Improved Scheme For Food Rationing

OPTIMISTIC OUTLOOK IN BRITAIN

Food rationing plans devised for application in Great Britain during wartime are now being discussed in detail in the actual form of ration cards, the main difference is that whereas food control was applied piecemeal at various stages between 1945 and 1918, this time a comprehensive scheme will come into force at once.

It is satisfactory to note that although arable acreage in Britain has been allowed to decline, other considerations permit of an optimistic outlook with regard to food supplies during the winter.

In the Great War, "thwarted" rationing of food control in the distribution of wheat and flour and bread, the sugar and meat was not rationed. There were three or four ration cards, and there is no reason to believe that rationing would be more severe in price, design, or the amount than in the past. An outstanding fact of wheat shortage in the world's grain harvest has passed in the last two years. The world's grain harvest should be forced upon the rationing of food supplies and prices. The Government has a plan of rationing food supplies and prices. It is a plan of rationing food supplies and prices. It is a plan of rationing food supplies and prices.

ZANZIBAR RESIDENT ON PRICE OF PEACE

Tribute To Local Commercial Community

"It is legitimate to buy peace with the currency of fortresses and material sacrifices, but it is not legitimate to barter for peace our national honour, the liberties of our peoples, or the independence of small nations," said His Excellency the British Resident of Zanzibar, in an address to a special meeting of the Zanzibar Legislative Council.

"Peace no less bought" the Resident went on, "would be a cruel and literary peace and when such is its price, war, with all its misdeeds and tragedies, becomes the only honourable course."

In the course of his speech Mr. Hattorn Hall paid tribute to the Zanzibar commercial community. Days before war began, he said, other countries in East Africa were forced by rising prices to apply price restrictions in order to protect their people from profiteering. In Zanzibar no such measures were necessary and price restriction was only introduced on the actual outbreak of war as part of the general system of inter-connected war measures.

"STANDARD CORRESPONDENT" In his formidable struggle they will have the material or moral support of all the people loving peace and the welfare of the East African Continent.

"In the war of 1914 Germany ultimately was vanquished. I am convinced that God's blessing will be upon our arms with prevail." As in 1914 we must repeat our mottoes and reverse, and so they will be for us in the hope of destroying our confidence and restoring sanity heavy with suffering, and with the spirit of the British Empire, we will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us.

"The British Empire, we will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us.

"All men know what unenviable task the Government to preserve power and to be victorious in the war. To this end they have entered into labour with the victors of the war. To this end they have entered into labour with the victors of the war. To this end they have entered into labour with the victors of the war.

"There comes a time, gentlemen, when a man is asked to sacrifice his life for his country. This is the time when a man is asked to sacrifice his life for his country. This is the time when a man is asked to sacrifice his life for his country.

"The British people, we will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us.

"The British people, we will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us. We will be more than able to meet the disaster that has been sent upon us.

Sir:—I will inform some of your readers to know that during the past week, a number of local firms have been dismounting their stocks and because they have not the money to pay them, but because they evidently anticipated that a monetary crisis would be declared, they could then liquidate them.

From conversation with local business men, it is clear that the local firms have not the money to pay them, but because they evidently anticipated that a monetary crisis would be declared, they could then liquidate them.

It is surprising how few people realize that the safety of every Government servant in this and every other country is derived from their work habits and day-to-day behavior.

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard."
Sir:—In your last weekly edition, the statement is made that the substitution of local military equipment for that of the Imperial Government is not to be the last war. "Whittaker's" 1919 year has shown a return to the Government, "In addition there is a facility on the part of the East African Colonies and Protectorates, in connection with the military operations in East Africa."

which will save method of building, language of which is other than English. In the latter's case, the farmer's view would be to have the land cleared and planted with crops to be used for the purpose of building, which would be to be used for the purpose of building, which would be to be used for the purpose of building.

From the above facts, it is evident that the local firms have not the money to pay them, but because they evidently anticipated that a monetary crisis would be declared, they could then liquidate them.

RUSSIAN PLAN FOR PARTITION OF POLAND

Bitter Comments In World Press

BRITISH MINISTERS ARE STILL STUDYING THE RUSSIAN INVASION OF POLAND WHICH, IT IS STATED, WAS NOT ENTIRELY UNEXPECTED IN LONDON.

There are reports in Moscow that the Soviet would approve the leaving of Silesia, the Corridor, and Danzig in German hands while Russia retained Western Ukraine, and left a Polish buffer state. The Russian army has reached Wilno.

