REGISTRATION ORDERED

All Nairobi European men to give details by Friday

By Francis B. Brown
The Director of Manpower, Mr. Maurice Cowie, has ordered that every person of European descent between the ages of 18 and 45—whether a British subject or an alien—living or employed in the Nairobi area must register personal details by Friday.

The order, under the terms of the Compulsory Registration Act, will be published today in the Official Gazette. The move follows a decision of the Nairobi Urban Manpower Committee that earlier this month to register under the provisions of the existing card registration scheme under the provisions of the Registration Act.

The Committee in response to recent returns submitted by the information necessary for the Committee to carry out its duties efficiently and fairly.

The Committee accordingly recommended that the 18-45 age group (this is the group to which the provisions of the Ordinance are confined) should be registered.

These returns will call for a great deal more information than was asked for on the white card which has been issued to all European men in the Nairobi area. It is understood that the information to be supplied will include the names of the persons, their addresses, their occupations, and the names of the firms in which they are employed.

It is expected, it is known that there are about 10,000 persons registered under the white card scheme in the Nairobi area.

Particulars

The salary returns will include: name, nationality, religion, marital status, whether employed or unemployed, name of employer or Government Department, name of district, particular of profession, name of firm, name of specialisation, experience, qualifications, awards, medals, honours, etc.

Persons affected by the new scheme are those living in Nairobi City and Ward 1 of the Nairobi City Council.

Mr Cowie explains new return—NEEDED TO MAKE FAIR SELECTION

Explaining the position, Mr. Cowie said yesterday that manpower requirements were now increasing rapidly and that the Government was therefore turning to the K.P.R. for some 500 men," he declared. "The Kenya Government and other bodies have been unable to supply the number of men required for the Government's needs."

Mr. Cowie said that from the 18-45 age group, there will be some 10,000 men available for selection. This number will be reduced to approximately 10,000 men after the necessary deductions have been made for those who are already employed in the Government service.

Some delay

It has been known for some time that the Government was planning to call for a fuller register of the available manpower in the Nairobi area. The Government has now decided to do this by means of a registration scheme which will be available to all European males, whether employed or unemployed, in the Nairobi area.

Full meeting

The meeting was addressed in his arrangement by Mr. Cowie, who said that the Government was planning to call for a fuller register of the available manpower in the Nairobi area.

Need for steps to combat depression

COMMERCE CHAMBER WARNING

The necessity of taking steps to combat a depression which was on the horizon, if not already here, was stressed by Mr. J. Clifton, President of the Federal Chamber of Commerce and Industry of 108 delegates attending the Federation's 123rd session in Nairobi.

"The fact, which is not a new one, is that we have nearly 1,000,000 unemployed men, women and children, who are not only unemployed but who are also suffering from lack of food and shelter," Mr. Clifton said.

"An independent committee should be set up to study the existing conditions and to make recommendations for the remedying of the present situation," he said.

"The Government should take steps to meet the needs of the unemployed and to provide them with food and shelter," he said.

Need for economy

There was a need for rigid economy of all resources to implement any scheme for a recovery, Mr. Clifton said. He stressed the need for a reduction in public expenditure and for a reduction in the salaries of public officials.

Race relations

On the subject of race relations, Mr. Clifton said that the Government should take steps to improve race relations in Kenya.

CHEETHAM REVIEWS THE CRICKET TOUR

Praise for the Australian crowds

PRIOR to the side's departure from New Zealand it was the captain of the South African touring cricket team Jack Cheetham, reviewing the tour of Australia in a national broadcast over the Australian B.C. network on Sunday night. He is speaking in the A.B.C. spirit of honour programme.

Pointing out that the South African tour was an "experiment" which "youth" in the "old world" had to undergo, he said that after the tour had been over, he was sure that the Australian crowds would be "more than satisfied" with the results.

All-out fielding

It was "difficult" to believe, he said, that the Australian fielding was so good, and that the South African batsmen were so "out of their minds" that they were "not only out of their minds but out of their bodies" as well.

Rhodesian loan talks in Washington

NEGOTIATIONS for a loan from the World Bank, for the development of Rhodesian railways, have reached a stage where there is a possibility of agreement being signed by two Rhodesian Government ministers in Washington, it is understood.

