and the need for national unity.

CONTACT WITH SOUTH AFRICA ALLEGED

It is alleged that certain individuals have been in contact with South African officials regarding the independence of Kenya.

The Government has stated that it is aware of these contacts and is taking appropriate action.

Club aims at cheering up sick children

THE Members Rotary Inter-act Club, the first to be established in East Africa, has set off with the aim of cheering up sick children who are admitted to the Coast General Hospital in Mombasa.

Their first call was to the Nursery Clinic where they were most needed. During the visit they will be visiting other wards and wards.

The Inter-act Club have offered to repair a certain number of beds in the dormitory in the hospital for the use of sick children.

The donation of toys is due to be made at Christmas and the gifts will benefit scores of children who are admitted to the hospital.

Although the club is collecting for donations, they have appeared in the public eye through their visits to whether they need repairing or not.

Introducing two new Volkswagens

Introducing two new Volkswagens. The VW 1200 and the VW 1300. Both cars are built on the same platform and offer a range of features and options. The VW 1200 is a four-door sedan with a 1200 cc engine, while the VW 1300 is a four-door sedan with a 1300 cc engine. Both cars are built on the same platform and offer a range of features and options.

Other improvements: The car only needs lubrication every 3,000 miles, because we improved the front axle. Both front and rear axles can be locked, so your rear passenger can't push you forward onto the next day, if you have to stop suddenly. All in all, we've made 23 changes in the car. If you think the name is '24', but don't worry. You'll still be able to recognize it. Because it still has on regular petrol it can still do without water cooling. The wheels are still independently suspended with torsion bars. And one more thing: it's only £742 (Nairobi).

Urged to support development

Development required capital investment and progress was to be based on Kenya's economic planning and development. Mr. Mwangi stressed in Nairobi, Nakuru, Alupe and other strategic locations of Kenya.

DEBTS ON SERVICE RAISED

Mr. Mwangi said that the Kenya Government had raised $10 million in foreign currency to meet its obligations. He said that the Government was committed to meeting its obligations and to maintaining its creditworthiness.

The amount of public debt of Kenya was $10 million at the end of 1964. Mr. Mwangi said that the Government was committed to meeting its obligations and to maintaining its creditworthiness.

DRINK-CASE DRIVER FINED £45

A man, who refused to pay for petrol after calling at a filling station in Fife, Scotland, was fined £45 for driving while under the influence of drink and without a licence. The man, whose name is withheld, was fined £45 for the offence.

GIFT OF BULL CALF FOR A.I. CENTRE

Kenya's artificial insemination station at Kabete yesterday took delivery of a highly bred Ayrshire bull calf. It was presented to the Assistant Minister for Agriculture, Mr. Murgor, by the chief representative of Power Securities in East Africa, Mr. V. A. Maddison, on behalf of the chairman of Power Securities and Bullion Realty Ltd., Sir Andrew MacFargar.

Sir Andrew, who visited Kenya recently, judged the bull to be a highly bred Ayrshire bull for the station and immediately presented it to the station. The bull is now being kept at the station and will be used for breeding purposes.

Pilot ranch progressing

The pilot ranching operation of the Government in East Africa is progressing rapidly, according to the Director, J. K. Lig.

The scheme, which was started in 1962 under the leadership of Mr. J. K. Lig, is being managed by the Kenya Government. It has been found that the scheme is profitable and is being expanded.

During the past year, the number of cattle in the pilot ranching scheme has increased significantly. This is due to the success of the scheme in providing a good source of income for the farmers.

The success of the pilot ranching scheme is a result of the Government's support and the cooperation of the farmers. It is hoped that the scheme will be expanded to other parts of Kenya.

A GROUP OF PARTNERS

The partners in the group are Mr. Mwangi, Mr. Murgor, Mr. Maddison, and Mr. MacFargar. They are all members of the group and are working together to promote the development of Kenya.

The group is committed to the development of Kenya and to the improvement of the lives of the people. They are working together to achieve these goals.

The group is also committed to the promotion of the interests of the people of Kenya. They are working together to ensure that the people have a say in the development of their country.

Water Training at Railway School merged in C.A.A.

Water training at the Railway Training School at Kumbungi is being merged into the Central Legislative Assembly Estimates for Road Animals and Horses for the coming year, as Parliament has decided to reduce K.C.S.O.'s Estimate of £42,634 to £26,000, with a view to the disintegration of the training procedure at the school.

It is about this time that the school produced something like R.A.C.O. in putting a lot of money in the school and demanding to get something out of it, he said.

OUTFIT 'NOT GOOD ENOUGH'

It asked how the outfit was helping to reduce Kenia's security for visiting experts from other countries.

Mr. Charlton said that he himself had been trained in Kenya and had to travel to Nairobi for further training. This school has been operating for a long time and will not be able to produce a capable staff, he said.

Traditional dances

As you are just about to celebrate another anniversary of Zambia, may I request the management desks displayed in the field of the National Park will reflect good and worth while things of Southern African in Kenya?

These a nation, wrong with new dance to see. However, that which makes its contribution to the country's progress is the bringing of the traditional dances to the light without the material of the country, and it is not surprising that these might not better to watch themselves on the stage when they are able to receive visitors of the day on foot and back.

A Yutaka line is a very simple dance in which the dancers move in a circle, the steps of the dance are simple and easy to learn, and it is a very good dance to see. It is a very good dance to see, and it is a very good dance to see.

Para-firefighters who have dropped by parachute down to the blue field at forest fire in the Ukraine Region of the Soviet Union.

Para-firefighters drop to save Soviet forests

GREAT attention is paid in the Soviet Union to preventing forest fires because a vast part of the country is covered with woods. More than 90 per cent are within the Russian Federation, one of the 15 Soviet republics.

The area of the forest land there is over 1,000 million hectares and the total "quantity" over the national wealth in the Department of Forest Protection.

Soviet forests

By VLADIMIR CHERNYKH

Forest fires are the main reason for preventing fires. They are started with tobacco, agricultural, forest and forest fires. During the hot, dry summer and working hours of foresters, the forest fires are prevented by the use of fire-fighting machines. They are used in the forest, particularly in the Ukraine, where the forest is very rich.

