SOMALIA WARNED 'WE WILL RETALIATE'

Africa's leaders told of aggression

Emergency gave notice to Somalia that it is taking steps to ensure withdrawal should the Mogadishu Government make a "no response" to demands on it to mount open warfare in the six districts of the N.E.D. by force. There could come a point when hostilities was so blatant and terrorism so enhanced that it would no longer be contained within a policing operation.

The warning is contained in a Narrative of the events of inspired aggression and direct provocation mounted by the Somali Republic against the Government and people of the British Kenya.

The text of the document which is published today is contained in all Heads of States under the auspices of African Unity and to Ambassador General of the United Nations, the Minister for Defense, Dr. ...

The document details that during the latter half of 1966 and the early weeks of the year, aggression by the Somali Republic against Kenya had intensified to a level of open terrorism and sabotage.

Retolt against hardship

Kenya had no other wish than to cement the close relationship with all neighbouring States. "But ... times when hostility, or acts of violence, ... the hope of possible retaliation backed by ... of all regional advice must fail and when ... a policing operation."

POSITIVE OFFER TO SOMALIA

KENYA yesterday gave Somalia offers which she does not intend to put up any longer with armed aggression on her border in support of the military.

A further attempt is to be made to achieve a peaceful settlement in the face of escalating hostility from Mogadishu. If this fails, Kenya will feel free to take more positive action, possibly to maintain aggressionists from the Horn of Africa.

Kenya's offer to Somalia is a positive one, which is being made in the face of the fact that Somalia has not yet accepted the offer. Kenya has been at the forefront of the struggle for the Horn of Africa, and has been successful in bringing about a peaceful settlement in the region.

President makes new appeal for African unity

NEW appeal for Pan-African unity was made yesterday by President Kenyatta during the opening of the sixth session of the African Labour Ministers' Conference in Nairobi.

He said that many Africans had thrown off the colonial yoke created yet another common bond between them all and helped them in their continued struggle for African unity.

Let us not become impatient of this search, of this quest of building up the African unity through the solution of common problems, and the achievements of our build the structure through which to give our people the right to live as free men.

Let us beware of the danger of trying quick short-cut superficial ways which produce nothing of value to our people, but only leave a hollow structure which might collapse, destroy not only our hopes and dreams but even perhaps, the very lives of some of our people.

THE DECADE OF AFRICA

The President said that the last few years had rightly become the decade of Africa because they witnessed the solution of so many of its peoples. He said that Africans should not have any thought of throwing away their gains and delaying the process of unity as it had been done by all Africans that could not be held together.

U. S. BACK TO WORKS Stores over no solution after ex-U.S. Ministry talks

Washington, May 23 (AP)—The Government has announced it would convene a three-hour meeting to try to help settle the dispute over the Government's proposal to raise the minimum wage for Federal Government workers.

Mr. Lubeck, who led the union delegation, said that all attempts to arrange a settlement and to make the Government appoint a date for payment of salary increases according to the Industrial Court award, had failed.

He blamed the attitude on ex-ambassadors who he said, intended to create disagreements between the workers and the Government so that they could carry on in their positions.

'Serious repercussions'

Mr. Lubeck complained that he had heard that the City Council was receiving reports from the Labour Exchange and said that it was confronting the International Labour Organisation Convention which provided that an employer may not recruit people from the exchange without advertising that the vacancies were for statutory jobs.

The City leader said that the Ministers had walked out of a meeting which had intended to bring an amicable solution to the arbitration process (see page 10), in which he said could have been avoided.

National City Council members were reported to have said that they had no objection to the Government's proposal to raise the minimum wage for Federal Government workers.

Mr. Lubeck said that the Government was not prepared to accept the minimum wage for Federal Government workers proposed in the negotiations.

Cut in U.K. (Imports)

PRICES IN NAIROBI

Imports from the United Kingdom to Kenya have fallen by 10 per cent in the first three months of this year compared with the same period last year. This is the lowest level since 1952, according to figures published by the Kenya Bureau of Statistics.

The total value of imports from the U.K. for the first three months of this year was KSh. 1,000 million, compared with KSh. 1,100 million for the same period last year. This represents a decrease of 9 per cent.

The main items imported from the U.K. are textiles, machinery, and transport equipment. The value of these items has fallen by 12 per cent, 8 per cent, and 5 per cent respectively.

The Kenya Bureau of Statistics said that the decrease in imports from the U.K. was due to a combination of factors, including a general decline in demand for U.K. goods and a shift in the composition of imports towards other sources.

KIANTO TRIES TO END... More talks with union over strikers' claims

Union leaders for Labour, Dr. Kiiano, yesterday met representatives of the Kenya Labour Government Workers' Union to seek a settlement for 6,000 Nairobi City Council employees. Further talks are expected to take place today.