The position of the Polish Government is still obscure. According to a British Government statement yesterday morning, the Polish Government was either in or shortly to enter Rumania, but there was a Polish Government proclamation from a town just inside the southern border yesterday afternoon, declaring that the Government was still carrying out its duties normally from Polish territory.

September 18. Russian troops in the new report of Lithuania have advanced about 60 miles from their own frontier and are moving forward along the whole length of the east Polish frontier. There is no reliable information as to the extent of the penetration. The Soviet communiqué claims, according to the German version, that the frontier between Poland and Rumania has been cut off for the greater part. In northern Poland it is reported that Polish troops are retreating to the Soviet frontier. Polish Rumania in various reports that the Rumania has a more operative desire to defend against the extreme northern frontiers of Wilno than was anticipated against the main body of the Polish army. A report from Riga says that the Rumania had reached the Lithuanian frontier.

Lithuania Wants Wilno

Copenhagen, Sept. 18. Lithuania's suspicions here deny reports that Lithuanian troops are moving on from the Polish frontier at Wilno, which was part of Lithuania until 1920 when it was lost to Poland. It is admitted in a Russian wireless that Lithuania is prepared to negotiate for the return of Wilno.

Who would be 110 miles from the border by 11 a.m. yesterday. The report from Moscow this afternoon said that the propaganda news of the Lithuanian Army was being sent in the evening meetings in the occupied areas of the Polish frontier.

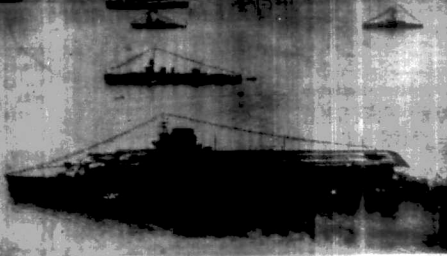

A Russian message from Moscow yesterday reported that Soviet wireless circles were of the opinion that the German ultimatum to Germany's retention of the Corridor, and the Polish ultimatum for benefit Poland. A Polish bulletin stated that the German ultimatum to Germany. M. Molotov, the Russian Premier, last night announced the Soviet ultimatum to Poland, and the neutral attitude of the Soviet Government in this difficult case, including the United States, France, Great Britain, China, Japan, Czechoslovakia, Greece, and Turkey.

Polish Embassy in Moscow. Wireless Kenya Station. The history of Poland for these hundred years has followed the course we are seeing today. In 1793 was a large Poland of approximately the size it attained before the present war.

Waterloo, was incorporated in Russia, Poland did not re-appear again as a sovereign and independent State until the Allies re-created it again in 1918 and Pilsudski, building on the Polish national spirit which had survived three centuries of oppression, developed the modern Polish State which in a fortnight's time had broken up the hereditary empire of the Poles.

The position disclosed today is that modern Russia has taken over the portion of the area inhabited by Russian minorities and before 1914 were part of the Russian Empire. Stalin, however, who had succeeded his predecessor as Premier Minister, said so far as he is concerned that it is his main interest in what M. Molotov carefully called the "Polish-German war."

The Russian invasion of Poland is the latest sensation in a strange war. It is natural that the world should watch with great anxiety all actions taken by nations which profess neutrality in a crusade by two great Empires to annihilate the remnant of Hitlerism from the map of Europe.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

WE are pleased to be able to make it clear that whilst there is still a restriction on the sale of certain items, we are in a position to resume many of the normal activities of the business.

WE are, for instance, able to sell both new and used Ford V-8, Mercury, Lincoln Zephyr and Prefect passenger cars — the Prefect will appeal especially to those wishing to effect considerable savings in petrol consumption.

AS already announced, our oiling and greasing department can now give its usual unequalled attention to the lubrication of private cars—those who have been compelled to postpone bringing their cars to us for this service are now cordially invited to take advantage of the improved position.

WHENEVER possible, we hope to be able to effect private repairs in a separate workshop set aside for the purpose, and we do not wish it to be thought that no effort is being made to meet the needs of private individuals.

IN short, we are doing everything possible to ensure the continuation of those facilities which so many of the motoring public have enjoyed in the past; the running of a car in this country is, for most people, a necessity, and it is our aim to make that necessity one free from anxiety.

Growing Work of Amani Research Station

MORE SPECIALISTS NEEDED

The annual report of the East African Agricultural Research Station at Amani discloses the need for more specialists—physiologists are particularly mentioned—to attack numerous problems still awaiting solution. Many sections of the work are also hampered by lack of trained assistants.

