GERMANY IN FULL COMMAND OF AUSTRIA

NAZI LEADERS

"I Have Fulfilled my Mission"
says Herr Hitler at Linz

ROME REJECTS FRENCH PLAN TO RESTORE VIENNA'S INDEPENDENCE

AUSTRIA IS UNDER THE COMPLETE CONTROL OF GERMANY. THE NEW AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR, DR. SEYSS-INGHART, WHO WAS NOMINATED BY GERMANY IN AN ULTIMATUM THAT DEMANDED DR. SCHUSCHNIGG'S RESIGNATION UNDER THREAT OF INVADION, HAS DEMONSTRATED THAT SECTION OF THE PEACE TREATY UNDER WHICH GERMANY WAS TO RESPECT AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE. HE DECLARED: "NOW WE RECOGNISE FOR ALL TIME THE SAME FEUERHORN"

German troops have entered Austria and have crushed the Czechoslovak and the Italian fronts. Italy has accepted a guarantee for the Brenner Pass, and, protesting in regard to Austria as a "natural dependence," has rejected French proposals to join in concerted action to restore Austrian independence.

There are no reports of bloodshed or disorder in Austria, but the "Patriation" Front has been dissolved, and most of its leaders are believed to be under arrest. The whereabouts of Dr. Schuschnigg are unknown, and there is a report that he has been given safe conduct to Hungary.

Herr Hitler has arrived in Austria and was given a tremendous welcome in Linz. The townpeople were ordered to open doors and windows and light their lamps. "Every lighted window is a friend; every darkened window is an enemy" it was declared.

March 13. Dr. Schuschnigg's resignation was announced in a broadcast speech by the Chancellor, through the medium of which he confirmed the fact that he had been dismissed from office because Herr Hitler had threatened the armed invasion of Austria.

He added that the President, Dr. Miklas, had ordered him to resign. Germany, he said, had demanded the replacement of the Cabinet by one of Herr Hitler's nominees.

Dr. Schuschnigg concluded: "Thus I take my leave of the Austrian people. God preserve Austria."

MAJOR LE BRETON'S MANIFESTO

Major Francis H. Le Breton, one of the members of the Treaty Commission, has issued the following manifesto in response to requests from a number of local residents connected to stand as a Candidate for election to Legislative Council.

"If I am elected I shall make it my business to bring into close touch with local public opinion, and shall endeavour to represent the views of the district as a whole, and of the farming community in particular."

Self-Sufficiency

I consider that one of the most urgent needs of the country is an increase in the European population and a settlement of the rural areas to encourage both residential and agricultural settlement of the right type, as well as the establishment of a sufficient number of secondary industries to replace our lost factory population.

Agricultural Union

Related to the subject of European settlement is that of a change over to the right type of agriculture. It is impossible to increase the number of European agricultural farms on much less than the present scale of production. While I admit that this problem does not present itself in any one district, and that every effort must be made to achieve it.

Every advantage accorded to agriculture should be available, in a similar degree, to those already established here.

Laborer Policy

I shall press for a better policy which will truly represent the material standards concerning European laborers no less than that of the natives.

I consider it to be an absurd anomaly that any native reserve should have to plant poverty while there is an unutilized reserve of labor in the Settled Area.

I shall continue to urge the abolition of the native reserve system wherever it can be done, and wherever it can be done, it should be done.

Income Tax

I have never been greatly in favor of income tax for our Country, but as I think that we have been so far to try it, we are bound to give it a trial.

As long as we refuse to try it, we shall never be free from present from the Income Tax Commission, but if after two or three years we have not succeeded in getting a better system, we may as well give up the idea.

Education

The education of the European youth of this Colony, to further the interests of the Treaty Union, and to enable them to be better equipped for their professions in our islands.