No need for holly to deck out the festive spirit

ANN MARSHALL gives ideas with a local flavour

CHRISTMAS houses parties call for decorations, and there is an endless variety of flowers and seeds in East Africa which lend themselves to the festive season, when they are enhanced by Chinese lanterns, frothing and glitter. Britain's lovely ivy and spruce-strung garlands, when used to "crown" and surround trees used little girls to look the part. Crane flowers in Shikana are another favourite, which, since 1949 - the "year of the crane" - has been the fashion - take to large or white points and frothing like ducks to water.

British heads prefer gliding rather than white or blue, which they prefer more to silver.

For Nairobi residents a trip up the Ngong Hills will provide a constant source of material on which to work - there are no hard and fast rules as to what plants can be used and for the arrangements, should be artificial flowers, some which are worth trial planting can save time.

Whether a demonstration is the best way of showing the best materials Mrs. Marshall, who is a Consultant to the Kenya Flower Society, has demonstrated a demonstration.

DECORS FOR CHRISTMAS WITH A NEW APPROACH

For a small corner, gilded wheat and other seed heads surround a central candle, with gilded leaves at the base.

ANN MARSHALL gives ideas with a local flavour

blue-green, with a pale yellow, and a pale green, which, when used in a room, will give a warm, cozy atmosphere. You should always work from a central point, and not from the corners. ### SWEDISH TREES HAVE SNOW QUEEN TOUCH

ULLA Jacobson, the Swedish film star whose new film The Herons of Telemark will be screening soon in Nairobi, suggests a different way of trimming your Christmas tree this year. Her home is now in Vienna, where she is married to Prof. W. Rohmann and is the mother of two. At Christmas time she combines the traditions, Swedish and Austrian.

Although she thinks the English and American Christmas trees, with their multi-colored lights and ornaments, are exciting, she still prefers the Swedish and Austrian Christmas trees.

"In my own country it is not so much the decorations as the lights and ornaments that are so exciting. I prefer the Swedish and Austrian Christmas trees."

"At home in Vienna we dress the tree with silver, gold, and red, which are the colors of the Swedish flag. The only other decorations we use are white and red, and the one silver star on top."

It looks perfect. But in Sweden real candles are forbidden, and we use electric lights.

Arrangements should be planned in advance so you have a fair idea of how much material you will need. You should always work from a central point, and not from the corners. A good idea is to use a central point, and not from the corners.

Half the fun of these decorations is in doing them, and see that there is plenty of variety in the decorations. "Half the fun of these decorations is in doing them, and see that there is plenty of variety in the decorations."

And keep children well away from the trees and decorations. They may look as though a circus troupe has taken over the house, and will cheer away as Christmas spirit you are trying so hard to achieve.

Plenty of scope for the girl who loves flowers

THE girl who has thoroughly mastered the art of floristry can find fascinating jobs, whether she specializes in a particular branch, such as wedding bouquets and arrangements, or whether she sets up an office in large hotels or with firms of caterers.

A practical field for business careers is to be found in the Royal Commonwealth Society for Floristry, which offers a course of learning and training in horticulture and floristry.

The best method in East Africa for learning the art is to attend a course at an established florist who will take you through the art.

The alternative, and the only way you can obtain a diploma is to go to a school of floristry in another country. The advantage of unbroken tuition, where you can see the work in a shop is given instruction in a florist in your own country. Working experience in a florist is still essential after training.

There is a thriving floral arrangements club in Nairobi, which is affiliated to the Flower Arrangement Association of London and Liverpool. Increasing interest has been shown by African countries in flower arranging, and this continent has multiplied florists.

Half the fun of these decorations is in doing them, and see that there is plenty of variety in the decorations. "Half the fun of these decorations is in doing them, and see that there is plenty of variety in the decorations."

And keep children well away from the trees and decorations. They may look as though a circus troupe has taken over the house, and will cheer away as Christmas spirit you are trying so hard to achieve.

K.N.F.L. may use home and away system

The Kenya National Football League decided to have a home and away system for the 1967 season. The system is expected to be introduced in the first division only if the decision is reached by next August.

The league's vice-president, Mr. J. M. Njiru, said that the system for the first time would be introduced to reduce the time taken to complete the season. It is expected that the first trial would be played every weekend from 1967 to 1968.

Several changes were proposed to the present system. It was suggested that the league should be divided into two divisions. The first division would have 12 teams and the second division would have 10 teams.

The proposal of a home and away system was also discussed. It was suggested that the league should be divided into two divisions. The first division would have 12 teams and the second division would have 10 teams.

HUNTE WILL PLAY KEYWA

West Indies vice-captain to lead team

COMRAH HUNTE, the West Indies' greatest West-Indian, High Commissioner of the Kenya Cricket on Saturday, December 16, is leaving for Nairobi to lead the West Indies team, arriving in Nairobi tomorrow for a two-week stay, during which he will play in the 10th Annual Inter-Club Conference of the cricket board and the 10th Annual Physical Training and Sports Course at present being held at the K.I.A. Clubhouse.

Hunte's chief guest player will be another of the West-Indian greats, Theodor Toots, who played for the House county team for ten years, recently as an opener. It is thought that Hunte will play in at least one other match during his stay in Kenya. He is known to be keen to take out for one of the local club sides and will do so if his business commitments allow.

Hunte will speak on sports, and his use in world affairs, during the course at Kenyatta College. He will also take part in a sports day at the K.I.A. on December 17 when a panel of top sporting personalities will be questioned by students. If things show, Hunte may also help out with coaching rounds.

The West Indies world cricket champions, led by Hunte, will arrive in Nairobi as part of their tour of India and Pakistan in 1967. The Kenyan cricket board has cancelled the tour had it been cancelled. Hunte will lead the team to visit Kenya in early 1967.

O.A.U. WARNED ON USE OF TROOPS

Only U.K. can avert war — Dr. Kaunda

Dr. Kenneth Kaunda said in a statement yesterday that if the Organisation for African Unity were sent into Rhodesia it would mean a racial war which would have Southern Africa as a result. He said there would be the same result if Southern troops were sent across the border to safeguard power installations at the Kariba Dam.

