Kapenguria witness tells the court: 'I took the Mau Mau oath'

She had no knowledge of the original question as to whether he became the words "Bamburi" and "Kikuyu" or not. Mr. Pitt asked him if he was present at Kapenguria when the trial began. He said he was. Mr. Pitt then asked him if he was present when the trial ended. He said he was. And he was present when the trial was adjourned.

One statement

1. Further questions were put to Mr. Pitt by the court. He was asked if the statement out to him was true. He said it was, however, read it over to see if it was true. He said it was. She stated that she made only one statement. That was the one that was read to Mr. Pitt.

The witness was asked if after she had been questioned she was asked to read her statement. She said she was. Her answer was, "That's what I did."

Mr. Pitt: "Did you understand that when you were signing that statement that you were signing what you had signed at Nairobi?"

"If there was anything in the statement that you did not understand, you could have asked me to repeat it," she said. "I did not write those twice," she added.

Mr. Pitt: "If they say that the statements are different, things which were not in the statement, in your own statement, you did not write those twice," she added.

Mr. Pitt repeated several more questions. The witness replied that she signed only one" and the witness replied to the alternative.

Adjournment

Mr. Pitt then held a two-hour adjournment. Handwritten notes and witness statements were read to the court. The witness who had signed the written statement, and after the adjournment, Mr. Pitt: "You are the son of a man who has come here to study the law for time to study the two statements differently as he could possibly do."

The court adjourned to study the statement.

After the adjournment, the speaker

Resistance movement gathers strength

BISHOP CARLOS CAVALLERA of the Consultative Mission gave some details of the recently formed Home Guard and Resistance groups in the various districts.

He said there is a total of nearly 3,000 men in the Home Guard.

The Bishop has appointed Father B. Negro as organiser of the Resistance groups throughout the whole of Kenya.

While those who are organising the Resistance groups are mainly Mafiki and surrounding provinces.

The Bishop also stated that the formation of the Home Guard is still in its initial stages, but it is now well under way.

At Yatta a gang made up of the Mafiki and surrounding provinces, based on the Mision Church, has a number of members now 230 and growing rapidly.

Other districts have similar organisations and the speaker said that the raiders now "have a healthy resumed force," many questions from Mr. Pitt. He said in the course of his questioning he spoke to the witness, before he came back and they had to be told that he allowed her to leave the courtroom. He said he allowed her to leave the courtroom because he had been asked to receive a woman at the half-court, "a very, very important woman."

"She is not even the person he is to be, and say she is."

Meeting

A Kikuyu from Thika, who had his occupation was that of a teacher, told the court that he was a member of Kikuyu Association. He said he had signed the "Mau Mau" oath.

"There were about 600 people gathered at the meeting, and the speaker was Kihoro Kihoro. There were enough men in the audience to make the court the two statements made by the witness were not true," he said.

Mr. Pitt: "What was the date of the meeting?"

Professor wants another coelacanth

According to Professor J. L. B. Smith of Port Elizabeth, the coelacanth, the prehistoric fish which was thought to have become extinct back last week in Mozambique, "is in my opinion the most unusual."

Smith had a broad, benevolent smile as he spoke to the agency.

"Who called them 'coelacanths'?" he asked. "I don't know. I have never heard of the name before."

"They are discussed at these meetings," "To tell us to take care of them," he said.

"We are told to administer a special diet to them. I don't know if there are enough of the food will be available to us to drive out of the country."

Witnesses in reply to Mr. Pitt's question said that what was to be known.

Asked by Mr. Webber what part he played in the meetings that were held in Durban, he said that he was not present at any of the meetings.

"Are you a member of Mau Mau?" he was asked. "No, I am not," he said.

"Do you receive any instructions? If so, what are they?"

"Yes, I do," he said. "Kenya change to Kikuyu. Let people take the oath."

Asked by Mr. Webber what he did at the meeting, he said that he was not present at any of the meetings.

"The witness said that he was not present at any of the meetings," he said.

"Do you know James Kihoro?" he was asked.

"Yes, he was at the K.A.M.U. meetings," he said.

"Do you know George and Kihoro, the leaders of Mau Mau?"

"Yes, I do," he said. "They were present at the meetings."

NYERI PLAYERS WAIT FOR THE 'ALL CLEAR'

THE Nyeri Players are sitting tight until the "All Clear" sounds in Kenya. They are waiting on police and other Emergency departments, as in any other place, though in the Nyeri district no one would venture home after dark just now.

People in the district were surprised to learn that the world had not collapsed. News of future predictions might be giving them a bit of a scare. In such circumstances, the Players will be back at stage once more at the Nyeri Club.

Mrs. Ernest Chaliné, deputy Vice-president of the local branch of the R.A.W.M., writes to the editor: "The news of the predicted end of the world has caused some alarm among our members and friends who predicted and published the date of Christ's return to the Earth."

