

POLICE FEAR INTERFERENCE

Political sway after Kariakwu

Thuru 'a worry'

Political interference, rather than the burden of responsibility, was the main worry of many police officers, both local and expatriate. The General of the Kenya Police, Mr. R. C. Catling, said today.

His main concern was the disease of stock thefts and the indifference of the thieves but of the average citizen, he said. Speaking at the Police Club, at a lunch attended by the Minister of State in Charge of the Ministry, Mr. Murumbi, Mr. Catling reviewed the progress of the police in the past few years and the outlook for the future.

During his speech he paid tribute to the Prime Minister, Mr. Kenyatta, for the help he gave to the police, and particularly to his constant calls for self-discipline, respect for the law and co-operation with the police.

Replice numbers with quality

Recalling that in 1954 when he was Deputy Police Commissioner, he had gone to the Treasury with an assessment of the optimum strength of the police force, Mr. Catling said he had never reached that figure.

This was because firstly the Treasury had not provided enough money, and secondly because plans to replace numbers with quality had worked more quickly than he thought they would.

Through improved efficiency and a better standard of recruit coming in, a number of economies had been effected. "What is frustrating is the knowledge that if we could get rid of the stock theft disease from which this country has suffered for years we could reduce police expenditure by 20 per cent."

He said for this year stock thefts had fallen for 8.2 per cent. This was a significant improvement since we have a population a wide and deeper than that of the former Kenya, and still the responsibility for the police is the same.

Mr. Catling said he was confident that the present standard of recruitment was better than that of 1954. He said that the present standard of recruitment was better than that of 1954. He said that the present standard of recruitment was better than that of 1954.

Couple jailed for 'gold' bar swindle

TWO men who tricked a Nairobi dealer into parting with £500 were yesterday sentenced to 14 months' imprisonment after being found "guilty" of stealing. In passing sentence, the Nairobi Resident Magistrate, Mr. S. Rollings, said the men, Kirunda Kiboko and Njosi Mutangi, had been convicted of a carefully planned swindle.

The dealer, Mr. Chantree, Pat of York Street, told the court that one of the swindlers had been the customer. On July 12, at his shop, the customer introduced his companion as a businessman from Tanganyika.

Mr. Pat said that the businessman offered to buy gold worth £500 but he had no money and a piece of gold worth £100.

The entrepreneur of the swindle returned and offered to the new customer and that the customer should be sent to the court and the man who had been the customer.

The Resident Magistrate sentenced the men to 14 months' imprisonment.

Mr. Chantree said that the man who had been the customer had been the customer.

WATTS' VIEWS ABOUT LAKE LEVEL DO CONVINCE LAYMEN

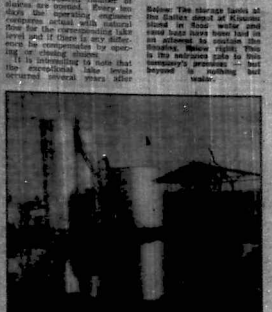

By E. RONALD WATTS

The first point that we need to understand in this connection is that the dam was not designed to raise the level of the lake. It was designed to raise the level of the river. The dam is a concrete structure and is designed to raise the level of the river to a point where it can be used for navigation and for the generation of electricity. The dam is not designed to raise the level of the lake. The lake level is determined by the flow of water into and out of the lake. # Making wash day a less confusing time

THESE DAYS the housewife's V.I.P. list is long. For as the family wash is commenced, manufacturers all over the country are endeavoring to remove the confusion which in the past existed regarding the correct way to wash a garment. But while manufacturers are so industriously fabricating fabrics to suit us, they also brought to us the housewife a number of "washday" letters.

I should like to follow the instructions given in the washing machine literature. The detergent should be added to the water before the clothes are put in. The water should be at the temperature indicated on the label. The clothes should be washed in the same water temperature.

How could she be sure whether it was safe to use a particular article in the washing machine? And one washes, how does she know if the garment is safe to use?