OUTSIDERS WILL LOSE POWERS FIRST

By Mr. SMITH

Parliamentary last night Mr. Smith expressed a threat to the Government's proposal that foreign troops should be sent to Rhodesia to help the British Government to deal with the situation.

He warned: "There would not rule out the possibility of South Africa joining in White crusades of Southern Africa. It is not difficult to imagine what would follow — a third world war based entirely on colour."

In a removal plan for British troops to move into Rhodesia to ensure a legitimate Government, he said that only Britain could avert a racial war in Africa. The Kariba Dam, he said, belonged jointly to Rhodesia and Zambia, and had to be safeguarded for both countries.

He said that the White Africans in Rhodesia, warning of the difficulties which a disarming of the Whites would mean, according to news from Lusaka, had said that Zambia received her position on the question.

Break would deny access

The O.A.U. denied on its meeting in Addis Ababa last week that member States should break off relations with Rhodesia by withdrawing Mr. Smith's regime in Rhodesia by December 15.

Dr. Kaunda was also understood to have pointed out that the White Africans in Rhodesia were using the Kariba Dam as a bargaining chip to force the British Government to withdraw its troops from Rhodesia.

The President's statement on Rhodesia was a message to the British Government to withdraw its troops from Rhodesia and to allow the British Government to deal with the situation.

An excuse

Zambia has not been asked to join the Commonwealth as a result of the Rhodesia crisis, but it has been asked to join the Commonwealth as a result of the Rhodesia crisis.

Zambia has also asked Britain for evidence to support its claim that Rhodesia is a white-minority Government.

Dr. Kaunda's statement was a message to the British Government to withdraw its troops from Rhodesia and to allow the British Government to deal with the situation.

Consortium receives offices

THE Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Works, Communications and Power, Mr. K. J. O'Connell, on behalf of his Ministry has handed over the former Industrial Division in the consortium of African Electrical Contractors Ltd.

Mr. O'Connell said that his Ministry will be awarded control of the operations of the consortium. He said that his Ministry will offer them help in the form of technical and professional assistance in the form of a grant-in-aid to help them to carry out their operations.

Trade talks open

Talks on a new long-term trade agreement between East Germany and the German Democratic Republic have opened in East Berlin.

ROAD SERVICES FASTER

It is reported that the East African Road Corporation (EARC) is planning to speed up its road services. The corporation is expected to have more trucks on the road by the end of the year. This will help to reduce the cost of transport and improve the efficiency of the road services.

Letters to the Editor

The Editor, East African Standard, Nairobi. I am writing to you regarding the article in your issue of December 8th concerning the road services. I am pleased to hear that the EARC is planning to speed up its services, as this will be a great benefit to the people of East Africa.

PORTLAND INTERIM DIVIDEND

The East African Portland Cement Co. Ltd. has announced that it will pay an interim dividend of 3.2 per cent on its shares. This dividend is payable to shareholders who held their shares on the record date of December 15th.

Rhodesian crisis

At this moment, when we are reading the news of the Rhodesian crisis, it is interesting to note that the British Government has decided to send a military force to Rhodesia. This decision was made after a long period of negotiations with the Rhodesian Government.

WHICHVER

WHICHVER book it is, it is a book that is worth reading. It is a book that is written by a man who has spent a long time in Rhodesia, and who has seen the Rhodesian crisis from the inside. It is a book that is written in a simple and straightforward style, and it is a book that is worth reading for anyone who is interested in the Rhodesian crisis.

CURRENCY BOARD SWAN SONG

The report published today by the East African Currency Board shows that the currency board has achieved its objectives in the past few years. The board's main objective was to stabilize the value of the Kenya shilling against the pound sterling. It has done this by maintaining a fixed exchange rate of 100 shillings to the pound. The board has also been successful in maintaining the value of the shilling against the dollar. The board's success is due to its strict adherence to its objectives and its close cooperation with the Government. The board's work is coming to an end, and it is expected to be replaced by a new currency board in the near future.

What the changes really imply

The report also states that the board's success is due to its strict adherence to its objectives and its close cooperation with the Government. The board's work is coming to an end, and it is expected to be replaced by a new currency board in the near future. # Accentuating the positive makes the colonel grunted

By John Elgon

The most recent exponent of a positive attitude that can produce an immediate change in the school is the Hon. Mr. J. M. Njiru, Minister of Education. He has said that the school should be run on a positive basis, and that the teacher should be a positive person. He has also said that the school should be a place where the children can learn to love their country and their fellow citizens. He has also said that the school should be a place where the children can learn to respect the law and the rights of others.

The report also states that the board's success is due to its strict adherence to its objectives and its close cooperation with the Government. The board's work is coming to an end, and it is expected to be replaced by a new currency board in the near future.

EARLY WARNING SYSTEM FOR EARTHQUAKES

By WILLIAM WEEKES

Loss of life through earthquakes on the scale of Andri and Shogri could be a thing of the past as a result of an intensive study of the magnetic properties of rocks being undertaken by a special study group at Malindi, University College, and by scientists at other parts of the world, including Britain, America and Russia.

One of the three-man Nairobi study group, Dr. Alan Stewart, lecturer in geology at the University, describes their research, but says that the theory is far from proven. He says that the Earth was once a solid ball of molten rock, and that the continents were once joined together. He says that the Earth's magnetic field is a result of the rotation of the Earth and the movement of the molten rock. He says that the Earth's magnetic field is a result of the rotation of the Earth and the movement of the molten rock.

WIDE OPEN SPACES IN RHODESIA

POLICY OF CAUTION OVER RHODESIA

Mr. Kenyatta warns of divisions

PRESIDENT KENYATTA yesterday appealed for caution in dealing with the Rhodesian crisis and warned that divisions among African States could have serious repercussions.

He was addressing the House of Representatives when the previous day had denounced the Rhodesian régime and urged the British Government to take steps to bring about a settlement.

