

DEMONSTRATIONS IN FAVOUR OF A FREE AUSTRIA
Following Speech By the Chancellor

FOLLOWING A SPEECH BY DR. SCHUBENIG ON THE RECENT AGREEMENT WITH GERMANY, THE CHAMBERLAIN RECEIVED A BIG OVATION FROM AN IMMENSE PROCESSION AT THE HEAD OF WHICH HE MARCHED THROUGH VIENNA. THESE WERE ENTUSIASTIC DEMONSTRATIONS AGAINST THE NAZIS AND IN FAVOUR OF A FREE AUSTRIA.

Vienna, February 28. DR. SCHUBENIG IN THE COURSE OF A SPEECH IN THE PARLIAMENT BUILDING TO-DAY SAID THE GOVERNMENT'S FIRST DUTY WAS TO MAINTAIN AUSTRIA'S FREEDOM AND INDEPENDENCE. The new Government, he said, would not allow political terrorism under an authoritarian head. He regarded his meeting with Herr Hitler as a milestone peace. He said in a further reference to the Berchtesgaden Agreement, that the Austrian people would have to give their assent to the pact. "We are certain we are and are," he said, "that the pact will be a landmark in our history."

Dealing with the Jewish question, he declared that all citizens were equal before the Austrian law and would remain so. He stated that Italy had had Austria and emphasized that he was not a Jew. He declared that he would not allow any interference in Austria's internal affairs. Following his speech, Dr. Schubeinig headed a procession of 50,000 people. It was the most enthusiastic crowd of its kind seen in Austria for many years. It passed through the streets in a noisy parade of people, many of them shouting "Down with the Austrian Nazis," "Hail Schubeinig," "Hail Austria," and "Hail Hitler."

Incidents arose in a public square as the demonstrators, many of whom were settled, but no serious clashes occurred.

trian from the superior motorist who keeps his nose in the air when he should have his eyes on the road. The representation of the masses must also be subject to no flights of imagination, must have a walking pace as well as a pleasure of a necessity, and be able to cover the hundred yards in something approaching ten seconds—not too dead, but alive at the end of the sprint and ready to do it again so soon as the next moment with a pedestrian on his licence starts out to get his bag.

Even then the task of selection is not so simple. The other day in England a pedestrian was fined for obstruction of traffic. His counsel pleaded innocency but that his client had been walking for nearly forty years and this was his first accident. His statistics record was not counted to him for merit. The obstructed motorist won. But that makes more sense of what we want a man (or a woman) with a clean sheet. It is not likely that the pedestrian who has successfully defied and obstructed the greatest number of motor cars will be the best representative of the slow Walkers of Nairobi! Is it not to be supposed that one who has mastered the technique of evading the road without haste, who has leaped over the most bonnets without being impaled on a motor car, might be thought a baby car and won, touched a moving bus without being bitten, may not be much more advanced than an innocent law-abiding pavement-bugging citizen with no special adventure, to tell the Conference exactly what the pedestrian is like and what should be done about him? And it is at what age his experience sufficiently complete to warrant his selection? Do we want to look at arms whose sole knowledge of transport has been confined to a perambulator or a toy train, or do we want to see a young man who has returned from leave last week after three months' absence and has travelled some 27,000 miles, who has seen the world and who has seen the world at the moving end of the steam engine?

It is a question which the Club by its action has put before the public.

Nairobi Assists

At about 6 p.m. on Thursday, a car driven by Mr. W. Shaw, of Nairobi, collided with a motor car driven by Mr. K. A. Ward (H.M.S. 101) at the junction of 1st Park Avenue and 1st Street. No persons were injured, but both cars were damaged.

Wanted—A Pedestrian

The Town Council of Nairobi, anxious to do its best to meet every point of view on the difficult subject of traffic control in the town, proposes to hold a conference of all parties likely to be interested. Motorists will be there in force. No doubt most of them will arrive at the conference in a car. Almost as they invited, the list of those invited is as follows: The B.E.A.A., A. or of the Chamber of Commerce. It is not difficult to spot a Town Councillor. But what is a pedestrian? The Town Council has not even the task of defining the term. It is not easy to do. It is not easy to do. It is not easy to do. It is not easy to do.

BRITISH UNION OF FARMERS' GANANIK MATES ITS CASE Mandates discussed in British press

The point of view of the British Union with regard to the future of the Territory has been put in a despatch by the Union's Committee to leading newspapers in Britain.

