

S. RHODESIA LAND BILL OPPOSED

Second reading after division

AFTER a division in which the Government's Rhodesia Land Appropriation Amendment Bill was read a second time in Parliament at Salisbury.

In his reply to the debate the Minister of Native Affairs, Mr. P. Fletcher, announced the Government was prepared to accept several amendments to the bill, but at the division of 19 members who voted against the bill belonged to the Government Party. Voting was 19 for and 12 against.

The Land Appropriation Amendment Bill provides for the establishment of public rental hotels and clubs in the country for services to be granted to African professional men" to be granted in those areas in certain circumstances and for African students, lecturers and residents to live on the sites of Rhodesia University city, which is in the township of Salisbury.

Replying to the debate on the bill, Mr. P. Fletcher said it had been suggested that the Government had by its attitude to introduce legislation of this kind, but only after failure in the history of responsible Government in Southern Rhodesia given such a clear mandate to govern. This Government has the vision of the future in the Government Party. (Theater)

The United States Atomic Energy Commission has said it has no information that any H-bomb tests in the Antarctic. The commission's statement was issued in Washington as a result of a report that the United States had conducted an H-bomb test in the Antarctic. The report was based on a statement by a New Zealand pilot who was flying over the Antarctic when he saw a large explosion in the sky.

An official spokesman for the commission who earlier had refused to comment on the report said: "We plan no hydrogen bomb tests in the Antarctic region." (Theater)

CORRESPONDENCE

Salaries of Legislators

To the Editor: I read from the East African Standard that a Committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Norman Harris is to be set up to study the question of salaries of the members of the Legislative Council.

I have written a private letter to your editor on this subject of what is one of the most important as well as a subject to be the almost contemptuous remuneration of the Executive Members of our Legislative Council, and these were one of two letters to reply from your readers on the subject of what is one of the most important as well as a subject to be the almost contemptuous remuneration of the Executive Members of our Legislative Council.

I wonder if any will agree with me that the Executive Members of our Legislative Council should receive pay on a par with the Executive Members of other Governments. It has been said that the Executive Members of our Legislative Council should receive pay on a par with the Executive Members of other Governments.

It is a matter of fact that the Executive Members of our Legislative Council should receive pay on a par with the Executive Members of other Governments. COLD PRESIDENT NEGUB RELIEVED OF POST

RECEPTION FOR SOVIET PROPOSAL

European security conference urged

'BID TO HOLD UP WEST GERMAN REARMAMENT'

RUSSIA'S call for an international conference on November 29 to consider her repeated demands for a European Security Pact has been received with interest in Western capitals. The general interpretation is that it is a bid to prevent French and West German ratification of the recent London and Paris agreements on West German rearmament.

The Russians have invited 28 European nations and the United States to the proposed conference, to be held in either Moscow or Paris. China has been invited as an observer nation.

It is pointed out in diplomatic quarters, however, that this latest Russian proposal is, in effect, a revival in more concrete form of the European Security Pact first proposed at the Berlin Four-Power Foreign Ministers' conference in February, 1954. Western Ministers rejected it then on the grounds that it would harm the North Atlantic Pact.

PESSIMISTIC REACTION IN WESTERN CAPITALS

THE United States and the other Western Powers are very sceptical to the Soviet proposal, which is expected to support the American position. It is generally assumed that the Soviet proposal is not to be taken with Russian unilateral ratification of the Paris agreement.

It is "reasonably" assumed that the Paris agreement is "reasonably" assumed.

Mr. John Foster Dulles, the American Secretary of State, said at a Press conference that he would not be bound to attend the Paris agreement for Germany.

The American State Department officials stated that the American position is "reasonably" assumed.

EGYPTIAN INQUIRY ORDERED ON GEN. NEGUIB

Alleged association with fanatics

COL NASSER TO ASSUME DUTIES OF PRESIDENT

EGYPT'S ruling military junta will try Gen. Neguib, who was deposed as President on Monday, if sufficient evidence is found to support the theory that he was connected with a Muslim Brotherhood plot to overthrow the régime.

