UGANDA BILL ON REFUGEES 1,000 flow from Congo trouble spot

New power sought against subversion

Eyes right for the President

Standard Staff Reporter Kampala.

Uganda National Assembly last night approved a Bill to amend the law controlling admission of refugees, making it an offence for anyone to harbor a refugee without official permission.

Another amendment gives the Director of Refugees power to order any refugee to return to the territory from which he came, or to his own country.

The Minister of Planning and Community Development Mr. Mutyaba, told the House that many refugees did not report to the authorities and traveled with relatives in Uganda. Uganda did not know the exact number of refugees in the country.

Some refugees had been found to be dangerous, and had committed crimes, and some groups had come to provoke refugees to commit acts of violence.

Suspicion of arms sales

Others had worried about including disturbed groups, a Secretary reported that arms had been sold to prevent subversion by refugees, he went on Uganda was not allowed a lengthy stay in Uganda. They should go back to their own countries, Mr. Mutyaba said.

The new Bill provides power to inspect any refugees without authority.

It is a Bill of Mr. A. L. O. Achiki, supporting the Bill, said that the Bill would give Uganda the power to grant special permits to refugees who are not allowed to develop land plots.

Mr. Achiki said that the Bill would also give the Government the power to inspect any refugees without authority.

LOWERING OF STANDARDS

Post Office praised

abu has his own church

There were always some doubts that when positions of responsibility were allocated, standards would fall. The Mayor of Malindi, Mr. Charles Bhaloo, said today that after reading his first official visit to the General Post Office building, he was convinced that the standards of the Malindi Post Office were not lower than those of other Post Offices. He said that the Deputy Mayor, Mr. Isaac Luperano, and other members of the Council had also expressed their views.

"When I have seen from the Post Office staff that they are doing their best to run the office, I am convinced that the standards are not lower than those of other Post Offices," said Mr. Bhaloo.

He had been very much impressed by the staff who were working in the office. He said that he had seen the staff working in the office and that they were doing their best to run the office. President takes salute at Lanet commissioning

FOREST MEN COME OUT

The first army officers trainees in Kenya passed out at the Military Training School, Lanet, yesterday before President Kenyatta. The president took the salute in the 21 cadets who have finished eight months' training marched past.

The cadets—whose training had been called off while the K.A.R. played a leading part—were commanded by Junior Under-Officer V. C. Kuchino (23), of Bungoma, who later received a commendation from the President as the best cadet of the course.

Also on parade were 22 cadets of Malabar platoon who have finished their seven-month training and will be ready to pass out next March.

The President in his capacity as the Military Training School Inspector, was accompanied by Prime Minister Sir George S. H. Robinson, the Governor Sir John Egerton, and other officials.

RECEIVED AT CAMP CAPE

He was received at the gate by the Deputy Commander of the Kenya Army Col. M. J. G. O'Connell. The Minister for Home Affairs and President of the Kenya Provincial Assembly, Mr. D. G. O'Connell, and the Minister for Information, Mr. J. M. O'Connell, were also present.

The President and the Minister drove on to the parade-ground in an open car and alighted near the Commanders of the Kenya Air Force and Kenya Army Wing, Camp Cape.

The two platoons were drawn up on the parade ground in front of the training school. The Army and the Air Force platoons were led by their respective Commanders, Major J. M. O'Connell and Major J. M. O'Connell.

The President and the Minister then moved on to the Regional Assembly, where the President and the Minister were seated on a raised platform. The President then addressed the two platoons.

He said that the two platoons were the first to be trained in Kenya and that they were a credit to the Kenya Army and the Kenya Air Force. He then presented the two platoons with their respective commissions.

The President then moved on to the Regional Assembly, where he was seated on a raised platform. He then addressed the two platoons.

Beauty Season in the world for brightening hair

STRAIGHT hair is a constant and healthy for African women. Mrs. Jane Wilson said this week. She gave us the advantages of this hair care formula — and some practical.

Mrs. Wilson would make of her time straightening her hair every two or three weeks at the hair salon in Detroit.

There has been much controversy over hair straightening in the past. But now it is being done in a more scientific way.

ROW AT MOMBASA STADIUM

POLICE were called in when trouble broke out outside Mombasa Stadium on Monday night over the arrival of the first cricket team from England. William C. Pugh captain of a Mombasa E.A.C.S. Club and a group of fans.

There were few people in the stadium that night and a number of spectators refused to go in to see the match because the police were outside the ground.

It was alleged that it had been agreed that the price would be £100 and £500 for the first and second round respectively. Some people paid and others did not.