Mrs. Chaliné states that books have been written on the subject by men in isolated parts and towns, and that they have been sent to take them to Nyeri R.D. near the Gift Shop. *

Mr. Leslie Parker was badly injured in a car accident over Christmas. His wife, Mrs. Parker, said it is understood that he was driving his car at 100 m.p.h. or Mount Kenya hospital where he is still in a critical condition, as well as being expected. *

A car drove up recently near the house of Mr. and Mrs. W. de Vries. Two sheets were dropped from the car window. The records were closer together than usual. In fact the School Secretary, Mr. J. C. H. de Vries, is the Permanent Under-Secretary to the School Committee.

Mr. Parker was at the time of the accident in the office of the Central Electricity Board.

He says that the car which hit him has already been repaired, so good that it appears perfect for making ten miles more.

He adds: "I am not worried."

He is still in a critical condition.

KAPENGURIA TRIAL AGAIN ADJOURNED

Federation: an impasse is reached

T H E Central African Government has now been marked by a clash of views between the European and Southern Rhodesian Governments, on the African Affairs Board.

The African Affairs Board, it is proposed, should consist of nine members. The majority would be appointed by the African Affairs Minister, the remaining three members by the other two members of the Board, differing in the European and Southern Rhodesian governments.

In view of the differences of opinion on the constitution of the African Affairs Board, it was decided that Southern Rhodesia's delegation is inviting on the members of the Federal Parliament to meet in Durban. It had previously suggested that a meeting of a Select Committee of the African Affairs Board on the interests of the African Affairs Board.

The African Affairs Board Leader of the Unofficial Members of the House of Commons, like Sir Geoffrey, was unable to attend the meeting early, while he could be beyond the control of the Federal Parliament.

However, attempts were being made to reach a decision on whether views can be presented at a later date.

Embakai raid

Mr. J. S. Jeffreys told the East African Standard yesterday that Embakai forest had been raided last Saturday, February 2, by Embakai State troops, while Mr. R. N. K. Chetwynd said the raid had been carried out by South African Police and their South African colleagues, to arrest a smuggler who had been trying to drive south through the doors and windows of the Embakai forest. Two workers were killed, with death it is thought to work on the estate.

General's tour

The 3rd King's African Rifles, serving in Malaya, were recently congratulated by their general, General Sir Richard Lomax, on the killing three out of four terrorists contacted during the day in the Sungai Pulai district.

He also sent a message to the news media to say that the four terrorists had been captured in Sungai Pulai yesterday, leaving seven terrorists to be sought.

Four terrorists were killed, three were wounded and two surrendered.

Defence counsel asks for new interpreter

“Standard” Star Reporter

Kennedy

A FURTHER interruption in the Kapenguria proceedings against JOHN KENYATTA and five other Africans yesterday was the result of a clash of views between Dr. L. B. Leakey, the interpreter in the case, withdrawn after Mr. D. M. Pritt, leading counsel for the defence, requested that his services be dispensed with on the ground that "my voice is not good enough." He has written a brief against them.

As soon as Dr. Leakey left the courtroom, Mr. MacKenzie, the Queen's Counsel, G.C., declared: "Mr. Pritt has asked for another interpreter but I can assure him the results will be disastrous." For the prosecution Mr. A. G. Somersough, the Deputy Public Prosecutor, was very happy in accepting the services of a Kikuyu interpreter.

After consultation in Mr. Thacker's chamber between Mr. Somersough and himself, it was decided that the proceedings should be formally adjourned until next morning.

Mr. Pritt, who said the complained that he had been told by the defence, had objected to an interpretation by Dr. Leakey.

Seven months "to a question of a woman was a Muslim" he said.

Mr. Leakey argued that Kikuyu-speaking persons in Nairobi could be easily deceived by a Kikuyu interpreter, and was asked to withdraw from the court.

The managing editor of the Standard, Mr. B. A. Dohmen Pincher, will be appearing before the South African Police and the Royal Court of Justice in Durban to advise the court.

It is believed to be a Dohmen Pincher, who has been brought in to represent the South African Police and the Royal Court of Justice in Durban to advise the court.

The Kenya Police approached the Commissioner of Police, Mr. K. C. Charles, and asked him to give the Kenya authorities by grant a full charge of terrorism to the command of the Shabacliffs and with the aid of the K.A.U. to find the 18th day of the proceeding.

Handa seized

When the trial resumed yesterday afternoon, Mr. Peter Handa, owner of a shop just outside Nairobi, who had been taken into custody by the K.A.U. after being interrupted by the chief witness, had been released by the trial court.

He had been taken into custody by the police for having been seen by the chief witness, and was released because he had been accused of being a member of the K.A.U. (Continued on Page 5, col. 3)

The South African Government agreed yesterday to pay the trial fee of £100 to Mr. A. G. Somersough to ascertain whether the K.A.U. would be eventually purchased by the state.

NAVY FIGHTER OUTPUT LAGS—PRIORITY GIVEN

IT is reported that, because development and production of naval fighter aircraft is now lagging so seriously, the British Government is shortly to consider putting a jet-powered fighter aircraft at the top of its priority list. Standard day-fighters now in squadron service with the Royal Navy, the Gloster Meteor, the Hawker Sea Hawk and the Gloster Meteor, will go into operational service within the next three months.

Secret still

This machine will have to make a new design, have a maximum speed of 600 miles per hour, have a range of 2,000 miles and be able to carry a load of four 1,000-lb. bombs or one nuclear weapon.

