N. TO LEAVE MIDDLE EAST Rioters chant 'English go' in Hongkong

Thant expresses 'deepest concern'

U Thant, Secretary-General of the United Nations, announced yesterday that he is to leave the Middle East in the next few days. He expressed his "deepest concern" about the possible implications of the latest developments.

In a special report to the General Assembly U Thant said there was "no alternative course of action which could be taken by the Secretary-General without putting in question the sovereignty of the government of the United Arab Republic within the area territory."

In Cairo last night the United Arab Republic ordered the country's religious leaders to preach "Jihad" (only 11 months earlier with Israel). At the same time the U.A.R. Ministry of Religious Affairs issued instructions that all preachers must avoid the subject of daily Friday sermons in mosques. The preachers were told they are to preach in a holy battle.

PREVIOUS SPENDING DOUBLED

The cost of South Africa's second five-year plan for 1945-50, announced by the Minister of Finance, Mr. J. H. van der Stoep, at the State of the Union speech in the House of Assembly on May 11, is estimated to be double the expenditure of the first five-year plan.

The second five-year plan, which will be implemented from 1945 to 1950, is estimated to cost a total of 1,000 million rand, or 200 million sterling. This is double the expenditure of the first five-year plan, which was estimated to cost 500 million rand, or 100 million sterling.

The Minister of Finance stated that the increase in expenditure is due to the fact that the Government is now planning to spend more on social services, particularly in the areas of health, education, and housing.

VIOLENCE IN ROMANIA

Three members of a police riot squad, equipped with batons and helmets, were attacking a group of young people in Bucharest, Romania, on May 11. The young people, who were protesting against the Government's policy of nationalisation, were being beaten and pushed back.

The riot squad consisted of three members, all of whom were wearing helmets and carrying batons. They were attacking a group of young people who were protesting against the Government's policy of nationalisation.

The young people were being beaten and pushed back. The riot squad was seen to be attacking the young people in a public square in Bucharest.

FARMING POLICY IN AFRICA ATTACKED

A REVIEW of developments in agricultural policy in the African States, published by the British African Council, has attacked the Government's policy of nationalisation in the agricultural sector.

The review, which is the first of a series of reports to be published by the British African Council, states that the Government's policy of nationalisation is likely to lead to a decline in agricultural production and a loss of jobs in the rural areas.

The review also states that the Government's policy of nationalisation is likely to lead to a loss of control over the land and a loss of control over the means of production.

DOUBLE PERSON TAXATION

PARTICULAR ATTENTION should be paid to the provisions of the new Income Tax Act, which will be in force from 1964. It is expected that the new law will be able to deal with double taxation of income earned in Kenya and abroad.

The proposed law is based on the principle that income earned in Kenya should be taxed in Kenya. Income earned abroad should be taxed in the country of origin. However, where the taxpayer is a resident in Kenya, the income earned abroad will be taxed in Kenya. This will result in double taxation of income earned abroad.

Middle East brinkmanship

MEMBERSHIP OF THE MOST dangerous type is being carried on between the U.A.R. and Syria. The two countries are engaged in a game of brinkmanship, with each side trying to outmaneuver the other.

The U.A.R. has recently announced that it will withdraw its troops from Syria. This move is seen as a sign of weakness by Syria. Syria has responded by increasing its military presence in the Golan Heights.

MINI-SKIRTS RAISE THE QUESTIONS OF NATURAL AND ARTIFICIAL BEAUTY

THE discussion on mini-skirts brings up the question of natural and artificial beauty. It is a question that has been debated for many years.

Some people believe that beauty is a natural quality that cannot be taught or learned. Others believe that beauty is an artificial quality that can be created through the use of cosmetics and fashion.

TO TOLERANT

WOMEN have been told to be tolerant. This is a message that has been repeated many times. However, it is not always clear what is meant by tolerance.

Tolerance is the ability to accept and respect the opinions and beliefs of others, even if they are different from your own. It is a quality that is essential for a peaceful and harmonious society.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dear Sir,
 I am writing to you regarding the article in your issue of December 10, 1963, concerning the issue of tolerance. I am glad to see that you have given this issue so much attention.

The fifth F.A. Cup victory for Tottenham Hotspur in London was a triumph for the club's manager, Jimmy Spence, who has led the team to five successive victories in the competition.

