"The Man Who Knew Too Much"

Little must be said of the plot of "The Man Who Knew Too Much" for fear of spoiling the maximum fun of the best suspense ever made. A great deal however, may be said about the technical aspect of the picture as a work of art.

Little is seen as Love Simon and Edna Best as the villain's wife. They are holiday-making at Merville with their daughter Betty (Greta O'Sullivan). The family is an ordinary English family, so admirably played by each member of the cast that we feel at once that we have known the Lovewells for years. They have dinner with their neighbours, the Martins.

"Borrko" - the last film made by the late Mr. Martin Johnson, is being the world premiere at the Regent Theatre next Monday. The picture will be introduced specially by Mrs. Osa Johnson, who is one of our African celebrities in the making of the new Livingston and Stanley film.

HISTORY OF A LIE

Strange Story of a Child Mind

How a victim for almost two weeks of the most intense police in the dramatic theme of "These Three" - a well acted and well produced film of small town life in America - Misses Hopkins and Merle Oberon see Martin and Kamin's "mystery" who open a small hotel which under the patronage of Mrs. Tifford (Alma Kruger) a local doctor Joseph Corbin (and Mr. Carr) is in love with Kamin and Martin is in love with Tifford. Tifford's wife is a deliberately unscrupulous by Mrs. Tifford's granddaughters Mary, who thoroughly had little girl who could not be trusted, and a whole crop of trouble, causing Rosalie Wells (Marion Jones) another of the schlegel, Tifford's wife, and the husband Mary into supporting the story of the "goose" - at the outbreak and it is now some years of Mary is overcome that something like truth emerges. The two girls grow extremely, and perfect, and that promise will be their future work.

The good friendship between the three persons principals, and the effect of the great scandal, are skillfully interpreted. Their individual performances are sincere and not overdone.

The film is an object lesson against the unhappy tendency of people to believe evil of others more readily than they will believe good. The one with which Tifford gave hand to the daughter they seem at first sight to be impossible. But it has the foundation in fact.

The Film: "THESE THREE"

The Stars: Misses Hopkins, Merle Oberon, and Alma Kruger.

The Verdict: Good drama.

GOVERNMENT HELP FOR DEBTORS IN ZANZIBAR

SCHEME TO PREVENT AFRICANS & ARABS LOSING THEIR LAND

Prosperity Threatened

The Government of Zanzibar has published for criticism an important measure providing a scheme for the relief of indebtedness amongst Arab and African landholders. The object of the creditors are Indians and the Bill is a part of the scheme of reorganization of the Cive Industry.

It is provided that before any action can be taken to foreclose or sell up land, there must be a compulsory adjustment of the debt and a valuation of the land (by the Court if necessary). Thus the Government may advance the money for clear debt on the land.

It will be by instalments which will take into account the financial condition of the debtor and the value of his land, himself and his family.

Originally, 1924 when a temporary moratorium was introduced, no creditor will be allowed to charge more than 10 per cent. interest.

It is emphasized that some such scheme is necessary because the indebtedness of the Agricultural producers is seriously jeopardizing the economic conditions of the State.

Mortgages to be Taken Over

The Government is anxious to obtain satisfaction of the debt contracted before the Bill comes into force.

Scheme's Features

- (1) Adjustment of the debt value to the value of the land.
- (2) The Government will pay off the debt of the landholder on the value of the land, threatened and the value of the landholder.
- (3) The Government will pay off the debt of the landholder on the value of the land, threatened and the value of the landholder.
- (4) The Government will pay off the debt of the landholder on the value of the land, threatened and the value of the landholder.
- (5) The Government will pay off the debt of the landholder on the value of the land, threatened and the value of the landholder.

Debt Adjustment

Generally, unless any proceedings are instituted against land or its produce, adjustments of the debt will be by instalments, whether or not the Government is required to advance the money to help the debtor. It is provided that the Government may advance the money for clear debt on the land.

RIOTS IN EGYPT.