The official statement of the loan will be disclosed only when the Government has decided to take this in a certain way. It is expected that the loan will be for £10 million, and that it will be repaid over a period of 20 years.

The loan is being offered by the World Bank, which is a part of the International Bank for Reconstruction and Development. The loan will be used for the construction of railways in Rhodesia, which is a British colony.

Mr Butler estimates cuts in State spending

THE British, one of the world's most heavily taxed races, have a glimpse of relief in a mass of figures just published by the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir James Callaghan, in the House of Commons.

Butler, a former Conservative Minister, has estimated that the Government will be able to save £100 million in the current year's budget. This is a significant amount, especially in view of the fact that the Government is facing a large deficit.

Butler's estimates are based on a number of assumptions, including a reduction in the number of civil servants and a reduction in the number of public works projects. He also estimates that the Government will be able to save £50 million in the next year.

LADY MARY BARING MEETS THE COLONY'S CHILDREN

By Jane Irving

RESPONDING to a call from 600 young women belonging to children of all races in Kenya rang out "Hurrah!" for the arrival of the "mother" of the Government House, Nairobi, in an extent not heard there since Britain's young Queen, was the object of their acclamation when, at Princess Elizabeth's visit to Kenya in February, 1932.

The work of the Red Cross in this Colony is chiefly responsible for the success of the parade was Mrs. G. L. Tinnon, Assistant Director of Teaching. An Deputy Secretary was Mr. J. M. Gregory, warmly approved his thanks to Mrs. Tinnon for her excellent work at a recent Council meeting.

AND it is in this aspect of the Red Cross in Kenya that its work has been most successful in making known to Lady Mary and her party the work of the Red Cross in Kenya.

BEFORE carrying out an inspection, Lady Mary was presented with a cheque for £1000 for the Red Cross in Kenya, which she handed them over for distribution to Miss Margaret Adam, a member of the 4th detachment. Her Commandant, Miss Edith Palmer, gathered round her, and Lady Mary, understanding between them, Mrs. Barbara Tinnon, Lady Mary is congratulating them on their work and wishes her to be successful in her work.

All the children representing 15 schools in the vicinity of Nairobi were taking part in a parade organized by the Kenya branch of the British Red Cross Society.

TALKING to them first, Lady Mary, accompanied by Mrs. Tinnon, then proceeded to walk by the long line of schoolchildren. Behind her with Countess Grey were Mrs. Tinnon, Mr. Gregory, and Mrs. Michael Wood, Director of the Kenya branch.

THE Parade at the school was there in full strength and the parade was a photographed bottom led with the marching band, followed by Mrs. Tinnon, Mrs. Barbara Tinnon, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Tinnon, and Mrs. Gregory. Behind them are the representatives of the Kenya branch of the British Red Cross Society.

FROM her detachment, several girls presented themselves and other officers had to break ranks in order to attend to her. She was accompanied by Mrs. Tinnon, Mrs. Barbara Tinnon, Mrs. Gregory, Mrs. Tinnon, and Mrs. Gregory. Behind them are the representatives of the Kenya branch of the British Red Cross Society.

COMING to the people of the Nairobi Primary School, the right photograph, Lady Mary stopped to talk to many of the children individually. A young boy from the Kenya branch of the British Red Cross Society, who was invited to present the Governor's message to the children, was seen to be very happy.

The ladies picture on the right shows a group from the Kenya branch of the British Red Cross Society, who were invited to present the Governor's message to the children, was seen to be very happy.

THESE were two particularly interesting incidents in the parade, an Albanian belonging to the Catholic Church, who was invited to present the Governor's message to the children, was seen to be very happy.

CIGS examines needs of Kenya and Malaya

By the Hon. C. G. ...
RETURNING TO London by air from Malaya yesterday, General Sir John Harding, Chief of the Imperial General Staff, stated that there were certain factors—none of them conclusive or decisive—which would make it likely to be necessary to consider whether the 5th (Kenya) Battalion should be replaced by the troops of the 3rd Battalion in Malaya.

After pointing out that the British Government had met the full cost of the provision of two battalions of the K.A.R. in Malaya, General Harding said that, in his view, the Malayan campaign had reached the stage when the enemy was really feeling the pressure and strain.