The President said a packed House that the Kenya Government had decided to consult East African countries including Zambia and other African States, to determine the best action to take on Rhodesia. "We feel that unilateral action by any African State will not meet the situation," he said.

Britain must use force

Since the unilateral declaration of independence the Kenya Government has been in close contact with other African States to ensure concerted action against the rebel régime in Rhodesia. The Government has also brought pressure on the British Government to take decisive action to crush the rebellion and lead the country to majority rule.

The Kenya Government must make it clear that responsibility for the present conditions in Rhodesia lies with the British Government. The British must use force to restore constitutional government and create the necessary conditions for democratic majority rule.

Kenya example quoted in U.K.

THE British Prime Minister, Mr. Wilson, yesterday told the House of Commons that he hoped it might still be possible for a representative Government to be set up in Rhodesia.

TANZANIA SUGGESTS A WORLD FORCE

PRESIDENT NYERERE last night called for international action on Rhodesia, which he said would not only end the rebellion but would satisfy the demands of Africa and in particular, Tanzania, for the ultimate objective of majority rule.

Speaking at a Press conference in Dar es Salaam, President Nyerere said that the Rhodesian régime was a "man-made" problem which he said would not only end the rebellion but would satisfy the demands of Africa and in particular, Tanzania, for the ultimate objective of majority rule.

There was a strong feeling that the Rhodesian régime was a "man-made" problem which he said would not only end the rebellion but would satisfy the demands of Africa and in particular, Tanzania, for the ultimate objective of majority rule.

LONDON STOCK AND DULL

Little business was done in London's markets yesterday. The stock exchange opened at the same level, but only few substantial gains were made.

National Stock went higher after the last few days' trading and National Commercial, and Indian, returned to the normal level.

There was a dull market in foreign exchange. The pound was steady at 4.84 against the dollar, but there was a slight fall in the rate against the franc.

KENYA'S FIRST YEAR AS A REPUBLIC

Efforts to consolidate unity

KENYA'S first year as a republic has been marked by a number of efforts to consolidate and extend the unity which followed the greatest impetus from the assassination of the late President (then President Deringham) (Kenya) before the Republic was inaugurated.

Major steps were taken in the way of creating a national unity, the unity of the Republic, by the death of the late President, which led to the formation of a new Government.

It has been the aim of the Government to bring about a "unity" which is not only a political unity, but a

PETER MURUGU has been elected as the first President of the Republic of Kenya. He was elected on the 12th of December, 1962, at a ceremony held in the presence of the British High Commissioner, Sir John Gorton, and other members of the British Government.

Mr. Murugu, who is a member of the Kenya African National Union (KANU), was elected by a vote of 1,000 to 100. He is a member of the Kenya African National Union (KANU) and was elected by a vote of 1,000 to 100.

There was also the new Chief Justice, Sir John Gorton, who was appointed to the post of Chief Justice of Kenya. He was appointed on the 12th of December, 1962, and is the first African to hold the post of Chief Justice of Kenya.

The new Government has also appointed a number of other officials, including the Attorney-General, the Minister of Education, and the Minister of Health.

During the year the Kenya Government continued its efforts to bring about a unity which is not only a political unity, but a national unity. This was done by the death of the late President, which led to the formation of a new Government.

The new Government has also appointed a number of other officials, including the Attorney-General, the Minister of Education, and the Minister of Health.

On January 21 President Kenyatta inaugurated a scheme which has been a major personal interest through the year, the Gatundu State help fund.

A week later he opened the new station at Nairobi, which is a major personal interest through the year, the Gatundu State help fund.

An historic picture taken 17 months ago when Mr. Kenyatta was sworn in as the first President of the Republic of Kenya. The Chief Justice, Sir John Gorton, looks on.

The occasion was a debate in the House of Commons on the 12th of December, 1962, in the light of the new Republic of Kenya. The Minister of State for Kenya, Mr. Malcolm Fraser, reported to Kenya a British High Commissioner.

FIRST POLICY

On February 4 Mr. Mumbaka officially inaugurated the Kenya African National Union (KANU) Company in which the Government has a 51 per cent share. The company is to take out a policy in the insurance market for Kenya.

GROWTH

Plans were announced for the integration of the East African Grain Handling Services into the Kenya and Harbours Administration. The first group of Kenya Air Force pilots received their wings in the presence of the British High Commissioner.

New steps to preserve our natural heritage

By S. O. AYODO, Minister for Natural Resources and Wildlife

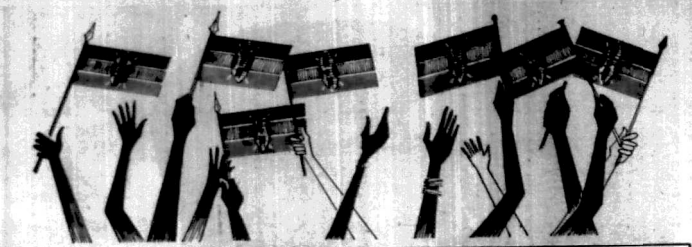

At the conclusion of Kenya's first year as a Republic, the Ministry of Natural Resources and Wildlife, conscious of the importance of the country and the heavy responsibility it bears for the future, is embarking on a series of steps to preserve its natural heritage.

In assessing a year of research along many important lines of development, it is vital that a true evaluation be made of the progress which has been made. It is in this field of looking at the progress of the people with the aims of the Government that the Ministry of Natural Resources and Wildlife has begun to take steps which will lead to the preservation of our natural heritage.

was made by the National Parks, it is not surprising that they will play an important part in the preservation of our natural heritage.

An important consideration is the world-wide attack on nature. The I.C.A. Conference held at Rome this year and the representative of the Ministry played a valuable part in the proceedings.

The preservation of our natural heritage is a task which will require the co-operation of all sections of the community. It is a task which will require the co-operation of all sections of the community.

NEW SHAPE IN KENYA A CULTURE

Small Farmers take Major Role

By BRUCE MCKENZIE
Minister for Agriculture and Animal Husbandry

Our agriculture is taking a new shape as we build up the ownership of land by the African and the production, marketing and processing of his crop.

Smallholder farming is being given a new lease of life. We are now producing more food and cash crops, and we are producing more food and cash crops, and we are producing more food and cash crops.