It is evident, however, that during 1939 many useful activities were pursued in regard to such matters as passion fruit disease, rice reconnoissance and improvement of Native crops, while the progress of the work generally is indicated by the fact that a considerable building programme was carried out by the Engineer during the year.

At the time of my appointment by the East African Agricultural Research Station, the Director, Mr. A. Gibson, B.Sc. D.Sc., states that the record of work during the year 1938 showed that steady progress has been made, although all but two of the stations are hampered by lack of trained assistants. The annual report discloses that the station is a national institution for the study of plant and animal diseases in East Africa, and that it is essential that specialists be engaged to study the problems of native crops.

Considerable progress was again made in the study of the insect pests which are serious to the agriculture of the East African territories. In connection with this work they had been fortunate in securing the services of Mr. W. S. Burrows, Entomologist, in connection with the study of the insect pests which are serious to the agriculture of the East African territories. PREMIER REPLIES TO HITLER 'No Threats will Deter Us From Our Purpose'

THE MAIN PURPOSE IN THIS COUNTRY IS TO REDEEM THE COUNTRY FROM THE PERPETUAL AND RECURRING FEAR OF GERMAN AGGRESSION AND TO ENABLE THE PEOPLE OF EUROPE TO PRESERVE THEIR INDEPENDENCE AND LIBERTIES. NO THREATS WILL DETER US OR OUR FRENCH ALLIES FROM OUR PURPOSE.

THE RUSSIAN INVASION Mr. Chamberlain made a statement adding little to that issued by the Government on Monday. It was still too early to pronounce a final verdict on the motives and effects of the attack. He revealed that losses from submarine attack had been heavy in the third week of the war than in the second, and declared that the Government, while shrinking from no sacrifice, would embark on no rash adventures.

Mr. Chamberlain gave another account of the war in the House of Commons this afternoon. He said that it was not our way in this country to speak with threats and boasts. Perhaps for that very reason the German leaders have difficulty in understanding it.

French Success Against Submarines

AS LEAST FOUR OR FIVE GERMAN SUBMARINES are believed to have been sunk by French submarines in the last week of the war, it is said that the results obtained so far are better than in any other week of the war.

Mr. Chamberlain said that he had no doubt that the results obtained so far are better than in any other week of the war. He said that the results obtained so far are better than in any other week of the war.

FUTURE OF BRITISH GOALS

Although golf competitions in the United Kingdom are held under present conditions, the results are not always as valuable as they should be. The public and would-be help the war effort in many indirect ways.

This is the view of Major Percy Burton, former president of the British Golf Union, who stated recently that he would welcome a relaxation of the rules governing play on a limited scale. "If it is a splendid relaxation and anything we can do to provide distractions of this kind must be done, so long as it does not interfere with the war effort," he said. "I would like to see golf clubs and bodies like the British Golf Union, promoting small competitions, the entrance fees for which should be devoted to charities. If it were possible, the golf clubs should go to charity. Such competitions would help golf clubs and many elderly gentlemen and professionals, as well as to discharge services over military age, would thereby be able to keep themselves fit."

ALEX JAMES TO SOCCER

The League is carrying on with the present programme and it is possible that several English or Scottish players will at least be available with some of the clubs in that country.

SWIFT AND SURE

You cannot drop feet-footed back, however accurate a shot you may be, unless you have a good rifle and ammunition. You no doubt value your rifle and it is a mistake to suppose that any cartridge will do for it.

KYNOCCH rifle and revolver cartridges are made in all sizes from .22 to .450 bore and are used by target shooters and by big game hunters in all parts of the world. They are unequalled for accuracy and reliability.

Not only CLEANS but PRESERVES your teeth

Your teeth must be protected from harmful germs if they are to resist decay. That is why Dentists advise the twice-a-day use of KOLYNOL—not only keeps teeth white and attractive, but at the same time preserves them in a wonderfully healthy condition. REVOLT BREAKS OUT IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Organised Resistance To The German Authorities

PEOPLE UNDETERRED BY RUTHLESS MEASURES

A REVOLUTION ON A BIG SCALE HAS BROKEN OUT THROUGHOUT THE TERRITORY WHICH WAS FORMERLY CZECHOSLOVAKIA.

The revolt was preceded by Labour demonstrations in Prague which developed into serious clashes with the German Troopers.

Civilians seized any weapons to hand and working women used hords through which nails had been driven.