In the past year or two, important jobs have been taken by machine washers and so-called permanent press fabrics. These fabrics require the most delicate washing and ironing care.

Washing begins
First the Hoover's responsibility for the machine was established and Housework of garments that could be washed in the Hoover machine.

Important washing temperature agreement between four important groups of manufacturers, the textile labor producers, the detergent manufacturers, the ironing machine manufacturers and detergent manufacturers.

Britain will meet deficit in Zanzibar

BRITAIN has agreed to meet the estimated £10 million deficit for the year ending last July 31, which was budgeted for by the Zanzibar Government, according to a statement issued by the Zanzibar Government today.

The Finance Minister said that the deficit was due to the fact that the Government had to meet the cost of the Zanzibar National Bank and the Zanzibar National Insurance Corporation.

W. S. STEEPLECHASE

Nation discard breaks record for W. Pokot

KIPKEMALI won the National steeplechase for the first time in the 1954-55 season. He secured the win for Pokot and broke the national record. Three Kenya records were broken and one equaled and also two regional records set.

This is very surprising considering that none of the riders at the meeting were competitive enough to win the race. The last time Pokot won was in 1953 when he won the Pokot and it was a far less than a Kaniini, since Pokot still remains the previous year's champion.

Star of the meeting was the young Charles Chuma. He set up a new record for the 1000 yards race. He was followed by the 1000 yards race. He was followed by the 1000 yards race. He was followed by the 1000 yards race.

Drivers complain about their share of 'gates'

The Kenya Motorists' Association has expressed its dissatisfaction with the share of the 'gates' (taxes) levied on motor vehicles. The association claims that the current rates are too high and that they are not being used for the benefit of the road network.

The association has requested the government to reduce the rates and to use the funds for the improvement of the roads. They also claim that the current rates are not being used for the benefit of the road network.

FANCY FREE WINS MONTHLY HANDICAP

Fancy Free (Greenfield) won the Monthly Handicap fixture at Lake Naivasha in convincing style from Scap (Campbell) and Meala (Coxley). Winds were moderate and fairly constant and in consequence a great deal depended on a good start.

Scap (Campbell) and Meala (Coxley) were backed up by consistent sailors against some close racing. Agat (Bing) (Hogben) in the new 500, and (Hobson) (Hillyer) were disqualified when they took the finishing mark to discontinue instead of the post following a shortening of the course.

First points and placings were: Fancy Free (Greenfield) 34; Scap (Campbell) 32; Meala (Coxley) 31; The Blue (Cox) 29; Flying Fish (Cox) 28; 7 Amches (Duncker) 27; Day For (Gentry) 26; Hillary (Dorset) 25; Dora Fry (Mightling) 24; Robinson (Gentry) 23; 11 Durbin (Dorset) 22; 11 Anna (Hillyer) 21; On the Beach (Hillyer) 20.

COTTON

These four varieties illustrate the growth of the cotton plant under the soil factors in Tanganyika, Uganda and parts of Kenya. Each has been grown in Tanganyika and Uganda for many years. Growing here shows that the cotton plant is well adapted to the soil conditions of the African continent. The Standard Bank has been established in East Africa for over half a century and possesses long experience in financing the cotton crops. Its financial policy, which has been commended in Uganda and the Standard Bank has played its part in the development of the industry, which now provides employment for local people and supplies good-quality cloth at competitive prices. The accumulated experience of Standard Bank managers on matters relating to cotton finance is available to all its clients.

National dress books

like this is the choice

— writes JEAN VAUGHAN

Pragmatically, the answer to the first time I noticed a new form of dress, fashion among young women was a dress of color. The beginning of this was the wearing of the red, blue, yellow, orange, green, purple, brown, black and white. The wearing of these colors was a new thing. I was sure that women were going to wear colors in the future. I was sure that women were going to wear colors in the future. I was sure that women were going to wear colors in the future.

When the first Kenya woman's dress was shown in the first National dress book, many of the designers were surprised. The dress was simple, but it was different. It was a dress that was simple, but it was different. It was a dress that was simple, but it was different.