The meeting was held at Dr. Kiiano's house at Killeshwa and was attended by the secretary-general of the Central Organisation of Trade Unions, Mr. C. Lubembe. The talks lasted about three hours.

Union officials at the meeting included the national general secretary, Mr. James Karibu, and the union's Nairobi branch secretary, Mr. Ben Oloo.

Later, members of the union's national executive met to discuss proposals submitted at the talks. On Saturday, Oloo's national executive council gave Dr. Kiiano five days' notice to settle the central dispute.

Decision by Cotu

Announcing this, Mr. Lubembe said that the decision was made after an emergency meeting had met to consider how best his organization would help the workers on strike in their demand for implementation of an Industrial Court verdict.

The Cotu leader said that the meeting had expressed unanimous support for the strike, if it had been required that only the Cotu had power to call the strike to a halt.

He said that the executive council of the Cotu would meet on Monday to discuss the matter. It is expected that the Cotu will issue a statement on the subject of the strike on Monday.

He appealed to the public to support his decision by not making any further demands for the strike to be ended.

The general assembly at the meeting of the Cotu decided to support the strike and to advise the Government to implement the Industrial Court verdict.

Mr. Lubembe said that the Cotu would continue to support the strike until such time as the Government had agreed to implement the Industrial Court verdict.

MAJOR

light against the forces of the Government, a statement issued last night.

One of the benefits which accrued from the statement issued last night was that it gave a clearer picture of the situation in the Security Forces.

The following is the full statement issued last night by the Ministry of Defence—

During the first week of March a number of incidents were reported from the six administrative districts of the Kenya Territory which are approximately described as "P.F.D."

The most significant of these incidents are outlined below.

A patrol of the Kenya Army was on duty in the area of Nairobi—

There was an exchange of fire during which two of the patrol were killed. The men had been following a herd of about 250 head of animals, a quantity of clothing, a number of bags and other articles, and several trunks.

Three men were taken to hospital and a Queensland ambulance accompanied afterwards that group of the herd followed and captured by Nairobi.

An important section, headed by a village head, was captured, apparently trying to take the herd, using primitive weapons.

Another incident occurred in the area of Nairobi when a patrol of the Kenya Army was on duty in the area of Nairobi—

A reconnaissance party of the Kenya Army was on duty in the area of Nairobi when a patrol of the Kenya Army was on duty in the area of Nairobi—

ILLEGAL'S STRIKE TO CONTINUE

City Council services nearly at standstill

The strike involving 6,000 Nairobi City Council employees which commenced yesterday and brought almost all the council's services to a standstill will continue today, although the Minister for Labour, Dr. Kiano, yesterday said the strike was against the law.

Dr. Kiano's statement said that the strike contravened the Kenya Trade Disputes Act of 1965 and pointed out to the strikers that they had called the strike while not being allowed to do so by law. The Minister's statement pointed out that those who had called the strike were liable to prosecution through counselling members to break their contract.

The Government would not be lenient to those who were deliberately violating by a few people who seemed to be insensitive to the suffering of many lowly government employees who were even facing redundancy due to the industry.

SALARY RISE DATE—THEN WE RETURN SAVES UNION

The strike of City Council employees will continue for the date for pay increase has not been agreed. The union has threatened to return to work if the Government agrees to a 10 per cent rise in pay.

BACKING FOR STRIKERS no solution after Ministry talks

Minister of Labour, Mr. C. Lubebe, has announced he would convene an executive committee meeting to try to help strikers and workers win their demands, after talks between the Government and the Government again ended in deadlock yesterday.

Mr. Lubebe, who led the union delegation, said that all attempts to arrest the situation and make the Government appoint a date for payment of salary increases according to the Industrial Court's award had failed.

It was said that the three-hour meeting held with the Minister of Labour, Dr. Kiambu, had been disappointing and achieved nothing due to the negative attitude adopted by government officials.

He blamed the attitude on 'extraneous advisers' who were invited to create disagreements between the Government so that they could carry on in the same way.

'Serious repercussions'

Mr. Lubebe complained that he had heard that the Government was treating people from the Industrial Court as if they were not entitled to the intervention of the Industrial Commission which is provided for in the Industrial Act.

He said that the Minister had ordered that the Industrial Commission should be set up which had been intended to be a body which would be independent of the Government.

Dr. MUNGAI EXPLAINS POSITION

Dr. Mungai explained that the Government was not prepared to accept the Industrial Commission as a body which would be independent of the Government.

'Pill' death risk three in 100,000

Oral contraceptives must be responsible for some 200 cases of liver-disease in Great Britain, according to a report by the Medical Research Council.

The report, published in the British Medical Journal, is based on a study of 100,000 women taking the pill.

The study found that the risk of liver disease is three in 100,000 for women taking the pill for one year, and rises to six in 100,000 for those taking it for two years.