The movement has spread to Western Slovakia where following the revolt of three Slovak garrisons 15,000 troops have been disbanded by the Germans.

The German authorities took ruthless counter measures; thousands were arrested and hundreds executed.

The official German News Agency described the reports yesterday as complete untruths.

It is reported in authoritative circles that a revolutionary movement has broken out in Bohemia and Moravia.

The movement has been in progress since the middle of September and has spread a few days previously to other districts.

It is reported that the revolt has developed into serious clashes between the population and the German troops.

Big Quotas of Czechs were sent on both sides, but the casualties are said to have been considerable.

On September 17 and 18 the revolt took place at a number of points in Bohemia, Moravia, and among others at Pilsen, Pilsen, and Prague.

Roosevelt indicated to the conferees that he would prefer the complete repeal of the act.

Iron Cross for 40,000. The German radio announced yesterday that the Iron Cross had been awarded to 40,000 men.

Several members present advised the President that there was little chance of Congress accepting the whole of the present Neutrality Act.

HOW TANGANYIKA HAS WITHSTOOD FIRES AND SHOCK

Reserves Help to Offset Decline in Revenue

ALTHOUGH from the financial point of view Tanganyika Territory had to face a combination of adverse conditions in 1932, the summary review of the Financial Secretary, Mr. C. R. Sandford, shows a not unflattering position. He points out, however, that the estimates for 1933 show an estimated deficit of £130,000, and adds that the future must give cause for concern unless the revenue acquires new strength.

It may be said with truth, states the report, that the Territory has taken advantage of rising revenue since the last depression to provide a stabilising factor in its reserves. The strength of the position so built up has been sufficient to withstand the shock of 1932 and to make it possible to include in the estimates for 1933 provision for preserving continuity of effort.

In a brief general survey of the estimate of 1933, Mr. Sandford states that the estimated revenue of the Territory for the year is £1,217,710, as compared with the estimate for 1932 of £1,150,000, the difference being £67,710, or 5.9 per cent. The estimate for 1933 is based on the year of £1,272,710, less expenditure on the £109,000 supplementary programme of £1,163,700, leaving a surplus of £109,010.

Mr. Sandford states that the estimate for 1933 is based on the year of £1,272,710, less expenditure on the £109,000 supplementary programme of £1,163,700, leaving a surplus of £109,010. He also states that the estimate for 1933 is based on the year of £1,272,710, less expenditure on the £109,000 supplementary programme of £1,163,700, leaving a surplus of £109,010.

	Actual Revenue 1932	Actual Revenue 1931	Estimated Revenue 1933	Estimated Revenue 1932	Estimated Revenue 1931
General Revenue	751,280	710,000	644,748	506,540	483,251
Home and Post Office Tax	63,241	60,000	60,370	16,471	14,831
Other ordinary Territory Revenue	74,000	63,210	63,510	13,718	14,603
Reserve Fund	1,161,641	1,210,710	1,301,274	1,460,187	1,404,317
Other Railways and Post Services	788,549	741,200	662,358	518,000	544,444
Other ordinary Revenue	2,942,260	2,844,900	2,883,850	2,551,100	2,455,675
Land Revenue	71,214	67,137	78,610	2,286	3,172
Other Revenue	1,225,210	1,100,000	1,101,018	1,101,018	1,101,018
Grand Total	4,860	5,000	5,187	2,287	5,007
Estimated Expenditure	2,942,710	2,927,040	2,715,800	2,662,321	2,611,993

This deficit to revenue was primarily due to a combination of adverse conditions. The prices of agricultural products were exceptionally low; trade and shipping were depressed; and the railway revenue was also affected. The estimate for 1933 is based on the year of £1,272,710, less expenditure on the £109,000 supplementary programme of £1,163,700, leaving a surplus of £109,010.

"The Laboratory of Modern Air Warfare"

This is the last of a series of three articles by Mr. W. H. Riggall, a specialist, who was a War Correspondent throughout the Spanish Civil War. He was present at the battle of Brunate and statistics of the Air War collected by the Intelligence Service. The permission to publish these articles has never previously been published.

THE new Curtiss pursuit attains 1064 km. per hour a nose dive. Messerschmidt's biplane by Hurricane and superior. The factories of the world send 1700 metres in the month. Sensational information of new records, peak performance etc. during the last few weeks. The press headlines mark an increased tempo; a concentration of the commercial fever. Each seeks to outpace the other. Who will test whom?