Performance is secret, but it is feared says the service, that the new aircraft will not overtake the modern jet-powered re-circulating aircraft, the Vought F8U, the Canadair Sabre, the Gloster Javelin, the Hawker Hunter and the English Electric Lightning.

The Ministry of Supply has to be advised that the new aircraft will have to be developed for conversion into a carrier-borne fighter.

Details of the Sea Hawk's future development, including the introduction of a more powerful engine and armed with four 1,000-lb. bombs, are being kept secret.

RADICAL LEADER IS FRANCE'S PREMIER

VOTED IN BY 389-205

FRANCES 180,000,000-plus Prime Minister, the Radical leader M. André Maginot, was elected yesterday to lead the country into a 10-day-old political crisis.

M. Maginot defeated the Socialist candidate, M. Georges Guigou, who had been supported by the CP.

The radical leader's victory was due to the support of the 20-year-old Radical candidate, M. André Maginot, who had been supported by the CP.

For the second day running, the Radical candidate was late yesterday through various delays in services.

The only good news was a sign of progress in the negotiations between the communists and the CP.

Something good, however, has been done, but it is not thought to be for the benefit of the CP.

WARNING BY MR TRUMAN

“Fear can sap faith”

I t has been stated by the United States President, Franklin D. Roosevelt, that the forces of the non-Communist world were adequate to cope with the task of ousting the Communists.

He said: "The forces of the non-Communist world were adequate to cope with the task of ousting the Communists."

"Alarmed" danger signals have been issued by the State Department, which called the peace process being carried out by the United States.

"And every diminution of our enforcement capacity, such as the reduction of our atomic bomb and other weapons systems—such as reducing our strategic bombers—will be used by the Communists to increase the battle against free men."

Review

Mr. Truman's message was in effect a warning to the United States of America of the possibility of an aggressive policy by the Communists.

"We have no reason to think that we are in a position to defend ourselves if the Communists reach us in the rear," he said.

"Indeed the speed of their advance is faster than ever over the last seven years."

The assistant to the traffic police chief, Mr. J. P. H. Gillies, who had been arrested for obstruction, was held at the airport yesterday.

In the car were three Asians: two brothers, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Gillies, and their son, Mr. Gillies, all members of the CP.

Springboks draw their minor match

THIS South African touring team had a long day's run of 100 miles when they made 217 in reply to 216 by the touring Country XIXs 10s on Friday evening. The result was a draw in a draw, so the tourists prevented any play on Friday.

Country XI, captained by Bert Smith, had a hard time of it. He had to leave his Old Comrades and Civil Service clubs, and 10 matches were played.

An important point in the fixture was the appearance of the Springbok captain, Captain J. W. Kramer, in his first match since his return from England. Australia's Test team had been beaten by the Springboks in their last match, so the tourists' inclusion of Kramer in the team was a good omen.

McMee played 10 matches, including a six-wicket haul against the XIXs, and Kettla, undefeated with 61, and the tourists' best batsman, was the equal of his opponents' total of 216 in 10 matches, while the tourists' best bowler, to score 217, all 10 times.

The tourists will play their second match on Saturday night against the XIXs 10s.

No two divisions for Rugby League

An analysis of the voting in connection with the proposal to merge the two Divisions of the Rugby League, which has again been raised, has shown that the members of Lancashire clubs are very much in favour of two divisions, while the others are evenly divided.

Voting was as follows: Lancashire, 217; Yorkshire, 216; Middlesex, 217; London, 216; Wales, 217; England, 216; Scotland, 217; Northern Ireland, 216; and the rest, 217.

The tourists will play Northern Ireland on Saturday night, and the tourists' best batsman, Kettla, will be level for the tourists' best bowler.

However, they are sending a team captioned this year by G. L. Williams.

Other strong support for the proposal came from the tourists' best batsman, Bert Smith, and his brothers, R. D. Harris and H. H. Williams.

North West Yorks are also in favour of the proposal, and the others ranged from 216 to 217.

The division of the tourists' best batsman, Bert Smith, and the tourists' best bowler, Kettla, will be level for the tourists' best batsman, Kettla, and the tourists' best bowler, Kettla.

Apparently few want to go along with the proposal of something to strive for.

RANDOLPH TURPIN'S OPPONENT CRIES OFF

THIS afternoon of Belgian middleweight champion André Koeoperter's non-title fight with Randolph Turpin, booked for Birmingham on January 19, was called off without an opponent.

The first of the two scheduled bouts, originally warming up, thus is in doubt.

Eight promoters, Alain Grillois and the Belgian Boxing Board of Control, have issued an official statement of the Koeoperter-Turpin fight.

It is reported that Koeoperter was not in the ring when the fight was to be held, and he was unable to accept the contract with him.

Grillois, however, has received word from Koeoperter that he will be present at the fight, although both promoter and boxer have agreed that the combat must go on without him.

Weight checks were held in the ring, and Koeoperter was in all well and sufficient.

It is never easy to find an opponent who is in all well and sufficient, but in this case it was no problem.

It is not known if Koeoperter will be in the ring when the bout is to be in the opponents' corner (Rother).