Correspondents to the "Economist" showed great divergence of views in reply. "Is the peace of the world to be jeopardized for the sake of some thousands of settlers in Tanganyika?" asked one. Another said "It would be the height of madness to hand over this territory on any other, to the German nation."

What, then, is the solution? We think that it is not transfer of Germany to Germany, but that the effect of any transfer to Germany would be more disastrous to British settlers than to natives. For the British would then have to give up the Empire or at least to be reduced to a position of inferiority. Nowhere is there a more palpable and obvious case of this than in the Tanganyika settlers.

Many hundreds of British settlers are active in the various districts of Tanganyika. In doing so they are in the forefront of the movement for the independence of the Territory. It is to be regretted that the British settlers would be no worse off than they are at present. This is the great distinction of the British Union of Farmers' Gananki.

At last, the day which has been awaited with such high expectations, has arrived. The day when surely everyone is going to the Fayre, the day when everything has been arranged with such scrupulous care, with sole exception of the weather—and that, unfortunately, is beyond human control.

The organizers hope that the sun, which never sets, they say, on the British Empire, will choose to be magnanimous on this occasion, to our particular part of the Empire.

A special feature of the Elizabethan Fayre, which will open on Saturday at 10 o'clock, is the E.A.W.L. This will be open from 10 o'clock to 11 o'clock in the morning in the big dining room, where there will be a charge made for entry.

Long Talks
The only other signs of the summer were Mr. Ridge's frequent visits to the Pwani road, and the occasional trip to High Wycombe, they made in her car.
"Pwani" Ridge, an old man of a moon face, with a long white beard, was sitting in a wicker chair in a roomy cottage, he slept in a cot in the room. When he was out of work he went to High Wycombe in a motor car, he had done so a month ago he moved into High Wycombe, on a hill looking down on the Pwani.
Mr. Arthur Lawrence, a butcher, said: "When 'Tinker' is dropped by the court, he will go to High Wycombe. He's a quiet sort of chap, but he can't keep his mouth shut, and he'll be very sociable."
"Pwani" is captain of the Pwani darts team. He plays cricket for the village.
The couple are now spending a fortnight's holiday in Leeds with Mr. & Mrs. McCann. Miss Ma Donald's brother-in-law. It is understood the wedding will take place quietly on their return.
Yesterday Mr. McCann said: "Mr. Ridge's holiday has found me some of the best 'barrow' country life. I am sure you will be happy."

Drummer and Village Dandy

(STANDARD CHARGEMENT)
THIRTY-FOUR-EAGLED LONDON HIREL. MACDONALD. ELIZABETH DAUGHTER OF THE LATE MR. RAMSAY MACDONALD, is to marry thirty-three-year-old Norman Ridgeley, who, between odd jobs at home, is gaining such enviable success in his part-time work as a village dandy.

Mr. Ridgeley—"Tinker" to his friends—has been one of the "ragged" boys of the Pwani road, and is the dandy of the village; and plays the darts in the High Wycombe.
Only a week ago, when the darts were being played at the home of King George, Mr. Ridgeley was called "Tinker" by the darts club, and called "overboard" in the village by those who were watching him.

The only other signs of the summer were Mr. Ridge's frequent visits to the Pwani road, and the occasional trip to High Wycombe, they made in her car.
"Pwani" Ridge, an old man of a moon face, with a long white beard, was sitting in a wicker chair in a roomy cottage, he slept in a cot in the room. When he was out of work he went to High Wycombe in a motor car, he had done so a month ago he moved into High Wycombe, on a hill looking down on the Pwani.

Mr. Arthur Lawrence, a butcher, said: "When 'Tinker' is dropped by the court, he will go to High Wycombe. He's a quiet sort of chap, but he can't keep his mouth shut, and he'll be very sociable."
"Pwani" is captain of the Pwani darts team. He plays cricket for the village.
The couple are now spending a fortnight's holiday in Leeds with Mr. & Mrs. McCann. Miss Ma Donald's brother-in-law. It is understood the wedding will take place quietly on their return.

Bookies Prefer Elephant
Many people in England agree with the African natives who believe that elephants bear a resemblance to a salesman against ill-health.
Mr. D. Farquhar, of Park-road, Kilburn, writes for their recreation.
"I make wretched trades and rings from elephant hair."
They seem to be some ground for the superstition, too.
"One wretched sportsman who is never without his ring of elephant hair," said Mr. Farquhar.
"It is one of the largest diamond events on record—the London and Grand National."
"Most bookies insist on having one."