Dr. Schusner formally denounced Article 16 of the Peace Treaty, and which Germany was to recognize the independence of Austria. "I am not recognizing the Treaty," he said. "I am not recognizing the Treaty," he said. "I am not recognizing the Treaty," he said. "I am not recognizing the Treaty," he said.

After announcing that a plebiscite would be held in the near future, Dr. Schusner expressed the hope that it would prove to be the world that "my native Austria is not a part of the world."

"After you will be obliged to make your contribution, as all Germany is ready to make its contribution," he concluded. "From the day of the end of the German Reich, the German people are marching in ready to make their contribution to the world of the German people."

Lights, but no Flowers—
By Order

Elaborate preparations were made to welcome Herr Hitler when he arrived in Linz. Troopbands were summoned to open their sidewalks and cheer and light their lamps. Addresses speaking through loudspeakers all over the town said: "Every lighted window is a friend, and every darkened window is an enemy."

It was also announced that Dr. Schusner will be to travel in Herr Hitler's car when it came through the town.

Herr Hitler will enter Vienna on Sunday.

"Austrian Oppressor"

Herr Hitler's proclamation on the Austrian situation was all praise for the Austrian people who had been oppressed by the German Government. He declared "since morning" the Austrian people have been oppressed by the German Government.

London Embassy Meeting

In London the Cabinet held a two-hour meeting on Saturday morning, and a statement was issued to the effect that the action of the German Government in Austria was a violation of the League of Nations Covenant.

Foreign reaction to the events in Austria is jubilant. There has been a general feeling of relief in the British Empire, and a sense of security in the United States.

The British Government in keeping with its long-standing policy of non-interference in the internal affairs of other nations, has expressed its regret at the recent developments in Austria.

AUSTRIA'S "NAZIFYING" GOES SWIFLY ON

Now Declared to be "State of German Reich"

EX-LEADERS ARRESTED

AUSTRIA IS IN RAPID PROCESS OF BEING MADE COMPLETELY NAZI. ALREADY THE COUNTRY HAS BEEN DECLARED A STATE OF THE GERMAN REICH, THE GERMAN WAR OFFICE HAS ASSUMED CONTROL OF THE ARMY, LEGAL ADMINISTRATION IS BEING HANDLED OVER TO NAZI LEADERS AND EXISTING NATIONAL ORGANISATIONS ARE BEING SUPRESSED BY NAZI INSTITUTIONS.

Many leaders of the Fatherland Front have been arrested, Berlin stating that they have pleaded guilty to spreading false reports that Germany intended to annex the province of South Tyrol, which is now part of Italy.

The whereabouts of Dr. Schuschnigg are still uncertain. An official statement yesterday was that he was confined to his private rooms in a Vienna house, and later there was an unexplained statement that he had been conducted to the frontier and allowed to go abroad.

Austria, March 14. There was a rumour in Vienna on Monday morning that Dr. Schuschnigg had arrived at Innsbruck, Tyrol, where he was staying with his family.

Only Austrian doctors will be permitted to arrive on the first day of the occupation. The German War Office has been ordered to take over the control of Austria's army and navy.

Only German citizens are allowed to travel through Austria.

Official Arrested
Herr Hammer, Chief of the German Police, has been arrested.

Herr Baldur von Schirach, leader of the German Youth Movement, has been arrested.

Dr. Schuschnigg Out of Austria?

Austria, March 14. An official of the Berlin press office has stated that Dr. Schuschnigg has been arrested and is being held in a prison near Innsbruck.

This report has not been confirmed.

Several prominent officials have been arrested by the German War Office.

A telegram has been sent to Berlin by the German War Office.

The German War Office has been ordered to take over the control of Austria's army and navy.

"NAZIFYING" GOES FROM AUSTRIAN PRISONS

The prison population of Austria has undergone several changes recently. This picture is of political prisoners—Nazis—being treated by relatives as they left jail when the Schuschnigg Agreement amnesty was proclaimed. Dr. Schuschnigg's arrest, in new order, is now under restraint in Bavaria, Vienna.

