MULES ATE THE GRASS WALLS

But Nakuru's success in made progress

The face of Nakuru has changed greatly especially during the past few years. Buildings of modern design are replacing those early structures of wood or brick and iron, which arose hopefully one by one before the war.

Historically Kenya is so young a country and its progress has been so rapid that more attention is paid to the future than to the past. At first prospects were so optimistic that it is not surprising that pioneers did not build to last, and with the passage of years there will remain no trace of their actual handiwork except in the ruins.

But though they were laid down for the future they were not intended to last. They were built in the days of the feverish boom and the mule-herds had no time to build a garage. It was a simple affair, built of mud and plaster and after another year or so it was abandoned. The mule-herds had no time to build a garage. It was a simple affair, built of mud and plaster and after another year or so it was abandoned. The mule-herds had no time to build a garage. ## ARE AYAHS NECESSARY?

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."

The-very account of Mr. Menzies' address to the East African Women's League (Nakuru Branch) was disappointing short considering that the matter is so vital to the coming generation of Kenyan in Kenya.

It is worth to be noted and written that the income tax that is levied on the earnings of the parents is not to be levied on the earnings of the children. It is to be levied on the earnings of the parents. It is to be levied on the earnings of the parents. It is to be levied on the earnings of the parents.

One of your correspondents writes that children are being sent to boarding schools. It is to be noted that the parents are not to be levied on the earnings of the children. It is to be levied on the earnings of the parents. It is to be levied on the earnings of the parents.

Nakuru School Activities

By Miss M. J. K. J.

Interesting visits have been paid to the Nakuru School by the members of the East African Power Light Co. Ltd. They will visit the school on Saturday. The school has proved very popular and is well attended.

The riding class under the supervision of Miss M. J. K. J. is progressing well. There are now two riding schools held at the school. The riding class is very popular and is well attended.

PUBLICITY BY PERSONAL PROPAGANDA

Big Demand to see Films of Kenya

AN EXAMPLE OF THE VALUE OF PERSONAL PROPAGANDA IN MAKING KNOWN THE ATTRACTIONS...

It is the report of the work of the Kenya Association for the last month...

The East African Annual has been selected to be an excellent medium of publicity for Kenya...

Reference has been made in previous reports to the excellent work produced by the co-operative societies...

The Kenya Co-operative Societies have been very active in promoting the interests of the people...

Another tribute to the Annual is the fact that it has been well received in the United Kingdom...

WOMEN'S WORK IN CANADA

A Patriotic Organisation

(STANDARD'S CORRESPONDENT)

At the recent annual general meeting of the Third District of the East African Women's League, an interesting talk on the important work of the Daughters of the Empire was given by a visitor from Canada, Mrs. O. J. Buckler, who has been staying with her son and daughter-in-law at the Anglo-French Hotel at this place.

Mrs. Buckler, who is the Regent of the Order of the Daughters of the Empire, has been some time in the East African continent, and she has been a most enthusiastic worker for the cause of the organization, whose purpose it is to draw together the women of all parts of Canada in close relationship with their Mother Country and with the rest of the British Empire, and to foster British ideas and ideals.

The Order is the first non-sectarian and non-political and non-party organization of its kind in the world, and its membership is open to all women of all nations who are of the age of eighteen who are in the possession of a British subject's status. It is a pleasure to see that the Order is doing so much good work for the women of this continent, and it is a pleasure to see that the Order is doing so much good work for the women of this continent.

One of the chief objects of the Order is to help all retired soldiers and their dependants by the use of their own hands and to provide them with work in the most efficient manner possible. This work is done in co-operation with the Canadian League for the Disabled.

In describing the work of her own Chapter, an appeal of many Mrs. Buckler said that the newly established Prince of Wales Industrial Farm School was of great interest to the Order, and she pointed out that the school with I.O.D.E. columns, books for the library and printing apparatus, and other articles, had been presented to the Order by the Canadian League for the Disabled.

It was reported that following a suggestion that the Order should be incorporated in East Africa that the Order had been asked to appoint a representative to attend the annual meeting of the Order in London, and that the Order had agreed to do so.

The meeting is held every year in London, and it is a pleasure to see that the Order is doing so much good work for the women of this continent, and it is a pleasure to see that the Order is doing so much good work for the women of this continent.