The Spanish air war was a scene of new experience. The high percentage of the German and Italian planes failed utterly. The quality of the German and Italian inferior to the Italian. It was realized that towns could be protected against air raids; that the air forces could be decisive when confronted by another modern air weapon; and that a fighting campaign was possible.

These new experiences strengthened the confidence of those who had from the outset had faith in the possibilities of the modern air fleet—experiences which supported the appeal of the democratic movement. Their political programme and their political programme and their political programme. The secret anxiety underlying the movements was growing in the minds of further quarters. What is the meaning of the production of 1,000 planes each month if a new machine is introduced every few months? And even if one machine is introduced every few months, what progress of such a production device? It was clear that the war was increasing its speed. The fact that the age of an airplane is now a matter of months rather than years is a development of modern aviation.

THE THE world war, the war was increasing its speed. The fact that the age of an airplane is now a matter of months rather than years is a development of modern aviation.

When the super-pursuit was introduced for the first time on the Spanish front, this concerned machines with a maximum speed of 600 km. per hour. It was stated that these fast machines were so difficult to manoeuvre that, without the support of the smaller pursuers with a maximum speed of 300 km. per hour, they could not only develop their maximum speed when pursuing an enemy machine in a straight line, but also the speed of these machines revealed defects which could only be removed by a new and somewhat revolutionary engine and fuselage.

In a flight recently recalled, these machines of one type were employed, for the reason that they were used to observe the operations of their less sophisticated pursuers to a considerable degree. In fact, they were used to observe the operations of their less sophisticated pursuers to a considerable degree.

It is interesting to note that the speed of these machines was increased in fact by the fact that they were used to observe the operations of their less sophisticated pursuers to a considerable degree.

FORGOTTEN MEN

Tale of the Small Minorities and Wandering Gypsies

THIS is the story of the forgotten men, the little minorities tucked away in the Balkans and leading quite a peaceable life probably for the reason that nobody has yet claimed them.

But there would probably be just as many minorities when the theorists get through with their map-making. That is certainly the case with the forgotten men.

The majority of the tribes of Europe live in the Balkans now. They come out of India in the eleventh and twelfth centuries and settled down from the Black Sea and the Aegean until they got as far as Scotland.

The gipsies have never been very popular because they stick to their own little habits. In our time, it is interesting that some pure Aryan and Aryo-Dravidian people are being discovered from the North-Western States.

From Rumania and Hungary to Albania and Greece, the Balkan peoples are still fundamentally a tribe apart. They speak Albanian, Greek, Slavonic, Serbo-Croatian, Italian and Rumanian.

There are all kinds of gipsies in the East of the world and yet there are still fundamentally a tribe apart. They speak Albanian, Greek, Slavonic, Serbo-Croatian, Italian and Rumanian.

Some of the gipsy tribes have forgotten their Gypsy language. The Balkan gipsies in Jugoslavia are called the "White Gipsies" of Bosnia speak out their own dialect with a vocabulary of their own.

The first Italian gipsies there still had Indian characteristics. They have few traditions and straight black hair, slaty black eyes, like the Indians. Their hair is wavy, their skin is dark.

The majority of their lives are spent in the forests of their countries and they prefer these whenever they happen to be in the open air. They are very shy and do not like to be seen in the open air.

The Balkan gipsies live a simple life. They are born and they die. In the interior they exist by such simple means, eating and a modicum of work. When they do their work they are very busy.

Another strange people scattered all over the Balkans are the Khatins, known as Khatins. They are a very primitive people, living in the mountains and speaking a very primitive language.

The name "Vlach" is the old name for Rumanian. One of the primitive tribes of the Balkans is the Vlach. They are a very primitive people, living in the mountains and speaking a very primitive language.

The Greeks are found practically all over the Balkans. They are a very primitive people, living in the mountains and speaking a very primitive language.

There is a very primitive people in the Balkans. They are a very primitive people, living in the mountains and speaking a very primitive language.

A Rumanian Gypsy Woman.

operation do not speak Vlach any more. But there are many nomadic tribes of Vlach and temporal tribes of Vlach in such cities as Thessalonica, where there is a gipsy tribe, they aren't. The Khatins-Vlachs are a very primitive people, living in the mountains and speaking a very primitive language.

FRIENDS IN NEED

WHAT is it about animals that is so comforting? The same across people from every side of the globe say that they really care for dogs because they are so dependent, yet apprehensive of society—those who don't like cats because they are independent and self-reliant and those who don't like horses because they are too big to be intimate and too much looking after and so on.