A Revolution Council (named spokesman) said an immediate investigation into the alleged Muslim Brotherhood involvement in the alleged plot will be made against him and he will be brought to trial. The said latter in official spokesman accused Gen. Neguib of allowing himself to become a stamp card to be used by Communists and Muslim Brotherhood members in a death-capt to involve a popular cause.

Col. Nasser, the Prime Minister, will be the first to carry out the duties of President.

Bandwidth police searched Cairo ready to quell any violent demonstrations but as for the setting of the hour of the 20th, Army troops which deposed El-Farouk has been ordered to remain in their barracks and to stay where in the country.

Eight signs of dissension exist but extensive news of the situation in the desert of Gen. Neguib, Mr. Mubarak Zaki, the Minister of State for the Interior and of Gen. Neguib, who said that further Egyptian action against Communism and that further Egyptian action against Communism would have far-reaching international relations.

Rift Valley successes against 'splinter' gangs

MORALE OF AFRICANS BOOSTED

AFRICAN Home-Guards in the Rift Valley Province—and there are now about 6,000—are demonstrating their new morale and their willingness to fight the "splinter" gangs which are moving into the settled areas to avoid the intensified action of the security forces, and particularly the heavy armoured columns in the Aberdare.

For some time Home-Guards in the Districts of Baringo, Kericho and Maracha have been in the forefront, but more recently those in Masai Forest areas have been in action against small gangs which have slipped through into forested areas, some of which are so impenetrable as the Aberdare Mountains.

Their successes have boosted the morale of the troops and have given them a sense of self-reliance and a feeling of being more important, have shown them battle technique, that will prove invaluable in the event of a general attack from the Aberdare.

They have also shown that they are capable of carrying out operations which were once the province of the regular army, and that they are capable of carrying out operations which were once the province of the regular army, and that they are capable of carrying out operations which were once the province of the regular army.

Proved worth

C. T. H. Mwendy, Rift Valley Provincial Director of Home Guard, said it seemed likely that more Government support for the Home Guard would be forthcoming in the past year as a result of the successes which have been achieved.

Mr. Mwendy said that the Government had spent over £100,000 on the Home Guard in the past year, and that the Government had spent over £100,000 on the Home Guard in the past year, and that the Government had spent over £100,000 on the Home Guard in the past year.

WOMEN RECALLED FOR ALERTING HOME GUARD

Gang scouted in Njoro forest

A KIKUYU woman and her daughter, from the Chigcha village in the forest above Njoro, have each received a £10 bonus as a reward for supplying information as to the whereabouts of a Mau Mau gang in the area. The two women were cultivating their fields outside the perimeter of the stockaded Forest Department village when they were visited by six terrorists, taken into the forest and had the Mau Mau leader administered to them.

Later they were released and the women returned to their homes. They were allowed not to report their knowledge to the Forest Department, but to inform the Home Guard committee, which sent a patrol into the forest and killed one of them.

Further news in the forest was reported in the neighbourhood of the Chigcha village, and was reported in the neighbourhood of the Chigcha village, and was reported in the neighbourhood of the Chigcha village.

Security check in the Trans Nzoia

A security check of all Kikuyu in the Trans Nzoia District has been completed by the Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District. The check was carried out by the Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District, and was carried out by the Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District.

The Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District has reported that the check was carried out by the Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District, and was carried out by the Mau Mau Committee of the Trans Nzoia District.

WATCH WITH 16 HANDS

The Mau Mau situation is a complex one, with many different groups and interests involved. It is a situation that is difficult to understand, and one that is likely to continue for some time.

Labourers drive off 16 attacks

SIXTEEN of the 18 attacks by terrorists on labour lines in the Lower Rift areas, during the past two weeks were beaten off by African labourers. If not for the efforts of these labourers, the situation would have been much more serious.

Kenya inquiry refused

THE British Government has refused to allow a full-scale inquiry into the Mau Mau situation in Kenya. The Government has decided that the situation is too complex to be dealt with by a full-scale inquiry.