Small farmers have been able to grow more food crops, to feed the country, and to produce a cash surplus. This is a great achievement. It is a great achievement. It is a great achievement.

One crop which has made a tremendous shift in the last few years is maize. In 1961, only half a million bushels of this crop were produced. In 1962, we produced over two million bushels.

These small farmers are not only producing more food, but they are also producing more cash crops. This is a great achievement. It is a great achievement. It is a great achievement.

During the past two years we have introduced a new system of smallholder farming. This system has been very successful. It has been very successful. It has been very successful.

Small farmers have been able to grow more food crops, to feed the country, and to produce a cash surplus. This is a great achievement. It is a great achievement. It is a great achievement.

These small farmers are not only producing more food, but they are also producing more cash crops. This is a great achievement. It is a great achievement. It is a great achievement.

The three cornerstones of foreign policy

By R. S. MATANO, Assistant Minister for External Affairs

THE working out of all aspects of Kenya's foreign policy - political, economic and cultural - is the main responsibility of the Ministry of External Affairs.

Kenya's foreign policy is based on the principles of independence, sovereignty and non-alignment. It is based on the principles of independence, sovereignty and non-alignment. It is based on the principles of independence, sovereignty and non-alignment.

The three main 'cornerstones' of our foreign policy are: - Firstly, our non-alignment policy. This follows the Kariakoo Conference and is also explained in our Policy Paper No. 16 on African Solidarity. Secondly, the promotion of African unity. This is evident in the Department of Kenya and in the Organisation for African Unity. Thirdly, the total eradication of colonialism. We shall never rest until the whole of Africa is free in Kenya's hands.

Labour's part in the task of building a nation

By E. N. MWENDWA, Minister for Labour and Social Services

DECEMBER 12, 1962, marked the beginning of a new era in Kenya's history. It was a moment which called for the talents and skills of all those who are dedicated to the task ahead—the task of building a nation.

Each Ministry has its own individual responsibilities which all have a common objective: to ensure that Kenya will prosper as a nation in which its people enjoy the fullest benefits of modern life.

Political freedom alone is not enough unless it is followed by certain measures, namely: human progress, peace and human welfare. These are the things which our people hold dear and to which they are entitled to see realised in their own lives.

Two years is an insignificant period in the life of a nation, but it is long enough to have seen the fruits of the Government's policies. It is the Government's duty to ensure that the second anniversary of our independence is celebrated in an appropriate manner.

The objective of the Government is to create a peaceful and harmonious society in which the talents and skills of all those who are dedicated to the task ahead—the task of building a nation.

It is with this objective in mind that the Government has established the National Youth Service, the National Social Security Fund, the National Agricultural Extension and Advisory Services, and the National Technical Training Institute.

Kenya's young people are the backbone of the nation. It is the Government's duty to ensure that they are equipped with the skills and knowledge necessary for the task ahead—the task of building a nation.

The Ministry of Labour and Social Services is committed to the development of the country in accordance with the National Development Plan. It is the Government's duty to ensure that the second anniversary of our independence is celebrated in an appropriate manner.

The objective of the Government is to create a peaceful and harmonious society in which the talents and skills of all those who are dedicated to the task ahead—the task of building a nation.

CO-OPS NO MORE PART OF ECONOMY

By PAUL NGEI, Minister for Co-operatives and Marketing

At the time we attained our independence two years ago, co-operative societies were always a well-established feature of our economic and social structure. They were a major sector of our economy. Because of their success in the field of agricultural marketing and production, their economic activity has increased considerably over the last five years.

With the introduction of co-operatives as an instrument of economic development, the Government has been able to ensure that the co-operative movement is not only a well-established feature of our economic and social structure, but also a major sector of our economy.

Israel is 270 miles long, and almost every inch of it is historically significant. But the Bible is significant to Israel more than a religious and emotional way.

If you've been reading the newspapers in well as your Bible lately, you know that the Bible is being used by archaeologists in their excavations.

A 2,000-year-old irrigation method is being used in the Negev desert because it still works so well.

Thousands of Biblical sites have been discovered, and no one doubts that there will be more.

There are still so many ruins in Israel and the Bible that remain undiscovered. And still so many questions that remain unanswered.

National physical education plan a matter of urgency

By the U. S. Ambassador, member of the International Olympic Committee and chairman of the Kenya Physical Education Association.

The history of our country is a story of progress. One of the main reasons for this progress is the fact that we have a strong physical education system. This system is the result of the efforts of our physical educationists, who have worked hard to develop a strong physical education system for our country. ## Mr. ONEKO SURVEYS TOURISM

Mr. Oneko has been charged with the responsibility of surveying the country for further tourism development. He is expected to report on his findings in the near future.

One of the main objectives of the survey is to identify potential tourism areas and to develop a plan for their development. This plan will be presented to the Government for its consideration.

The survey is being conducted in a systematic and thorough manner. Mr. Oneko is expected to complete his report by the end of the year.

It is hoped that the survey will lead to the development of a strong tourism industry in Kenya. This industry will provide employment and contribute to the country's economic growth.

Changing the face of East Africa

IN the modern Kenya with vast amounts of construction and development going on, many firms are applying themselves to the task of working at break-neck speed and maximum efficiency to meet the requirements of the growing East African economy. One of these firms is Tractor and Machinery Ltd., a complete service where it comes to anything heavy in earth moving, plant hire, road building, land reclamation, dam building, haulage and other similar civil engineering projects.

Principally, the firm hires out all types of earth-moving equipment and agricultural machinery to contractors and Government departments who have contracted large road or agricultural projects, in addition to their own main contracts.

In this way they have greatly helped to speed both development and the firm continued on the work as the heavy sector has benefited the projects which have not had to get valuable capital into their own machinery.

Tractor and Machinery Ltd. has been one of the largest plant hire firms in East Africa and its major pieces they have been advertising have increased in size long from the idea would be. Now, the advances in machine size and power means that they have paid off and more and more contractors are using their machinery with great success.

The firm pointed out that they were constantly on the look-out for more plant and machinery and of course more projects to over the three E. African States.