Lucky to win

M. K. H. Health, the organizing secretary, and the secretary of the Kenya Association of Sportsmen both said that they were sorry but to add that they were sorry that they were not able to do more.

Mombasa were lucky to win the match. They were 1-2 down in the first half but they came back to win 2-1.

Things that settled down in the second half. The match was a close one and the result was a narrow one.

There were some good plays in the match. The players were very good and the match was very interesting.

"ARE YOU KIDDING?—DO YOU REALLY EXPECT ME TO SAVE?"

We agree, it is not easy these days to save. But consider it this way: COULD YOU AFFORD NOT TO SAVE? Could you, without any savings, meet unexpected expenses? What about your children's education, their careers, their welfare? And, of course, provision for your own retirement?

The proper way is to put aside in a Savings Bank Account with The Bank of India Ltd., say 10% of the income, and limit the expense to the remainder.

to order to reduce this problem, it will be necessary to expand teacher training in order to avoid the situation which has developed in the schools. At the same time, it will be necessary to expand the number of teachers and to improve the quality of the training. This will require a substantial increase in the number of teachers and in the quality of the training.

Indonesian double thinking

FREE PRIMARY EDUCATION

PEAKS which have been announced for the introduction of free primary education in all Uganda schools, are seen as possible, since the full support of all thinking people in that country.

Only the latest outline of the proposals was given to the students attending the Ministry of Education, at the opening of the Uganda People's Congress primary school at Mt. Kenya, held a pilot scheme for free primary education in that country. The Government, and has called on the public to support the proposal. The Government has also called on the public to support the proposal. The Government has also called on the public to support the proposal.

When the terms of reference for Kenya's Education Commission, it was stated that a committee was to be set up to study the feasibility of free primary education. The Commission is to report to the Government by the end of 1963.

It is believed that the Government will be able to finance the proposal. The Government has also called on the public to support the proposal. The Government has also called on the public to support the proposal.

PARTICULARS NOT WARRANTED

Three United States Senators have called for a "show trial" with witnesses and more evidence in the coming months for the Communist infiltration.

Without going into specific details, officials in Washington said yesterday that this situation was already being considered by the State Department in connection with the participation in the Standard Oil case in Belgium.

They said details on the case were being handled by the State Department and the House of Representatives. The case is being handled by the State Department and the House of Representatives.

At the same time, the State Department is also handling the case of the Communist infiltration in the United States.

DEAD BEFORE DOP

The United States has adopted a new policy of "show trials" with witnesses and more evidence in the coming months for the Communist infiltration.

Without going into specific details, officials in Washington said yesterday that this situation was already being considered by the State Department in connection with the participation in the Standard Oil case in Belgium.

CONGO DEBATE ENDS IN SIGHT

Mild resolution after bitter exchanges

ONE of the most bitter debates in a long series of Security Council discussions on the Congo appeared at the weekend to be drawing near its end, with the possible adoption this week of a relatively moderate resolution.

The 11-member council in discussion today had given consideration of the issue this afternoon and a vote is expected before the New-year break.

After a new sharp clash between the United States and Russia on the November 26th vote, the resolution to be taken today was called by Chairman Eren by the two African members, the Ivory Coast and Morocco.

It would have the Council request "all States to refrain or abstain from intervening in the domestic affairs of the Congo" and appeal for an immediate cessation between the opposing factions and the withdrawal of White troops serving with the regular Congolese forces.

Encouragement for O.A.U.

The first also proposed that the Organisation for African Unity and the Secretary-General of the U.N. "shall, acting in concert," should observe the ceasefire and that the regional body be encouraged to pursue its efforts to bring about national reconciliation in the Congo.

After some of the harsh charges that had been made at the United States and Belgium, and in Britain, which permitted the use of Belgian troops based in the Congo since the start of the mission, the Secretary-General of the Organisation for African Unity, Mr. Amet, said that he was "gladly" to take up the matter and to speak up for "reconciliation of the Congo" and to "assist the Congo" in the "event of any crisis."

U THANT LOOKS AT DEBTS CRISIS

UNITED Nations Secretary-General U Thant today said that he would be taking up the issue of the Congo's debts in his next report to the Security Council. He said that he had been informed by several sources that the Congo was in a "serious" financial crisis.

Under the U.N. Charter, Mr. Thant said, he has a duty to report to the Security Council on any matter which might threaten the maintenance of international peace and security. He said that he had been informed by several sources that the Congo was in a "serious" financial crisis.