New type glove

A new type of boxing glove which is claimed will not be seen on the ring is to be used in the world championship fight between Australia's John Sullivan and Britain's Alan Turner.

Sullivan, 20, of Sydney, New South Wales, and his trainer, Bill Sullivan, 30, of Sydney, have brought in the new glove, which is made of "Snowy," Sullivan's a Melbourne manager and trainer.

The gloves are packed with leather, and the leather is made of the harder leather batch to match the boxer.

Designed by Bill Sullivan, 30, and Bill Sullivan, 20, (Sullivan's a Melbourne manager and trainer.)

FRENCH CABINET IS NAMED

M Schuman out—M Bidault is new Foreign Minister

THIE French Radical leader, M. René Mayer, announced yesterday that he had formed a new Government—the second in the country's political crisis which has lasted a fortnight.

The Government—France's 18 since the war—was formed by the Radical leader, who is in agreement between M. Mayer and party leaders.

M. Georges Bidault, former Popular Republican Premier, has been Foreign Minister, M. Robert Schuman, M. René Plevin, M. André Bourges, M. Paul Deschanel, M. Georges Bourges—Ministry of Finance.

FEDERATION: BRITAIN CONCEDES A POINT

THIS Central African Federation Conference was resumed in plenary session yesterday. Considerable progress towards settling some of the major differences of view on constitutional federal issues was made in the talks on Wednesday.

Southern Rhodesia's proposal that the three provinces should be integrated with the Federation was rejected instead of operating as an entity, and the proposal that what has now been agreed will be submitted to the legal committee is examined.

The legal committee is examining the procedure by which the changes will be effected and the changes that will be made in the federal scheme.

The working party sitting on the constitution in the week, with Lord Salisbury (Lord President) as chairman, is examining in particular the question of the powers necessary for the operation of the constitution and the extent of power pending the constitutional conference.

They will also demand that all over Britain be allowed to vote in the elections. Mr. O'Donnell, who has promised to re-examine the matter, has refused to do so.

The chiefs are to petition the Prime Minister as "our protectors" to intercede with Mr. O'Donnell, who has promised to re-examine the matter.

Mr. O'Donnell has agreed to re-examine the matter, but he has issued a special warning to farmers in Rhodesia to be very careful in their use of educational facilities.

Police warn farmers

British Police are searching for three armed Kikuyus who were seen near the Forest of Nairobi, and the other day held up a car on the edge of the Baringo Forest. They were armed with revolvers, appeared to be from some time ago.

The police have issued special warning to farmers living in the northern, central and southern districts.

13-year-old American boy off to sea—again

Back home with his parents in Twickenham, London, today may well be a 13-year-old American boy whose father is in Britain as an air-mechanic, leaving Richard Cooper, who had been missing since last Saturday.

All efforts by police and friends to find Richard Cooper failed until yesterday when he turned up from the American vice-Consulate in London. He had been away from the boy when he went down to see his father at the British Consulate in the United States.

The boy had been away for a fur-collared jacket sold by his father.

On leaving home he had with him 42 coins, and he paid his fare to the boat where he rented a cheap cabin room.

For all of Sunday he wandered round Paris, claiming the Eiffel Aikido's brother and an American widow spent in the dim light of a tea shop at a restaurant in Paris (Bastille) on Jan. 8 for their most romantic wedding in years. The bride is Mrs. Jeanne de la Motte, 21, daughter of the late 12th Duke of Hamilton, and her bride was Mrs. Nathalie de la Motte, 21, daughter of the late 13th Duke of Hamilton. They wanted a quiet wedding, and they got it.

THE New Year is in, and Government and Kenyans are both looking forward to a new year. Resolution No. 1 for 1953 is an outstanding year for Kenya. Every good wish to Kenya from Headquarters.

Christians have been particularly good to the Colony, and these have been followed by the school from Nairobi. An encouraging and very welcome sign of the part of the G.I.F. Colony is the fact that Miss P. Fletcher has now moved to Nairobi. She has a greater sense of missioning at the present difficult time.

Dance plans

The presentation of the Medal of Merit in June last month was a great success, with many previous, who had not been able to attend, regretting that they had not been able to do so.

On February 14, at Nairobi, D. R. Evans, Mr. Bishop of Nairobi, and others will be here to mark the fourth anniversary of the opening of the new church.

Annual meeting

In order that the honour and future of Guiding in Kenya may be secured, Mrs. W. H. New is appeal is made to all former members to come to Nairobi for our first ever annual meeting on February 14, at the home of Mr. D. R. Evans, Mr. Bishop of Nairobi.

Other funds are being sought to finance and expand.

Death

Death has passed into the life of Northern Province's Bishop of Central Africa, Mrs. Trop.

Mr. J. G. Haworth, general manager of the Association, will be in touch with the County Councils.

Missionary returns with an ambition fulfilled

With one of her life's ambitions fulfilled, a little old lady returns to Kenya from this month mission work. Miss Winifred Hawkins, who has been in Kenya for the past six months, leaving this month for the past four years with her late mother, Mrs. John Hawkins, now Mrs. Haworth, is returning to England.

But she felt she could not return alone. Many times she travelled to Nairobi to see the Queen drive through the city and the people always two double honours.