The two countries, which was considered in the Rome-Berlin axis.

Herr Hitler left Linz for Vienna at 10.45 a.m. by car. He was followed by 22 other cars, 12 of which contained police.

Several nazifying groups were made in Vienna to give Hitler's Austrian movement. After a rally there, work ceased in afternoon, and shops, schools, restaurants and public places were closed.

It is announced that the House of Commons will be asked to discuss until further notice, had exchange questions for French currency continue to be published.

Austrian Troops in Germany
It was estimated midday to-day that more than 25,000 German troops are in Austria.

On Sunday evening Minister Leo Baeck, the Socialist leader, succeeded in forming a Government composed of Socialists and Nationalists.

M. Blum, in addition to being Prime Minister, is also Minister of Finance.

"Only force could have Stopped Germany"

PREMIER'S HOUSE OF COMMONS STATEMENT

Berlin's Reply to British Protest

"THE HARD FACT IS THAT NOTHING COULD HAVE STOPPED THIS ACTION BY GERMANY UNLESS WE AND OTHERS WITH US HAD BEEN PREPARED TO USE FORCE TO PREVENT IT" SAID THE BRITISH PRIME MINISTER, MR. CHAMBERLAIN, SPEAKING TO A CROWDED HOUSE OF COMMONS YESTERDAY AFTER NOON ON THE AUSTRIAN SITUATION.

In the course of his statement, Mr. Chamberlain said that the House of Commons was not within its rights in claiming the province of Austria. The relations between Germany and Austria were an internal affair of the German people.

Farr's Hopes Fade

POINT'S WIN FOR BAER

New York, Saturday. Max Baer defeated Tommy Farr in the eliminator for the world heavyweight title at the Madison Square Garden tonight. The fight was a hot affair, but Farr had a big crowd.

Baer's return to form was not shown by the fact that he was knocked out in the second round and for a count of six in the third. Farr was able to get back in the ring with a clean fight.

Farr was must-gone and fought back, but he had no chance to get back in the ring.

BRITISH REARMAMENT TO BE INTENSIFIED

Momentous debate on the situation in Austria

ALL AGREE ON NEED FOR DEFINITE ACTION IN INTERESTS OF PEACE

Grave Warning to Germany

THE PRIME MINISTER'S SPEECH IN THE HOUSE OF COMMONS ON MONDAY NIGHT WHEN HE DEALT WITH THE AUSTRIAN SITUATION WAS DESCRIBED BY MR. WINSTON CHURCHILL IN THE COURSE OF HIS DEBATE AS THE MOST MOMENTOUS HEARD SINCE THAT OF SIR EDWARD GREY ON THE EVE OF THE GREAT WAR—RESTRAINED BUT WITH AN UNDER-TOE OF IRON DETERMINATION.

The debate was characterized by a unanimity of all parties in condemnation of the methods which had been adopted by Germany in Austria and there was an insistent demand for a clear and early statement of British policy.

Many members were particularly anxious that the position of Austria should be a relation to any possible invasion of Czechoslovakia or of any hostile invasion France should be stated without qualification.

The Prime Minister stated that the position in Central Europe was made necessary a review of British rearmament and that new proposals in that respect would shortly be introduced.

As warned the nation that these proposals may call for further concentrated effort and new sacrifices. It was explained later that this would not involve conscription.

London, March 15.—In the course of his speech in the House of Commons on Monday night, the Prime Minister, Mr. Neville Chamberlain, said that the situation in Austria was the most momentous since that of Sir Edward Grey on the eve of the Great War. He said that the German Government had been "restrained but with an under-tone of iron determination" in its handling of Austria. He said that the British Government had received a "grave warning" from Germany's actions and that it was necessary to intensify British rearmament. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

PREMIER SEES THE KING

Before going to the House of Commons on Monday afternoon, Mr. Chamberlain attended a reception at the Royal Palace in London with the King and Queen.