AFTERMATH OF CABINET CRISIS IN BRITAIN

Mr. Eden's Defence of his Action In Resigning

A LABOUR CHALLENGE

MR. EDEN IN THE COURSE OF A SPEECH TO HIS CONSTITUENTS DURING THE WEEK-END SAID HE WAS MORE THAN EVER CONVINCED THAT HIS DECISION TO RESIGN WAS RIGHT. HE FELT THAT IT WAS PERFECTLY POSSIBLE THAT A FIRM STAND WOULD OBTAIN THE SAME RESULTS WITHOUT THE RISKS ATTENDING THE PRESENT COURSE IN ANO-ITALIAN RELATIONS.

INDIA'S NAVAL DEFENCE

Announcement of New Plan

Prague, February 23.—In the Czechoslovakian Parliament there were demonstrations in favour of Dr. Benes, the Austrian Chancellor. Many speakers rose to their feet not allowed when his name was mentioned. The members of the Reich Stueten group are reported to have remained silent.

Mr. Eden, who resigned in connection with the opening of the Italian Front, was given great prominence in the German newspapers which regard it as a last warning to the Italian people.

India's naval construction programme to help the cost of the naval defence of India by 10 per cent. This construction amounted to about £20,000,000 a year. The British and Indian Governments have now agreed that the development of the Royal Indian Navy should take place more quickly if this sum had not to be transferred to Great Britain.

Mr. Eden, who resigned in connection with the opening of the Italian Front, was given great prominence in the German newspapers which regard it as a last warning to the Italian people.

MUST BE CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH ITALIAN TALKS

Overwhelming Vote of Confidence in the Delbos Policy

A CLEAR AND COMPREHENSIVE STATEMENT ON FRENCH FOREIGN POLICY HAS RECEIVED AN OVERWHELMING VOTE OF CONFIDENCE FROM THE DEPUTIES.

London, February 23.—The British reply to the Government's advance to withdraw their nationals from the zone of hostilities and the attempt to leave each area but not to leave them to do so and if any have fallen then through Japanese action in this manner, Japanese will be held responsible.

Points from the policy are: (1) Recognition of the Anglo-French Entente as the keystone in French foreign affairs; (2) Support for Russia and Germany; (3) Support for the League of Nations; (4) Close co-operation with Britain in the coming talks with Italy, including a settlement of the Abyssinian and Mediterranean questions.

VIVID PANORAMA OF THE VICTORIAN ERA

As Background to the Character of a Great Queen

Everyone in Nairobi, irrespective of race, creed, age or religion, attended as on the Empire Theatre this evening the brilliant picture "Victoria the Great." It is a wonderful film, a picture of the life of Queen Victoria from the night of June 24, 1817, when the Archbishop of Canterbury said that kindly and saintly, Last Melbourne, drove to home from Windsor Castle, to the death of the King on 22nd June and the death of England on the 10th of March, 1841, when Victoria, aged 24 years, was crowned at St. Paul's Cathedral, the happiest day in her life.

Victoria is something of a "Goddess" and she is a very interesting character. She is a very interesting character. She is a very interesting character. She is a very interesting character.

are involved in the story. Godfrey "Tully" plays the part of a big old-fashioned man, on the verge of his death, and he has a life and a big heart. Perhaps there is one person to whom "now more day" may make all the difference between despair and hopefulness. Here are the elements of a good plot. How it all works out, the Playhouse screen will tell Nairobi audiences this week.

Matters Wednesday 8-10 pm, Saturday 2-11 pm.

NAIROBI IN THE SPACIOUS DAYS OF ELIZABETH

Great Success of Cathedral Effort

The Elizabethan Fayre held at Government House on Saturday proved to be one of the most successful Charity Functions held in the annals of this Colony.

In spite of the enormous crowds that turned up, everything ran smoothly and well. The Royal Party moved serenely about the grounds in really magnificent costumes and never failed to look in keeping with their rank. The stall-holders and Helpers of every sort kept calm and cheerful in spite of the happy demands made upon them from early to late.

Lady Brookborough, wearing a beautiful fur and lace, with her hat covered in jade, gracefully did the honors. Her help was the factor that helped her to be so successful. The day was a charming sight to see the crowds of people, many of whom were well-dressed and well-behaved, and the music that was behind the scenes of most things, always ready to give assistance.

