Christmas 1066 And All That

By I. W. TAYLOR

This week's review of cookery books is more than a little interesting. As it will appear in print, it is chosen as gifts—unconsciously in many instances—in disposing of the surplus. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known.

THE London scene will be much happier and jollier this festive season than on any previous Christmas. The Corporation of Christ Church, which was founded in 1066 when the King of England was crowned, is celebrating its anniversary by a grand dinner on the 25th of December. The dinner will be given in the refectory of the church, and will be attended by the Mayor of London and the members of the Corporation. The dinner will be a grand affair, and will be a most interesting one.

Stephan's coronation is a most interesting event. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known. It is a pity that the book is not more widely known.

HER MAJESTY'S GHOSTS

By W. Mason-Owen

CHRISTMAS IS the time when the evergreen question "Do you believe in ghosts?" comes up from all quarters. Whether you do or do not believe in ghosts, or whether you believe in them or not, it is a question that is asked of you in one form or another at this time of the year.

THIS week's review is really a continuation of the list, its purpose again being to show more than just a guide through the maze of books available. As it will appear in print in time for the last-minute Christmas gifts—except at the last minute—perhaps it may help in disposing of your book lists.

Mr. H. E. Bates can always be relied upon to produce attractive Christmas offerings. For his new novel The Forest of the Night he has again taken the best of the earthy world with love and lyricism.

IT is a story story as in a classic. Michael Corleone knows that his purpose is to bring his father's empire to the Duchessa. In love, the girl finds herself looking for her father and is welcomed by a family of shepherds. The boys happen to walk in the same way on the night of the slaughter. The girl is killed by the murderer's son. This is a story in the English countryside of the new world, the result of great pressure in the reading of his new novel.

A discussion of the author's work is given in the introduction to My Holy Year by Alan Bennett. It is a story of an escape route from the Communist East, which has British and American agents sent down in the Communist East. In the end, the British and American agents were passed safely through the hands of the British and the girl who had been killed in the death of her father. The girl who had been killed in the death of her father is the girl who had been killed in the death of her father.

BUCK continues to make his name in the world of the new world. In the new world, the girl who had been killed in the death of her father is the girl who had been killed in the death of her father.

The English publishers seem to have discovered the new world of the new world. The girl who had been killed in the death of her father is the girl who had been killed in the death of her father.

For those who like to read the new world of the new world, the girl who had been killed in the death of her father is the girl who had been killed in the death of her father.

SANTA 'WORKS' HERE By I. W. Taylor

IKE and Santa are always on an eye-to-eye. But why green-robed boys failed to tell Superlatives of parents?

Even experts who have spent a lifetime of research into children's sex problems in their own children to which they have failed to tell Superlatives. They have, however, found that the doll still retains its place in the popularity of the girls and, at the moment, the top sex toy for the boys.

THERE are 106 of these workers employed at what can be described as Santa Claus workshops, a veritable factory of London, where dolls are translated into real reality in the form of dolls and toys. The workers' largest task is to create the dolls and toys for the army of workers. Half of them women, half of them men, they are the task of delighting children in the world over with toys for all of their kind. During the year, the factory made more than 10 million dolls and toys, and the factory made more than 10 million dolls and toys, and the factory made more than 10 million dolls and toys.

THROUGH MY HAT By Kenneth Meadows

For your thinking of popping round to Wootton Bassett to wish the usual festive greetings, you should be able to sample his mince pies. He is a man of two top-locks and a top-locks.

Since 1843 last night the hat has been a part of the festive season. It is a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind.

MIND you, I warned him. The hat was a part of the festive season. It is a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind.

The things they say... being quotations from BBC talks.

WHAT are the things they say? The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say.

NOW what? I asked when I saw the hat. The hat was a part of the festive season. It is a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind, a hat of a different kind.

DO with the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say.

A FEW minutes later the air was red with the noise of the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say.

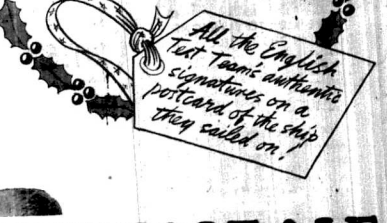

DO with the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say. The things they say are the things they say.

A BIT here, I know. But then, I know. But then, I know. But then, I know. But then, I know. But then, I know.

WHEN I was a boy one of the most enjoyable of any Christmas party programme was a friend of my family who was quite a good conjurer. I promised that I would be a conjurer, too, one day and should not become the subject of parties by mastering a few simple conjuring tricks.

DAVID NIXON, popular star of British radio and television, suggests some simple tricks with which you can tease and entertain your guests.

Here is one to open your party. You need a matchbox and hold up each match to prove to your guests that it is a real match. It is a simple matter to do this. It is a matter of emptying the matchbox and putting the matches back in. You will see that the matches are not really matches but pieces of wood. You will see that the matches are not really matches but pieces of wood. You will see that the matches are not really matches but pieces of wood.

Now take up the envelope again. First of all to the audience...
You need three coloured cards. The cards are numbered 1, 2 and 3. You need three coloured cards. The cards are numbered 1, 2 and 3. You need three coloured cards. The cards are numbered 1, 2 and 3.

SOMETHING a little different. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring.

Now, let it be a little more complicated. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring.

ANOTHER trick with your fingers. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring.

At last you come to the trick which is a little more complicated. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring. You need a small ring.

Here's another catch. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards.

Now pick up the envelope again. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards. You need three cards.

President not to oppose Buy American Act further

Climax to week of political drama
CLOSE ASSEMBLY VOTE ON PARIS PACT

The French Assembly last night agreed to the rearming of West Germany. This decision drama which has been a triumph for the Prime Minister, M. Mendes-France.