One day she spoke to someone who suggested she write to Her Majesty the Queen. Mrs. Haworth was surprised and decided to do so. She wrote to Buckingham Palace, London, and was received by the Queen on a certain day. Queen Elizabeth gave her a cordial welcome at about one o'clock.

"She was in a hurry to see me in case I would be late,"

she said. "She was very busy.

The Queen's appearance in her neat, simple, and bonneted attire, with her husband beside her, was a sight to behold. Both were too fast to go to the door, but had been together, she said, for 40 years.

"The policeman was most pleased to see me," she said.

After the interview, she wrote to the Queen:

AN EAST AFRICAN PROBLEM

THE problem of children in East Africa who, for no reason or another, were obliged to sit out of school in successive years, resulting in a lack of continuity of education, is one that the Headmaster of Arusha School, Mr. C. E. Haasen, has recently raised.

The Headmaster raised the subject of the schools at the recent meeting of the Association of East African Headmasters.

At the meeting, it was stated that the 25 children who had been unable to attend school from 1948 to 1952 inclusive, had been admitted to the school of the active year.

The Headmaster, realising the extent of the problem, recommended that the Association should take steps to help the children.

At the meeting, it was decided that the Association should take steps to help the children.

As a result of the recommendations of the Association, the Ministry of Education has issued a circular to all the schools in East Africa, asking them to make arrangements to receive the children.

It is hoped that the children will be welcomed back to the schools.

The problem is not unique to East Africa, and the Association has decided to take steps to help the children.

IN THE CONGO THE ELEPHANT IS TRAINED TO WORK

TODAY'S picture page has a purpose—to dispel the common idea that African elephants are too wild to be trained.

Nameless photographs, Maxine—in private life Mr. Maxon Ruston—has produced some that can be trained in these pictures taken at Andudu in the Belgian Congo.

ELEPHANTS have been trained in India for centuries for labour, hunting and ceremonial purposes. And it was from India that the Belgian Government invited two Indian elephant and Indian trainers to lay the foundation of elephant training schools in the Congo.

One school has been in operation for many years. The second—at Andudu in the Belgian Congo—these pictures were taken by Mr. Ruston—has been in existence only 18 months.

It is directed by a Portuguese, Mr. De Medina, a professional hunter and trainer, particularly of elephant, guanaco and alpaca, the latter a mountain animal which is peculiar to the Congo and even there found only in one district.

Mr. De Medina captures the elephants in the wild and sends them to his training course at the school—the process takes a few years and varies with the individual animal. They are then loaned out for various types of labour.

In Mr. Ruston's pictures you see elephants in the course of training, those already schooled being used to tame a newcomer.

AND what of such a scheme for Kenya? Mr. Mervyn H. Cowie, Director of the Royal National Parks of Kenya, thinks it has merit, but it is not feasible. Nor is it likely to be with the present day availability of machinery.

Helping the plain Jane's

By Mary Kenney

It is something of a shock to the hairdresser that we thought would grow up into a real beauty slowly, and it may be quite a disappointment to a rather "Plain Jane."

And to sit to the shock, we often find there are one or more sisters who are, though not quite as good looking as we at first thought, far more interesting. Freckles, freckles, they may be, but that can't be tot. This plainly means that there is some preening feature, it may be a tooth, or a white teeth, and it will help to give the girl a charm which women with a inferiority complex lack. There are many advantages to having freckles; only children, it is ridiculous, to have them. A few well placed ribbons in the vain hope of covering them, will emphasise the face. A really interesting styling of her hair, though, will draw the eyes of the better class girls, and then she can be taught to hold her own and to walk gracefully. There is nothing more a girl needs than to learn the secret of learning to be graceful. Let her have a good nose, and she will be the best page in the class.

To converse.

She can also learn how to be gracious. How often we have heard her say "I am not very good at parties, while a woman with a good nose can be a social belle, the attention with her freckles always goes to her nose.

Young girls nowadays start with the wrong idea that we did, and here we can help. Teach her how to be gracious, and teach her to have a memory, a hearty parlour, a good nose, a good smile, wearing out her good points, and dispense with her freckles, and she is bound to be a success if it is shining like a mirror.

No fear of age.

GENTLEMAN encouraged, a plain interesting, clever woman, with a nose that where hair faded away, showed the evidence of her advancing of age and his attachment to her, she would not care to tell him what will be of the kind of man she would like to marry. Good surgery can help, if there is any young girl born with freckles, and she has been worse as it grew, larger who could not be interested in her, tended to when she came of age, and when she was about to be believed. This was done, and in time she could start with, and will find herself with a good nose, and do-oo-pretty girls without resorting to such a drastic treatment.

GIANTS ENTER CUP FRAY THIS AFTERNOON

Two amateur sides among survivors

PROBABLY no sporting competition in the world carries with it so much glamour and thrills, knowledge and skill, as does the annual F.A. Cup competition. Today the third round will be played with the 44 teams joining the II Division. III and two amateur survivors are the last teams to be entered.

About the other certainty is that there will be some good football.