The Fayre was a success in every way. It was a very profitable one, and the money raised will be used for the benefit of the Nairobian Hospital. The day was a very successful one, and the money raised will be used for the benefit of the Nairobian Hospital.

The Royal Party consisted of the King and Queen, the Prince and Princess, and the Duke and Duchess. They were all very well, and they had a very successful time. The day was a very successful one, and the money raised will be used for the benefit of the Nairobian Hospital.

Speaking at the annual general meeting of the Kabete District Association, held in the Norfolk Hotel, Nairobi, on Saturday, Mr. Collet Birch, said the past year as far as the Association was concerned could be described as a peaceful one, with absence of serious controversy, but nevertheless the officers of the Association had not been idle. Every query received from members had been dealt with, and the fact that there had not been more of them suggested that their district at any rate was doing well.

to continue for some time, that strange development will not be of immediate importance and the Irish trade union movement is a simple issue of commercial freedom.

The markets of Eire are limited and free export is of vital importance to Irish agriculture. It is completed that nearly half of the agricultural production represents an exportable surplus for which the United Kingdom is the only market and the rise in the cost of living and the price of raw agricultural commodities have together made the problem of the Irish farmer even more oppressive than that of the general action taken by Great Britain against the Free State in answer to the anxiety of the Free State Government to build up a retaliatory industrial position by encouraging home industries of every kind.

has introduced economic distortions which may be some day sacrificed to a trade settlement very difficult. But the interests of Irish agriculture will be a determining factor, rather than protective consideration for the immature industries of Eire, and though there may be some sacrifice demanded of British farmers the advantages in the long run to the agriculturists of both countries and to the general political relationship are too obvious to allow relatively minor considerations to stand in the way. It will of course involve re-examination by Mr. De Valera and his colleagues of the present high tariffs against imported foodstuffs and the products of British industry, including the agricultural implement manufacturer, and reconsideration, too, of the complications which have arisen from many regulations respecting imports which the Eire tariff has imposed.

There is no clear freedom of trade, though improving agricultural purchasing power, will probably force some modification of industrial development in Ireland, but that will lead to an improvement in relations between north and south and between Ireland as a whole and the United Kingdom. The psychological value of such commercial relations should be a sound contribution to the creation of a better atmosphere in which the much more difficult political problems can be approached afresh at a suitable time when the difficulties of today are still too great.

The Anglo-Irish Talks Irish and British people all over the world will follow with great interest the present series of talks in London between Mr. De Valera and his colleagues and the British Prime Minister, President of the Board of Trade, Minister for the Colonies and the Free State. Trade Agreements are of course, the traditional British basis of commercial non-party politics and the agreement on the part of the Irish settlement of the partition issue is improbable at present. It will be generally agreed that an agreement on the part of the Irish settlement of the partition issue is improbable at present. It will be generally agreed that an agreement on the part of the Irish settlement of the partition issue is improbable at present.

The General Election :

VIEWS OF MOMBASA CANDIDATES

Both the prospective candidates for Mombasa have stated their views on the following lines:

MR. BRISTON
I beg to offer myself for election as your representative to the Legislative Council of Kenya for the fourth term and sincerely trust you will give me your support...

after my public affairs than any Indian, whether 'Inverness' or 'Mombasa'...

With regard to taxation, I have always voted against unnecessary increases and considered the Greater East African Postal Tax, Salary Tax and the Tax on Amusement and Ampleable A makes tax work in an operation almost everywhere in the civilized world...

The only objection I have ever discovered to the form of tax, in fact would be charged that the cost of Customs collection, which is the lower average, is not in the world...

In connection with these matters, I must heartily support the Government as they have just passed a law of taxation of the Colony and should support any measure to carry out these recommendations...

MR. NEEL
After the consideration of various proposals, I have concluded that the Government should be asked to consider the following proposals...

If you doubt this as your representative, I shall go forward with an open mind on all questions to arrive at a decision in the light of sound judgment. In this, however, I will not be swayed by any party and will only support measures which I believe to be in the best interests of the country...

It will be my especial endeavor to bring about a better understanding as between Mombasa and up-country Kenya...

MR. NEEL
I am a member of numerous organizations and I believe that the Civil Service should be given a fair trial...

MR. NEEL
I am a member of numerous organizations and I believe that the Civil Service should be given a fair trial...

business, if elected, to do my utmost to bring about a revision of the existing hospital charges to compare with those of other hospitals situated at charges comparable with those which they can afford...