A position equivalent to those held by the best gill-graded men, and on a lower rate than when prices of repayment are proportionate to the value of the goods. The quality of this work is so long and laborious and will involve serious delay in connection with the Bill. The Bill proposes a short-cut method of settling the accounts, and on ascertaining the unliquidated sums claimed by the debtor and the value of the goods, to be valued and taken by the Court, so as to secure for any payments made to the creditor.

Attorney General on "Negligence"

COMPLEX SUBJECT

Delivered by Mr. H. C. Wilson, Acting Attorney-General.

An address on "Negligence," in which a reference to contemporary law was made, was delivered by Mr. H. C. Wilson, Acting Attorney-General, at the meeting of the Rotary Club at their weekly luncheon on Friday last.

In defining negligence, the speaker pointed out that it is not the mere want of skill, but the want of care, with two exceptions. An artist might be committed to paint a portrait, and a professional legislator might be committed to draft a bill, and in such cases, the law would not be held against the artist or the legislator, but the man, say, of an architect, a musician, a professor, a lawyer, and would be held in negligence.

Squatter Stock

A POLICY AT VAKARUA WITH ANIMAL DISEASE RESEARCH. To the Editor, "E. S. Standard," Sir—"Love and Live Live," We have all looked upon that so good motto hitherto, and one which, if observed, would "Jolly" be to be together in unity. Mr. Clay's suggestion, however, seems to be "let those who agree with me continue to live here, and those who do not let us have the live, but elsewhere."

It would be deplorable if the stock farmers, those engaged in farming and the planters, should fall out over the question of squatter-owned stock. The root of the matter seems to be—Do squatters need to run their stock on land owned by Europeans? "Poot" says, "I have heard, I think, that squatters have no right to stock any more, in fact, of running their stock on land owned by Europeans."

It is a pity that the squatters have not been able to get on their feet. It is a pity that the squatters have not been able to get on their feet. It is a pity that the squatters have not been able to get on their feet.

DO PORCUPINES...? To the Editor, "E. S. Standard," Sir—"Do Porcupines clean their faces?" I say definitely No after having and killing them for nearly 20 years.

I killed my first when 10 years of age, and am now over 80 years and have never seen or heard a shot fired from any side of the hundred. I have killed... Yours etc. G. C. JOHNSON.

SOIL-BROOD AND CLIMATE CHANGE: THE YATTA PLAINS

To the Editor "E. S. Standard," Sir—Up to the last two or three years in this district which temperature of over 60 degrees were invariably found by blunder and rain.

During this and last year seasons we have had temperatures of 80 degrees. We have been the case for the last three days without a sign of rain or thunder.

I attribute this entirely to the late soil in the Wakamba Reserve and on the Yatta Plains, over which the prevailing wind blows, which has raised our temperature, increased wind velocity, reduced rainfall and possibly is responsible for the fall in the quality of our coffee, even which are now being produced under forced hot-house conditions.

This district stoutly opposed the handling over to the Wakamba Reserve, who seem more than willing to take the amount of assistance from us.

WHITHER WORLD? To the Editor, "E. S. Standard," Sir—I was very interested in your report of the Botany Club's meeting and Mr. Kaplan's address under the title "Whither World?"

Mr. Kaplan will look up the Bible Prophecies about "the end of the age" or "the days" he will find that they often seem to be the arrival of the Napoleon of the world.

We prefer to call him the "Napoleon of the world." It is possible that he will come "wars to come upon the ends of the earth. Most of us must now realize that there is "no other" hope for the world.

Yours etc. "WATCHMAN." Nairobi, Sept. 8, 1907.

AT THE 'PICTURES'

To the Editor, "E. S. Standard," Sir—I have got a programme of the film that are to be shown in Nairobi during the month.

We are very fortunate to be offered such excellent entertainment, but the one of your programme has shown afterwards for the night only.

It is up to the public to support the theatre, and the management encourage us by the concession of at least give a trial.

I have heard that there is some argument about receipts against it, but this has done not make any profit from those who stay away.