Conscription urged

THE Government has urged conscription in Kenya. It has said that conscription is necessary to deal with the Mau Mau situation, and that it is necessary to have a large number of men in the armed forces.

Trade Unionism
While action and horror in the Emergency continue to dominate the public attention, the constructive movement proceeding quietly in the background is the future way of life in Kenya. THE NEW GOODYEAR

TUBELESS TYRE

TYRE experts have known for years that if the tubeless tyre could be properly developed, it would offer great advantages to the motorist. Thanks to Goodyear's exclusive Grip-Seal Construction—the key to a really! You can equip your car with a tyre so different, so simple that a tube is no longer needed!

Goodyear challenged the world's toughest stunt drivers to TRY and damage the new TUBELESS SUPER-CUSHION

Goodyear's New Kind Of Tubeless Tyre Takes Smashing Impacts Without Damage—Because It Utilizes New Methods Of Construction

Goodyear challenged the world's most daring stunt drivers to see if they could blow out new Goodyear Tubeless Tyres—told them to try to rip them off the rims.

And that wrecking crew put them through the most severe punishment a tyre has ever known—rocked them in a series of hair-raising turns, hammered them with two-wheel angle drops, pounded them with the force of a pile driver as the car leaped 8 feet in the air, then smashed down on a cement road over 70 feet away!

What happened?—nothing! Not a single tyre blew out or left the rim! Not a single pound of air was lost!

Such amazing performance is possible because Goodyear's exclusive Grip-Seal Construction makes this new kind of tyre the most efficient air container ever built.

Now you can have this sensational new Goodyear Tubeless Tyre for your car—COSTS NO MORE THAN A STANDARD TYRE AND TUBE.

Goodyear Tubeless Tyres fit present cars without wheel or rim change.

GOODYEAR'S GRIP-SEAL CONSTRUCTION MAKES THE TUBELESS TYRE PRACTICAL

Goodyear Tubeless Tyres are precision built, utilizing a new principle of Grip-Seal Construction. In this process, tyre cord is completely integrated with special rubber compounds. Every element, inside and out, is welded into one single airtight unit.

As a result, the new Goodyear Tubeless Tyre is the most efficient air container ever built!

Check the Advantages of NEW Goodyear Tubeless Tyres:

- ✓ ADDED PROTECTION AGAINST BLOWOUTS Heavy, long-life Tyre cord and Goodyear's exclusive Grip-Seal Construction resist blowouts caused by loss of seal, are insured at a sudden dangerous failure, with loss of air pressure plus parts warning.
- ✓ NEW FREEDOM FROM FLATS Grip-Seal Construction makes the air in a tyre. You'll have fewer flat tyres from punctures, lower road delays than ever before.
- ✓ NEW ASSURANCE OF SAFETY 100% cushion of shock-absorbing edges into the road. 400 down cut safety slots stand erect against dangerous slide.
- ✓ YOU SAVE WITH LONG MILEAGE New Goodyear design puts extra rubber on the road, makes every flat and groove share the wear evenly.
- ✓ ITS SILENT RUNNING Special structure suppresses objectionable straight-away bumps, makes steering easier on turns.

EXILED MITESA II CAN RETURN IF UKIKO CHOOSES

Uproar cuts short Governor's speech

BUGANDA CONSTITUTION REFORMS PROPOSED

From CHARLES HARRISON Kampala

THE Buganda Lukiko, if it accepts the recommendations for constitutional reform agreed on by the committee which sat under the chairmanship of Professor Sir Keith Hancock, is to be allowed to choose whether the exiled Kabaka, Mutesa II, shall return to this country.

This was announced by the Governor of Uganda, Sir Andrew Cohen, when he spoke to a crowded Lukiko last night.

He was unable to finish his speech, however, when uproar among a small number of legislators in the crowd surrounding the hall made it impossible for his voice to be heard.

The Governor waited for more than ten minutes, during which time the Lukiko (Prime Minister) and officials of the Uganda National Congress tried unsuccessfully to restore order.