The researchers also found that the risk of liver disease is higher for women who take the pill for a longer period of time.

Mr. Kenyatta TRIES to END DEADLOCK

are talks with union

er strikers' claims

Minister for Labour, Dr. Kiwako, yesterday met representatives of the Kenya Labour Workers' Union to seek a way to settle the strike by 6,000 Nairobi City Council employees. Further talks are expected to take place today.

The meeting was held at Dr. Kiwako's house at Kileleshwa and was attended by the secretary-general of the Central Organisation of Trade Unions, Mr. C. Lumumba. The talks lasted about three hours.

Union officials at the meeting included the national general secretary, Mr. James Kambo, and the union's Nairobi branch secretary, Mr. Ben Oduma.

Later, members of the union's national executive met to discuss proposals submitted at the talks. On Saturday, the union's national executive called for Dr. Kiwako five days' notice to settle the council dispute.

Decision by Cotu

Announcing this, Mr. Lumumba said that the decision was made after an emergency council had met to consider how his organization could help the workers on strike in their demand for implementation of an Industrial Court award.

The Cotu leader said that the meeting had expressed unanimous support for the strikers if it had received that vote. Dr. Kiwako had given a statement at this stage to settle the dispute.

He said that the executive committee would consider all aspects of the question and if it had been satisfied that the Minister could execute his duties, it would have recommended the Council to settle the dispute by the end of the week.

The meeting had decided that the dispute was between the City Council and the union, and it was the duty of the Cotu secretary to assist the union in negotiating a settlement to the stoppage.

He also stated that this organization was not a party to the dispute and would not be involved in any way in the settlement of the dispute.

Mr. Lumumba and Mr. Kiwako said it was not the workers' union that had started the strike. It was the Council that had started the strike by refusing to pay the wages of the workers.

He also stated that the Cotu secretary would continue to assist the union in negotiating a settlement to the stoppage.

Ex-ENVOY'S BOOK BREACH OF FAITH - Mr. NJONJO

A BEARING attack was made yesterday by Kenya's Attorney-General, Mr. Njonjo, on a personal statement on the book "The Road and the Glory," written by Sir William Attwood, a former United States Ambassador in Nairobi. The book received a highly critical review from the Editor of the "East African Standard" last Friday. Mr. Attwood said in reply that the review was unwarranted, and that he had been "a critic of the book from the government here."

Mr. Njonjo said that he was shocked to find that the book was written by a man who had never lived in Kenya and who does not understand Africa or our national policy.

"I disagree, as a total disregard for the interests of the country," he said, "to write a book which is so full of errors and which is so full of lies. It is a disgrace to our national policy."

THE DIGNITY OF LABOUR

SPEAKING AT THE OPENING of a new church in Nairobi on Saturday, the Vice-President of Kenya, Mr. Mbi...

This is a challenge which the Church — and not just the Christian one — must accept, even though it may bring down on its leaders the wrath of well-to-do elements and dissidents who persist in advocating "things", in postponing the effort of doing a full duty...

Kenya will progress most quickly by the efforts of her own people. Ourselves, when offered wonderful opportunities, will be a drag on the progress...

Many Kenyans are giving fully of their time and effort to build the nation but it would be unrealistic to pretend that there are not many others behaving otherwise...

The Church will play an increased part in the spiritual and economic development of the nation if it is hearted application to the daily task is an honourable thing — and that there is no reduction in merit if one's hands get dirty in the process.

As a trade unionist, I am concerned about the future of employment in our country. I believe that there are many things that can be done to improve the situation...

One of the main problems is the lack of training and education for young people. This means that they are often unemployable when they enter the workforce...

Another problem is the lack of investment in new industries. This means that there are not enough jobs available in the future...

It is essential that the government and the private sector work together to solve these problems. Only then can we ensure a bright future for our country...

The trade union movement has a role to play in this. We must work to improve the skills of our members and to ensure that they are protected in the workplace...

Only by working together can we create a better future for all of us. We must not give up hope and we must not give in to those who would divide us...

Let us all join together in our common struggle for a better future. Let us all work for the good of our country and our people...

too coffee pooling denied Government

Minister for Agriculture, Mr. McKenzie, decided at the weekend that the Government had been an opposing coffee trade indifference in the country's coffee quota were altered.

In a statement, Mr. McKenzie said: "Last year Kenya negotiated entry to the International Coffee Organization with a temporary authorization of 764,282 bags a year. The exact quota will be fixed after further negotiation at the next of the International Coffee Organization Conference."

A mission sent by the organization to investigate the Kenya coffee industry has already made its report. The chances of negotiating any considerable increase in the quota under the present conditions of wholesale spot sale, because of falling prices for Arabica coffee, is slight. The Government, however, will do its best.