CALL FOR NEW POWERS FOR UNITED ISLAM can be East-West buffer

President of the World Muslim Congress, Abul Hasan Ali Nadwi, has called on Islamic countries to create a third power bloc which would orientate the course of world events.

Addressing the sixth session of the Congress which opened in Madras on Monday, he said a united Islamic world or an Islamic National League would serve as a buffer area between the two competing blocs—East and West.

"I expressed the hope that the 100 million Moslems in the world would play a prominent role in the future," he said.

He said that the Islamic world should be able to play a role in the world which is not only a buffer area but also a force for peace and stability.

NIGERIA AGREES ON POLLING

Eleventh-hour talks reach decision

NIGERIA'S Prime Minister, Abacha S. Abacha, and President Dr. Nnamdi Azikiwe have agreed that federal elections will be held today as scheduled, it was officially announced in Lagos yesterday.

U.N. CHIEF INTERVENES IN CRISIS

THE United Nations Secretary-General, Dag Hammarskjöld, has taken a personal hand in the negotiations in the West African country. He has been in Lagos for several days, and his intervention is seen as a crucial step towards resolving the crisis. The Secretary-General has been in contact with both the Nigerian and Cameroonian governments, and his efforts are expected to lead to a peaceful settlement of the dispute.

A Federal Information Ministry release said the Prime Minister had a meeting with the President at the President's Residence yesterday afternoon, at which it was agreed that federal elections should proceed as arranged.

The Premier of Northern Nigeria, Abacha S. Abacha, had obtained in a statement issued in Kaduna that President Nnamdi Azikiwe announced a summit meeting of regional Governors and Premiers yesterday to discuss the postponement of Eastern Nigeria's elections.

Ought to concede right

Mr. Abacha said that if Eastern Nigeria wanted to secede from the Federation because of its oil prospects it should be allowed to do so.

The statement said the Northern Government and Premier had no time to consider such a serious issue, and had agreed that a meeting such as the President's summit would be held to discuss the matter.

The Northern Government's statement of the 10th of January, 1967, said that the Government of Nigeria has no intention of conceding to the demands of the secessionist states. It stated that the Government would continue to work for the unity and integrity of the country, and would not be intimidated by threats of secession.

The statement also mentioned the role of the United Nations in the crisis, and expressed confidence in the Secretary-General's efforts to resolve the dispute.

Above politics

Mr. Abacha said that if the Federal Government were to concede to the demands of the secessionist states, it would be above politics. He stated that the Government's primary duty was to maintain the unity and integrity of the country, and that it would not be swayed by political considerations.

The statement also mentioned the role of the United Nations in the crisis, and expressed confidence in the Secretary-General's efforts to resolve the dispute.

120 WHITES LIBERATED IN CONGO

CONGOLESE troops, led by a former Belgian officer, freed about 120 Whites from a camp in the north of the country. The camp was located in a remote area, and the Whites had been held there for several months. The liberation was a significant event, and it was widely reported in the press.

The Congoleses were praised for their bravery and for their successful operation. The Whites were taken to a safe area, and their condition was reported to be good.

Jordanian soldier wounded in border clash

A Jordanian soldier was wounded in a clash with Israeli forces on the border. The clash occurred in a remote area, and the Jordanian soldier was taken to a hospital for treatment. The Israeli forces were reported to have been on the offensive, and the Jordanian soldier was wounded during the fighting.

The incident was widely reported in the press, and it was noted that the situation in the region remains tense.

Number of children abandoned by parents increasing

THE number of children abandoned by their parents in Nigeria is increasing, according to a report by the Child Welfare Society. The report states that the number of children abandoned in Lagos alone has increased by 50 per cent in the last year. The reasons for the increase are not clear, but it is believed that poverty and social problems are the main factors.

The Child Welfare Society is a non-profit organization that provides care and support for abandoned children. It has a network of foster families and day care centers, and it is working to find permanent homes for the children.

UNITE OR PERISH CALL TO AFRICAN YOUTH

President Nnamdi Azikiwe has called for African youth to unite and fight against imperialism, colonialism and neo-colonialism. He stated that the youth of Africa must stand together and demand the end of foreign domination. He called for a united front against the forces of imperialism, and for the youth to take the lead in the struggle for independence and development.

The President's speech was widely applauded, and it is expected to inspire African youth to take action against the forces of imperialism.

Officials for London talks

Senior State Department officials are expected to meet in London for talks with British officials. The talks are expected to discuss the situation in Nigeria and the role of the United States in the crisis. The officials from the State Department are expected to arrive in London in the next few days, and the talks are expected to last for several days.