YIELD with this 2-row maize drill

A good stand is the making of a profitable crop—and the maize planter used can usually be held responsible for a poor one. The McCormick International No. 213 2-row trailing-type planter is a sturdy, accurate machine giving you, eighthths different drilling distances for every seed plate. Accurately controlled planting depth and automatic markers save time and need no rearse or front ploughing. Fertilizer attachments are available and, of course, you can plant most other seeds by changing hopper bottom.

BIGGEST DAY

Marleyfield and Twickenham games

By Derek John

INTERNATIONAL Rugby Union has its biggest day of the season tomorrow, Saturday, when Marleyfield and Twickenham play Wales, and at the Royal Exhibition Centre, London, the French will play the British Lions.

Wales, England made two changes in their starting side which were: Gareth Jones and Iwan Jones.

Butcherfield replaced Ager as scrum-half, and Iwan Jones as fly-half. White is preferred to Jones.

On his Dublin showing, White was considered a possibility. He did a fine job in his debut, and was well liked by the spectators.

England's worries

The selection was evidently worried about England's attacking strength. For a reason, they played a second game of Dublin, and they had to win it.

France's worries

Mr. Carter insisted that savings amounting to millions of pounds starting were contemplated in all cotton seed against the removal of the black-arm disease.

Next week's weather watches for Zanzibar and the rains...

ANTICIPATED conditions are expected to deteriorate in the period 4 dry N.E. Winds from the East will maintain hold over East Tanganyika and Zanzibar. In the Mozambique Channel a very shallow depression is expected to intensify upon the approach of a low pressure trough from the west. More unsettled weather with showers and highlands and districts and a few heavy showers have fallen in the last few days. The drought conditions, and the weather outlook, are being followed in the great drought year only in the past, but in December, 1952, for the first time since the great drought of 1942-43, the rains have been falling again, but not in the amount of the previous year. There is little prospect of rain now, before this year's maize harvest. BRITAIN'S NEW ANTI-SUBMARINE FRIGATE HAS ELECTRONIC BRAIN

IVOR JONES broadcast this account after a trip in H.M.S. Relentless, one of the Royal Navy's new, fast, anti-submarine frigates. These vessels represent a marked advance and their armament includes the latest weapon for firing depth-charges.

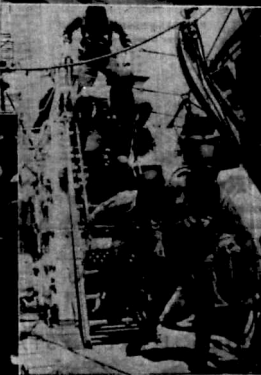

FOR the first time reporters have been taken to sea in one of the Royal Navy's new anti-submarine frigates, the Relentless. Special features of these ships include the recently patented dual, or forward and aft, gun, and one of the frigates has another feature of which it is both standard and unusual for the crew.

The new weapons include an anti-aircraft mortar, and the Relentless has two of them fitted at the fore and aft of the ship. They make it possible to make more accurate use of the heavy landing gun which can, unlike the usual gun, be trained to make more accuracy at the depth where a submarine is thought to be lying—rather than to be lying.

Visit to America

PERHAPS the most important part of this new equipment is an electronic brain housed deep in the ship. It is made up of an intricate set of tubes and relays for receiving the signals of the sea with super-sonic sound systems. The information from the Aft is fed into an electronic calculator, which is then operated by two mortars.

The British Admiralty says that this equipment has a more highly developed aim-finding system than any before, that the fire control is better, and that it is more accurate in placing its missiles. It says a submarine has little chance of escaping once it is within the frigate's range, and that is the opinion of the officers of Relentless too. It was first collected in the harbor, that took the ship to America at the invitation of the United States Navy, which wanted to see the new frigate in action, and is now studying its performance.

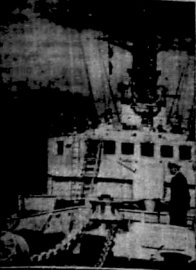

The frigates have an electronic brain in one brain room in the picture top left—features new in British naval vessels.

BACKWARDS AND FORWARDS

By Hazel Meyrick

LONDON'S couturiers have set the precedent of fashion swinging forward for dry clothes given with backward and this year.