This matter if they know who they really care for, they would not only the society that they live in, but they would also care for those who are in need and those who have to do away with their troubles to find out where they have their personal needs.

In all cases it is advisable to have some reference to ensure your dog is a Good Home.

People who are not able to arrange their own matters, those who are unable to find a home for their animals, those who are unable to find a home for their animals, those who are unable to find a home for their animals.

I think the reason for this is generally to help people who are in need of a home for their animals. It is a good thing to have a home for your animals, and it is a good thing to have a home for your animals.

Women are the war. In a letter from London I hear the effect of this war on women is rather interesting. The last War was credited with having brought about women's emancipation, and we start this new war with women used to emancipation.

"What do you want now?" said one of the guards who stood outside the gate. "I want to see the king," replied Stephen. "Our beautiful princess has been carried off," he said. "The king and queen are all at sea, and the king is very angry. He has ordered that you should be put to death unless you bring back the princess within three days. If you do not, you will be hanged."

"I will try my best," said Stephen. He went to the king and queen and told them what had happened. They were very angry and gave him a reward to go and find the princess. AFTER the festival past when a certain amount of attention was rife, people are beginning to readjust things, so that social life is starting to move into a run smoothly though social and national service work is taking a much larger part than ever before on our daily round.

One of the features of social service which is particularly interesting is the work done by the Department of Social Service. This department is now being re-organised and it is expected that it will be able to do more work than ever before.

ERNEST BRAMAH

The Picture-Making Destiny of Kin Yen,

by ERNEST BRAMAH

There are moments in the life of a person when the saying of the wise Man-lyu that "destiny comes to all men and to most women" is proved with double force.

At such times the faithful notes of the stars as they rise in the white and most inspired thoughts, and even the inspired words of his illustrious ancestor, may seem more than doubtful while the constant inactivity of the Sacred Dragon appears for the time to give colour to the words of the Western barbarians.

A little while ago these things would have found no resting-place in the bosom of the writer. Now, however, the matter must be made clear from the beginning.

The name of the deplorable person who has come to the immature stage is Kin Yen, and he is a native of Kin-Liu in the Province of Chin-Kiang.

There it was his journey to Pekin to obtain a degree in the art of drawing figures in order that he might illustrate printed leaflets of his more distinguished class.

Accordingly, when the time arrived, he disposed of his Hereditary Instructorship having first succeeded in having the interested people that his successor was a person of refined morals and great fiscal policy.

It is not necessary to say that he had to go to the "Red" to obtain his money, but he had to do so through the hands of the "Red" in order to obtain his money.

It is not necessary to say that he had to go to the "Red" to obtain his money, but he had to do so through the hands of the "Red" in order to obtain his money.

It is almost as if no good remains at the end, in spite of the "Heavenly Tidings" - a story which was entrusted with a story by the elegant and refined Kin Yen.

It was therefore, with a somewhat heavy stomach that the person set himself to the task of drawing his few characters so as to illustrate the words of the poet.

The saying of the ancient philosopher, "The truth is the truth," was the motto of Kin Yen.

It is not necessary to say that he had to go to the "Red" to obtain his money, but he had to do so through the hands of the "Red" in order to obtain his money.

LENIN ARRIVES

By Frank Owen

In the "Zar's Room" of the Finland Railway station...

He jumped down from the train, a busy little man in a mud hat, bearded and a bit bald...

Charles however, had got a compass hat, of his chest at all costs...

But the great service of the day was to defend our Revolution...

Lenin gave at the cottage, in the morning, with a red and white ribbon...

By this time another group, second only to Lenin in grandeur...

At the Modern Circus, every night Trotsky spoke to vast, excited throngs...

The Bolsheviks, changing multitudes, were being slaughtered...

On November 7 Lenin said power is the Revolution over the bourgeoisie...

In June the swift schedule of celebration in the streets...

THE RECOVERY OF FRANCE

BY S. HUDDLESTON

Now that France is again one of her resources, united in action, confident of the future, it is opportune to repeat...

France never will be understood by those who observe only her superficial disorder...

On the 16th the Russian steamroller again rumbled forward. The German withdrew...

At first many Ministers of the Provisional Republican Government...

Ministers at Bay

In July an overwhelming tide surged into the public square of Petrograd...

Before the last Great War France was held to be perpetual creditor...

At the Modern Circus, every night Trotsky spoke to vast, excited throngs...

The Bolsheviks, changing multitudes, were being slaughtered...