With keen well-paid staff, Tractor and Machinery Ltd. are reaping the advantage of being able to offer a fleet of earth-moving machinery for contract hire.

Recently, the firm formed an associate company, Tractor and Machinery (Construction) Ltd., covering all civil engineering contractors with a staff of fully qualified experienced engineers.

The total staff of the company numbers more than 1,000 including administrative, technical and working staff.

Tractor and Machinery Ltd. is a great asset to the practical side of development and there is hardly a job of any significance in East Africa in which their equipment has not been used.

and all engineering construction machinery. The firm has many other types of plant for contract hire and earth-moving, mechanical and earth-moving, agricultural, construction and earth-moving, and maintenance of all types of plant. It is a complete service where it comes to anything heavy in earth moving, plant hire, road building, land reclamation, dam building, haulage and other similar civil engineering projects.

30 years of plant hire progress

It is interesting to note the rapid growth of plant hire development in the world. In England, serious plant hire units come available towards the end of the 19th. With the first universal model half-yard excavator being designed. The idea of plant hire developed slowly through the thirties and did more to popularise mechanical equipment, which at first was looked upon with suspicion, in the country than anything else. In addition to people's reluctance to change methods and tactics, with the country in the thirties not doing well, firms that hired equipment often went bankrupt before they had paid for the renting of the machinery.

started, continuous factories, aerodynamic came and many other Government projects began to get under way and the demand for machines for excavation, the supply and repairing equipment in particular was so short that it was not unusual for a man who had hired some machinery to retain it for several years.

Immediately after the war machines were still hard to come by and the demand for hire machines was almost insatiable. It was not until the late '40s that it seemed to have a slight lull, but it was not until the middle '50s that things began to change.

As machines were plentiful, demand was reduced and plant hire companies began to expand. The good ones survived, the bad ones went into liquidation. Tractor and Machinery Ltd. maintains that with their good management, good plant, good service and a good service, a plant hire can show a modest return to investment.

The company was one of the first to start the new project of "PLANT HIRE" and has now been trading for over 10 years. It is not only hired or owned by the firm, but always endeavoured to help build the Kenya Nation and expand the agricultural industry.

work on to help change the face of East Africa. Clearing waste undergrowth for tea, rice and sugar plantations, planting and leveling land for settlement schemes, building roads and clearing land for new townships is all part of Tractor and Machinery's inventory.

The firm has ploughed thousands of acres on contract basis in being newly settled land into production and at the same time carved out feeder roads to railheads and markets.

The speed of the work is essential and vast amounts of clearing and leveling is done with the minimum of delay. Earthmoving is one of the big demands at present in East Africa and the firm has been involved in new products all

The above picture shows one type of "mud" encountered by T. & M. while clearing bush for construction. This tree root weighed over 100 tons and took the combined power of five heavy tractors to move it.

WHY CAN WE UNDERCUT THE TRACTOR-NAME FACTORY?

We ask you kindly to study the matter, and realize the reason for our being able to undercut is through the fact that although our parts may well be, and in some cases we believe actually are, made in the same plant as the name brand parts, we are not the name brand factory. The name brand factory is the one that makes the tractor. The significance of this is that it is normally on the spot that the greater number of parts are made, and it is therefore possible to get the parts in a shorter time, and at a lower price, than the name brand factory. The other fundamental reason is that we have no heavy publicity, development and general overhead charges to add to our making cost, such as the tractor-name factory.

NIGERIA PLANS TEAM MEETING

Kenya wants U.N. boycott on Rhodesia

Britain's Prime Minister, Mr. Wilson, requested yesterday for talks tomorrow. Nigeria's Prime Minister on a plan to call Commonwealth Conference over Rhodesia. Nigeria's President, Mr. Kenyatta, sent a telegram to U.N. Secretary-General, U. Thant, urging African nations against the rebel regime. President Kenyatta told a news conference in Nairobi yesterday that he talks with President Nkomo and produced firm proposals on Rhodesia and the Zambia Cabinet takes immediate decisions pending quick talks. He said it would be no use having further talks with Rhodesia until the British Minister of State, Mr. Hughes, visits in Lusaka on Wednesday. The proposal for Commonwealth Ministers' Conference suggested by Nigeria's Prime Minister, Mr. Awolowo, is to debate ways of bringing Mr. Nkomo to an end. It may well be the first African summit to be held outside London.

Smiles of delight wreath the faces of the President, Mr. Kenyatta, and the Deputy Commander of the Kenya Army, Lt-Col. Mado, as they watch the Army parade past during yesterday's Jubilee anniversary celebrations at Jamhuri Park.

POMP AND JOY SEAL THE FIRST TWO YEARS

We have defied pessimists, crowd told at Jamhuri celebrations

The second anniversary of Kenya's independence was celebrated in a blaze of colour and ceremony at Jamhuri Park yesterday. Thousands watched as the President in an open car drove in procession around the showground before arriving at the dais to be greeted by the Vice-President, Mr. Odaga. With him was his wife, Mrs. Ngina Kenyatta. The anniversary's other celebrations also included a garden-party at State House, attended by some 2,000 guests, among them the Crown Prince of Ethiopia, Prince Merid Amatch Adalem Wossen. The President mingled with the guests.

MANY LOSE RIGHT TO CLAIM CITIZENSHIP

PERSONS who were qualified to be automatic Kenyan citizens but who still held any other citizenship ceased to be Kenya citizens at midnight on Saturday. The Minister for Home Affairs, Mr. Moi, said in a statement yesterday. "Since Kenya attained independence, the Government has endeavoured to ensure that all persons who were eligible to be Kenyan citizens have had an opportunity to register their citizenship in Kariakoo, Nairobi, December 12."

"It is hereby notified for general information that the time limit will not be extended. It is also notified that persons who have not registered their citizenship in Kariakoo, Nairobi, December 12, are not Kenyan citizens and are not entitled to the rights of Kenyan citizens."