BIG CHANGES PROPOSED IN BRITISH AVIATION

Under-Secretary Appointed: Airways Reform Urged

ROUTES RE-ALLOCATED

THE APPOINTMENT OF A PERMANENT UNDER-SECRETARY FOR AIR AND THE CONCENTRATION OF NEAR AIR SERVICES IN THE HANDS OF THE BRITISH AIRWAYS COMPANY, WITH IMPERIAL AIRWAYS CONFIRMED MAINLY TO EMPIRE ROUTES AND TO COLLATERAL ON THE LONDON-PARIS SERVICE, ARE AMONG THE RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE ADHOC COMMITTEE ON CIVIL AVIATION IN BRITAIN, WHICH HAS JUST REPORTED.

The government accepts most of the recommendations, another of which is that "serious defects in the management of Imperial Airways require immediate reform." The Imperial Airways Company is understood to welcome the suggestion of a whole time chairman.

Another recommendation affecting the management of Imperial Airways is that personnel between government and company employees should be supplemented by collective representation. It will be recalled that this question was raised in the recent dispute between the Company and some of its pilots.

London, March 9.—The recommendations to amend the constitution of the Civil Aviation Committee are set out in a report issued by the committee, which has been set up to study the proposals. The report shows that the committee has made a study of the principal proposals.

The appointments of a permanent Under-Secretary of State for Air, and a Director of Civil Aviation, are among the recommendations. The committee also recommends the concentration of different services on a single basis, and the appointment of a full-time permanent secretary to the Civil Aviation Committee.

SUCCESS OF B. I. F. £10,000,000 In a Week

It remains a mystery. London, March 18.—The first issue of the British Industrial Bank has succeeded all expectations. That sums up the reports from the great industry of the continent.

It is estimated that the bank has raised £10,000,000 in the first week of its operations. The bank is expected to compare well with last year, when prices were rising and so far to estimate the value of orders it understands how to handle the business likely to result from the first week's operations.

The bank is held by manufacturers before the Fair opened was so high that it would not be expected to compare well with last year, when prices were rising and so far to estimate the value of orders it understands how to handle the business likely to result from the first week's operations.

Foreign trade is showing a particularly promising outlook in the first week of the year. Reports from all over the world, including the United States and South America, as well as India and other countries of the Empire.

Reports from other sections were CUTLERY—More razor blades being sold than ever before. Orders received by some firms are three times larger than last year.

LEATHER GOODS—Business quiet last week. Temporary cut in American buyers ordered 12,000 patent shoes, designed for countries with large cargo capacity.

SCIENTIFIC INSTRUMENTS—equal last year. Big business interest in auxiliary instruments.

Check That Cold!

Alka-Seltzer—the amazing new alkalizing tablet—is one of the quickest-acting remedies for checking the distress and discomfort of colds and effectively relieving that nagging headache.

AUSTRIAN PEOPLE TO VOTE ON LEADER'S POLICY

Bold Move to Test Strength of Nazi Feeling

SUNDAY PLEBISCITE

AUSTRIA IS HOLDING A NATIONAL PLEBISCITE NEXT SUNDAY TO VOTE 'YES' OR 'NO' FOR DR. SCHUSCHNER'S POLICY OF A FREE INDEPENDENT GERMAN AUSTRIA.

A plebiscite of importance in the Austrian Tyrol, which is the Chancellor's native country, is declared on Wednesday night that he would stand or fall by the result of the plebiscite and that the agreement made with Germany would be kept—out or in.

It is reported that the Austrian Government has made, or is making a pact with the Germans which will give them the right to rule and that the agreement made with Germany would be kept—out or in.

Guard For German Minister

COMMUNIST TROUBLE FEARED IN LONDON

London, March 8. Because of the threat of Communist demonstrations there was a very large police force at Victoria station for the arrival of Herr von Ribbentrop, the German Foreign Secretary, who is visiting London to say farewell to the British he made during his term of office as German Ambassador.

The police were cleared of Communist demonstrations. Among the large number who greeted the former ambassador was Hans Fraenkel, the German Minister. Afterward Herr von Ribbentrop journeyed to the Embassy guarded by mobile police. There were large crowds, but no demonstrations were made.

Lady Helen of Dalmeny was accompanied by the German Consul General Lord Plumer at the Foreign Office and had an interview lasting nearly two hours.

ATTACKED SHIPS, BRITAIN'S 'SERIOUS VIEW'

London, March 8. The British Government has a serious view of the attacks on British merchant ships in the Mediterranean and the Eastern Mediterranean. The Prime Minister said that the British Government was not intending to annex any Abyssinian territory as part of the settlement with Italy.