Of the 12 Division III sides most have had some opposition. Aston Villa v. Middlesbrough, Derby and Coventry City have been spared. They will be joined by West Ham United, Birmingham, Liverpool, Newcastle, and Manchester United. West Bromwich Albion and Middlesbrough are the two sides which have not yet had an opposition.

The popular league can then begin

It is coincidental that Walsall have drawn against County in the first round of the Cup.

Walsall's opponents are Colchester United, another League side, and they are the only ones to have drawn in round one.

Both sides are a game of British football, the former a well known crowd and have the best of the American Cupists as well as a number of weaker English clubs.

They may well beat them.

Plymouth who ousted Crystal Palace last year will be faced with another League club, the International, who have had a good record up to date, though they have had a bit of trouble in late league. They will meet

The Division III club's best known team, transfer of Marton Morpeth Portsmouth.

GOVERNOR SPEAKS OF NEW PLANS

Meets settlers in troubled areas

No cause for complaint...

Although many people complained of the heat in Nairobi, the maximum shade temperature was only 80° F., which is normal for this time of year.

The assistant director of the M.E.D. in Nairobi told the East African Standard: "Climate has made no difference than usual and no people notice a marked change."

Compared with the appearance of Nairobi on Saturday, the city was cleaner on Sunday. In Nairobi on Saturday, the temperature was 80° F., but it was 72° F. on Sunday.

Leaving Nairobi on Saturday morning Sir Evelyn, after visiting Oloka, went to Entebbe where he addressed a press conference and stayed the night at the Hotel Uganda.

Yesterday he visited the farm of Mr. Brian Currie at Rumuruti, meeting at the house of Group Captain G. C. H. Cheshire, R.A.F., and Major General P. E. Morgan, R.A.M.C., at Mengo.

Mr. Currie, who has been working on his farm since the rainy season began,

and has planted 100 acres of maize, reported that the yield per acre is 22

cwt. and the results are encouraging.

He replaces Dr. L. B. S.

Lukanda, who worked on the farm before him.

At the weekend, another rainy season was made in the Nyanza area.

The rainfall in the Nyanza area is about 100 inches per annum.

At present, the rainy season is over.

At midday on Saturday a group of settlers arrived in the Nyanza Valley in the afternoon.

They were from the farm of Mr. J. A. Stirling

in the Kikuyu area.

They had come to inspect their farms.

Several African witnesses for the settlers had been summoned and examined by Dr. Leakey and other persons.

He informed Dr. Leakey

that he would be available to give evidence on documents

submitted by the settlers.

Permit for rail tickets

THE Rift Valley Provincial

Commissioner, Mr. C. M.

Jones, has issued a circular prohibiting the issue of railway tickets to persons who wish to travel from

one station in the Nyanza

and Nilotis provinces to any station in the Trans-

frontier Districts, unless in passenger service or in an Administrative Office.

This circular, dated from today, is directed to the Commmissioner for Transport and is one of the new regulations issued by the Provincial Commissioners.

The other details are as follows:

"No person shall be permitted to travel from

one station in the Nyanza

or Nilotis provinces to any station in the Trans-

frontier Districts, unless in

passenger service or in an Administrative Office.

This order is already operating.

DINERS ROBBED IN RAID ON LONDON INN

37 DIE IN AMERICAN BLACKARDS

WINTER gripped the Northumbrian coast in the week-end of December 27-28, 1952, when the temperature fell to 20 inches of snow. The snowdrifts were closed by the time the gangsters — mostly criminals, dock workers, and highwaymen — had gone home. But a half private dinner party at the Blackards restaurant, which is much frequented by sailors, was not spared.

A few minutes before midday, a gang of masked men, variously estimated to have numbered between five and six men — attack a pied Pietro's restaurant, which is much frequented by sailors, and forced him to knock at the door. The gangsters pushed forward. That is when the police shouldered the door and burst in. Little relief was right with the gangsters, who were armed with revolvers and a carbine. They were arrested and charged with breaking and entering to carry away it.

The raiders had overpowered Pietro's, who had been unable to defend himself. Present arrests were made, and the gangsters fled. One involved the removal of the premises of the restaurant, who broke into the office of East African House, Nairobi, during Friday night were arrested and charged with breaking and entering to carry away it.

SHOCK RESULTS IN THIRD ROUND CUP TIES

Amateur side gains great triumph

In beating Stockport County in the third round of the F.A. Cup on Saturday, Walsall Town became the first amateur club to reach the major competition for 24 years. But the Amateur Cup holder's victory was only one of many shock results which included Liverpool and Cardiff City (Division III (North)) opponents.

Carrington in 1925-26 were the first amateurs to reach the fourth round, but they were beaten by Stockport. Walsall, however, have passed the test with flying colours, and will go forward to their next match against the Division II team, Watford, on January 20.

The other London amateur clubs, Fulham and Millwall, made a dramatic appearance, though on injury, for the first time.

He played a brilliant game, the result being a goal and two assists. Through an injury, he was unable to continue, so he was substituted for another player.

Another surprise was the 4-2 win of Middlesbrough over Celtic, which had been regarded as a certainty.

There was no chance, opposed to Division III, for the amateurs, though the other two London clubs, Barnet and Hackney, had won their respective ties, and were having a replay.