The final was played at Wembley Stadium on Sunday, May 11, with Tottenham Hotspur defeating Arsenal 2-1.

The match was a classic, with Tottenham dominating the game throughout. They scored twice in the first half and once in the second, while Arsenal managed only one goal in the second half.

NO TRIPLE CROWN WINNER IN U.S.

REDUCE BUILD-UP

Premier calls for mutual withdrawal

Prime Minister, Mr. Eshkol, yesterday called for a mutual withdrawal of troops concentrating on the border with Egypt. Speaking in Parliament, he appealed for a concerted effort to speak peace and terrorism against any member of the United Nations.

The primary cause of the tension lay in a long series of more than 100 "Sylvan"-inspired infiltrations into and assaults on Israel," he said. Israel had shown great restraint in the face of Syrian aggression, and only after all political means had been exhausted, had she been compelled in self-defence to resort to more forceful action.

In the past six weeks there had been an unbroken succession of such Syrian-instigated attacks, he said. "On the brightening and growing effectiveness of these sabotage activities, I found it necessary to address clear and explicit warnings to Syria that we were not prepared to put up with their continuation."

Iraq troops for Egypt

Mr. Eshkol said that long before the Egyptian withdrawal movement began, the United Nations had informed Egypt that the reports of Israeli forces poised for an attack were unfounded.

"The fact that nevertheless Egypt had increased its troop strength in Sinai from 25,000 to 80,000 in a few days has convinced Israel," he said.

Dar customs seize $20,800 from ship

Standard Staff Reporter Dar es Salaam. CUSTOMERS officials seized more than $20,800 in East African currency which was brought ashore from the Italian ship, Bianna, when it docked at Dar es Salaam from Mogadishu in the weekend.

The money, in Tanzania, Kenya, and East African Currency Board notes, was found in two false-bottomed suitcases which were unloaded with the baggage of disembarking passengers in the Customs jetty in City Drive.

The Bianna, a 1,100-ton Yamaco cargo vessel which has 20 passengers, had called at Mombasa on its way to Tanzania from Italy. It arrived in Mombasa on Monday, and was due to leave again for Italy on Tuesday.

A Customs preventive officer, Mr. Burton, found the suitcases when he noticed that a suitcase which was supposed to be much heavier than the one in the hold.

With another officer, Mr. Peter King, Mr. Burton made a thorough search and a false bottom was discovered. This was proved to be the source of the suitcase when it was opened.

The two officers also became suspicious of the Bianna's crew which had been unloaded from the ship. This was proved to be a similar secret arrangement.

The money was valued at $20,800. It was found in two suitcases which were unloaded with the baggage of disembarking passengers in the Customs jetty in City Drive.

MIDDLE EAST NOW ON DRINK OF WAR

U.A.R. blocks Gulf of Aqaba

The Middle East stood on the brink of war yesterday after President Nasser's declaration that Egypt had sealed off the strategic Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli shipping.

President Nasser's announcement and news that Egyptian forces had occupied the fortified post of Sharm el Sheikh, overlooking the southern approach to the narrow gulf, was accepted unanimously by observers in Cairo as the first serious development since the crisis flared last week.

Israeli officials made no comment on the news that the Red Sea and Gulf of Aqaba were closed to Israeli shipping. Mr. Eshkol last night brushed the plan to bar the Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli ships as "a mere provocation" and said that Israel would not pass through Aqaba and would not engage the Red Sea unless it was completely closed to Israel as well as to shipping.

U Thant arrives in Cairo

As the U.A.R. building continued, Israel's Prime Minister Mr. Eshkol held emergency talks with top officials and the British Ambassador, Mr. Mervyn Dymally. Mr. Eshkol last night brushed the plan to bar the Gulf of Aqaba to Israeli ships as "a mere provocation" and said that Israel would not pass through Aqaba and would not engage the Red Sea unless it was completely closed to Israel as well as to shipping.

The United Nations Secretary-General, Mr. U Thant, arrived in Cairo from New York today to discuss the Middle East situation with Egyptian and Israeli officials.

Mr. U Thant, who has been in Cairo since last week, is expected to stay in the city until the end of the week. He is expected to meet with Egyptian and Israeli officials and to discuss the Middle East situation with them.

The British Foreign Secretary, Mr. James Callaghan, is expected to arrive in Cairo tomorrow to discuss the Middle East situation with Egyptian and Israeli officials.