Perfect fabric

The striking thing that has almost the perfect national dress fabric, has been shown in a range of colors from white to black. The fabric is simple, but it is different. It is a fabric that is simple, but it is different.

In this, they have really beaten their own record. In the past, they have had many different styles, but they have really beaten their own record. They have really beaten their own record. They have really beaten their own record.

KENYA'S TITLE HOPE ENLIGHTENED

Uganda may offer close competition

Kenya's bid to retain the title of African champion in the 1965 croquet tournament is expected to be seriously challenged by Uganda. The Kenyan team, captained by Peter Kariuki, is the defending champion and has a strong record in recent years. Uganda, captained by John Mwangi, has emerged as a major contender. The tournament will be held in Nairobi, Kenya, from September 10 to 20. The Kenyan team is led by Peter Kariuki, a former international player, and includes several other top players. Uganda's team is captained by John Mwangi, who has been playing croquet since childhood. The two teams are expected to have a close contest throughout the tournament.

PRESIDENT TAKES UP CROQUET

CROQUET, a game which has been played in Kenya for many years, has gained a new lease of life under the patronage of the President. The President, Mr. Kenyatta, took up a croquet racket for the first time when he visited the croquet club in Nairobi. He was accompanied by several members of the club and watched a match between two teams. The President's interest in the game has inspired many other people to take up the sport. The croquet club in Nairobi is one of the oldest and largest in Kenya. It has a long and distinguished history and has produced many international players. The club is now enjoying a resurgence of interest and is expected to play a leading role in the development of the sport in Kenya.

KENYA CROQUET TEAM LEAVES

KENYA'S croquet team, which has been selected to represent the country at the African Croquet Championships in Uganda, has left Nairobi for Kampala. The team, captained by Peter Kariuki, consists of several top players from the Nairobi Croquet Club. They will arrive in Kampala on September 10 and will begin their preparations for the tournament. The tournament will be held in Kampala from September 15 to 25. Kenya is expected to be a strong contender for the title.

DOPE INQUIRY GOES ON

DOPE INQUIRY GOES ON. The investigation into the alleged use of performance-enhancing drugs in sports continues. The Kenya Olympic Committee has announced that it will be conducting a comprehensive search for doping agents in all sports. The committee has set up a special committee to oversee the search. The search will include the testing of athletes for doping agents and the monitoring of their training and diet. The committee has also announced that it will be cooperating with the International Olympic Committee (IOC) in its efforts to combat doping. The IOC has recently announced that it will be introducing a new system of doping control for the 1972 Olympics in Munich. The new system will be based on a "random" testing system, in which athletes will be selected for testing at random throughout the competition. This is expected to make it more difficult for athletes to cheat.

A YEAR OF RECOVERY

The year 1953 has been a year of recovery for the African continent. The economies of many African countries have shown signs of growth and stability. The demand for raw materials and agricultural products has increased, leading to higher export earnings. The African states have also made significant progress in the fields of education, health, and infrastructure development.

Newspaper plans Africa

The New York Times has announced plans to publish a special Africa Yearbook. The yearbook will provide a comprehensive overview of the African continent, covering its history, culture, and current affairs. It will also feature a detailed analysis of the economic and political developments in Africa during the year 1953.

DOWN GO U.K. AERIAL EXPORTS

Exports of British aircraft to the United States have fallen sharply in the first half of 1953. This is due to a combination of factors, including a decline in the demand for British aircraft and a shift in the focus of American military spending. The British aircraft industry is currently facing a period of uncertainty and is looking for ways to diversify its operations.

Shipping record fully

The shipping industry has set a new record for the first half of 1953. The volume of cargo shipped has increased significantly, reflecting the strong demand for goods and services. The shipping companies have also made significant investments in new vessels and infrastructure, ensuring that they are well-equipped to handle the growing volume of trade.

Canada has 26% trade surplus

Canada has recorded a trade surplus of 26% in the first half of 1953. This is a significant achievement, reflecting the country's strong export performance and its ability to attract foreign investment. The Canadian government is pleased with the results and is looking to continue to support the growth of the Canadian economy.