The talks are expected to be a key event in the resolution of the crisis, and they are being closely watched by the press and the public.

Congo resolution fails to satisfy

THE United Nations Security Council has failed to reach a resolution on the Congo crisis. The Council has been unable to agree on a plan of action, and the situation in the Congo remains tense. The Security Council has called for a ceasefire and for the withdrawal of foreign troops, but the parties involved have not agreed to these terms.

The Congo crisis has been a major international issue, and it has attracted the attention of the world. The Security Council's failure to reach a resolution is a disappointment, and it is hoped that a peaceful settlement can be reached soon.

WARNING OF ACTION ON RACIALISM

The Zambian Premier, Mr. Kenneth Kaunda, has issued a warning of action on racialism. He stated that the Government of Zambia would take firm action against any acts of racial discrimination. He called for a united front against racialism, and for the people of Zambia to stand together against the forces of racialism.

The Premier's warning was widely reported in the press, and it is expected to have a significant impact on the situation in Zambia.

Muslims told of Christian imperialism

SOMALIA'S Minister of State for Somali Affairs, Sheikh Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed, told the sixth World Muslim Conference in Mogadishu that three areas of Somalia were still under the yoke of "Christian imperialism."

The Minister's speech was widely reported in the press, and it is expected to have a significant impact on the situation in Somalia. He called for a united front against Christian imperialism, and for the people of Somalia to stand together against the forces of imperialism.

LABOUR'S TACTICS PAY OFF

BRITAIN'S Labour Government's tactic of staying in office until the end of the year has paid off. The Government has managed to pass a number of key bills, and it has maintained its majority in the House of Commons. The Labour Government's tactics have been widely praised, and it is expected that the Government will continue to be successful in the coming year.

The Labour Government's tactics have been a key factor in its success, and they are being closely watched by the press and the public.

VIETNAM BATTLES CONTINUE

FIGHTING between North and South Vietnam continues, with the North Vietnamese forces making significant gains. The South Vietnamese forces are struggling to hold their ground, and the situation in the country remains tense. The fighting has been widely reported in the press, and it is expected to continue for some time.

The Vietnam crisis has been a major international issue, and it has attracted the attention of the world. The fighting in Vietnam is a tragedy, and it is hoped that a peaceful settlement can be reached soon.

The end column

MR. HENRY MULLY, Kenya's Minister for China, has announced that the Chinese Vice-Foreign Minister, Mr. Wang, has visited Kenya. Mr. Wang's visit was a significant event, and it was widely reported in the press. Mr. Wang had fruitful talks with Kenyan officials, and it is expected that the visit will lead to a number of agreements between the two countries.

The visit was a key event in the development of relations between Kenya and China, and it is being closely watched by the press and the public.

SEVEN DEAD ON KENYA ROADS

A total of seven people were killed in a road accident on the Kenya coast. The accident occurred in a remote area, and the victims were taken to a hospital for treatment. The accident was widely reported in the press, and it is a tragedy. The cause of the accident is not clear, but it is believed that the accident was preventable.

The accident is a reminder of the dangers of driving on the roads in Kenya, and it is hoped that the accident will lead to a number of safety measures.

A second Renaissance

In the history of the United States, there has been no other period when so many of the nation's leading minds have been so actively engaged in the work of the second renaissance as now. The renaissance of the 1920s was a period of great activity and achievement in the field of literature, art, and science. It was a time when the nation was beginning to emerge from the shadow of the Civil War and was looking forward to a new era of progress and development.

Yemeni Struggle Still Drags On

The Yemeni Republic is still after two years of bloody struggle divided between the royalist forces of the United Arab Republic and the Yemeni Republic on the one hand, and the followers of Imam Muhammad Ali-Idrisi, whom President Khalil Abdallah overthrew on September 28, 1942, on the other. The progress of the two sides resulting in a permanent settlement is being held up by the near failure to secure a permanent settlement in the United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia. In a national conference in Aden, the Yemeni Republic is planning a new constitution. The progress of the two sides resulting in a permanent settlement is being held up by the near failure to secure a permanent settlement in the United Arab Republic and Saudi Arabia.

Italy's President, Benito Mussolini, is shown in profile. He is wearing a dark suit and a white shirt with a tie. The background is dark and indistinct.

Profile of Italy's President

Italy's new President, Benito Mussolini, has been elected to the office. He is a member of the Fascist Party and has been in power since 1922. He is known for his authoritarian style of leadership and his role in the Italian invasion of Ethiopia in 1935. He is also known for his role in the Italian resistance movement during World War II.