Nyon Agreement Should Be Signed To-day

ZONE PLAN DROPPED IN FINAL FORM

"POLICED" TRAFFIC LANES INSTEAD

Anglo-French Undertaking

SMALLER POWERS, INCLUDING RUSSIA, TO CONTROL ONLY THEIR OWN WATERS

Design lessening the burden placed on the smaller Mediterranean Powers have made the Nyon Conference agreement unanimously acceptable, and pleasing even to Italy and Germany.

THE "ZONE" SYSTEM HAS BEEN ABANDONED IN THE AGREEMENT'S FINAL FORM, AND, INSTEAD, GREAT BRITAIN AND FRANCE JOINTLY WILL "POLICE" THE MAIN MERCHANT TRAFFIC LANES OF THE WHOLE MEDITERRANEAN, WHILE OTHER POWERS WILL LOOK AFTER THEIR OWN WATERS.

The Soviet will not participate in Mediterranean control, as which France and Britain have expressed serious doubts. The "France" has pledged Soviet support to the final scheme, and the British press welcomes it, usually, with congratulations on the British and French enterprise.

It is considered that the very signing of the Agreement—expected to take place today—will be sufficient to prevent piratical action.

Italy and Germany Pleased

(Soviet and British Official Wireless Services)

Monday, September 16, 1957. The Nyon Conference has concluded its work and the final agreement has been signed. The agreement is a landmark in the history of international law, and it is expected that it will be sufficient to prevent piratical action.

APPEAL TO LEAGUE

China Accuses Japan

Aggression Indicted

【TORONTO NEWS SERVICE】 Sunday, Geneva, Monday. China's appeal to the League under Covenant Article Three, Ten and Sixteen, is being heard in its entirety.

With the appeal to the League the Chinese delegation has made a statement emphasizing that the real cause of Japan's continued provocations and invasion of China was Japan's policy of conquest of the whole of Asia and mastery of the Pacific.

The statement accuses Japan's bombing of women and children, and other barbaric acts, and the "Five Eastern cities" as "so definitely developed into a world city. Japan's aggression is not only threatening the independence and integrity of China, but also the peace of the world.

"Atrocious Activities"

It is the belief of the Chinese people that the League should undertake measures to end the intolerable continuation of Japan's aggression and oppression against China and to restore the equality of international relations.

The League should not be able to settle other non-members of the League with the League.

GERMANY'S "MORAL RIGHT" TO COLONIES

"THAT WHICH BELONGED TO US BEFORE THE WAR"

Herr Hitler's Statement

【TORONTO NEWS SERVICE】 Sunday, Berlin, Monday. "Our colonial interest is chiefly commercial."

What we have a moral right to is that which belonged to us before the war," said Herr Hitler, answering queries put to him by foreign journalists at Nuremberg on the question of Germany's colonial claims.

The Führer said that Europe would never be able to settle down until the matter was settled, and Germany's desire was to own colonies under her own flag rather than have the ability to buy raw materials and sell goods in others' colonies.

Asked about the possible construction of naval bases in any colonies that might be acquired, Herr Hitler said: "You must first have a navy," and added that Germany's interest in colonies was chiefly commercial.

Question of "Common Sense"

【TORONTO NEWS SERVICE】 Sunday, Nuremberg, Monday. Common sense, in which he believes, Herr Hitler thought that the question would be settled. The question would be settled one way or another, but it would be settled without a solution of the question of Germany's "moral right" to her colonies, Herr Hitler was asked.

FINANCIAL REORGANISATION

A Colonial Office Scheme

The Colonial Office has been tentatively the house of the depression. One of the things to which the financial machinery of Colonial Governments was not so efficient as it should have been. The Secretary of State, having taken the experience of the Colonial Office into account, has reached the conclusion that to ensure a more efficient colonial Government system policy in financial and economic affairs, a change in the present system is necessary. The first step in this process is the re-organisation of the Colonial Office. The Treasury is principally responsible for the preparation of the Budget. In practice the influence of the Colonial Secretary is limited to the Government's general financial policy and the Secretary's personal opinion. STRENGTHEN FINANCIAL AND ECONOMIC MACHINERY

Colonial Office Proposal

COMPRESSION PROVED THAT OLD SYSTEM WAS "FAR FROM EFFECTIVE"

Secretary of State for the Colonies has been studying the merits of the depression. One of the "strong impressions" left on his mind is that the economic and financial machinery of Government in most Territories has been far from being effective in those years.