Uganda Co. Ltd. has 4% interest dividend

The Uganda Co. Ltd. has announced a 4% interest dividend for the first half of 1953. This is a reflection of the company's strong financial performance and its commitment to its shareholders. The dividend is expected to be paid in the near future.

UHURU STADIUM SITE ALMOST CLEARED

THE 250,000 people who will watch the raising of the Kenya flag at the Independence Stadium on the night of December 11 will be standing here where there had been nothing but empty bush four months before.

Work on clearing the stadium site was started at the beginning of August and is now almost completed.

When the stadium is finished, approximately 250,000 people will be seated in the stands. The stadium will be built on a site of about 100 acres, which has been cleared of bush and trees.

Land for schemes 'too dear'

Standard Commercial, Nairobi.

LAND taken over for public schemes is being sold at a price which is too high for the schemes, according to a report from the Ministry of Lands and Survey.

The report states that the price of land for public schemes is too high for the schemes, and that the Government should consider a policy of selling land at a lower price.

One of the most important features of the stadium will be the provision of a large number of seats for the public. The stadium will be built on a site of about 100 acres, which has been cleared of bush and trees.

Kenya begins preparing for 18th Olympics

Under the country's leading athlete, Peter Tanui, some 400 athletes are expected to arrive in the next few weeks.

Robert Shamba is equally at ease in the gymnasium and on the field. He has been a member of the Kenya national team since 1968, competing in the Commonwealth Games, African Athletics Championships and African Cup of Nations.

In Melbourne, Paul Okotho was the star of the team, winning the 100m and 200m sprints. In Tokyo, he was the star of the team, winning the 100m and 200m sprints. In Tokyo, he was the star of the team, winning the 100m and 200m sprints.

PRIME MINISTER TO USE SCARPEL FOR OPENING £135,000 SCHOOL

THE Prime Minister of Kenya, Mr. Jomo Kenyatta, will today inaugurate the new Nurses' Training School at the main door to the new Nairobi Hospital. He is expected to perform the official opening ceremony.

Many distinguished guests are expected to be present at this afternoon's ceremony. The Aga Khan himself will be present, with the Governor of Kenya, Mr. Malcolm MacDonald, the Minister for Health, Dr. George Mungai, other members of the Government, political and civic leaders and many senior members of the medical profession.

- The programme for the opening is—
- 4 p.m. Arrival of the Aga Khan and Mr. MacDonald.
- 4.10 p.m. Arrival of Mr. Kenyatta.
- 4.15 p.m. Speech of welcome by Sir Eboho Piribhai, Chairman of the Hospital Board of Management.
- 4.20 p.m. Speech by the Major of Nairobi, A.D. Charles Hubbs, who is also Vice-Chairman of the Board of Management.
- 4.25 p.m. Speech by Mr. Kenyatta.

This will be followed by the inspection of the new building and an informal reception.

Guests are requested to take their seats before 4 p.m.

Message from Dr. Mungai

The Kenya Minister for Health and Housing,

has sent the following message:

I welcome the opportunity provided by this supplement to emphasise the value of the new Nurses' Training School and Home at the Aga Khan Platinum Jubilee Hospital. Training is perhaps the most important task before us at present, and this new school will greatly assist us in the training of nurses, of which the country has so great a need.

I should also like to express the Government's gratitude to His Highness the Aga Khan for this further example of his generous concern for the welfare and development of Kenya.

The Aga Khan who is attending the opening of the Nurses' School in company with the Governor of Kenya, Mr. MacDonald.

CENTRE TO END SHORTAGE OF NURSES

THE severe high birth rate, air and water pollution in urban areas, the rapid increase in the population, the history of Nairobi and the East African States Hospital—perhaps the most advanced medical centre in East and Central Africa.

The new Training Centre is the Aga Khan's contribution to the Government's solution of the nursing shortage. The building is designed to accommodate the additional nursing staff required for the hospital and to allow each nurse a room of her own in which to live.

