 U.S. Paratroops Attack in New Guinea

RUSSIA
 THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1943

The war's greatest battle is still raging unceasingly on the Russian front. The Germans are making a desperate bid to establish the position long enough to establish their own propaganda line which they have a reasonable chance of holding. It must be done their first objective line that offers the advantage of a good defensive position. The needed mobile reserve can be created for emergency show there. The German divisions are being redivided an opportunity of retreating. It must also have the advantage of good railway communications for mobility as the Russian divisions are being redivided. Dispersal has very seriously weakened the whole economy communications system. And, if possible, it should combine with the German divisions. Dispersal with good losses both forward and in the rear for these in their dispersal for the winter.

U.S. Paratroops Attack in New Guinea
 The U.S. Army paratroops jumped from the low altitude, 200 ft. north below a preceding night jump to join in the Allied attack on the Japanese New Guinea. Allied paratroops were seen to be dropping from the sky over the Japanese base on the important base. The action marked the first success in the use of paratroops in the Pacific.

PURE MILK FOR AFRICAN LOCATIONS?

The Swiss Medical Officer of Health for Malawi, one of the positions in regard to the distribution of pure milk in the public health service, has been necessary to bring these dairies under the supervision of the necessary arrangements for a regular supply of milk to public health and other milk supply to be established.

The Mayor (Councillor) advised that this was so. The Council was accordingly advised that the Milk Committee was actually constituted in a meeting on December 1st, 1943, at the Municipal Council Chamber at 10 p.m. on that date. The Milk Committee was accordingly constituted in a meeting on December 1st, 1943, at the Municipal Council Chamber at 10 p.m. on that date.

TOYON COUNCIL ON POST-WAR EMPLOYMENT

Debate Arising from "Purely Temporary Appointment"

When the proposal to appoint Mr. C. E. R. M. H. B. to the post of Chief Executive Officer of the Toyon Council on Post-War Employment was announced, it caused a considerable amount of discussion. The Toyon Council on Post-War Employment was established in 1942 to advise the Government on matters relating to the employment of the returned servicemen and women.

Personally Speaking... *

A FEW weeks ago I took occasion to mention the excellent work since then instances of meritorious work resulting in awards like the Military Cross to Major Geoffrey Ward, Pezaris, son of Kenya's Commissioner of Mines, Major Probyn, who was born in Kenya, went to Britain to join the Royal Tank Regiment and was one of three officers of the Regiment to receive awards for their part in actions which turned the enemy's rear.

An enemy column of vehicles, tanks and guns was being pursued from the rear and a second column of the Royal Tank Regiment was ordered to cut it off. By-passing the enemy tank column, the British column advanced to within 100 yards after traversing very rough country, thick with olive trees.

In the sharp attack which followed they destroyed the enemy tanks, 16 guns, and 26 vehicles and took 24 prisoners, besides being very much wounded on the field. Two of the 24 prisoners, besides being very much wounded on the field, were the Commanding Officer of the squadron which was ordered to P.O.

Major Probyn is only 24 years old and his promotion to the Army Major rank was well-earned. He was well-known in the Club cricket circles before the war. Playing for the Kenya Club during one of their seasons, British summer tours he took a century for an overseas team against a touring English side. He is a very good addition to being a tank commander in a desert tank, is a keen soccer player, and has been a member of the Kenya cricket team.

Cricketer Takes

Recently "Hornet" Smith, the well-known Parklands bowler, was dismissed for a century.

ROUND THE BRIDGE TABLE

(By GRAND SLAM)

POP'S SUPER SAFETY PLAY!
POP is a most complex player, at times reaching great heights. Through these intricacies, at other times the decision which he passes is an admission which he passes in his mind when he was on his knees before the great King. He actually had a rubber at the end of the game, but he was so pleased the blade with his play in the following table before he offered a large money endorsement to the collection, and he being extremely modest, also donated the ten of trumps, both hands, for other down. At game all, this was played by Pop sitting South, six hearts—

ATHLETIC SPRAINS

Every athlete should carry a bottle of SLOANS in his kit bag to use on sprains or sore ligaments, adding little trouble to the kit bag.

After the game, just put SLOANS on. It stimulates the circulation, causes fresh purified blood to be directed to the inflamed spots, builds up broken-down tissues, clears away poisons, and usually brings you back to normal in a few days.

SLOANS PENETRATES WITHOUT RUBBING

1944 ELECTION

Although the General Election is still some six months away, it is not too late for us to begin to consider the only factors which the general public should take into account in the selection of candidates. These must be the character and ability of the candidates, and the work they will be called upon to undertake in the next General Election. All the present candidates of the political machinery have not been elected. However, things have been made. Members of the Executive Committee have been elected. Members of the Executive Committee have been elected. Members of the Executive Committee have been elected.

POLICE IMPORT LICENCES TO AGENTS

An Official Explanation

In a statement issued by the British Motor Vehicle Association (B.M.V.A.) it is stated that the Government has decided to issue import licences to agents for the purpose of enabling them to import motor vehicles from foreign countries. This decision was reached after a long period of consultation with the various interested parties. The B.M.V.A. has expressed its support for the Government's policy, and has agreed to issue licences to agents who are willing to comply with the conditions set out in the regulations. The regulations are designed to ensure that the importation of motor vehicles is carried out in a fair and equitable manner, and that the interests of the British motor industry are protected.

THE ARMY & K.L.R. & H. EDWARDS

CORPORAL PUNISHMENT

It is stated that the Army has decided to impose a fine of £100 on the K.L.R. & H. Edwards for the failure to comply with the regulations governing the importation of motor vehicles. The fine was imposed after a long period of investigation into the matter. The K.L.R. & H. Edwards had been found to have imported a large number of motor vehicles without the necessary import licences. This was a serious breach of the regulations, and the Army has decided to take action against the firm. The fine is payable immediately, and the firm has been warned that any further breaches of the regulations will result in more severe penalties.

December 12, 1943

The German Government has announced that it has decided to issue a decree which will enable it to take control of the German economy. This decree is a significant step towards the implementation of the German economic plan, and is designed to ensure that the German economy is able to meet the needs of the German people. The decree will give the German Government the power to control the production and distribution of goods and services, and to regulate the prices of these goods and services. This is a major step towards the establishment of a German economic system, and is a sign of the German Government's determination to carry out its economic plan.

Personally Speaking..

It was hardly to be expected that Lord Louis Mountbatten's visit to the East African continent would be so successful in an important sense as it has been. It is a pity that in all your meetings with him you have not had the opportunity to see under his leadership the splendid work he has done in the East African continent. He has done a great deal of work in the East African continent, and his visit to the East African continent has been a most successful one.