He has now proposed that each Colonial Dependency be treated as a "Financial Territory" instead of a "Territory" and that the Deputy Treasurer will in future be known as the "Accountant General" and be responsible for the routine Treasury work while the new Assistant Treasurer will be in charge of financial and economic matters under expert review.

There has already been applied in Tanganyika, where Mr. G. R. Sandford, the Treasurer, has become "Financial Secretary" and it is anticipated that in Uganda also the proposal has been accepted. The Treasurer, Mr. Percot, has been given the new post there.

Changes Made in East Africa

The following statement has been issued by the Government, explaining the proposed changes in the financial machinery of the East African Colonies for the year 1932-33. The Secretary of State for the Colonies has decided to reorganize the financial machinery of the East African Colonies for the year 1932-33. The changes proposed are as follows:—

A New Post

"The above is a brief review of the main features of the new proposals. With the approval of the Secretary of State it has now become necessary to make arrangements for the implementation of the proposals. The Secretary of State has decided to reorganize the financial machinery of the East African Colonies for the year 1932-33. The changes proposed are as follows:—

PROSPEROUS YEAR FOR TANGANYIKA

TREASURER REPORTS MARKED IMPROVEMENT

Big Surplus Balance

The country's surplus balance stood at the close of the year at £176,565, whereas the estimated surplus was £21,691. During the year, money was set aside towards the building up of a Reserve Fund against future contingencies, and small provision was made towards the creating of a fund for the renewal of Railways assets.

RECORD REVENUE

The Treasurer's annual report on the financial year of Tanganyika shows a record revenue of £2,300,417, which was an increase of £200,187 over the estimate. The expenditure was £2,023,852, an increase of £100,384 over the original estimate. The surplus was £276,565, as compared with an estimated surplus of £21,691.

GOOD HARVEST

Expanding the above statistics the Treasurer goes on to state that the marked improvement in economic conditions to which reference was made in his year's report continued through the year. The harvest was exceptionally good in the case of wheat, cotton, and sisal. The revenue was correspondingly buoyant; ordinary revenue exceeded the estimate by nearly £100,000 and whereas the original estimate provided for a railway deficit of £25,000, in fact the surplus was £276,565.

RESERVE FUNDS

The next question dealt with in the report is that concerning the provision of Reserve Funds. The report refers to a resolution passed by the Legislative Council on the 15th of December, 1931, providing for the creation of a Reserve Fund and setting aside the sum of £100,000.

Big Surplus Balance

The country's surplus balance stood at the close of the year at £176,565, whereas the estimated surplus was £21,691. During the year, money was set aside towards the building up of a Reserve Fund against future contingencies, and small provision was made towards the creating of a fund for the renewal of Railways assets.

RECORD REVENUE

The Treasurer's annual report on the financial year of Tanganyika shows a record revenue of £2,300,417, which was an increase of £200,187 over the estimate. The expenditure was £2,023,852, an increase of £100,384 over the original estimate. The surplus was £276,565, as compared with an estimated surplus of £21,691.

GOOD HARVEST

Expanding the above statistics the Treasurer goes on to state that the marked improvement in economic conditions to which reference was made in his year's report continued through the year. The harvest was exceptionally good in the case of wheat, cotton, and sisal. The revenue was correspondingly buoyant; ordinary revenue exceeded the estimate by nearly £100,000 and whereas the original estimate provided for a railway deficit of £25,000, in fact the surplus was £276,565.

RESERVE FUNDS

The next question dealt with in the report is that concerning the provision of Reserve Funds. The report refers to a resolution passed by the Legislative Council on the 15th of December, 1931, providing for the creation of a Reserve Fund and setting aside the sum of £100,000.