COMFORT FOR PATIENTS — AND STAFF

CARE and comfort to the patient, good working conditions for his staff, and the minimum circulation distance for everyone under the roof of a great hospital — these were the considerations that went into the building of the Aga Khan Platinum Jubilee Hospital.

Extensions were already being planned when the hospital was first opened in September, 1962. The first phase included accommodation for 112 beds divided into surgical, medical, pediatric and children's wards with an out-patient department, operating theatre and a radiotherapy department.

But the sterilizing workrooms, kitchen and X-ray suite services were built to cater for the 250 beds which are to be provided under the second phase extension to the northward block.

Ward extensions

Work on the second phase is now in hand. The completion of the Nurses' Home and Training School is part of it.

Bill to be built are extensions to the wards, out-patient department and casualty department. Out-patient doctors will be a large children's ward with a verandah overlooking landscaped gardens.

To expand, and in extending to give the maximum of daylighting to the ward block. The obvious, sweeping lines of the building there are to be maintained, the whole being an office building.

At the moment there are 112 beds in the hospital, 23 out-patients, 12 radiotherapy and 24 children's.

run—a total of 137 when the extensions are completed — to about 18 months' time — there will be beds for 276 patients.

As the Aga Khan laid down in the first phase, he said, Kenya should offer its health services because of its size it is able to afford expensive treatment.

This leads to the hospital's system of fully inclusive rates. There are no extras whatsoever. Everything, from food, drugs and X-ray to operating and anaesthetic charges is covered in the daily rate of 20/-.

25th day

This means that European patients for example pay only 25/- daily, the remainder being a subsidy under the Hospital Trust. Rates are far less for those who come in under insurance schemes.

One of the functions of the modern hospital is to help the patient. In the Aga Khan Hospital the family doctor is brought into the ward work. He records past illnesses and the patient's habits and reactions.

He needs — and the hospital supplies — an avenue to specialists who have concentrated their studies on special features of disease and illness. And the family doctor knows that he can rely upon the experience which the Platinum Jubilee Hospital has gathered in its years of resident doctors, surgeons, consultants and staff.

30 physicians

Some 20 of Nairobi's most highly qualified physicians and surgeons work in consultation with the hospital — conducting operations and providing care.

A family doctor is unable to spend sufficient time to specializing due to the complexity of a general medicine. Hence, one of the characteristics of a modern hospital is a staff of specialists who specialize in a particular branch.

A doctor becomes a specialist by a process of training, experience and in open competition for the appointment.

To be a consultant, a doctor must complete a two-year fellowship, a further year in fellowship, and a further year in a hospital as a consultant.

qualifications, and a period of two to seven years of training before certification. There are eight to apply for each post, all this is on top of original six or seven years of university education.

The Aga Khan Hospital's doctors and surgeons are supervised by training officers. The Aga Khan Hospital's medical staff are supervised by the Royal College of Surgeons in Kenya. The hospital's dental staff are supervised by the Royal College of Dental Surgeons in Kenya. The hospital's radiology staff are supervised by the Royal College of Radiologists in Kenya.

Like justice

Like justice it must not be done at the expense of the patient. A unique fact about a hospital is that what is good for the patient, is also good for the hospital. For example, the patient has the benefit of three consultants, so no service is lost and is practically impossible.

As far as operating theatres are concerned, those at the Aga Khan are ultra-modern, sterilized and completely equipped. Other modern arrangements include a special programme for the maintenance of the hospital's appearance.

Even bigger

Facilities are already available for haematology, biochemistry and pathology and blood transfusions. An even bigger and better department will be included in the extensions.

Apart from the King George VI Hospital, the Aga Khan Hospital is the only one with a secondary department.