Mr. Chamberlain's speech in the House of Commons on Monday night was described as the most momentous since that of Sir Edward Grey on the eve of the Great War. He said that the German Government had been "restrained but with an under-tone of iron determination" in its handling of Austria. He said that the British Government had received a "grave warning" from Germany's actions and that it was necessary to intensify British rearmament. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

Independence must be to Germany. The communications had to be sent to the British Government. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

At the same time, Mr. Chamberlain said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

The events in their minds that day, which could not be regarded by the British Government with indifference or equanimity, were bound to have steady weight upon the minds of all who were not yet so much concerned. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

The grave consequences of the events in which he had spoken were understood in the Prime Minister's statement. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

ARRESTED

A German message says that the Prime Minister and other British officials have been arrested in Vienna. He said that the British Government was determined to stand by the principle of self-determination and that it would not allow Austria to be absorbed into Germany without a struggle.

Presenting TWO NEW FORD V-8 CARS FOR 1938

We're building two new cars for 1938—the Standard Ford V-8 and the De Luxe Ford V-8. They differ in appearance, but they have the same mechanical excellence—the same 112-inch wheelbase.

People like our 1937 car so well that they bought more of them than of any other make. We have improved on that car in the newly styled Standard Ford V-8 for 1938. But some folks asked also for a bigger, finer car with the same Ford advantages in it.

The De Luxe Ford V-8 Sedans are longer with more room, larger luggage space and finer appointments. They are equipped with the economical V-8 engine. They give an added measure of motoring satisfaction at traditionally low Ford prices.

THE COFFEE BOARD

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
 I have read your article on the Coffee Board, and I am sure that you have done your best to give a fair and accurate picture of the situation. GRAVE FIRES

To the Editor, "E. A. Standard."
 I have read your article on the grave fires, and I am sure that you have done your best to give a fair and accurate picture of the situation. The Election

MR. THAKUR DASS'S MANIFESTO

Your is to have national independence based on over the country should be found present. Establishing the basis by the most creative and modern methods used to convert the many dormant resources of the country into capital and work with all this entire country for the first time and to national education, there is a grand demand to higher literacy and the development of the people and moral development of the people and their own work with its national spirit.

Taxes

As my humble opinion the time is ripe to have the non-taxative system of the country since the burden of the income tax is almost twice accepted by all responsible citizens and it is a heavy burden to bear the burden of the tax, although there is a strong belief, as you will see, that the Government should not tax its own people, but rather should give the people the power to choose for the Government and to give them the power to choose for the Government and to give them the power to choose for the Government.

Political Plans

It would be an act of far-reaching importance that at least some of the Indians—some of the most brilliant spirits in the country—should be given the privilege of taking their own part in the life of the country. The Government should consider the possibility of allowing the Indians to take part in the life of the country.

Education

Some of the most brilliant spirits of the Indian race will be found in the land to which they can go. The only part of the world which is still to be of use when this civilization enters the world. Larger scope is needed for all Indian students who are desirous of such an opportunity. The Government should consider the possibility of allowing the Indians to take part in the life of the country.

Army and Administration

In my view the police staff is too inadequate to meet or cope with the requirements of the Indian population and it is utterly unfit to protect the lives and property of the Indian people. The Government should consider the possibility of allowing the Indians to take part in the life of the country.

Education

I am deeply interested in the education of our children and I think it should be the duty of the Government to provide for the education of our children. The Government should consider the possibility of allowing the Indians to take part in the life of the country.

BRITAIN STILL STANDS WHERE

By SHE STOOD The Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill P.C., C.H., M.P.

Craven's are really good—believe me they'll never affect your throat!

THE sudden and lamentable events which have taken place in England during the last fortnight are so many to be exaggerated.

They have greatly weakened the Conservative party in the constituencies. The Liberal Labour and non-party voters which Mr Baldwin had painstakingly garnered are now summarily dissipated and will not be easy to recall.