Choice after nine months

Then, accompanied by the Resident, Buganda, Mr. C. A. L. Richards, and carrying his uncompleted speech in his hand, he left the hall and drove away through shouting crowds held back by lines of police.

The Governor rose to make his speech before a hushed audience, after a brief introduction from the Lukiko. He said he would first like to inform the Lukiko of the British Government's decisions, which the Secretary of State was announcing in the House of Commons.

He stated that the Lukiko, if it accepted the constitutional arrangements proposed, should be allowed to choose whether the exiled Kabaka should be selected or whether Mutesa II should return to the country.

Mutesa II should return to the country, if the Lukiko chooses to do so, and Mutesa II should return to the country, if the Lukiko chooses to do so.

Primary African Government

After what the Lukiko would like to see in the new Government, the Secretary of State will be asked to make his speech before a hushed audience, after a brief introduction from the Lukiko. He said he would first like to inform the Lukiko of the British Government's decisions, which the Secretary of State was announcing in the House of Commons.

He stated that the Lukiko, if it accepted the constitutional arrangements proposed, should be allowed to choose whether the exiled Kabaka should be selected or whether Mutesa II should return to the country.

Mutesa II should return to the country, if the Lukiko chooses to do so, and Mutesa II should return to the country, if the Lukiko chooses to do so.

Statement in the Commons

A statement was made in the House of Commons on November 16, 1954, by the Secretary of State, Mr. Harold Clegg, regarding the proposed constitutional arrangements for Uganda.

Mr. Clegg stated that the British Government was committed to the principle of a primary African Government in Uganda, and that the Government was prepared to accept the recommendations of the Hancock Committee, provided that the Lukiko accepted the proposed arrangements.

Mr. Clegg also stated that the British Government was prepared to accept the return of Mutesa II to Uganda, if the Lukiko so desired.

More Shoots and Cheering

The Lukiko members were seen to cheer and shout as the Governor finished his speech and left the hall.

The atmosphere was one of excitement and anticipation, as the members of the Lukiko awaited the decision of the British Government regarding the proposed constitutional arrangements for Uganda.

THE CONDITIONS

The conditions for the return of Mutesa II to Uganda are as follows:

- The Lukiko must accept the proposed constitutional arrangements.
- The British Government must be satisfied with the proposed arrangements.
- Mutesa II must be willing to return to Uganda.

U.S. gift of atomic fuel to agency members

POWER EQUAL TO TEN BOMBS

AMERICA has allocated 220 lbs of fissionable material to serve as fuel in experimental atomic reactors in other countries. This was disclosed by Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge, the United States delegate during the United Nations Committee's debate on the Western plan for an international agency to develop the peaceful atomic energy.

Tourism a vital factor in East African economy

Tourism is becoming an increasingly important factor in East Africa, and it can play an even greater part in the future, Mr. Henry Cabot Lodge said in a speech before the East African House of Representatives in Nairobi on November 10.

Reply to criticisms

Mr. Lodge referred to Soviet accusations that President Eisenhower's plan had been "imposed" on Africa. He said that the 220 lbs of fissionable material was for experimental reactors only, and that the United States would not export any atomic material to any country without the consent of the International Atomic Energy Commission.

LUKIKO APOLOGY TO UGANDA GOVERNOR

PROUD OF PEOPLE'S DEVOTION'

London comment by Kabaka

Public scene during speech 'shameful'

CONSTITUTION REPORT TO BE STUDIED

THE Buganda Government is to apologise to the when agitators prevented Sir Andrew Cohen from reading a speech to the Lukiko on the future of the exiled Kabaka, the Katiko (Prime Minister), Mr. Paul Kavuma, said yesterday that it was "shameful".

While the Lukiko itself had been well behaved, he said, members of the public had behaved badly. Several unauthorised persons of the public would have allowed to enter the compound surrounding the Lukiko Hall. The Katiko was addressing a crowded meeting of the Katiko and members of the Constitutional Committee were present. The meeting took place a tranquil atmosphere.

The report was received by the Constitutional Committee, contemplating the reforms of the Hanscock Commission. Sir Andrew Cohen had prepared a report on a basis on which to allow the time and the time for the reconvening of the Katiko said that they would discuss the report at a later date.