Gemini cuts out on pad

American plan for a nebula in space between two stars is being rejected by the International Astronomical Union, which yesterday said that the nebula is not a nebula at all. Cape Kennedy Scientific said the nebula is a nebula. "A nebula is a nebula," said the Cape Kennedy Scientific said.

38 KILLED IN SOUTH SUDAN

Thirty-eight people were killed and 100 wounded in a tribal fighting in the southern Sudan yesterday. The fighting was between the Dinka and Nuer tribes. The fighting was in the area of the Nile river. The fighting was in the area of the Nile river.

Trap's jaws closed on Vietcong

American Marines have by helicopter snatched 400 Vietcong prisoners in an attempt to trap several Vietcong battalions fighting 20 miles south of Ha Nam. The Marines were lashed with mortar positions were destroyed by self-saturating bombing runs by American Superfortresses. First reports reaching the Marines said the Vietcong were treating resistance as they pushed forward on foot from the valley's edge.

The battle, in a guerrilla stronghold south of the city of Ha Nam, has been going on for several days. It is believed that the Vietcong have been hit by a massive air attack. INSTANTATIC MOVIE CAMERAS

KODAK announces a complete new system of movie-making. A new kind of movie camera loads instantly, automatically. A new kind of movie film gives you clearer, sharper movies. A new kind of movie projector lets you screen seven different movies. Just slip the KODAKPAK Movie Camera into the KODAK INSTANTATIC Movie Camera and shoot a complete movie in bright color movies. No threading. No winding. No need to flip the film. In fact, your hands never even touch the film! And on your screen-comes that movie that you've never seen the way you'd like to see it!

Street lettering
 It is a pity that the street lettering in London is so poor. The letters are often faded, illegible, and in many cases, they are missing altogether. It is a disgrace that the City of London should be in such a state of neglect. The Corporation should take steps to improve the lettering, as it is a reflection on the city's appearance and the care taken by its officials.

Murdering English
 It is highly regrettable that the English language is being murdered in many parts of the world. This is due to the influence of other languages, particularly American English, which is being imposed on the native English-speaking population. This is a tragedy, as it leads to the loss of the unique character and richness of the English language. We must take steps to preserve and protect our language, as it is a vital part of our cultural heritage.

N. NYERERE WILL STICK TO DECISION

Commonwealth ties unaffected by break

Mr. Nyerere last night reaffirmed his decision to break off diplomatic relations with Britain today if she had not acted to end the Rhodesian crisis, in accordance with the recent resolution of the United Nations.

A speech lasting for more than an hour, the President emphasised that the decision did not mean that he was severing ties with all Commonwealth countries, but only with those who were not standing against British citizens living in Rhodesia.

VESTIGE DROP FOR O.A.U. OVER RHODESIA DENIED

Prime Minister Sheikh Abubakar Awad, arriving in Addis Ababa yesterday for an interview with British ministers in his proposal for a Commonwealth conference on Rhodesia, was reported to have said that the O.A.U. would not be granted a vestige drop for its refusal to accept the Rhodesian situation.

At the same time, Awad was reported to have said that the O.A.U. would not be granted a vestige drop for its refusal to accept the Rhodesian situation.

Mr. Awad's visit to Addis Ababa is his first since he was appointed Prime Minister in July. He is expected to meet with British ministers in Addis Ababa on Wednesday and Thursday.

Kenya statement on Somalia talks

Kenya Minister for External Affairs, Mr. J. M. Njiru, today announced that the Government of Kenya had received a statement from the Somali Government regarding the recent talks between the two countries.

Mr. Njiru said that the Somali Government had expressed its willingness to discuss the outstanding issues between the two countries, but that it had also made it clear that it was not prepared to accept any conditions that would be imposed by the United Nations or any other international body.

He said that the Kenyan Government was pleased to hear that the Somali Government was willing to discuss the issues, but that it was also concerned that the Somali Government was not prepared to accept any conditions that would be imposed by the United Nations or any other international body.

Mr. Njiru said that the Kenyan Government was prepared to discuss the issues with the Somali Government, but that it was also prepared to defend its own interests and the interests of the people of Kenya.

Small-scale irrigation would lessen famine

Small-scale irrigation in Malawi must be advanced only by large-scale projects and the Government should take steps to expand the Water Act (Amendment) Bill by the President's Commission.

Members of the policy committee held a meeting in the Malawi House of Representatives yesterday.

Members were divided into two main camps. The one which favoured irrigation was the view that small-scale irrigation would be of great benefit to the people who were suffering from famine in Malawi.

The other view was that large-scale irrigation would be of greater benefit to the people who were suffering from famine in Malawi.

The Minister of Water, Mr. M. S. Mwaanga, said that the Government would not be able to carry out the irrigation programme unless the Water Act (Amendment) Bill was passed.

THE WINNERS

Left: The winner team consist, Chris Bates (left) and Paddy Cliff. February to fly in with better weather, but on a request to stage the cover in conjunction with the Jahari anniversary celebrations, it was decided only a month after to Nairobi.

Air Safari proves a great attraction

DESPITE a drop in entries, this year's Flying Safari proved as successful as its organizers had intended. It "opened" on Monday afternoon.

From the flush of enthusiasm in the first Safari in 1964, entrants dropped year after year from 28 to 20. Originally, it had been intended to run the competition from February to 8th in with better weather, but on a request to stage the cover in conjunction with the Jahari anniversary celebrations, it was decided only a month after to Nairobi.

Winner among the 20 entries lined up at Wilson Airport on Saturday and 20 taxed in an airfield at Nairobi on Monday afternoon.

As it was, the weather proved kind and pilots reported reasonable flying conditions along the route. No Kenya Air Force machines took part this year, nor did Uganda enter the fray.

Tanzania was represented by four aircraft, one of which is a Twin Commando flown by a Ruffe of British origin, and a former Mr. Peter Ugan, and a former West Kilimanjaro Mr. J. Milward - secured the second prize.

The overall winners, Mr. Chris Bates and Mr. Paddy Cliff, led the field throughout in their Cessna 280. Both had had considerable experience behind a steering yoke, including the East African Safari in 1965.

On Saturday morning the aircraft took off from Wilson Airport to begin the first section of the navigational leg to Malindi, carrying Kevokwa, Namanga, Kamboya and Bantia.

