A TIME FOR GIVING

The joy of Uthmaniyah means that he gets, and things which many donors and family.

Always, Mr. D. E. Johnson, East African sales manager of A.S.A.C., presents his company's gift to Kenya — a bumper-sum of £2,000 to raise an African girl. He handed it to the Secretary of the House of Representatives, Mr. Humphrey Smith, in his office at Parliament Buildings, Nairobi, yesterday (Report in Page 11).

The gift is a gift to the families of British personnel on a tour party on the Aberdare Road drive.

Eighty The Prime Minister, Mr. Kanyara, was the Minister of Education, Mr. M. J. Oduo, was the Minister of the 220 African members of the Kenya African National Union (KANU) by the Prime Minister yesterday by the Government.

The days of commercial space travel are still some distance away and when a satellite wants to get somewhere in a hurry it uses an Ethiopian Airlines 720B Fan Jet!

Thus, when the United States Information Agency wishes to transfer their Satellite Exhibition from Lagos to the Electronics Exhibition in Nairobi they call on Ethiopian Airlines.

If you have business in West Africa, Fan Jet three jets with Ethiopian Airlines 720B Fan Jet.

Kenya's new radio-collared sheep will first be checked at the market by Wildlife Officer, the 15-year-old Wangari. Right, without animal, seen here with a group of advertising school friends.

A packet like this, on view at the exhibition, is being taken up Mount Kenya by the party intending to raise Kenya's new flag on the summit. Left, Mr. H. G. Gosselin, director national supervisor of the E.A. Billions - Government, explaining the workings of a transmitter control system to a trainee-technician.

From take-off to touch-down, all aircraft movements in East Africa are in the expert control of the Directorate of Civil Aviation's experts. What happens in a single aircraft control tower will be shown by the D.C.A.'s men at the exhibition. The central tower equipment on show will be so up to date that the lot will be installed at a Tanganyika aerodrome when the exhibition ends.

Artificiality
Unfortunately there is a certain artificiality about the main story, as that of a dog who was killed after their own fishes in a boat. The story is not a story of the life of the character as such, but a story of the life of the character as such.

Mr. Smith is a historical figure, and his life is a story of the life of the character as such. The story is not a story of the life of the character as such, but a story of the life of the character as such.

HOW MANY SCHWEPPEING DA TO CHRISTMAS. SCHWEPPEVERSCIENCE LASTS THE WHOLE DRINK THROUGH.

Far it follows the sky over the stadium was lit with all the colours of the rainbow in an audacious and noisy display of fireworks that brought the spectators screaming to a wisp. Explosion followed explosion, mingling with the cheers of the crowd, as the coloured lights lit up the thousands of happy faces of spectators, many of whom rushed into the arena to dance and sing their appreciation of this historic occasion.

CATHEDRAL PLANNED AT NAKURU

The proposed cathedral at Nakuru, Kenya, is to be built on a site of 200,000 sq. ft. The design is by the architect, Mr. J. H. M. de Vries, of Johannesburg. The building is to be a simple, modern structure, with a central tower and a large, open-plan interior. The site is located on the edge of Nakuru town, near the Nakuru-Samburu road.

Headmaster complains of 'red tape'

The headmaster of a school in Nairobi has complained of the amount of 'red tape' involved in the process of applying for a building licence. He stated that the process is slow and cumbersome, and that it often takes several months to complete. He has asked the Education Department to take steps to streamline the process.

As the country moved into its day of Uhuru

In this page and in the two following pages we trace through the pictures taken by "East African Standard" Staff Photographers, the last days, hours and minutes which led up to Kenya becoming the thirty-fifth independent African nation and a Member of the British Commonwealth.

One of the many groups that took part in the display of tribal dancing in the Uhuru Stadium was this formation by members of the Turkana tribe, photographed during rehearsal.

The city decorations which appeared in the centre of Nairobi in the past week took an added brightness at night when the spotlights were switched on. Fountains, such as the one in the picture of the top of the page, became head points for the thousands of sightseers who straggled through the streets, then passed in gait at the sparkles, leaping jets of water. Above, the illuminated Ministry of Works building, which houses the office of the Prime Minister, Mr. Kenyatta. One of the city's most modern office blocks, it took on an even more impressive appearance under the floodlights. Another Nairobi landmark, with its distinctive external spiral staircase, is that of the Crown Law Offices in Coronation Avenue. Also visible this week, it is seen in the picture on the left.

The Kenyan Prime Minister, Mr. Kenyatta, and several members of his Cabinet held a banquet of cameras and flashes of questions when they met local and overseas newsmen at the Press conference in the Royal College, Nairobi, on Tuesday.