Power agreement 'will not be rushed'

PLEDGE BY ADVISORY BOARD CHAIRMAN

PREMATURE disclosure of negotiations between the Kenya Power Co. and the Uganda Electricity Board regarding the proposed power purchase agreement, the most favourable terms of an agreement on the part of the East African Power and Lighting Board, the Nairobi Chamber of Commerce on Tuesday night.

He was answering Mr. I. Sommer who urged the Council to support the objection to the Nairobi City Chamber to the granting of a bulk supply licence to the Uganda Electricity Board until the complete proposals were made known.

After hearing Mr. Sommer and the Uganda Electricity Board representative, Mr. E. J. Adcock, who is Chairman of the Nairobi Chamber, said that "it is not the intention of the Board to disclose the details of the agreement until the complete proposals are made known."

Mr. Sommer pointed out that the Kenya Power Co. had agreed to supply power to the Uganda Electricity Board for a maximum price in the range of 10 to 15 cents per kilowatt-hour. He said that the Kenya Power Co. had agreed to supply power to the Uganda Electricity Board for a maximum price in the range of 10 to 15 cents per kilowatt-hour.

Should a bulk supply licence be granted, however, and should the scheme be sanctioned, the Kenya Power Co. would be required to supply power to the Uganda Electricity Board for a maximum price in the range of 10 to 15 cents per kilowatt-hour.

PROSPECTS IMPROVED BY DEFENCE

Better opportunity for negotiations

SIR ANTHONY'S REVIEW OF FOREIGN AFFAIRS

SIR ANTHONY EDEN told the House of Commons that if the West went on "calmly and steadily" with its new European defence plans, there would be better opportunities for negotiations with the Russians than for a long time.

The Foreign Secretary was opening a two-day debate on the London and Paris agreements for a German sovereignty and rearmament. He said they were "just another attempt to build an effective deterrent in Europe against any aggression."

Commenting on the Russian proposals for a European conference before West Germany was rearmed, Sir Anthony said: "We feel that, before any conference can be held, we must consolidate our own position and establish the unity of the West on a firm and enduring basis. We shall be ready to look to the future with greater confidence than we have been able to command at any time in our generation."

Socialist support for the treaties was pledged by Mr. Herbert Morrison, a former Foreign Secretary. Amid charges of servitude and slavery, to use their right and civil liberty because we become no longer willing to follow our part in and promote policies of freedom, democracy and peace and the prevention of war, we are no longer British. We begin to belong to the people of submission and surrender."

NUCLEAR FUEL RESTRICTIONS
Imposed on the West Germany when the former would make use of the world's stock of uranium. The British and American governments, for instance, could operate as an independent power source or move without petrol. The Commission can turn off the supply for the next two years unless nuclear production and import of nuclear fuel and equipment.

NEED TO KNOW AFRICAN WORKERS' COMPLAINTS STRESSED

Federal T.U.C. urges African advancement

THE General Council of the Federation of Trade Unions of Rhodesia and Nyasaland has urged the Northern Rhodesian Mining Workers' Union to continue its efforts to find a solution to the problems of African advancement on the Copperbelt.

The General Council in its latest report suggested that the Government should take a lead in this regard. A resolution passed in Bulawayo after a discussion on the report called for the Government to take the lead in this regard.

"Just this Trade Union Congress recommends the Northern Rhodesian Mining Workers' Union to continue negotiations in a sincere and honest manner in a search for the solution to the advancement of the Africans in the copper-mining industry."

"Furthermore, the trade union principles to be observed in the interests of the trade union and the industry as a whole, and that the Trade Union Congress give full active support to the Northern Rhodesian Mining Workers' Union."

It was stated that all branches of the Northern Rhodesian Mining Workers' Union had reported the commendations of the Congress Report.

RAIL SERVICES REDUCED IN THE RHODESIAS

Extra permits for road transport

To release more haulage space for coal and coke, the night mail train between Bulawayo and Salisbury is to be suspended twice a week in each direction. Two mixed trains will also be cancelled weekly in each direction but for passenger travelling to the Midlands.