Clear Settlement

THE TASK BEFORE KENYA

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard":
Sir—Your leading article on the subject of the settlement of the Kenya problem is most interesting and well written. It is a pity that it is not more widely read.

When we have defined the task before us, we have to consider the means by which it can be done. It is not enough to have a list of demands. We must have a plan of action. We must have a clear idea of the steps to be taken. We must have a clear idea of the resources available to us. We must have a clear idea of the obstacles in our way. We must have a clear idea of the time available to us.

When the task is defined, the first step is to get a clear idea of the resources available to us. We must have a clear idea of the resources available to us. We must have a clear idea of the resources available to us. We must have a clear idea of the resources available to us.

It is a pity that it is not more widely read. It is a pity that it is not more widely read. It is a pity that it is not more widely read. It is a pity that it is not more widely read. It is a pity that it is not more widely read.

I hope that H. E. The Governor will champion the movement.

THE 'MAHOTTI' TREE

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard":
Sir—An increasing interest is being taken by the trees of this country and the flowering trees are naturally better known than the others and perhaps the comment one, and one that is a characteristic of this country is the "Mahotti" (Kikuyu) tree.

May I ask any of your readers who have seen a Mahotti tree in white bloom to let me know about it? When the last of this month is being cleared for coffee, there were two white Mahotti trees growing within fifty yards of each other. They were inadvertently cleared away with the rest of the bush and I have not seen any where else. I have not seen any where else. I have not seen any where else.

ROME WANTS EQUAL PLACE IN PATROL SCHEME

Britain Means Business

BATTLESHIP TAKES STATION AT BARDAMELLES ENTRANCE

Main opinion regarding the Nyon pact has changed again, according to a Rome message, and Italy who, it will be recalled, rejected the invitation to attend the conference, now considers that she should have equal place with Britain and France in patrolling the high seas.

Meanwhile, the report that H.M.S. "Malaya" a bar-torpiloid of 11,000 tons, has left Salonika for Mudros, a port on Larnak Island off the Aegean entrance to the Dardanelles, has created a great impression at Geneva, as indicating that the Powers mean business.

Geneva Impressions

Paris, Monday.—The Peace Conference, which opened at Geneva, has been opened by the British Foreign Secretary to the British and French delegations.

British views, which are held in favour of the League, are not so strong as they were at the beginning of the conference, and the British Foreign Secretary has made it clear that the British will not support the League unless it is reformed.

AGA KHAN PRESIDES OVER LEAGUE ASSEMBLY'S 'HONOUR TO INDIA'

ASSEMBLY'S 'HONOUR TO INDIA'

New Leader Pledges Service

His Highness the Aga Khan, who has led the Indian delegation to the League of Nations on many occasions, has been elected President of the League Assembly.

His Highness received 42 out of the 46 votes cast.

Welcome to Eastern States

Returning thanks for his election as President of the League of Nations Assembly, His Highness the Aga Khan said "With great warmth of feeling that I am being to my lips, I thank you. You have done much for my country, a great honour. It is a great honour to a country whose whole philosophy of life is summed up in the principle on which the League of Nations is based."

There is an announcement in "The Times" today that a son has been born to His Highness the Aga Khan on September 13.

Princess Aly Khan, whose husband is of course son of His Highness the Aga Khan, was born on January 1, 1937.

AIR AND SEA BATTLES IN ROUTE

Shanghai, Monday.—It is officially stated that the Chinese troops have completed a new line of defence, the first line of heavily armed troops having been completely demoralized during five weeks of incessant Japanese artillery and aerial bombardment.

The new line is of strongly fortified character, and is 100 miles long, and is expected to resist the Japanese for a considerable time.

Meanwhile, Japanese troops are advancing steadily and the Japanese have reduced the principal centres of Shanghai.

Refugees Rescued

Over 400 Chinese refugees are reported to have been killed when the Japanese bombed a boat of junk-tugs near Shanghai.

China's Increase

A heavy increase in the number of cases of cholera is causing alarm. There are now 400 cases in the French colonies and 50 in the International Settlement, of which a total of 60 have been fatal.