The Prime Minister refused to pledge himself in advance about any discussion that the Government might have with Italy in respect of Abyssinia and said he had nothing to add to the statement he had made in the House on February 23 to the same effect.

In reply to another question the Prime Minister said that the British Government was bound by the terms of the Covenant of the League of Nations in this matter, but that certain questions which signed the Covenant.

"NO BRITISH PLOTTING IN RUSSIA"

Premier Denies Moscow Trial Statements

London, March 8. Mr. Neville Chamberlain said that no new letters of the ambassador at Moscow on Anglo-Russian relations likely to be produced under the Soviet Union. He said that the allegations made during the Moscow trial in Moscow, but the allegations were totally untrue and were not likely to be given serious anywhere outside the Soviet Union.

The British Government was not guilty of an agreement with the Soviet, and had not employed any of those mentioned to work for the British Intelligence Service, or subversive activities against the Soviet.

Referring to the suggestion that Lady Mabel Fyfe was inciting on her experience of British Intelligence Service work the Premier declared that she had no acquaintance of it.

N. Ireland And Anglo-Eire Talks

London, March 8. The British Government is in touch with the Government of Northern Ireland on the subject of Anglo-Irish talks. The Prime Minister said that the British Government was not intending to annex any Abyssinian territory as part of the settlement with Italy.

The Prime Minister refused to pledge himself in advance about any discussion that the Government might have with Italy in respect of Abyssinia and said he had nothing to add to the statement he had made in the House on February 23 to the same effect.

Attack On Air Ministry Again?

London, March 8. Another attack by the Labour Party on the Air Ministry which is in the charge of Lord Sinton is being made.

The Labour report on the re-organisation of civil aviation is a serious one.

Mr. Chamberlain said that the Labour Party was not intending to annex any Abyssinian territory as part of the settlement with Italy.

Settlement with Italy

NO ABYSSINIAN PLEDGES BY PREMIER

London, March 8. Mr. Chamberlain was asked by the House of Commons whether the British Government was not intending to annex any Abyssinian territory as part of the settlement with Italy.

The Prime Minister refused to pledge himself in advance about any discussion that the Government might have with Italy in respect of Abyssinia and said he had nothing to add to the statement he had made in the House on February 23 to the same effect.

TO MOTORISTS — Look to your cost of living !!

Do not allow yourself to be misled by high Trade-in Prices

All motor car dealers know the value of your used car, and if one offers you far more for it than another, it is not because he has made a mistake, but because he is making a larger profit on the new car.

HE SIMPLY GIVES YOU MORE WITH ONE HAND, AND TAKES IT (OR MORE!) BACK WITH THE OTHER HAND

Our new MORRIS and HUDSON-TERRAPLANE cars are fairly and correctly priced. We allow fair and generous prices for cars traded in against them. We can thus afford genuinely to recondition our used cars without skipping, and to sell them at their proper value.

Remember—You New Car buyers of to-day may be Used Car buyers later.

Therefore, if you wish to purchase a new car, by dealing with us you will know that you are getting a fair price for your old car and not paying too much for your new one. Likewise, if you purchase a used car from us, you know that it has been properly reconditioned and is well worth the price you pay.

Our Reputation has been built up on these methods.

Buy wisely—Trade in wisely—Sell wisely—
in other words—Let us advise you.

MUTHAIGA GOLF CLUB NOTES

(FIELD). My congratulations to J. C. Donnelly on winning the Secretary's prize last Sunday with the amazingly good score of 68 net and at the same time my respects to F. V. Cape who also returned a credit score of 68 in the competition.

The Morrison Map played for on Saturday was won by W. J. Wheeler (11) who was one of the best in a number of the medical profession's professional reported with a net score of 11, a very creditable score for a medical man. Wheeler can now look forward to next year, an ambition that he has had long, but he is a medical man and his primary duty is to his patients.

Here is the draw and times of starting for the horse race which will take place to-morrow afternoon. I have already written their names down as to which side will win and other writing, the various pairings I think the President has made are reasonable and fair.

THE TOKYO OLYMPIAD Discussions in Paris

'As was expected, disagreement over the date of the Olympic Games in Tokyo, 1964, with some, many and likely on one side, and American, Chinese, British and French on the other, arose at the session of the International Amateur Athletic Federation's Congress in Paris.