It is stated that on days when the goods train on the route is the usual mixed service does not run.

Consideration had been given to a similar curtailment of passenger services in the Midlands, but because of the much greater distances involved, the lack of accommodation at night and the immediate lack of alternative road transport, this was abandoned.

45 per cent increase

With the improving performance of the Government's road improvement, the railways will be permitted to carry 45 per cent more vehicles than Union points in South African railway trucks to Bulawayo and in all directions.

Rhodesian plan for unions

IT was important for the Government of Southern Rhodesia to know whether workers in industry or elsewhere had just complaints, the Prime Minister, Mr. R. G. Gardfield Todd, told the Southern Rhodesian Parliament. It was agreed on his proposition to refer the Native Unions to a Select Committee.

He stated that the Government would be prepared to discuss the reasons for the complaints and allow the creation of a machinery to help farmers and Africans could bring it in.

Committee's powers

It is pointed out it would be possible for the Select Committee to go into the matter as widely as it wished. If necessary, a new Bill, he said, might be introduced in the future to give the African people more work than they were being given.

He stated that for the past two years he had been in the position of the Minister of the Interior in the Government of Southern Rhodesia. He said that the provisions of the Act which allows for the setting up of a trade union which would cover Northern and Southern Rhodesia, he said, were not very different from what they knew in their own surroundings.

By 1964, the tempo had increased considerably. The Northern Rhodesian Mining Workers' Union had reported the commendations of the Congress Report.

45 per cent increase

With the improving performance of the Government's road improvement, the railways will be permitted to carry 45 per cent more vehicles than Union points in South African railway trucks to Bulawayo and in all directions.

Communist's next move warning

POLITICAL ACTION IN S.E. ASIA FORECAST

MR. Malcolm MacDonald, United Kingdom Commissioner-General for South-East Asia, issued a warning today in Canberra that the Communist next move would be political penetration and economic propaganda, and to open the door for a Communist takeover.

He said supporters have been recruited in South-East Asia. They are being trained in the Communist movement, camps of 100, 300 and 500 men.

He said that the Communist movement in South-East Asia would be organized to penetrate and exploit the situation. He said that the Communist movement in South-East Asia would be organized to penetrate and exploit the situation.

'Eyes on Laos'

One of the most effective ways of preventing Communist military aggression in South-East Asia would be to have the Communists that if they tried that sort of thing, they would be met by force.

Mr. MacDonald said the Communists were doing what he would call a "penetration" from the north in Indochina. It would be a very serious matter if they have eyes on Laos and Cambodia also.

CHILDREN'S CHARTER TO END NEGLECT

Kenya Bill proposes heavy penalties for cruelty

The Government has introduced in the House a Bill to provide for the welfare of Kenya children by providing stringent penalties for neglect and cruelty to children in a Kenya Children's Charter. The Bill, which is to be introduced into the House tomorrow, contains many of the recommendations of the House Committee on Young Persons and the Department of Social Services. It covers a wide range of cases, including neglect, cruelty, and the care and protection of children. The Bill provides for the appointment of persons, known as Guardians, to look after the welfare of children in cases where the parents are unable or unfit to do so. It also provides for the removal of children from their parents' care in cases of neglect or cruelty, and for their placement in foster families or institutions. The Bill is a landmark piece of legislation in Kenya, as it marks the first time that the Government has taken such comprehensive steps to protect the welfare of its children.

South African farm guards plan

SUGGESTION BY RONGAI VALLEY ASSOCIATION

A SUGGESTION BY Sir Edward Bennett that South African guards be posted to guard Indian farms in the danger areas of Kenya was supported by 20 votes to three by the Rongai Valley Association.

Sir Edward said it was wrong to remove elderly people from farms by doing so the Government was playing into the hands of Mau Mau one of whose primary aims was to get Europeans off the land. He suggested also that the guards, one or two to each farm occupied by elderly people should be paid locally. He suggested also that the guards, one or two to each farm occupied by elderly people should not come under the control of Kenya officers in any way. They should be under their own officers and should be paid locally.