MORE MILLIONS FOR AIR DEFENCE OF BRITAIN

New Aircraft Equal To Anything In The World

ITEMS FROM ESTIMATES

Rugby, March 2.
THE AIR MINISTER, LORD SWINTON, IN THE COURSE OF A MEMORANDUM ACCOMPANYING THE AIR ESTIMATES FOR 1939, SAYS: "THE REARMING WILL BE SUBSTANTIALLY COMPLETED DURING THE COMING FINANCIAL YEAR, AND FULL OPERATIONAL EFFECT WILL BE RAPIDLY ACHIEVED WITH MORE POWERFUL TYPES OF AIRCRAFT, AS A RESULT OF THE GREAT PROGRESS MADE WITH OTHER PARTS OF THE SCHEME, PARTICULARLY IN THE MATTER OF SQUADRON TRAINING."

"It should be added that new types of aircraft have in general received or secured the approval of the Air Council, and that the design stage, and the Air Council are satisfied that they need comparison with any aircraft in production abroad."

The Air Estimates submitted for a total of £23,000,000, against £24,000,000 for 1937. The total increase in aid was under the Defence Loans Act 1937 and the Defence Loans Act 1938, and the charge of £7,000,000 was taken in 1937—the result of an increase in the value of the new expenditure in comparison with previous years.

Approximately in aid for 1938 was £20,000,000, and in 1939 it is £20,000,000 to be received from the consolidated fund under the terms of the Defence Loans Act 1937.

The increase of £12,000,000 in the year from the Admiralty regarding the Fleet Air Arm arises partly from the increase in the value of the fleet from payment in respect of the Fleet Air Arm. This increase is due to the value of the Fleet Air Arm, which is being increased to 100,000 tons.

The memorandum states that the total of £23,000,000 for the Metropolitan Air Force now represents a portion of the programme of the Metropolitan Air Force, the strength of which has increased from 32 to 123 squadrons since April 1935—one now newly equipped with the latest type of aircraft, 30 new reconnaissance aircraft and 100 bombers, ten squadrons of the Royal Air Force are now in operation, and there will be 100 more in the year.

The estimates show that the total of £23,000,000 for 1939 is £1,000,000 more than for 1938. The increase in the value of the Fleet Air Arm is £1,000,000, and the increase in the value of the Metropolitan Air Force is £1,000,000.

The estimates show that the total of £23,000,000 for 1939 is £1,000,000 more than for 1938. The increase in the value of the Fleet Air Arm is £1,000,000, and the increase in the value of the Metropolitan Air Force is £1,000,000.

Old driftnets being used by the fishery boats which disappeared on February 26 when making a practice flight round Britain have been found on the beach near Wick in the North of Scotland. Contest Aberdare

Mr. Llewellyn's Views

Following is the manifesto submitted by Mr. L. G. R. Llewellyn to the members of the Aberdare constituency—

On offering myself as a candidate for the Aberdare constituency, I am fully aware that I must assume a certain responsibility to the electors of the constituency.

The first difficulty that confronts me is that, having to conduct a campaign during the next few weeks, it seems to me very difficult to formulate any definite party policy.

The nature of the district renders during the next few weeks must always be guided by the nature of the Government of Kenya who constitute the party in power.

I am a firm believer in the fact that an elected member should represent those who elect him, and for that purpose I must take the best of all in his power to do so.

I am a firm believer in the fact that an elected member should represent those who elect him, and for that purpose I must take the best of all in his power to do so.

I do not consider the question of Income Tax to be of vital importance at the present time, but one which will require my attention in the future. It seems to me that the grounds of expense of collection of tax are not so clear as there is no evidence at present available.

Tanganyika

I think it essential to the welfare of this country and the people that we should retain the present system of taxation, and in the future Government should be free to vary the rate of tax as it may see fit.

In the event of your electing me to represent the Aberdare constituency, I am prepared to do so.

I consider that a part of the duty of an elected member is to represent the views of the electors, and in the future Government should be free to vary the rate of tax as it may see fit.

How to Enhance Your Charm

FAILURE is a social success often as due to a caution that drives away even the most desirable preparation odor. Deodorants that merely deodorize are not made to keep your moisture always collects on the armpits of your dress. This moisture grows stale, and when next you wear the dress, the warmth of your body brings out a disagreeable odour. Odo-Rodo stops perspiration—your own odor will tell you that it is absolutely harmless to stop perspiration in small areas. You can rely on Odo-Rodo to protect you and your clothes.