The trouble began after Dr. Nagel, one of the Japanese delegates, stated that Japan did not accept the responsibility for the date chosen at the end of August when the weather was hot and extremely moist. The Japanese delegates suggested that the games should be held if the end of September and the beginning of October, but the French, British and American delegates pointed out that this would prevent University students participating and that usually provided a large section of the audience.

Mr. Gurney said that it was the intention of the Olympic Committee to hold the games in Tokyo, 1964, and that the Olympic Committee would not accept the responsibility for the date chosen at the end of August when the weather was hot and extremely moist.

The matter was referred to the Executive Committee of the International Olympic Committee in Chalmers which will be represented and will be able to present a report on the matter.

It was reported in Amsterdam on the same day that a British delegate to the Congress of the International Amateur Athletic Federation in Paris had stated that Britain would not participate in the Olympic games in Tokyo in 1964 unless the situation improved in the country.

THE CHURCH IN AUSTRIA

During the past week there has been a full over the field of foreign affairs. We range less furthest in China and in Spain. But Europe waxes westerly the next more on the same-board of power-politics. The stress and the strain of the international situation is emphasized by the appalling cost of Great Britain's armaments. This reconnaissance agreement against Austria was in the measure of the world's madness? On that depressing subject there is nothing I can write that has not been written many times before.

I have from Vienna that the fight for Austria's independence will be long and bitter; and it certainly not yet lost. I understand that the Roman Catholicism are determined to resist Hitler's bludge. Cardinal Innitzer the federal organ of Austria, is known to have raised a stout resistance to the German demands, and he has great influence. In fact Cardinal Innitzer is one of the most influential politicians in the service of the Church. It was largely due to the influence of the Church that Dollfus and Schuschnigg have been able to resist Hitler's demands. I am sure that Austria still has great influence with Schuschnigg. The influence of the Church in Central Europe may be expressed but it is now being depressed. And, in the long run, repression is the most certain method of increasing the influence of the Church in any land. The power of the Dictators, who from time to time afflict this world, has often been threatened more commensally matters than by trying one.

SHADOW OF JOHN KNOX

When I am writing of the Church I will draw your attention to a book published some months ago which was a great impression on my mind. It is the biography of a famous Scot—John Knox. The biography of Knox whose words counted so much action and effect. There are great differences between the Europe that John Knox knew and the Europe that we know. But there are also similarities. The old dilemma still persists the old conflict still rages, wherever in any political community the idea of progress has to be reconciled with the idea of stability, the dream of social perfection with the immediate duties of social government.

We see, in fact, witnessing the results of the policy of appeasement, a society straggling with the Church's aspirations but unsteady by its faith. As those aspirations wavered off, so they are working today in some countries the idea of progress and stability are in general balance; in others they are working today in a rigorous assertion of its authority over man's acts. In at least two, Germany and Russia, disturbing contact with the Church's authority has revived the theocratic claim of Hitler and Stalin, to control not only man's acts, but their beliefs. John Knox dreamt of achieving perfection through the state, and he sought the constitutional, or quasi-constitutional, but frequently conditional, authority of kings. He is today probably regarded as the greatest of Scotchmen for his achievement of economic security by the agricultural industry. Only the land can provide the road to our goal.

It is not as if the ideal of the White Experiment had always been justified by a string of graces. There are many matters which cut across this White Experiment for more effectively than any law. Let me make it clear that I am not of income tax as a fund and not mind, quite reasonable. The two aspects are, in my mind, quite separate but frequently combined. I believe of Kings is solely dependent on the achievement of economic security by the agricultural industry. Only the land can provide the road to our goal.

Let me make it clear that I am not of income tax as a fund and not mind, quite reasonable. The two aspects are, in my mind, quite separate but frequently combined. I believe of Kings is solely dependent on the achievement of economic security by the agricultural industry. Only the land can provide the road to our goal.

It is not as if the ideal of the White Experiment had always been justified by a string of graces. There are many matters which cut across this White Experiment for more effectively than any law. # IT'S NOT ALL OVER YET!

By The Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill P.C., C.H., M.P.

THESE last eventful weeks brought good news as well as bad.

The lamentable fact of Austria requires discussion separate and finally what has actually happened is a clear, unbroken line that justifies the interests of the Italian Dictator as much as it wounds the sympathies of the Western Powers.

It is not as if the ideal of the White Experiment had always been justified by a string of graces. There are many matters which cut across this White Experiment for more effectively than any law. The Grim Rehearsal in Spain

By B. L. Jacot

THE heavy fighting last year on the Guadalupe Front proved how changed under the influence of the Government's policy. The Government's policy is to be effectively attacked, and in turn bombers landed the enemy out of his captured territory.