Mr. Bennett said he considered it would be a very serious matter if the South African guards were sent to local districts, and he suggested that the Government should be asked to withdraw that section of the proposal.

"Difficult to move"
The association's proposal was discussed by the Hon. Will Evers, Minister of Agriculture, and the Hon. Mr. C. M. Dawson, Minister of the Interior, and the Hon. Mr. C. M. Dawson, Minister of the Interior, and the Hon. Mr. C. M. Dawson, Minister of the Interior.

"Lack of co-ordination"
Mr. Evers elaborated on the minister's observations. He said that the Government was not co-ordinating the various departments in the matter of the guards. He said that the Government was not co-ordinating the various departments in the matter of the guards.

"Difficult to move"
Mr. Dawson said at present there were 300 guards in the district. He said that the Government was not co-ordinating the various departments in the matter of the guards.

ENJOYABLE LIFE 'ONLY BY HARD WORK'

Rail chief's advice to Africans

A DVICES to work hard if a comfortable and enjoyable life was wanted in the locations was given to Africans by Mr. A. F. Kirby, general manager of the East African Railways and Harbours, at the opening of a social ball at Mombasa.

"I said: 'If the people of the locations will support the railway and show their interest in it, we shall soon see the day when we are trying to destroy what we are trying to build."

ART EXHIBITION HAS THREE DAYS TO GO

Only three more days remain in which to visit the latest Kenyan Arts Exhibition, in the Memorial Hall, Nairobi, of the Kenya Arts and Crafts Society.

Knowing the wide interest in art throughout East Africa—a fact evidenced in the widespread pleasure from which many of the 200 entries were received—we have chosen a selection of specimens from those on show to turn Page Seventeen, this week, into a miniature art gallery.

Then we have Mrs. E. Rowan's oil painting called "Fringing" in which soft glowing colours and contrast in textures are well portrayed.

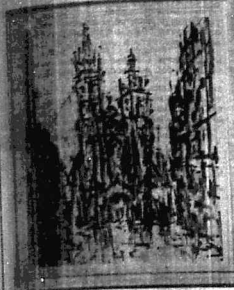

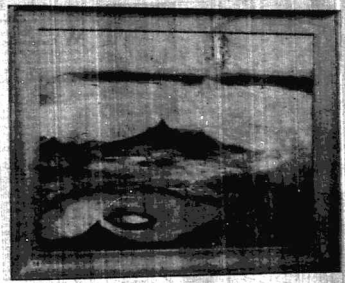

Third is a wood and printing picture, done by Mrs. Alice Hunter by Mrs. Joyce Butler, of Nairobi.

The fourth painting, reproduced from the brush of Bruno di Sopra—is called "Shallow Waters", an oil which shows masterly treatment of a vast expanse of water.

The third painting in our "gallery" here is "Hampton Court Palace" by Mrs. Helga Saunders, executed in line and wash. The solidity of the building and the suggestion of detail combine to make a most attractive composition.

Last of all are the delicate detailed studies by Lance Corporal M. Jackson, a member of the Forces, who sent in several entries.

SHELL WOOD PRESERVATIVES

No. 50 & 35

For The Protection of Timber.

Shell preservative gives maximum protection against BORES, termites, beetles, rot and ROT (fungal diseases).

The wood preservative consists of a solution of pentachlorophenol and other ingredients in kerosene of 50/50 (equal measure). This, when the wood permeates, provides the impregnation is carried out thoroughly and surface protection is retained in the timber.

The Advantages of Shell Wood Preservatives:

Greater absorption and retention.

The main active ingredients are dissolved in mineral oils of a high penetrating power. After the evaporation of the oil the preservative remains in the wood giving permanent protection.

No leaching.

Shell preservative is usually insoluble in water and consequently cannot leach out in rain or other water.

No Warping or other effects.

Oil does not effect the shape of the timber and no change occurs during or after the treatment and after the evaporation of the oil timber can be readily painted.