When the pilots were asked to fly at Malindi, the Bute-Coffin Cessna was ahead. Close behind were a Taurus and Mr. J. A. Davison in a Taurus. Government Pilot Agache, who on the 1st was the Chevoke 213 of the managing director of an air charter company, Mr. John Williams, and Mr. Ian Substantia.

The pilots took off from Malindi on Monday morning for Nairobi for the final section of the navigation leg, and the first aircraft arrived in Nairobi before seven o'clock.

In the overall navigational leg, Mr. J. C. O'Connell and Mr. M. Lawrence in a Cessna Skyhawk moved to a second position. The Williams-Bullstrand aircraft held on to third place.

On the second section of the navigational leg, Mr. Elbertson and Mr. Davison fell back, though they were still running second in the commercial pilot division of the competition.

The youngest team taking part - 18-year-old Miss Aileen Elbertson, and an up-country medical family, and Mr. Aileen Elbertson in a Cessna 180 were placed fourth in the private pilot section of the navigational leg.

The race section of the safari began soon after noon on Monday - the results lying over Mweiga to a compulsory stop at Nakuru and then via Kericho and Kericho to Nairobi.

Above: A Bute-Coffin Cessna, with its second fuel, receives attention from the fuel tender and its attendants at Wilson Airport. Top: A marshal guides in one of the entrants.

Co-operation vital to forming a healthy economy

Africa was making every effort to co-ordinate its economic activities, the Hon. Mr. G. G. Gibson, said yesterday. "Our primary aim should be made away to co-ordinate the various departments of the State for the rapid development of our economies," he told delegates at the opening of an international seminar on Economic Co-operation in Nairobi.

TEN MIGHT HAVE BEGUN RIOT BY 1,000

Several staff members of the Government were said to have been spreading the word of the camp - a total of 1000 - in the area of Nakuru Magistrates Court house.

The charges of a riot were likely to lead to a riot in the area of Nakuru Magistrates Court house. The charges were made by several staff members of the Government.

ZAMBIANS COMPARE SERVICES

Gatecrasher jailed for two years

A GONGOLLE charged with a breach of the Criminal Code, was sentenced to two years imprisonment for breaking into a building and stealing. The court was told that the defendant had broken into a building and stolen a sum of money.

SIR SAMUEL THANKS STAFF FOR HELP

THE President of the Court of Appeal for Eastern Africa, Sir Samuel M. M. M., thanked his staff for their help in the recent past. He said that his staff had been working very hard to assist him in his duties.

More than 40 delegates from 14 countries in Africa, Europe and America are attending the seminar, which will continue this week at the University College, Nairobi. The seminar is being organized by the Ministry of Education and the Ministry of Commerce and Industry.

It was generally thought that basic conditions for economic development and co-operation differed not just in content but from region to region. Nevertheless, something can always be learnt from the experience of others. As you all know, Africa is making every effort to co-ordinate its economic activities and to bring the methods by which other regions have achieved their success to our attention.

There is a great deal of co-operation between the various countries in the region. This co-operation is being carried out in many different ways. Some of the ways in which co-operation is being carried out are through the exchange of information, the sharing of resources, and the joint development of projects.

The court was told that the defendant had broken into a building and stolen a sum of money. The court sentenced him to two years imprisonment for this offence. The court also ordered that the defendant's name be placed on the register of convicted persons.

KENYA AT THE UNITED NATIONS Embassy

Ambassador leads a strong team

MURKIN, who recently visited the United States on the Pan American Airways flight, describes Kenya's role at the United Nations.

One of the most familiar, though the newest, members of the New York skyline is the United Nations building. Since the East-West axis of the United Nations, Kenya is now given a strong voice in the Security Council. The United Nations building, located on East 47th Street, between 45th and 49th Streets, is a fine example of modern architecture. It is a landmark in the city of New York. The United Nations is a unique organization, and its members are from all over the world. Kenya is a proud member of this organization, and its Ambassador, Mr. Robert M. Muganyizi, is a strong leader. He has led a strong team of Kenyan officials to the United Nations, and they have been successful in many of their efforts. The United Nations is a place where peace and justice are sought, and Kenya is a strong supporter of these goals. The United Nations is a place where the voices of all nations are heard, and Kenya is a strong voice in this organization.

Mr. Robert M. Muganyizi, Ambassador of Kenya.

Mr. George M. Brown, U.S. Representative.

Mr. George M. Brown, U.S. Representative.

Inquiry promised after protest on assault

The United Nations Security Council has promised to make a full inquiry into the alleged assault on a Kenyan student in New York City. The student, Mr. James O. Ochieng, was assaulted by a group of men in New York City on December 10, 1962. The assault was a serious violation of the law, and the United Nations Security Council has promised to make a full inquiry into the matter. The United Nations Security Council is a body of 15 members, and it is responsible for maintaining international peace and security. The United Nations Security Council has the authority to take action against any country that is a threat to international peace and security. The United Nations Security Council has promised to make a full inquiry into the assault on Mr. Ochieng, and it is expected that the inquiry will be completed in the near future. ## 1,500 STUDENTS

Mr. Muganyizi's role is to lead a team of 1,500 Kenyan students who are studying in the United States. The students are from all over Kenya, and they are studying in various fields of study. The United States is a leading country in the world, and it is a place where the students can receive a high quality education. The United States is a place where the students can learn about the American way of life, and they can gain a better understanding of the world. # FOR ONCE FORGET THOSE PRACTICAL PRESENTS

By Ann Balfanz

Of every Christmas present she says "I haven't been to a party in months and get so tired when I go to one, I shall have to make something, I haven't even thought about it yet."

It is usually the women who are window shopping for the best gifts. They are usually the women who are the most careful to get the best gifts. They are usually the women who are the most careful to get the best gifts.

To insure the present is to arrive for the recipient and not for the sender, it is important to get the best gifts. They are usually the women who are the most careful to get the best gifts.

Thinking of the best gifts, she says that the best gifts are the ones that are the most useful. They are usually the women who are the most careful to get the best gifts.