"Whatever quota can be finally negotiated, it is certain that it will not reach the figure of the potential production from existing planted coffee."

TOTAL BAN ON NEW PLANTING

"For this reason and in order to ensure that the situation did not become worse the Government announced a total ban on further plantings of coffee at the beginning of 1953. The only exception to this ban was an allowance for plantings of up to 2 1/2 percent of planted acreage."

Nigeria talks may have ended in deadlock

130 freed from slave camps in Pakistan

A MISSION of four prominent Nigerian civilians has ended its mediation talks in Lagos, Eastern Nigeria, on the country's Constitutional crisis with no immediate sign of success.

Radio Lagos reported that the mission had concluded a session of talks with the Eastern Military Governor, Lt-Col Ojukwu.

The radio made no comment and did not say whether a constitutional would be issued. The talks were held in secret after the mission, headed by a Lagos merchant, left Thursday, arrived at Enugu on Friday.

It was the first significant step taken to try to resolve the crisis caused by the military coup and the mission was led by Chief Oduko Amosenu, former politician and leader of the Nigerian Youth Union of Western Nigeria.

Other members were Dr. Hassan Akintola, an economist and former lecturer at the Eastern Nigeria University; Chief Justice Marim, adviser to the Mid-Western Military Governor; and Chief G. I. Oduro, a former senator.

The mission aims to initiate a process of development to which the Western and Mid-Western Regions have agreed to join.

It is expected that the mission will be able to return to Lagos in a few days.

CHANGE ON THE SKYLINE

KENYA'S AMBITIOUS PROGRAMME for the building of hotels and additional game lodges is proof of the rapid increase in tourist traffic to the country since the success of the Government's general development policy, which has resulted in increased business and tourist revenue every year. The British Hotel and Catering Association's Exhibition, which opened in Nairobi yesterday, has underlined the awareness of businessmen overseas that this hotel trade is an opportunity of the future in Africa.

From indications on the opening day the exhibition looks like being a big success. The organisers confidently predicted that by the end of the year business worth £50,000 may have resulted from it. Over 500 stands and all the equipment it had brought yesterday, and several stands were closed in holiday. Several African States as well as those of East Africa have sent representatives to see the trade opportunities in Malaya, Ceylon and Ethiopia. This reflects the general posture of tourists throughout the world, who are flocking to Kenya, which has been chosen as the venue, however, not only because of its excellent communications but also because of the tourist break-throughs and offer plenty of scope for the business "on the ground". Already the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce, which has organised the exhibition, is thinking of returning to Nairobi in two years' time.

When he opened the exhibition, the Minister for Tourism and Wildlife, Mr. Ayoo, referred to some of the tourist hotels in Nairobi, sponsored by the major American airline groups. One of these, which will become the Nairobi Hilton, is being jointly financed by the T.W.A., an Israeli group, London, Black Hotels and the Kenya Government. It will be an impressive addition to the features of Nairobi's flourishing skyline, with a distinctive circular tower 20 stories high.

Put American World Airways, also in association with the Kenya Government, is building the proposed later-Continental Hotel on the air park site behind the Nairobi General Post Office. Like the "Hilton," it will have about 300 beds.

A great deal of other development is in hand or in the planning stages. Last week the British National Airline, B.O.A.C., announced an investment of £1,500,000 in Kenya. The major part of this will finance a 10-room extension to the Paradise Hotel, and the remaining £400,000 will be for the construction of two new hotels at Taveta National Park and around the hotel at Nairobi.

Funds raised for victims of revolt

FRANCIS OMBURA reports from Kisumu on efforts to help the people of Kiambu (Kenya) who were victims of the 1946-47 years of insurrection.

OPERATION KISUMU, aimed at helping 200,000 of the low-income Kenyan population...

It is estimated that 200,000 of the low-income Kenyan population are in need of relief. The Government has set up a special fund to help them. The fund is being used to buy food, clothing, and other necessities for the people. The fund is also being used to help the people with their medical expenses. The fund is also being used to help the people with their educational expenses. The fund is also being used to help the people with their housing expenses. The fund is also being used to help the people with their other expenses.

DOES THE PERFECT SECRETARY EXIST?

Yes, she does, but only as the result of many factors. In addition to her purely personal qualifications, the equipment she uses plays a big role. The most important is the typewriter. It has to live up to high standards of performance, excel in appearance, and be a technical masterpiece on the inside. It is supposed to perform fast, easy typing, be reliable and reliable, and of course it must have a double tabulating system to save each labour.

The above is a brief description of Facit T2. Here is a manual typewriter without equal, the only one on the market with two tabulating systems, and a table and ball-bearing mounted carriage built of special light metal for quiet, smooth operation. The neat, even lettering is a combined product of light touch and a low, functional keyboard. Remember that your letters are the typing cards of your firm. Give your secretary a Facit T2.