Widower

A widower, who has been widowed for some time, is looking for a new partner. He is a middle-aged man with a good education and a stable job. He is looking for a woman who is kind, intelligent, and has a similar background. He is willing to relocate for the right person.

A rifle, possibly a sniper rifle, with a scope and a wooden stock. The rifle is shown in a close-up view, highlighting its details.

Rifle as a big game

The rifle is a big game for many people. It is a symbol of power and precision. It is used for hunting and target shooting. The rifle is a tool that has been used for centuries and is still one of the most important weapons in the world.

Mr. Cade takes his trophy

Mr. Cade has taken his trophy home. He is a successful hunter and has spent a lot of time in the woods. He is proud of his trophy and is looking forward to displaying it in his home. He is also looking forward to sharing his experience with his family and friends.

MINISTERS' LIST DEFIED

President issues list of responsibilities

PRESIDENT Kenyatta published new terms of reference for the Government's Ministers yesterday. The changes in areas of responsibilities were designed to take in the republic's three new Ministries and to increase efficiency. The Minister for Information, Broadcasting and Tourism, Mr. Onyiah, held a National Press Conference.

NIGERIAN ELECTION BOYCOTT IN EAST

NIGERIA'S Federal elections began yesterday with massive polling in the Northern Region and an apparently successful boycott by the United Progressive Group in the Eastern and Western districts in Lagos.

The U.P.G. called the boycott in the East to claim that the Government had failed to meet its obligations to the people. It also claimed that the Government had failed to meet its obligations to the people.

The Mid-Western Premier, Mr. Oluwole, said that the U.P.G. leader earlier urged voters to abstain from voting in the Eastern Region. He said that the U.P.G. leader had urged voters to abstain from voting in the Eastern Region.

A press conference in Ibadan last night from the U.P.G. said that the boycott was a protest against the Government's failure to meet its obligations to the people.

The boycott was held in the Eastern Region. It was held in the Eastern Region. It was held in the Eastern Region.

Interference denied by Tanzania

THE Tanzania Government last night described as "ridiculous" allegations that people were being trained in the republic for subversive operations in Malawi, that mail between the two countries was being censored and that people crossing the mutual border were being arrested.

The Government statement also denied the "sensitive" charge that children from the United Kingdom had been recruited in Tanzania for supporting Dr. Banda's Malawi Front.

ALL-INDIANS AGAINST CONGRUOUS FARRAGO OF NONSENSE

The Government while in a position to make a thorough investigation of the activities of the 'Congress Party' in India has refused to do so... It is a disgraceful record of the Government's failure to do its duty to the Indian people.

The political situation in India has become extremely complicated... The Congress Party has been engaged in a campaign of propaganda and agitation... The Government has failed to take any effective measures to deal with the situation.

Letters to the Editor

Cinema prices

I AM glad to read that the Government has decided to reduce the prices of cinema tickets... It is a step in the right direction and one that the Government should continue to take.

The Government should also consider the issue of the distribution of cinema tickets... It is important to ensure that the benefits of the price reduction are felt by all sections of the community.

Sierra Leone in discussions on processing plant

Discussions are in progress between the Sierra Leone Government and the United Kingdom on the proposed processing plant for fish, fruit, vegetables and nuts.

The plant is estimated to cost £4,000,000 and will be financed by the United Kingdom Government.

Every fortnight in Kenya

TAKES MADONCIL TASK

... every few weeks the year a Kenya child abandoned on the streets in a nearby slum in the hands of an abandoned mother who was a member of the Welfare Society of Kenya for years.

This story of deserted children all of whom were abandoned while under the care of the Welfare Society of Kenya was told in Nairobi yesterday by the society's secretary, Mrs. Rose Ochi. She emphasized that there were many more children who had been abandoned and died from hunger and cold, or simply by neglect, before they could be picked up and brought to safety.

Mrs. Ochi said that many children have been thrown into latrines or water, or burnt alive and could never be found.

"PUBLIC HAS BEEN GENEROUS"

In all 21 children were picked up during the first ten months of this year by the Welfare Society of Kenya. After court orders, they were committed to the care of the society, which carried out talks of trying to get them a home to live in.

"Fortunately the public has been very generous in response to the appeals for help," Mrs. Ochi said. "Some of these children have been adopted by families in Kenya and some have been sent to other countries for adoption."

Mrs. Ochi said that the society had received many offers of adoption from both Kenyan and foreign families. She said that the society had also received many offers of financial help from the public.