Peace from a Londoner's Diary

MR. EDEN'S PLANS

"What will Mr. Eden do now?" was the first question that I asked him when he had just returned from his trip to the continent. The result of opinion has been trying, not only to himself but to the public, and it is only to be expected that he will welcome the break of it. It is only to be expected that he will welcome the break of it. It is only to be expected that he will welcome the break of it.

Mr. Eden's letter of resignation makes it plain that his resignation was the Prime Minister's decision. It is already a common knowledge that he had different views on the future of Government policy towards the Continent.

When Mr. Eden returned from his recent holiday in the French Riviera he was in the mood of an approach made by the French Government by the French Department in Washington and the British Embassy in Paris.

Mr. Eden, having read the answer to the French proposal, was in the mood of an approach made by the French Government by the French Department in Washington and the British Embassy in Paris.

On this occasion Mr. Chamberlain's letter to Mr. Eden was not permitted to reopen the matter with Washington.

SACRIFICED
Mr. Eden, of course, is not without his own views on the subject. Three Ministers shared with him.

It was not Mr. Eden's letter, but the fact that he had been sacrificed by his own Government.

ORPHAN OF THE STORM
There is a great deal of sympathy for Mr. J. P. Thomas, for he has been the orphan of a political storm.

His present position is doubly unfortunate. He has been the orphan of a political storm.

THE LOYALTY OF A CECIL
Lord Cranborne's resignation has been a great deal of sympathy for Mr. J. P. Thomas, for he has been the orphan of a political storm.

APPEAL FROM FRANCE
I am assured of the accuracy of the information given by Miss Tablin in "O'Connell".

WESTCLOX
The Westclox Corporation, of New York, has been the orphan of a political storm.

SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENT
The Government has good cause to be satisfied with the support of the House of Commons.

NEW NOVELS!
The East African Standard

The ministerial resignation of Mr. Chamberlain is most unexpected. Some of the Ministers had expected the support of the House of Commons.

LADY CHAMBERLAIN IN ROME
I have the pleasure of Lady Chamberlain's visit to Rome.

PREMIER FIGHTS BACK
In my opinion Mr. Chamberlain's recent speech to the House of Commons was one of the best he has ever made.

It was not a technical one. He used the language of the British Chamberlain, who asserted Mr. Eden in unambiguous phrases on the previous evening.

There was nothing outlandish about the Prime Minister on this occasion.

It is a matter of common knowledge that he had different views on the future of Government policy towards the Continent.

NEW UNDER-SECRETARY
Captain R. A. Butler, who is not without his own views on the subject.

He is detailed in his outlook and his mind is not without his own views on the subject.

FOUR VOICES
I believe that Herr Hitler's speech to the Reichstag was a most interesting commentary on the speech.

The first part, statistical in the nature of it, was a most interesting commentary on the speech.

LESS CHERRING
The speech of Herr Hitler received the approval of the Reichstag.

TALKS WITH ITALY
The "New Chronicle" declares that the British Government is in the process of negotiating a settlement.

JAPAN PLEASED
It is an old story that the speech given last Wednesday to the Japanese Embassy in Berlin.

SUPPORT FOR GOVERNMENT
The Government has good cause to be satisfied with the support of the House of Commons.

NEW NOVELS!
The East African Standard

From the London and trial to which the matter was referred on a constitutional basis.

GOERING LOOKS TO ENGLAND
I believe that Herr Hitler's speech to the Reichstag was a most interesting commentary on the speech.

HITLER TALKS
I know that Herr Hitler, as expressed frequently in his speech to the Reichstag.

NEW HITLER PURGE
In his address to the Reichstag at Berlin Herr Hitler revealed his views on the subject.

SIR ROBERT VANSITTART
I am glad to hear that the most authoritative information on the subject of the British Diplomatic Agent to the Government.

Though Mr. Eden was responsible for the resignation, he was not without his own views on the subject.

MAGISTRATE "FOXES AND HOUND" BURMA "DAWGS"

MR. MAURICE COLLIS, the author of two excellent books "Starnep White" and "The Queen's" and Burmese Magistrate in Rangoon at the time when Sir John Burns and other members of the British Commission visited the town.

It was a critical time; the very existence of "Commission" is proved that; but few people in the country know just what was happening in Burma then, more of the caricatures of the late Rangoon of the assumed of Indiana by Burmese of the "Burmese" in Rangoon 1910, and of the rebellion under a so-called "King of Burma."