Destroyer Sunk

Chinese destroyers from Canton scored five direct hits on a Japanese destroyer, which immediately sank. The other destroyer of Kwangchow Bay, State Chinese Air Force headquarters at Nanking.

Union Ready to Hand Back Colonies

"IF SECURITY WAS NOT ENDANGERED"

High Commissioner's View

"CONFERENCE WOULD HAVE AGREEABLE RESULTS TO GERMANY AND MANDATORIES"

(SOUTH AFRICA'S AGENT.)

South Africa would participate in a general agreement to return colonies to Germany if it would not cost the Union security, declared Mr. T. Water, the Union's High Commissioner to London in an interview here.

He said that with rearmament bringing nearer the final crisis, "we should have the courage to sit in conference with Germany."

"South Africa would be willing to do this, and I am sure the result would be a solution agreeable to Germany and to the Mandatory powers."

NAVAL DAMAGE

(SOUTH AFRICA'S AGENT.)

Victims from Oudin to Gibraltar were destroyed, and a smaller vessel was damaged.

The British Union of Fascists had applied for permission to march through the streets of the East End on October 5 to celebrate the fifth anniversary of the foundation.

"BE BORN A GIRL" SAYS BIOLOGIST

(SOUTH AFRICA'S AGENT.)

London (By Air).—Dr. F. A. B. Gow, in the Zoology section of the British Association, meeting at Nottingham, said the ratio of the sexes at birth would be used as a biological yardstick for measuring social progress.

In England and Wales in 1935, the ratio was 100 males to 100 females.

The ratio was approximately equal at 15 to 15, the threshold of the reproductive period.

After 20, the ratio swung to female, and in 1935, the ratio was 100 males to 100 females.

To be born a girl was more dangerous for the female, and the true ratio for longevity was to be born a girl.

Violent deaths remained twice as many males as females from the population.

ROME DEMANDS AT LEAST FULL EQUALITY

Mediterranean Control Reply

BELLEGERENT RIGHTS FOR FRANKO TO BE FURTHER CONDITION

Italy's vital interests in the Mediterranean make it impossible for her to adhere to the Nyon proposals unless she is admitted to the partnership terms of absolute equality, states the Italian reply to the Anglo-French invitation to join the Mediterranean supervisory agreement.

Observers in Rome point out that the reply is couched in such terms that even if absolute equality were granted, there is no guarantee that Italy would come in.

The further condition is suggested by inspired press comment to be that belligerent rights must be granted to General Franco.

"Agreement With Reich"

[LONDON SERVICE'S AGENTS.]

British Embassy, Berlin, Thursday. The Italian reply to the invitation to join the Mediterranean supervisory agreement was received in London today. The Italian Government has indicated the Nyon arrangements which would be made for Italy under no circumstances to be considered to be a concession. It is pointed out that the Italian reply is couched in such terms that even if absolute equality were granted, there is no guarantee that Italy would come in.

It is estimated that the reply is couched in such terms that even if absolute equality were granted, there is no guarantee that Italy would come in.

PALESTINE: BRITAIN'S NEXT STEP

DEPARTMENTAL COMMISSION TO DISCUSS DETAILS

Boundaries and Finance

[LONDON SERVICE'S AGENTS.]

The League Council is expected to have before it a resolution authorizing Britain to proceed with her proposals for a definite settlement of the Palestine problem, on the lines of the Royal Commission's Report.

Mr. Eden, the British Foreign Secretary, stated that what Britain proposed to do, if the Council gave general approval, was to appoint a further special commission to negotiate in Palestine on details of partition. A boundary commission would follow later.

The new Commission, which would probably be largely departmental, is expected also to undertake financial enquiries, and if all goes well its report might be ready by January.

Mr. Eden's Explanation

[LONDON SERVICE'S AGENTS.]

Geneva, Tuesday. The British Government is not expected to appoint a further special body to visit Palestine to negotiate with Arabs and Jews and submit to the British Government proposals for a detailed scheme of partition. Later a boundary commission would follow.