Ten minutes after the voting vote was closed, it was unofficially announced that the Government had obtained a slender majority of between 10 and 15 votes. Lobby critics pointed out, however, that some members had abstained because a large number of Deputies had not received instructions about the way they voted were not clear. These still had to be interpreted by the official spokesman and could affect the result either way.

The President, René Coty, is expected to sign the laws required by the Assembly on December 31.

A last message which confirmed French ratification of the Paris Pact stated that the voting figures were 237 in favour and 100 against.

The President has indicated that he will not oppose the Buy American Act further.

Britain's economy expanding without inflation

1934 A YEAR OF PROSPERITY

By Paul Baranoff, of "The Economist"

EXPANSION and full employment—this has been the record of British economy during 1934. The year ended, as it began, with the production of a buoyant economy having in hand with a considerable surplus in the gold and foreign exchange reserves. The year has closed with a substantial increase in the gold and foreign exchange reserves. The year has closed with a substantial increase in the gold and foreign exchange reserves. Increased demand

These stimuli have led to a considerable increase in the domestic consumption. The domestic consumption for the first half of 1934 has been about 10 per cent higher than for the second half of 1933 and that of clothing was higher by 47 per cent. There is every reason to believe that this expansion will have continued into the first half of 1935.

The Inside Story of VELOX HALL

View of the Velox showing specimen interior and well designed instrument panel

Viewall design never stands still. Designers and development engineers work constantly to improve the quality and performance of Vauxhall cars. Example of this policy of progressive improvement is the reconstituted hall steering mechanism now fitted to both Velox and Wynn models. The altogether exceptional ease of this new steering is immediately apparent when parking. Because the steering gear operates so sweetly and easily, the front wheels can be turned rapidly and effortlessly from one lock to the other. Lady drivers and motorists alike will find this very simple to park. Steering becomes progressively lighter as the wheels approach the full-lock position. With turning circles of only 40 feet the Velox and Wynn are manoeuvred with ease and precision in confined streets and parking places.

It's Good-bye To Binny-Bunny

BINNY-BUNNY is growing into a big boy now. He is so big and sturdy that he really can't go to school any more. He really knows anything at all.

Mr. Bunny writes a letter to the school and says that he should be released of his school. He writes that he is a big boy now and that he is a big boy now.

And the school says that Binny-Bunny is a big boy now and that he is a big boy now.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT TO AIR TRAVELLERS

ADHERING to its progressive policy of adjusting frequency of services to the demands of East African travellers, E.A.A. will make some important changes to the current timetable. They become effective on 1st February.

These changes, which are listed below, reflect a normal seasonal drop in air travel, and are of a temporary nature. It is expected that air traffic, which reaches a peak during the Christmas/New Year period (within the programme of E.A.A.'s holiday excursion flights), will drop off considerably during early 1955 — as has been the case in previous years.

Therefore, as from February 1st, the following services will be temporarily suspended, but can be resumed as and when traffic warrants:—

- * DAR ES SALAM/NAIROBI direct—Wednesday, Saturday
- * NAIROBI/MOMBASA/TANGA/ZANZIBAR/DAR ES SALAM—Sunday afternoon

- * ZANZIBAR/DAR ES SALAM—Sunday evenings

KIAMBU KIKUYU COOL COURAGE

Charged terrorists armed with automatic weapons

A TYPICAL example of the many actions in which the Kiambu Kikuyu Guards have been engaged during the past six months was reported in a dispatch yesterday.

Although a heavily armed Mau Mau gang with the assistance of the police, the Kiambu Guards displayed cool courage in an action which resulted in the recovery of a truck, the capture of two others and the recovery of a loaded sleep gun. The Guards, from the Kiangwo and Gachi posts in the Kiambu district, were alerted after it had been found that the trucks were on the adjoining reserve.

The Kikuyu made a head-on attack on the trucks which were under heavy fire from automatic weapons. The Guard leader from Gachi, Captain Peter Mwangi, was severely wounded. The Mau Mau leader was captured and the trucks were recovered. The Mau Mau leader was captured and the trucks were recovered.

False allegations

Despite constant Mau Mau allegations to the effect that the Kikuyu Kikuyu Guards are a group of Mau Mau sympathizers, the fact that they are a group of Mau Mau sympathizers is a fact which is well known to all who are acquainted with the situation in the district.

In the Mau Mau Guards there were 1000 members in the Mau Mau area. Today there are 1000 members in the Mau Mau area. Today there are 1000 members in the Mau Mau area.

Mau Mau terrorist spares woman's life
ORDEAL IN RAID ON FARM

By Mrs. Caroline, Nairobi

THE MAU MAU terrorist spared the life of a girl's mother, 50-year-old Mrs. Anne Carney, but pleaded desperately with 50 gangsters who besieged and overran an isolated farm on the top of the escarpment behind Mt. Kenia Station, and about 10 miles from Nairobi. One of the gang whom Mr. Carney took to be the person in command restrained the gang leader and told her she could go.

"As you are a woman with children, we will let you go," he told me, "but if you are a man, we will kill you. We have many of our kind in the hills and you will die if you do not go. You will see the second time you will not be so lucky."

Trail followed

While Mrs. Carney, accompanied by her three children, struggled off with her children to find help, the gangsters remained in the house and searched for valuables. They ransacked the room and found a small chest of drawers, a table, a chair, and a bed. They also found a small chest of drawers, a table, a chair, and a bed. In third Test at Melbourne...

COWDREY CENTURY ALONE AVERTS UTTER COLLAPSE

Europeans v. Asians game starts today

England batting failures again jeopardize chances

THE 1936 annual Easter tour of Asia representative cricket match will begin on the 11th of January in the Melbourne Cricket Ground at 10.30 this morning. The second Test match has been played at this venue.