A. P. HERBERT Writes About HIMSELF

As an author? Well, my father said I was to be not at all queer; and I am having a good one if I had made a mistake.

At Oxford I studied law, and I am proud to have been a member of the Honourable Society of the Inner Temple. I was called to the Bar, with distinction, in 1907. I was called to the Bar, with distinction, in 1907. I was called to the Bar, with distinction, in 1907.

Great fun
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago. I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

A. P. Herbert photographed in his own chamber, the Water Club, on the River Thames.

Fatal germ
But the fatal germ...
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

Lower and lower
Then I went lower...
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

Books of verse
For this year...
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

Don't die
So for a double...
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

Famous men
In my youth...
I have more than anybody. As I have said, I started writing about a year ago.

My father said I was to be not at all queer; and I am having a good one if I had made a mistake.

AMONG THE NEW BOOKS

DESIGNED TO SATISFY

UNDER REVIEW

This week we have three books by Lawrence Sanders which are of hefty proportions. The shortest, running to 447 pages and the longest, to 666.

It is to be taken for granted that Sanders is a man of letters, and that he is a man of deep thought and wide experience.

HERE, then, are three of the most popular books of the week. Each is well written, each is well illustrated, and each is well priced.

The obvious pride and enjoyment shown by all GRUNDIG radio owners is the result of many years' painstaking research and experiment into radio design and construction.

PERCY THE SPURRING by Philip Haughton

PERCY THE SPURRING found its way into the hearts of many a child. It is a story of a boy who is a bit of a mischief-maker, but who is also a very good friend.

POOR ME!

POOR ME! I might have known that I was starting some of the worst of my troubles. I suggested, two weeks ago, and quite by the way, with my tongue in my cheek, that this child should travel by sea.

EXILED MUTESA II CAN RETURN IF LUKIKO CHOOSES

Uproar cuts short Governor's speech

BUGANDA CONSTITUTION REFORMS PROPOSED

From CHARLES HARRISON Kampala

THE Buganda Lukiiko, which has been constituted for constitutional reform agreement by the committee which sat under the chairmanship of Professor Sir Keith Hancock, is to be reconvened to choose whether the exiled Kabaka, Mutesa II, shall return to his country.

The statement by the Governor of Uganda, Sir Gordon Gunga Munn, when he spoke to a crowded Lukiiko on Thursday.

It was unable to finish his speech, however, when some 50 small number of agitators in the crowd broke in and made impossible for the speaker to continue. The Governor waited for more than ten minutes during which time the Lukiiko (Prime Minister and members of the Uganda National Congress tried unsuccessfully to remove order.

Choice after nine months

It was announced by the President, Buganda, Mr. Mutesa II, and carrying his uncompleted speech in his hand, left the hall and drove away through shouting and banging of lines of police.

The Governor's brief introduction from the Lukiiko, was intended to inform the Lukiiko of the British Government's decision which the Secretary of State was making in the House of Commons.

It was stated that the Lukiiko, if it accepted the constitutional arrangements proposed, should allow nine months for the Government to make arrangements to receive the exiled Kabaka, Mutesa II, should return as ruler of Buganda.

There was a burst of applause, cheering, clapping and singing from the gathered crowd, both inside and outside the hall, when the Governor announced the Government's intention to accept that it was intended that the exiled Kabaka and the Governor was able to continue. He then went to read the announcement being made by the Colonial Secretary in London. It read—

"In recent months two new factors have emerged. One is the fact that the Lukiiko has decided to accept the proposal of the Government to return to Kampala. The other is the fact that the Lukiiko has decided to accept the proposal of the Government to return to Kampala. This agreement is being proposed to the Great Britain."

"At the same time, the Government has decided to accept the proposal of the Lukiiko to return to Kampala. This agreement is being proposed to the Great Britain."

These changes, which also provide for an increased representation by the Lukiiko in the Legislative, are intended to give the Government a more complete and effective representation in the Kingdom of Buganda.

The Lukiiko has also decided to accept the proposal of the Government to return to Kampala. This agreement is being proposed to the Great Britain."