Foreign Attitudes

[LONDON SERVICE'S AGENTS.]

M. Dehne, the French Foreign Secretary, while paying tribute to the Royal Commission's Report, said that in view of the essential character of the resolution proposed, the French Government must reserve its attitude to the final scheme until it was submitted.

Reply by January

As far as can be gathered, the new body mentioned by Mr. Eden would be largely a departmental Commission, which would go to Palestine as quickly as possible.

Behind every Boots product—whether it be a poison or a harmless pill—there lies the knowledge, experience and precision of modern medical science. Every single product that passes out from Boots factories at Nottingham must first pass through a series of exhaustive tests for purity and correct chemical composition. From the choice of the raw materials to the manufacture of the commercial product, Boots laboratories are in strict and constant control. For that very good reason, and for many others as well—

force. Any submarine guilty of attacking neutral shipping will, if discovered, be destroyed. It is the policy of the United States to support the British and the other Allied nations in Spain because it is against submarine attacks in the Mediterranean that the security scheme is directed—and will be treated impartially. The Powers who signed the Nyon Agreement have only one object and that is to make piracy in the Mediterranean impossible at all times is concerned. They will enforce. Incidents may occur despite the presence of naval police forces, but the risk to which submarine attacks are exposed is so great that even the most zealous commander will hesitate before he offers his crew to the probability of destruction. The alternative action upon the attacks by sea and air is to be taken, including upon the merchant shipping of the Mediterranean. Italy, which has served to bring about a rule of law in the Mediterranean and disaster for every nation has reason to be grateful that she has not been the victim of the Italian people to realize, which perhaps they had not fully realized, the necessity of the legislation which swept across Germany when the Italian Government was only in the hands of the German Navy. This is the danger of the Italian people because aggression is not only the danger of the Italian people but also the danger of the Italian people. Italy has taken the necessary measures to make a regulation of such magnitude impossible in the Mediterranean. London Reflections

Holidays Are Over—New Colours—A School Girl's Wardrobe

August is at an end and we who have stayed in London, are not sorry to see goodbye to what has proved to be a hot, blundering month. With the beginning of September, people are returning from their holidays, and they have given a cheerful welcome to the new fashions. There is not much news, but plenty of dancing, fun and a little excitement, and this mixture together with Dorothy Dickson at the cockney 'cater' should see the British play-going public for some time.

The season is not far from the dawn shows and legislative changes of the winter fashions are being developed one by one to give new colour in Mayfair. The one has only to walk along London and look at the show windows to realize that there is variety enough in fashions to insure that the dress with the most perfect three advantages may be original and new to suit her own individuality. And this is the only really successful way of dressing. Fashion should be an expression and a command.

A good many smart women tend to be seen about London today.

Something Different

NEW WAYS WITH SANDWICHES

Spread anchovy paste on buttered brown bread, and add a little prepared mustard, or better still, French mustard. Before making crab-salad sandwich, add a little mayonnaise, which gives a new and delightful flavour.

Wash some dates in warm water, and then soak in hot milk for an hour before spreading between slices of buttered white bread.

Always keep a tin of celery salt for use on cheese or egg sandwiches. Just a sprinkling on top makes all the difference.

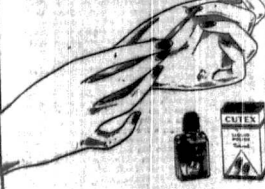

Pound some peanuts into a smooth paste with milk, and add a little of celery salt and a sprinkle of pepper. With or without the addition of chopped mustard and cream, this makes a pleasant filling for sandwiches.

Put an unseasoned sweet sandwich, with one raisin or aniseed, mixed with a few chopped walnuts, and served with a dash of lemon juice.

I cannot help feeling glad when I see all these lovely colours being worn and I do hope women are going to be brave enough to wear them. There are lines, particularly in London, when one gets tired of black and navy blue, however smart they may be, and it is so cheering to see a little patch of crimson or yellow. There is one colour combination I think is most successful and that is a soft blue with plum colour. Worn by a girl with blue eyes and the right colouring it is a certain winner. It is just as good in the evening as in the day, but the smart that does not go too grey in artificial light.