The United States Secretary of State, Mr. Dean Rusk, is expected to arrive in Cairo tomorrow to discuss the Middle East situation with Egyptian and Israeli officials.

Kenya denies Somali bid across border

Kenya's Foreign Minister, Mr. J. M. Karume, today denied a report that his country had agreed to allow Somali troops to cross its border to fight against the British-backed government in Somalia.

Mr. Karume said that Kenya had no intention of allowing any foreign troops to cross its border, and that it was not a party to the conflict in Somalia.

The report, which was first published in the London Daily Telegraph, stated that the British government had offered Kenya a deal to allow Somali troops to cross its border in exchange for British military aid.

Mr. Karume said that the British offer was "unacceptable" and that Kenya would not accept it. He said that Kenya was a neutral country and that it did not want to become involved in the conflict in Somalia.

The British government had said that it was offering Kenya a deal to allow Somali troops to cross its border in exchange for British military aid. The deal was said to be a "quid pro quo" arrangement, with Kenya providing the British with a base for their operations in Somalia.

Mr. Karume said that the British offer was "unacceptable" and that Kenya would not accept it. He said that Kenya was a neutral country and that it did not want to become involved in the conflict in Somalia.

Member of the International Ministry in Rome
 The Italian Ministry of Foreign Affairs today announced that it had received a letter from the Kenyan government regarding the proposed deal to allow Somali troops to cross its border.

The Italian minister said that he had discussed the matter with the Kenyan minister and that they had agreed to continue their discussions.

Kenya's Government spokesman
 A spokesman for the Kenyan government today said that the country was not a party to the conflict in Somalia and that it had no intention of allowing any foreign troops to cross its border.

The spokesman said that Kenya was a neutral country and that it did not want to become involved in the conflict in Somalia.

MOBILIZATION IN KENYA

Kenya's government today announced that it had mobilized its armed forces in response to the report that Somali troops might cross its border.

The government said that it had increased the number of troops in the border areas and that it had also increased the number of troops in the interior.

The government said that it was taking these measures to ensure that it was able to defend itself against any possible invasion.

Kenya's Government spokesman

A spokesman for the Kenyan government today said that the country was not a party to the conflict in Somalia and that it had no intention of allowing any foreign troops to cross its border.

The spokesman said that Kenya was a neutral country and that it did not want to become involved in the conflict in Somalia.

Penalties may be increased

The Kenyan government today announced that it was considering increasing the penalties for those who violate the country's laws regarding the border with Somalia.

The government said that it was considering increasing the fines and imprisonment terms for those who are found to be in violation of the laws.

The government said that it was taking these measures to ensure that the laws were being enforced and that the border was secure.

Kenya's Government spokesman

A spokesman for the Kenyan government today said that the country was not a party to the conflict in Somalia and that it had no intention of allowing any foreign troops to cross its border.

The spokesman said that Kenya was a neutral country and that it did not want to become involved in the conflict in Somalia.

Secretariat head visits Assembly

The head of the Kenyan secretariat today visited the Kenyan National Assembly to discuss the country's current affairs.

The head of the secretariat said that he was pleased to see the progress that the Assembly was making and that he was confident that the country was on a path to development.

The head of the secretariat said that he was also pleased to see the support that the Assembly was giving to the government and that he was confident that the country was on a path to development.

Asian crematorium to be discussed

The Kenyan government today announced that it was considering the construction of an Asian crematorium in Nairobi.

The government said that the crematorium was needed to provide a place for the cremation of the bodies of Asian people who died in Kenya.

The government said that it was taking these measures to ensure that the bodies of Asian people were being treated with respect and that the crematorium was a place where they could be cremated in a dignified manner.

Americans may replace Spanish workers in Gibraltar

GIBRALTAR will recruit more workers from Morocco and Portugal if the entire Spanish labour force in this territory by the end of the year, as part of its campaign to isolate the Rock. Until a few years ago, the Spanish labour strength in Gibraltar was between 10,000 and 12,000. Including the 1,000 British troops, the total population was 11,000. In 1966, the number of Spanish workers was 10,000. The British Government has imposed restrictions on the number of Spanish workers who can enter Gibraltar. The number of Spanish workers is now 10,000. The British Government has imposed restrictions on the number of Spanish workers who can enter Gibraltar. The number of Spanish workers is now 10,000.

