Tanganyika's Secret Hitler Shrine

(By B. J. Ratcliffe)

As reported in this column the Secretary of the East African Chamber of Commerce, Mr. C. H. Stanley, stated that one of the things that struck him when he visited the secret Hitler shrine of the British in Tanganyika was the fact that very few people other than himself were in the vicinity when he saw the picture painted on the wall over a hole in the wall of a building of what was until the outbreak of the present war the British Consulate at Mwanza. Mr. Stanley said that he was accompanied by a photographer for the Eastern Province of that territory. I was there in a position to see the photographs for the Information Department and published them, but others were not allowed to make.

Being told by certain military officers that in one of the buildings of the shrine, they accepted a number of drawings, I immediately went to the shrine and saw the drawings of the Commanding Officer who was in charge of the shrine. One of the drawings was a picture of Hitler in a military uniform, and another was a picture of Hitler in a military uniform, and another was a picture of Hitler in a military uniform.

which six or seven immediately upon entering the door of the room and looking at the wall which was covered with a number of which were very small. The existence of this amazing wall was revealed by one man who was a baker and confectioner of the shrine and was known to the "Prest" in charge of the shrine. The shrine was discovered by some German soldiers when they were in the vicinity of the shrine.

This "Secret Shrine of Hitler" was evidence before British troops were in Germany. A second shrine was discovered in the vicinity of the shrine. It was a shrine of Hitler in a military uniform, and another was a picture of Hitler in a military uniform.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO the end of the War and VICTORY with full confidence in the FUTURE

Since the commencement of hostilities there has been a long period when the best service the Company was able to give, and limited equipment that was available for distribution, did not meet the requirements of our regular customers.

Many of the wheels of the Company's factories are turning for war production only, so it is hardly necessary to apologise for any short-comings whatsoever.

We know our customers will share with us the joy of better news, with a better outlook for Peace within a reasonable time. We believe, with the acceleration in factory output to meet growing demands of Military and Civilian needs, that more Spares, more Massey-Harris quality O's Draft and power drawn implements, more Harvesting Machines and Tractors, will be fully satisfied.

The following implements are available for immediate distribution, subject to control regulations: 102 Tractors, No. 22, One Way Disc, No. 551, 2 Furrow Mouldboard Ploughs.

Governor Reviews Kenya's Agricultural Year

YIELDS INCREASE, BUT STILL MORE BAGS PER ACRE NEEDED

DURING the current year the estimated planted acreage of crops in Kenya has increased by 10 per cent over the corresponding acreage in 1942. There has also been an improvement in the average yield per acre for wheat and maize. The total area under crops is estimated to be 1,000,000 acres.

These were among points made by the Governor, Sir Henry Munn, during his tour of inspection of the main agricultural areas in Kenya. He was accompanied by the Legislative Council in Nairobi this morning.

Last year's five Council estimates of the increase in the production of crops in Kenya were: Maize, 10 per cent; Wheat, 10 per cent; Cotton, 10 per cent; Sorghum, 10 per cent; and other crops, 10 per cent.

The Governor also pointed out that the increase in the area under crops was due to the fact that the Government had been successful in persuading the farmers to plant more crops.

He also mentioned that the Government had been successful in persuading the farmers to plant more crops.

He also mentioned that the Government had been successful in persuading the farmers to plant more crops.

100,000 sheep and goats were bought by the Livestock Control during the year. The total number of cattle and goats in Kenya is estimated to be 1,000,000.

It has been evident for some time that the cattle population in Kenya is steadily increasing. The Government has been successful in persuading the farmers to plant more crops.

INTRODUCTION OF KENYA'S BUDGET

Limit of Taxation Almost Reached

The Finance Minister, Mr. J. M. Througton, introduced the Budget in what he described as a "historic" speech, which, according to the Daily Estimates for 1944 he referred to as the "Standard" Budget. Mr. Througton set out the general background of the year's Budget.

Mr. Througton expressed the receipt of a telegram from His Majesty's Government regarding the limit of direct and indirect taxation. Admittedly, the Government had now nearly reached the limit of direct and indirect taxation.

Africa Service Medal

Mr. Througton announced that the Government had decided to award the Africa Service Medal to those who have served in Africa during the war. The medal is awarded to those who have served in Africa for a period of not less than six months.

SEABOARDS—AN APPAL

To the Editor, "E.A. Standard":

As a member of the Seaboard Fisheries Board of the Kenya Colony, I have been reading with interest the article in your issue of the 12th inst. regarding the proposed changes in the constitution of the Board. I am sure that you will be glad to hear from those who, for some reason or other, are not in favour of the proposed changes.

I am a member of the Seaboard Fisheries Board and I have been reading with interest the article in your issue of the 12th inst. regarding the proposed changes in the constitution of the Board. without doubt, that in the Kenya Colony, the fisheries are one of the most important sources of income. It is therefore, not surprising that the Government should be so anxious to improve the management of these fisheries. The proposed changes in the constitution of the Seaboard Fisheries Board are a step in this direction. I am sure that the Board will be able to carry out its duties more effectively if it is given the powers and authority which are proposed in the new constitution.

It is also true that the proposed changes will give the Board a more representative character. This is a very important consideration, as the Board will be responsible for the management of the fisheries, which are a source of income for the Colony. It is therefore, essential that the Board should be able to represent the interests of the fishing community as well as those of the Government.

I am sure that the proposed changes will be welcomed by the fishing community, as they will give them a more direct say in the management of the fisheries. I am sure that the Board will be able to carry out its duties more effectively if it is given the powers and authority which are proposed in the new constitution.