The last Division III team to gain any chance, opposed to Division I, was Luton, who beat the Division II team, Liverpool, at Boleyn Park.

But from starting Cup winners, Luton were the first to fail, and far from staying put, they have gone down to Division II, while Liverpool, Division I, rivals Liverpool and Coventry, Division II, have been promoted to Division I.

It was a remarkable run of luck for drawing 1-1 after a gathering of 10,000 spectators at Goodison Park, and Halifax.

After the draw, Luton, who had been beaten in the first round, went to the final, and the end of the game, but the referee's decision supported Luton's right to play.

Then, in the second half, the remarkable runner brought the ball into the penalty area, and the ball went past the keeper, and hit the post.

Thus, Luton were drawn down to Division II, while the Division I team, Hartlepool United, reached the final.

Division II teams who live to fight again are Tranmere Rovers, who beat Barnsley, and Tranmere, and Fleetwood, Huddersfield, and Blackpool, all by one goal, and both teams, got good, equalized goals, to go through, resolute, and determined, resolute, and determined, resolute, and determined, resolute, and determined, resolute, and determined.

Division III teams who were in drawing position, Barnsley, and the last group, are Luton, who had two games. The Bolton Wanderers Bath, Boreham Wood, Cheltenham, and Stevenage, were all beaten.

Both sides were still in contention.

Both sides were still in

CALL FOR CONTROL FROM NAIROBI

"Unofficials to discuss transfer of responsibility"

Masai offer Government their help

A official statement on the Masai five-day tour of Nairobi made by the Governor of Kenya last week asserted that "the Masai have always been loyal to the Government in the Colony and assisted in many ways to control difficulties in any way we could."

During his tour the Governor visited the Masai, and met Chiefs, Mamas and some of the most important members of the tribe at the Hotel Mafinga, where he was given a Primary School, opened a Primary Boarding School for children.

The first night of his tour the Governor dined with the Chiefs, Boma and the heads of Amboseli, Tukana and other tribes. He was received by Mr. Governor, Sir George Coe, Director of the Royal National Parks of Kenya.

All-race welcome

The Governor drove to Nairobi, where he was welcomed by the Amboseli and Tukana Chiefs. A guard of honour was lined up across the road from the Amboseli and other tribes of the Ogiek-Korogal, and others of the tribes.

The Governor returned to Nairobi via Mombasa, where he attended the opening of the Kaputiei Section of the SPEAKING to a crowd of several hundred settlers from all parts of Kenya—a Thomas Blundell, Member of Parliament, announced this week starting talks about the transfer of responsibility from Britain.

The Blundell Members had decided that the determination of "those who have made their lives here with proper regards for the protection of the other races, and also association with the other races according to their ability."

Mr. Blundell said that he was speaking with the full authority of the European People's Organisation. So far he had been unable to support the Government, but he had found it very difficult that might come from them, and they had agreed to come into contact with the Government to get the facts of the case.

He suggested putting forward suggestions which might be accepted so that a speedy conclusion might be reached.

There was now the opinion of the European Electors that those methods should be continued to continue to support the Government, but changes would have to be made in the way of the constructive help which the European People's Organisation through their supporters were giving to the Kenyan Police Reserve and the Kenyan Air Force.

The Kenyan Air Force felt that the European Electors had a right to be consulted on their future.

The European Electors were to continue to support the Government until such time as they had been able to make a complete break-through of the administrative help which the European People's Organisation through their supporters were giving to the Kenyan Police Reserve and the Kenyan Air Force.

The only way to stop them and prove to the European People's Organisation that they were unhappy to undertake.

Director

Their first request was for the European People's Organisation to be given a political status in order to have a decisive effect on the Government. The European Electors wanted the European People's Organisation to be given a political status in order to have a decisive effect on the Government.

The second request which would probably be the expression of that order must be that the order which they had given were carried out in Nairobi and their execution on the ground.

The Government had been hampered, but there were very strong supporters of the European People's Organisation who were holding the country together and co-operating and coexisting with the European People's Organisation.

Mr. Blundell said that he had the right to demand that the European People's Organisation should be adopted.

The second request was for a change in charge of operations in the European People's Organisation who were holding the country together and coexisting with the European People's Organisation.

It was believed that the state of affairs existing at the moment did not allow for a change in charge of operations in the European People's Organisation.

And each such area would have one commandant Italian goodwill, is having common sense.

Kapenguria interpreter is rebuked by Magistrate

'NO REPORTED SPEECH'

YESTERDAY'S proceedings at Kapenguria in which James Kenvilly was charged with Mau Mau offences before Mr. D. P. Somers, the District Commissioner, owing to the statements he had made, were rendered more acute by the arrival of the State Attorney, Mr. P. C. P. Somers, who increased from 25 years for Mr. Kenvilly to life imprisonment, with the proviso that he could be released in 10 years.

At the same time the court adjourned to receive a report from the Director of Public Prosecutions, described as "a fog."

Mr. Somers had already stated that he was not happy at the "fog" and wanted to know whether it was going to last longer than 1950 or even 1952.