I have been asked to plan a school-girl's wardrobe for the Christmas holidays. She is going home to school from East Africa this autumn. Perhaps you know other school girls who will sympathize with what she says. "I suppose no one butters school clothes until one is grown-up, and it seems to me dressing like a grown-up is much more than dressing school-girls". I thought, "How true!" So I suggested she should have a well-cut, well-fitting, with a skirt and several pairs of sensible slippers to match. With this she would need a few wedding frocks (one might be of nylon) in one of the very smart new patterns. Then for her own plain dresses with a velvet collar and velvet hat under which should wear her Sunday and party frocks. It is a useful mistake to imagine that children can be dressed in adult clothes for they need good cut and good material more than their mothers. M.P.W.

As UNDER SKIN Grows Firm Again

Hard to believe—but those little lines that look as if they'd been creased into your skin from the outside, actually grow from within. They're the result of poor circulation. That's what makes your outside skin sag. That's what makes your outside skin sag.

When Skins Rough—smooth it instantly

Just what you need to go on smoothly every day, silky skin. But you can't get that roughness away in a second—with a simple cream (Vaseline Cream).

A prominent dermatologist says: "A keratinocyte cream with active vitamin E—smooths it."

Overnight this invisible cream softens your skin. Not crumey. It won't smear.

WRIGHT'S COAL TAR SOAP

MOTORING SECTION

RESPONSIBILITY IN ROAD ACCIDENTS

A Sound Suggestion

An address of exceptional interest was delivered at last Friday's weekly luncheon of the Nairobi Rotary Club, when the principles involved in negligence and precautionary legislation in road accidents were explained.

Emphasis was also laid on the simpler means that have arisen in connection with determining the degree of negligence of parties concerned in road accidents, also on the introduction of motor vehicles, and a suggestion that certain underlying principles of maritime law, their application with collection of fees or on other navigable waters, should be adopted as far as possible.

This was when the late was King of the Road; when two miles in an hour was a cracking pace, and five miles an hour a fair average.

Advantages occurred in a more lively manner and there was every possibility of determining the degree of negligence of each of the parties concerned. Their liability for the occurrence could be divided and "interchangeable" means and the doctrine of "the last opportunity" be invoked to determine the degree of liability and the extent of damages to be awarded to the aggrieved party.

LEGAL ADDRESS FOR ROTARIANS

Attorney General on "Negligence"

An address on "Negligence," in which reference to contemporary negligence was made, was given by the Attorney General at a meeting of the Rotarians held on Friday last. The speaker was Mr. H. C. Willis, Attorney General for the Territory.

In defining negligence the speaker explained that it was the same as want of skill, illustrating his point with a practical example. An architect was commissioned to plan a two-story building, and giving all care to the task, produced a perfect plan. But it was a failure, due to his lack of skill. He could not see beyond the immediate requirements of the client, and had taken more care to design a building which would be safe and sound than to take into account the fact that the building would be liable in negligence for damage should a portion of it collapse through faulty design and construction.

When Prisoners Come Out

It was, however, evident that where the case of negligence was concerned, the law is not so simple as it might appear. The speaker pointed out that the law is not so simple as it might appear, and that the law is not so simple as it might appear.

Definition of Negligence

Negligence, in short, had been defined judicially as "the failure to exercise the care which a prudent man would exercise under the same circumstances." The speaker pointed out that the law is not so simple as it might appear, and that the law is not so simple as it might appear.

It was, however, evident that where the case of negligence was concerned, the law is not so simple as it might appear. The speaker pointed out that the law is not so simple as it might appear, and that the law is not so simple as it might appear.

Back to the Beginning

"I suggest that the simple descriptive anthropology of the commentator is the only one of the early cities. We are dealing here with material that was not even available for the first city. It is a story of the beginning of the world, and of the beginning of the human race.