Student nurses meet the skeleton in the cupboard

One thing every medical — or nursing student — is entitled to have in the cupboard — a skeleton! In a classroom at the new Nurses' Training School (above left), a lecturer explains the skeleton's construction to half a dozen young students. Above right, the class has moved into another lecture room to learn about anatomy from more life-sized models. The fundamentals of looking after bed-ridden patients in the Aga Khan Hospital wards are learned in the Training School's demonstration wing (below). Here, students are taught the right way to make beds without disturbing the patient unduly. They are also taught how to prepare, sterilise and handle medical instruments in every-day use.

These were the first two buildings to be built in the extension of the hospital. The first phase included accommodation for 112 beds divided into surgical, medical, pediatric and children's wards with an out-patient department, operating theatre and a radiotherapy department.

But the sterilizing workrooms, kitchen and X-ray suite services were built to cater for the 250 beds which are to be provided under the second phase extension to the northward block.

Work on the second phase is now in hand. The completion of the Nurses' Home and Training School is part of it.

It is always a pleasure to be able to write about real talents, and those we have a chance to do just that with the latest instrumental disc 'APPLEJACK' having just been released.

Frank Sinatra has been written especially for the stage by Sidney Fox, the writer who has made 'Applejack' a hit in the charts.

The music of 'Applejack' is a definite instrumental hit, the number is led in an excellent fashion by the instrumental duo 'JAY HAN' having just been released.

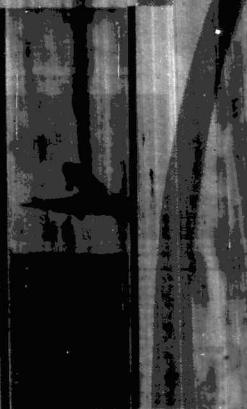

By the way, 'Applejack' is a hit.

Germany and C.D.C. float 1 1/2 m. concern

The Minister of National Affairs, Charles Rubia, is to be asked to chair the committee on the development of the C.D.C. float, which is to start operations this month.

At a meeting yesterday, the Minister for Commerce and Industry, Dr. Kijana, said that negotiations had been concluded between the Government of Kenya, the German Development Corporation (D.G.C.) and the Commonwealth Development Corporation for the establishment of the float company.

The Kenya Government, through the Industrial Development Corporation, had agreed to the project of the float company, Dr. Kijana said, was to assist in the production of cement and other industrial projects in Kenya.

CAPITAL PROVIDED EQUALLY

It would have a capital of £1,500,000 provided equally by the two partners, and it was hoped that other partners might be attracted to join. Each partner would nominate two members to the Board of directors and Kenya's two would be Dr. Kijana and the Permanent Secretary to the Ministry of Commerce and Industry. The proposed general manager is Mr. Shephard.

At a meeting on the same appointment, which includes a meeting on the D.G.C. board, Dr. Rubia said last night that the company had opened its offices and preliminary work would be done in Nairobi under way. He said that he would be meeting the general manager of the company next week and he hoped to hold the first meeting shortly afterwards.

THREAT TO AIRCRAFT

agency report that one of its aircrafts was being used to transport military equipment to the front lines. The report was based on a photograph taken by a pilot in the vicinity of the front lines. The aircraft was seen to be carrying a large amount of equipment, including what appeared to be a tank. The pilot was seen to be flying at a low altitude, and the aircraft was seen to be moving in the direction of the front lines. The report was received by the Kenya Air Force, and the aircraft was immediately tracked down. It was found to be carrying a large amount of military equipment, including what appeared to be a tank. The aircraft was immediately shot down, and the equipment was destroyed. The pilot was also killed.

Oil firms given a deadline by union

The secretary of the Kenya Petroleum Oil Workers' Union, Mr. Ochieng, announced that the union would be taking action against the oil companies if they did not meet its demands by a certain date. The union's demands include a 10 per cent increase in wages and a 10 per cent reduction in working hours. The oil companies have refused to meet these demands, and the union is now threatening to go on strike.

Extra mileage with MICHELIN 'X'

Hundreds of legs—in all climates and on every type of road—have proved that, with a given amount of fuel, vehicles cover greater distance when running on Michelin 'X' tires. Because of their special design and manufacturing technique, Michelin 'X' tires have less rolling resistance and therefore less energy is required.