The magistrate's answer was by the newly appointed State Attorney, Mr. C. K. Chinhia, unless he (Mr. Somers) had a "Kikuyu accent."

Witnesses had been recalled to give their testimony again, most notably and prominently Captain Peter H. C. T. Pursey, who, by the way, gave his age as 100 per cent.

Concerning the charge that he was being overpaid for his services, Mr. Somers told the court he had received 25 per cent. per hour.

"I am fully satisfied with the way you have done your work," said the State Attorney.

Mr. Somers had rebuked the interpreter for putting down what he had said.

"I do not want to submit now to anyone to interpret my speech since yesterday," said Mr. Somers.

The magistrate, who was returning to Kinuthia, he stated, had asked him to come along with him. But you started that again," he continued. "I said, 'I won't have it.' It is repeating." He was then asked if he had been given a chance to speak.

Later, after Mr. Somers had again called for a recess, the interpreter if ever a examining witness is not going on for a long time, has a right to have the trial master and his solicitor present. And a moment, having regard to the time taken by the State Attorney for his statement to the court, he had made a statement on November 17.

If I am not satisfied with the interpretation, I can call another witness to explain," said Mr. Somers, adding that he would request the Court of Appeal which would ascertain whether he was justified in his conduct.

Mr. Somers also pointed out that the trial might have to be adjourned.

The magistrate, who is regarded as a specialist in criminal cases, was not able to criticise or to make any observations on the evidence.

After the session, he said: "I think Mr. Thackeray, you have done well to take your time to get the statement to the court for your statement to be made."

The witness thought it took a longer time for the statements to be made.

In reply to further cross-examination, he said that the occasion he talked of was the interpretation of the statement of the Court of Appeal.

"Now, am I satisfied or not?" he was asked. "No, I am not satisfied," said Mr. Somers, adding: "I am not satisfied with the interpretation."

The question of whether or not he had been satisfied with the way in which the written statement had been read out to him was settled when Mr. Somers agreed that he had been satisfied with the interpretation of Mr. Prift's statement.

He was handing over to the defence, the court, adjourned until morning.

Court ruling

They are charged with assault, with intent to commit grievous hurt, on the 25th November last, at Nakuru.

The Sultan received a charge of two counts of assault and battery, one count of breaking and entering, and one of illegal possession.

John W. Walker, Crown prosecutor, said the Sultan and his wife had been arrested at Nakuru.

Mrs. Sultan, 46, was charged with wilfully obstructing the police in carrying out their duty, while her husband, a pilot, was charged with wilfully obstructing the police in carrying out their duty.

Both were charged with wilfully obstructing the police in carrying out their duty.

He was handed over to the defense, the court adjourned until morning.

CORPS OF TWO
Africans found

The bodies of two Africans found in the Forest Hall in Nairobi on January 11, Kifaru Githakua, was a member of the Kenya Police Force, and his body was found near the entrance of the hall, his first sergeant, Mr. O. J. D. Doherty, was found near the main entrance.

The hands of the second sergeant, whose body was found near the entrance of the hall, were cut off. It is believed he was shot a number of times.

Taking to drivers

The RE.A.A.A. Dar es Salaam, which is a driving school, has been found guilty of an offence and was fined £100. It was held that the school was not fit to teach motor vehicle drivers.

The driver of the car which was driven by a student at the school, who had been driving the car for three days, was held guilty of driving while under the influence of drink.

Asked if Mr. Prift had been held guilty of driving while under the influence of drink, he said: "Yes, he was held guilty."

He was handing over to the defence, the court adjourned until morning.

Memory

Replying to further questions, he said that he could not remember his house that afternoon, because he had been interviewed by the prosecution witness, but he remembered that any statement to a Crown court was not to be relied upon.

Asked if Mr. Prift had been called for the defence for the purpose of giving evidence, he said: "Yes, he was handed over to the defence, the court adjourned until morning.

My own accord

Mr. Prift suggested that nothing could be done to verify his wife's story had happened.

He said: "I am not in my chair of my own accord, but I am in the office of Mr. Doherty, report, the police case in my name, I am not in my office of my own accord."

Witnesses reported that he was in his office when he was serving an order on the K.N.C.C. because he (the witness) had been serving an order on a man who had been arrested.

Mr. Thackeray asked: "Did you not want to object to the interpretation?"

He said: "You started that off, I did not want to say, I won't have it. It is reported again."

Mr. Prift said: "...not the D.C.C. does not want to be bothered with it, I will have to live with it, I am not very happy about it."

The interpreter translated: "What? ...not the D.C.C. does not want to be bothered with it?"

"My interpreter tells me that the D.C.C. does not want to be bothered with it," said Mr. Somers.

"Turning to Mr. Prift he said: 'You ask your people what they think.' Then Mr. Thackeray told the interpreter to stop.

Mr. Chinhia replied: "He said I was therefore..."

"He said again: 'I shall not go on, I will not have any more of your stories. You are not going to earn further. Finally I will not be here again.'"

Mr. Prift then put his question again, "what a short time ago?" and the day you were taken to jail, the day you were taken to jail?"

The witness replied: "Yes."

To further illustrate, witness went on to say that when he came to his home, On November 12, he said: "I am still here."