In Mr Eden the National Government have lost their only popular figure. A fortnight ago he could have appealed to the electors with confidence. No friend would recommend them to do so, nor would they be ready to recall.

The growing association (on parallel lines) between Great Britain and the United States has received a very severe setback. British foreign policy has become, for the moment, even more than usually, more precarious to the friends and well-wishers on the Continent and all over the world. No explanation has been offered which would have pleased all others; and should have gone to the rescue of the one Dictator whose methods were almost beginning to find favour. He was very near to collapse. By so doing we have set him up again on a pinnacle and generally have exalted the dominance and prestige of Dictatorships in all countries.

It would seem that a mistake is being made, inasmuch as the British Government more than intended themselves in a certain case to do so, nor is it the only case.

Mr Chamberlain has himself said that our relations with France, which include a military Detachment are unchanged. There is no intention of attacking the country which is the object of our attention. It is not resting, either that should have been done, or the slightest wait. The withdrawal of 20,000 Italian troops from Spain, if balanced against a similar withdrawal of volunteers from the Republican cause, would be a great advantage. The withdrawal of the Italian "Empire" of Ethiopia, thus transferring to great numbers of good people in England, does not seem to be the only solution. The withdrawal of some troops from Latvia, and the stopping of the snow poured out from the British radio, will only benefit Britain till the weather changes.

What Mottel wants to assure is that the Government will carry this line if it is necessary for the prolonged orbit of every year.

It is not resting, either that should have been done, or the slightest wait. The withdrawal of 20,000 Italian troops from Spain, if balanced against a similar withdrawal of volunteers from the Republican cause, would be a great advantage. HITLER... THE MAN

By Randolph Churchill

TO those who know him intimately Hitler is very much a human being. A human being, it is not the dominating factors in his life is in his mind.

The worst of large-scale Hitler has been in the complete control of the day-to-day running of the Reich.

When in Munich he will often tell his staff that he is not a politician, but a man.

He has not the sense of humor of a politician. He is a man.

He is not a politician, but a man.

He has not the sense of humor of a politician. He is a man.

GERMANY IN FULL CONTROL OF AUSTRIA

"I Have Fulfilled my Mission" says Herr Hitler at Linz

ROME REJECTS FRENCH PLAN TO RESTORE VIENNA'S INDEPENDENCE

AUSTRIA IS UNDER THE COMPLETE CONTROL OF GERMANY. THE NEW AUSTRIAN CHANCELLOR, DR. SEYSS-INKWITZ, WHO WAS NOMINATED BY GERMANY IN AN ULMLETTER THAT DENIED DR. SCHUSCHNIGG'S RESIGNATION UNDER THREAT OF INVASION, HAS DENOUNCED THAT SECTION OF THE PEACE TREATY UNDER WHICH GERMANY WAS TO RESPECT AUSTRIAN INDEPENDENCE. HE DECLARED: "NOW WE RECOGNISE FOR ALL TIME THE SAME FUERNER."

German troops have entered Austria and have reached the Znojmo-Slavonia and Italian frontiers. Italy has accepted a guarantee for the Brenner Pass, and, professing to regard the rest of Austria as a "neutral development," has rejected French proposals to join in concerted action to restore Austria's independence.

There are no reports of bloodshed or disorder in Austria, but the "Fatherland Front" has been dissolved, and most of its leaders are believed to be under arrest. The whereabouts of Dr. Schuschnigg are unknown, and there is a report that he has been given safe conduct to Hungary.

Herr Hitler has arrived in Austria and was given a tremendous welcome in Linz. The townpeople were ordered to open doors and windows and light their lamps. "Every lighted window is a friend," Vienna's German window is an enemy," it was declared.

His visit to Vienna, March 11. Riding down the Vienna river, he was met by thousands of cheering Austrians. He was met by thousands of cheering Austrians. He was met by thousands of cheering Austrians.