CRATER PARK FOR MOUNT AFRICA

MERU

By GILBERT MURPHY
WASHINGTON—Government officials here today are studying the possibility of designating a portion of the Meru National Park in Kenya as a national park for Mount Africa.

The Meru National Park, which today covers 1,000 square miles, is one of the largest national parks in the world. It is situated in the eastern slopes of Mount Meru, which rises to a height of 14,980 feet.

The park is a natural wonder, with its rich forests, its many lakes and its beautiful scenery. It is a place of great beauty and interest, and it is a place that should be preserved for the enjoyment of all people.

The idea to create a national park for Mount Africa was first proposed by the late Sir George Murray, who was the first British Governor of Kenya. He was a great lover of the country and he wanted to preserve its natural beauty for the enjoyment of all people.

The idea was revived in 1952 by the late Sir Evelyn Baring, who was the second British Governor of Kenya. He was also a great lover of the country and he wanted to preserve its natural beauty for the enjoyment of all people.

The idea is now being studied by the Government of Kenya. It is a very important matter and it is one that should be given the highest priority.

The Government of Kenya is a young country and it is one that is still in the process of development. It is a country that is rich in natural resources and it is one that has a great future ahead of it.

The Government is committed to the preservation of its natural resources and it is committed to the development of its people. It is a country that is proud of its heritage and it is a country that is proud of its achievements.

WATER SUPPLY
 The water supply for the city of Nairobi is being increased to 100 million gallons per day. This will be achieved by the construction of a new reservoir at Ngara, which will be completed by 1965. The new reservoir will be 100 acres in area and will be 100 feet deep. It will be situated on the Ngara River, which is a tributary of the Athi River. The water from the reservoir will be pumped to the city through a pipeline. This will ensure a steady supply of water to the city and will also help to reduce the cost of water supply.

HAMISI OUT OF KENYA TEAM

Rest of squad in residential training for Uganda visit

HAMISI ABDULLAH, the goalkeeper who represented Kenya at the Commonwealth Games in Vancouver last year, is out of the team to visit Uganda in the first leg of the International Cricket Trophy challenge on June 2.

It was reported yesterday that Hamisi has high back sprains. The absence means that Hamisi will be leaving Uganda at night-leave only. Hamisi was appointed captain to last year's Kenya championship by Stephen "Kosmo" Madani in the first round of the left-handed-weights cricket. Hamisi is 27 years old.

Portland Cement profits soft

The directors of the East African Portland Cement Corporation (EAPCC) have reported a 20% drop in profits for the year ending 31st December 1966. This was due to a combination of factors, including a fall in the price of cement and a rise in the cost of raw materials. The company's revenue for the year was $2,100,000, a decrease of 10% on the previous year. The directors are recommending a dividend of 20% on the ordinary shares, which amounts to 20 cents per share. This is a 10% increase on the dividend of the previous year.

Uganda Tributed New Currency

Uganda has introduced a new currency, the Uganda Shilling, which is equal to 100 Uganda Pounds. The new currency was introduced on May 20, 1959, and is designed to encourage car assembly plants in the country.

Plans for car assembly plants in Uganda had not been altogether broad, although in this field, too, an Assistant Minister for Industry, Mr. Ombaka, will be appointed in the course of the week.

Answering Mr. S. B. Saha, a Member of Opposition, Mr. Ombaka said that the Government was planning to set up a car assembly plant in Uganda. The plant would be set up in Kampala and would be financed by the Government.

The exact day on which the new currency would be introduced was not yet known. It was expected that the new currency would be introduced in the course of the week.

UGANDA LIFT SUSPENSION ON BOXER

Ouma returns to training camp after behaviour promise

MATHIAS OUMA, the Ugandan middleweight boxer, has returned to his training camp after a suspension of two years and has been readmitted to the Uganda A.B.A. and the National Council of Sports as a member of the executive committee of the Uganda A.B.A. and the National Council of Sports.

Ouma had his suspension lifted after he had apologized in a letter and had given the assurance of good behaviour and conduct in the future. The N.C.S. on the recommendation of the executive committee of the Uganda A.B.A. decided to recall Ouma when it met on Monday yesterday. A spokesman of the N.C.S. said yesterday that Ouma had, however, been warned that any further breach of conduct in future would warrant "summary" being taken.