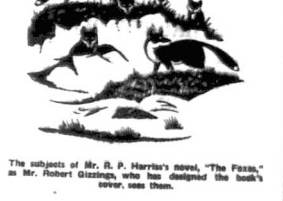

The facts about all these things and many others in Mr. Collis' new book "White in Burma" (Crown and Bats, 6s.). Mr. Collis is not content merely to give names; he wants to get to the bottom of events and to show us how to believe that these things could have happened in a country of a million of men and great resources.

For the two points he makes are: (1) the decorations of the British; (2) the fact that he had been in Burma, and had seen the things that he writes of.

The title of the book refers to the fact that Mr. Collis in his commission was known because of his records of the weakness of British troops in the first case, two young boys were charged with the murder of a Burmese servant. Mr. Collis found out that the two boys were charged with the murder of a Burmese servant. Mr. Collis found out that the two boys were charged with the murder of a Burmese servant. Mr. Collis found out that the two boys were charged with the murder of a Burmese servant.

SOME publishers and book-binders and I have been discussing in "The Book-sellers" the "Cinderella" books of 1927; that is, on books which ought to have "got away with it," but didn't.

One book above all others was destined to have had luck in not attracting general attention. It was "The Foxes," by R. P. Harrison. I did not read it; but I have done so now that Mousa, Mithran have re-read it in a cheaper edition at 3s. 6d.

The subject of Mr. R. P. Harrison's novel, "The Foxes," Mr. Robert Gittings, who has designed the book's cover, says of it.

Mr. Maurice Collis, whose "White in Burma" is reviewed on this page.

She herself married a police officer, and thereafter spent many years in London, and had many friends who were her neighbours were in London. She and her husband ended their lives in India.

It is a presentation of the old story that for its centre an old country, and a Southern State of America. The picture of the home life is so good, that it is not read it; but I have done so now that Mousa, Mithran have re-read it in a cheaper edition at 3s. 6d.

Agony know each member of the pack to some before we are through of the horse and he achieves the victory in the volume almost inevitable in the sky there is the death of the old dog. The description of the hunt, the description of the hunt, the description of the hunt, the description of the hunt, the description of the hunt.

He played a death-tragedy where his wife could reach it, but, seeing that she was doomed anyhow to be in agony some of it will not be his own consolation that this made him a murderer.

REALISM, IMAGERY and a MINOR PROPHET

MR. JACK JOHNSON'S novel, "The Hidden in the Feast" (The East African Standard, 6s.). It is a crowded book, crowded with incidents, crowded with incidents, crowded with incidents, crowded with incidents, crowded with incidents.

CHALLENGE TO BRITISH RULE IN AFRICA?

Forecast of the Hailey Report, Expected in October

Political revolutions are expected when the report of the Royal Institute of International Affairs on the condition of British colonies subjects in Africa and certain colonies is published (see "Myriad News").

For three years Lord Hailey, former governor of the Punjab and the United Provinces, has been preparing a comprehensive survey of native administration, control, and development—a task that has never previously been attempted on a world scale.

The report will not be issued until the end of the year, but it is expected that it will be a landmark in the history of British rule in Africa. It will be a comprehensive survey of native administration, control, and development—a task that has never previously been attempted on a world scale.

NO NATIVE BETTERMENT FUND FOR KENYA

Abandonment Announced by the Secretary of State

The Native Betterment Fund, which was proposed by Lord Moyne in his report presented in 1932, has been abandoned by the Secretary of State. This is the effect of an answer to a question in the House of Commons.

The proposal in the same report known as the Moyne formula which was a yardstick to measure the return through native services of money contributed direct by natives in Kenya, has also to all intents and purposes been abandoned by the Kenya Government, for recent Budgets have generally exceeded this formula.

On 10th February, 1936, the Secretary of State, Mr. MacDonald, in answer to a question by Mr. J. H. B. Stewart, M.P., said that the Native Betterment Fund was not a native betterment fund for the natives of Kenya. He said that the fund was established in 1932, but had not been used since that date, and that no native was ever benefited by the fund.

On 10th February, 1937, I informed the Secretary of State that I intended to consider the application of the Native Betterment Fund to the natives of Kenya.

On 10th February, 1937, I informed the Secretary of State that I intended to consider the application of the Native Betterment Fund to the natives of Kenya. I have considered the question of the fund, and I have concluded that it is not possible to attempt to operate the fund.