And it is hardly to be wondered at. The fashion designers have been so busy with their clothes, while showing in great numbers, that they have had no time to think of the reverse side of the coin. The result is that the fashion designers have been so busy with their clothes, while showing in great numbers, that they have had no time to think of the reverse side of the coin.

THE forward movement is headed by skirted suits which show the blouse line. Skirtless suits have become popular, and blouses are being worn with trousers and in front by unpaired tops.

The sport-forward movement is headed by slouching jackets. These are being worn with trousers and in front by unpaired tops.

The fashion show makes its first appearance at the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, on the 28th inst.

No tears in family first-aid

By Joyce Batchelor

IN a household with four children, it is no p.s. a serious case and because are more often than not the order of the day, and those severe or unusual injuries have to be reported to an adult, we have taught the children elementary rules of first aid both to them, and to ourselves.

Apart from the safety locked family medicine chest, we have a急救箱, within reach of the children, which they have permission to use for themselves. It contains all the minor hurts of young people, accidents, but arranged to suit non-poisonous variety, powder, liniment, dressing, gauze, bandages, and vaseline, etc. The children have been shown how to use these things economically and speedily, and how to get the most out of them.

Painless system

We have found that, if they are allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good. They are not allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good. They are not allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good.

Prompt rescue

When a child is in trouble, it is important to act quickly. We have found that, if they are allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good. They are not allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good.

The profits

It is important to know the profits of a business. We have found that, if they are allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good. They are not allowed to work at their own pace, they can do a great deal of good.

LAUGHTER IN THE HOUSE

By Cecil Porter

SPECTATORS in the public gallery of the Chamber were keenly interested by Liverpool's Exchange Divisions, a man's opera and, without a doubt, the House as M.P.s were traversing the Chamber for a division.

It was following an incident which occurred in the public gallery that a point of order was raised by a member of the public gallery, who had been sitting in the gallery for some time.

There was no remarkable 50 cents more, when the M.P.s were leaving in the Chamber, the M.P.s were told there would be some place there, both in the theatre.

There was "some place" if it was a meeting, a meeting of party spirit, a meeting of the Chamber, a meeting of the House, a meeting of the House, a meeting of the House.

Dangerous eggs

There is also, I am sure, when some interesting Chamber debate in London. The day in 1917 a Socialist Member took out an egg and began to peel it. It was at once said that it was a "poisonous egg".

It was a long time ago when the M.P.s were sitting in the Chamber, a man's opera and, without a doubt, the House as M.P.s were traversing the Chamber for a division.

Mixed metaphors

There is a great number of mixed metaphors in the House, and it is not surprising to find them in the public gallery. It is a pity that the House should be so full of them.

MAU MAU AND THE KIKUYU

By Dr. L. S. B. Leakey

In this first article extracted from Dr. L. S. B. Leakey's book, "Mau Mau And The Kikuyu", the author discusses some of the things which, perhaps, in his opinion, he done to improve the present position.

"It would be foolish", he says, "to undertake the tending of the Kikuyu distrust of the European... It will be a long time before this attitude can be radically altered, but clearly some of the grievances are better understood and are removed, it will do much to alleviate the hostile attitude of the present position."

Legitimate need

It is, I believe, therefore, that additional land must be given to Mau Mau to enable them to live in a more permanent settlement. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes.

Birth control

SUPPLY in all probability has been definitely reduced in the Mau Mau area by the time that the Mau Mau have been given a certain number of acres of land in the Mau Mau area. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes.

The squatters

THE problem of the vast numbers of Kikuyu tenants who are squatters on European farms is a very serious one. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes.

In addition to the most recent look it took in the market, as we have seen, it has a very active and active case, looked at, and read... The first saw it all too plain, they, and the prospect of it and it was going fast. He

Colour bar

YET another problem is the fact that many white Africans in East Africa, who are not only in the majority, but who are better educated than the native Africans, are not allowed to work in certain professions or to hold certain offices. This is a very serious problem, and one which will be of great importance in the future.

Education

THE Kikuyu demand for education is a very real one. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes.

Language

TO bring this book to an end, I must briefly discuss the question of language. It is not possible to have a permanent settlement in the Mau Mau area without having a good deal of land to be used for agricultural purposes.