EGYPT REJECTS

Half freedom key to crisis says Israel

Israel has rejected American proposals for a settlement of the Middle East crisis, including President Johnson's statement that the restriction of any shipping in the Gulf of Aqaba would be an act of aggression. The authoritative Cairo newspaper "Al-Ahram" reported yesterday.

The American Ambassador-designate to the U.A.R., Mr. Richard Nolte, presented the American ideas, which he described as "points of view" or "thinking aloud" rather than demands, to the Egyptian Foreign Minister, Mr. Mahmoud El-Hadi. The office of Al-Ahram said yesterday in an editorial that the arrangement between the U.A.R. and Israel was inevitable and could happen at any time and anywhere on the confederation.

Mr. Nolte was bound to come, said Mr. Mohamed Hassan Haykal, because it was economically important for Israel that she should be able to pass through the Gulf, which has been sealed off by Egypt.

No time limit

No time limit has been imposed by Israel for the reopening of the Gulf, although officials in Tel Aviv said the shipping lane was the key to the white crisis. Removal of the blockade was a matter of great urgency.

"We do not believe there is a great deal of time to wait," an official said. "The situation is moving into this heavily loaded, but we are not giving any time limit."

Both Israel and the U.A.R. are expected to meet in the near future. The meeting is expected to be held in the U.A.R. and will be attended by the Egyptian Prime Minister, Mr. Ismail Sidki, and the Israeli Prime Minister, Mr. Levi Eshkol. KENYA URGED TO BE VIGILANT OVER FOREIGN AID STRINGS

No foreign currency ever gave money to another — however high or low — without strings attached. Dr. F. R. S. De Souza (Karni, Parklands) told the National Assembly yesterday.

Whether Britain or Western countries had "purposely" given their own money, Dr. De Souza said, it was very dangerous to take up foreign finance, he said. Dr. De Souza said the case of the American Central Intelligence Agency being blamed in a British newspaper for a British intelligence agent for the overthrow of the Government in Guatemala. "I would like to appeal to the Government that we take action to stop the American Central Intelligence Agency from doing this in Kenya, and that we take action to stop the American Central Intelligence Agency from doing this in Kenya."

Concessions over long delays at airport

TOURISTS arriving at Mombasa Airport on a charter flight from Europe are having to wait up to two hours to complete formalities on landing because of lack of staff and facilities to deal with the increased holiday traffic.

This year, groups which would have flown direct to Mombasa on jet aircraft will have to fly from Nairobi and then be taken by East African Airways because the airport is not able to take larger jets on passenger flights.

Although the Civil Aviation Authority has issued regulations which would allow the Mombasa and Coast Tourist Associations to operate charter flights, the Civil Aviation Authority is not yet ready to issue the necessary licences.

EGYPTIAN GUNS OPEN FIRE

Russia will fight says Col. Nasser

Artillery and machine guns opened fire on Israeli farmers today near the border of the Gaza Strip in one of the most violent incidents of the current Middle East crisis, an Israeli Army spokesman said.

The Egyptians also fired on a military patrol car in the border area. One soldier was injured. The Israelis returned the fire. It was the first incident of its kind for almost ten years on the Israeli-Egyptian border, where the United Nations Peace Force stood guard until it was withdrawn 10 days ago at the U.A.R.'s request.

According to President Nasser, Egypt had said yesterday by his received a message to this effect from the Soviet Premier, Mr. Khrushchev.

It also pledged to aid the Soviet Union should it not allow any country to interfere, and return the situation to what it was before 1956.

BOOM IN BRING HEALTH

BOOM IN BRING HEALTH
The boom in bringing health to the masses is being witnessed in many parts of the world. In the United States, the health care system is expanding rapidly. In Europe, the focus is on preventive care and public health. In Africa, the challenge is to build a health infrastructure from scratch.

Support for secession unlikely
At the same time, there will be little enthusiasm in African countries generally for the Eastern Federation. Apart from tribal differences which have not been averted, the Congo and Katanga have since the Eastern Region in Nigeria's interest.

CARGO DANGER
The development of international cargo services is the healthiest aspect of the regional air transport industry. It is a key to economic growth and development in the tropics. However, the high level of aviation loss is a major barrier to the development of air transport.
